We need people to chair events during the summer and fall. Mother's Day and Father's Day are usually a lunch. The Fourth of July could be a picnic at the bay. In August, the dinner is an international potluck so it only entails putting out the dishes people bring. It is a good time to "get your feet wet ". You can be creative and meet new people.

NOBODY PAYS MORE

People get their eyes tested and their teeth checked on a regular basis,

Why Not Look After Your Ears Too?

Hearing changes often do not result in an overall loss of volume. Some sounds remain as audible as they always were, yet others become harder to hear, and some conversations require more attentiveness. You might notice that words just don't sound clear.

If you suspect that your hearing may be changing, it's up to you to be alert to the signs and have your hearing tested by a qualified professional.

St. Patrick's Day Dinner and Dance

Wendy Duplex

Thank you to everyone who came out to the party. Brittany Mone' was wonderful. We have her booked for New Year's Eve in 2024 (she was busy this year 2023). Thank you to Angie Stroh for the delicious food and thank you to Warren Duplex, Greg Schmidt, and Robert Crawford for blowing up all the balloons. Also thank you to everyone who helped cleanup afterwards.

Spring Fling Dance

Rob Lloyd

The dance on April 8 was exactly what we had hoped for; great music, lots of dancing, fun and laughter! Thanks to Susan Grippin, Cindi/Mike Miller, Angie Stroh, and Greg Schmidt for planning, setup, serving and cleanup. Others helped with cleanup, and we certainly appreciate it too!

Sharing Short Stories

This month I would like to share a little about Rita Williams A sweetheart of a lady who lived on Rickshaw Dr. Lucky us!

Even though we lived on the same street, she and I did not socialize very much, although she was always super friendly when we met. What a beautiful smile. Even her dog Pebbles, her best friend, was a wiggly friendly companion, with a 'don't forget about me' smile of her own.

Rita was kind and helpful to so many of our residents and willing to lend whatever she had to help them.

One of her closer friends told me Rita was so much fun, and game to participate in spur of the moment get-togethers. Sometimes, just for a ride to nowhere. As I can testify!

Some of us stopped to chat one afternoon when a friend went by in a golf cart and Rita said she had to run as she and a group of friends were getting together at the Bayfront. Off she and Pebbles went to enjoy the evening of fun.

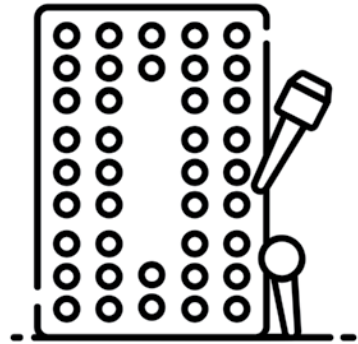

If you ever stopped at the Bayfront and visited with them, you had to admit they were a lovely group, pets included! Laughter and fun were the dominant themes. If you needed a lift in your spirit, you just needed to stay a moment. The fun was contagious.

You didn't have to know her very long to feel her kindness and warmth.

There is a quote, it says: "The joy of the journey is best measured by the friends, not the miles." One so special will remain in our hearts. God bless you dear friend.

Sharing from the Clearwater City Council newsletter

Mega Burrito is an authentic Mexican restaurant tucked in the East Gateway of Clearwater at 1478 Gulf to Bay Blvd. This hidden gem, owned by Margarito Perez has been part of the East Gateway for over 25 years. Margarito and members of his family cook up chimichangas, taco salads, enchiladas, and, of course, burritos for locals as well as visitors from afar.

With the recent construction on the East Gateway, they have seen a drop in business. Although the road construction workers keep him busy at lunch time, he's anxious to get back to normal as construction nears completion. If you're looking for tasty, authentic Mexican fare, with generous portions and reasonable prices, stop by.

Also sharing from the Clearwater City Council newsletter

Clearwater has the most beautiful parks! When you count our 27 recreation facilities, Clearwater has over 1,874 acres of green space. That's more than any other Florida city of similar population.

Some parks are small "pocket parks" located in neighborhoods that residents can easily walk to, and others, like Moccasin Lake, or Crest Lake, are beautiful destination parks, which offer acres and acres of walking paths, nature viewing, and family recreation options.

