Check with Julie in the office for their numbers.

Sunshine Club

Sherry Lot 239	Sympathy for the loss of her sister
Mikey Lot 235	Get Well
Neal Lot 307	Get Well
David Lot 213	Get Well
Family of Larry Lot 94	Sympathy

My sincere sympathy and condolences go to Sherry's sister and to Larry he had many friends in the park and will be missed by a lot of residents. He always had a smile on his face.

Please say prayers for Neil.

I would like to thank Sherry for the cards she donated.

Respectfully Yours,
Lisa Heim Lot 234

From the HOA President:

Elaine Manners and Dan Gregory attended a FMHOA meeting at a meet and greet of the New HMHOA area rep. Also, law enforcement reps with info on various programs to help with personal issues for residents. Insurance reps presented different options of insurance. Also, classes, seminars, event planning, health, and wellness screenings to park members. All these services are available through the CFCSPG (Central Florida Community Services Partnering Group).

Most important point is residents' membership fees. Only $5 a year. Great benefits for park members. With out membership fees these services will diminish. There are meeting each month at different parks. All are invited to attend.

Butch

We have a sign-up sheet in the club house to add your name and lot number to the birthday list so we can celebrate you too!

May Birthstones Emerald and Agate.

Emerald, a symbol of rebirth, is believed to grant the owner foresight, good fortune, and youth. Emerald, derived from the word “smaragdus,” means, quite literally, “green” in Greek.

Agate is a grounding stone that brings the emotional, physical, and mental into balance. Being grounded means we are well connected with the earth. That helps us remain calm, rational and make better decisions especially when surrounded by chaos.

Bringing out the best in others — naturally

If you've ever had anyone appreciate you for your natural abilities, you'll appreciate the story of the flower seed principle.

Try to think of every person as a flower seed: He or she already has the disposition to become something amazing and beautiful. But each seed will become only a certain kind of flower.

In the workplace, you overhear a manager say—"I think that sunflower over there has some potential, and I think with a little training he could become a really great long-stemmed rose."

The truth is that a sunflower seed is only going to produce a sunflower—and how beautiful the flower becomes often depends on how it is nurtured.

But in the workplace what often happens is someone in charge brings in some information to try and teach the sunflower how to try and become a long stemmed rose. The sunflower is encouraged to have lunch with and network with the roses, in the hope that one day, he too can become one of them. Before the sunflower goes to bed each night, his boss tells him to say over and over to himself, "I am a beautiful long stemmed rose."

And so do you know what the sunflower becomes.

He does not become a rose—certainly not. No. He becomes the world's most insecure sunflower. Because no one has ever noticed his own innate beauty and the gifts he has for the world. Because for a long time everyone has been telling him it's not OK for him to be who he is.

The best thing anyone can do for someone else is to try and find out what that person's nature is. And then once you find out what that person's nature is you ask yourself, "What can I do to cultivate the person's natural talents and abilities?"

A true leader would say: "Here's a seminar on how a bunch of beautiful sunflowers got together and did something wonderful. Here's a place where you can go and network with other sunflowers."

That is how you help someone tap their true potential, which is what good leaders do. First you find out what kind of seed the people already have inside and then you help them grow into what they were naturally meant to be.

— adapted from Heart at Work, by Jack Canfield and Jacqueline Miller

On middle age

Middle age is the time when a man is always thinking that in a week or two he will feel as good as ever.

— Ogden Nash

On death

Death is one of the few things that can be done as easily lying down. The difference between sex and death is that with death you can do it alone and no one is going to make fun of you.

Things not to say when you get pulled over

1. I can't reach my license unless you hold my beer.
2. Sorry, officer, I didn't realize my radar detector wasn't plugged in.
3. Aren't you the guy from the Village People?
4. Hey, you must've been doin' about 125 mph to keep up with me.
Good job!
5. Are you Andy or Barney?
6. I thought you had to be in relatively good physical condition to be a police officer.
7. You're not gonna check the trunk are you?
8. I pay your salary!
9. Gee, officer! That's terrific. The last officer only gave me a warning too!
10. Do you know why you pulled me over? OK, just so one of us does.
11. I was trying to keep up with traffic. Yes, I know there are no other cars around. That's how far ahead of me they are.
12. When the officer says "Gee, son...your eyes look red, have you been drinking?" You probably shouldn't respond with, "Gee officer your eyes looked glazed, have you been eating doughnuts?" —from cybersalt.org

A leadership odyssey

The story of Homer's Odyssey is about a king named Odysseus. He and his men spent 10 years fighting the Trojan War, and they won.

Then they spent another 10 years trying to get home. Along the way, Odysseus and his men stop at an island to get provisions. They meet people who sit around all day and eat the sweet fruit of the lotus trees.

The fruit is so delicious these lotus eaters spend all their time eating it. They stop caring about anything else.

Odysseus' men try the fruit and soon they are addicted too. They have no interest in going home.

They forget all about their goal.

Odysseus wants to get back home and he gets his men to get on the ship and leave.

Odysseus kept his eye on his vision and purpose.

He never forgot his goal.

On life

Someone told me life is a water wheel. It turns. The trick is to hold your nose when you're under and not get dizzy when you're up.