Recently, a few Clearwater residents gave me a tour of "their" park. I explored the newly renovated Del Oro Park with Kristen Langley. The tennis courts and basketball courts are brand new. So too, is the children's playground, designed with input from neighborhood kids. It has a zip line, a two-story kid's climbing house, a climbing structure, a pavilion, and a new tilted twin spin. Wow! I gave it a try and it made quite an impression. If I were seven years old, I'd love it.

Live Steel Studio artist Don Gialanella with assistance from Alisha Prather used stainless-steel to create five different species that are native to our area. On display are a spider, a fish, a moorhen, a dragonfly, and a frog. You can learn more about Live Steel Studio here: DonSculpture.com.

You can also read more about our parks and view mini-park tour videos (type "parks" in the search bar) at colorfulclearwater.com.

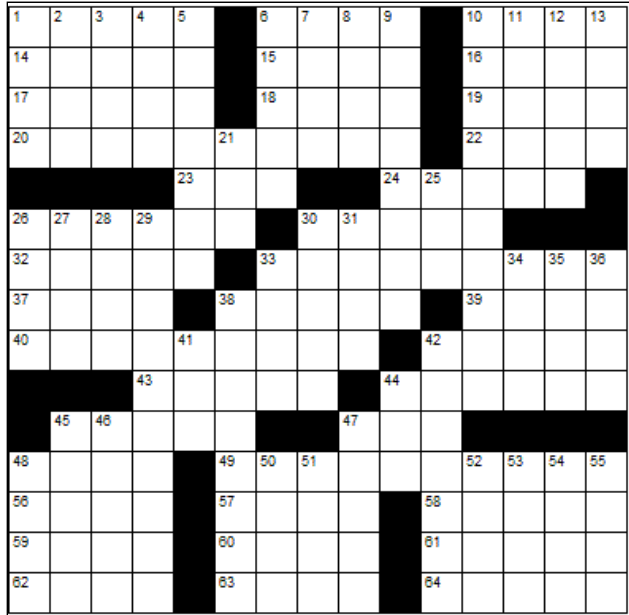

Finally, check out our city webpage on our extensive parks and recreation amenities. [Clearwater Parks \(myclearwaterparks.com\)](http://Clearwater Parks (myclearwaterparks.com))

Bringing out the best in others — naturally

If you've ever had anyone appreciate you for your natural abilities, you'll appreciate the story of the flower seed principle.

Try to think of every person as a flower seed: He or she already has the disposition to become something amazing and beautiful. But each seed will become only a certain kind of flower.

In the workplace, you overhear a manager say—"I think that sunflower over there has some potential, and I think with a little training he could become a really great long-stemmed rose."

The truth is that a sunflower seed is only going to produce a sunflower—and how beautiful the flower becomes often depends on how it is nurtured.

But in the workplace what often happens is someone in charge brings in some information to try and teach the sunflower how to try and become a long stemmed rose. The sunflower is encouraged to have lunch with and network with the roses, in the hope that one day, he too can become one of them. Before the sunflower goes to bed each night, his boss tells him to say over and over to himself, "I am a beautiful long stemmed rose."

And so do you know what the sunflower becomes.

He does not become a rose—certainly not. No. He becomes the world's most insecure sunflower. Because no one has ever noticed his own innate beauty and the gifts he has for the world. Because for a long time everyone has been telling him it's not OK for him to be who he is.

The best thing anyone can do for someone else is to try and find out what that person's nature is. And then once you find out what that person's nature is you ask yourself, "What can I do to cultivate the person's natural talents and abilities?"

A true leader would say: "Here's a seminar on how a bunch of beautiful sunflowers got together and did something wonderful. Here's a place where you can go and network with other sunflowers."

That is how you help someone tap their true potential, which is what good leaders do. First you find out what kind of seed the people already have inside and then you help them grow into what they were naturally meant to be.

— adapted from Heart at Work, by Jack Canfield and Jacqueline Miller

On middle age

Middle age is the time when a man is always thinking that in a week or two he will feel as good as ever.

— Ogden Nash

On death

Death is one of the few things that can be done as easily lying down. The difference between sex and death is that with death you can do it alone and no one is going to make fun of you.

— Woody Allen
