HOA News

The HOA Board wants to thank you all for your support in our first HOA Flamingo Fun Raiser. Thank you to the residents and thank you to the Royalites for allowing us to have our drawing at their Luau event. We are already planning our next fundraising activity to be held in the fall. Because of the success of our fundraising efforts so far this year, the HOA has made the decision to fund the new Park Roy-ale Directories for everyone in the park this round. We hope you have returned the lime green contact sheet to ensure that you will be represented in this book-let!

It has been my pleasure to serve as the Editor of the Monthly Media for the past year. But, I am excited to announce that the new Editor is Debbie Bruner starting with the June edition. Debbie has been at the park for only a couple of months, but she is already serving the community in multiple ways. Please give her a warm welcome when you meet her!

At the April board meeting we added the Park Safety & Security committee and now have 4 active committees. Please consider offering your time and talents and participate on a committee.

The Royalites Social Club Report

The Royalite Social Club mission is to provide activities and entertainment to our community. This includes but not limited to dances, meals, games, and other social events. If you are interested in connecting with the Royalites, please contact Cathy Maringer at cmaringer@acegroup.cc with your email address. If you are on Facebook, please let her know your Facebook name so she can add you to the Park Royale Facebook Messenger group and the Royalite Events page.

Due to the quality of entertainment we want to bring to you and the higher cost of food, we have made a decision to raise the cost of our events to $15.00. We know you will truly enjoy all the new and exciting events we have planned for you next season!

We would also like to welcome a new Member at Large, Debbie Bruner, to the Royalite Social Club board.

People get their eyes tested and their teeth checked on a regular basis,

Why Not Look After Your Ears Too?

Hearing changes often do not result in an overall loss of volume. Some sounds remain as audible as they always were, yet others become harder to hear, and some conversations require more attentiveness. You might notice that words just don't sound clear.

If you suspect that your hearing may be changing, it's up to you to be alert to the signs and have your hearing tested by a qualified professional.

BOOK WATCHERS CLUB

The novel and movie for May is The Hunger Games. It is a 2008 dystopian novel by the American writer Suzanne Collins. It is written from the perspective of 16-year-old Katniss Everdeen, who lives in the future post-apocalyptic nation of Panem in North America. The Capitol, a highly advanced metropolis, exercises political control over the rest of the nation. The Hunger Games is an annual event in which one boy and one girl aged 12-18 from each of the twelve districts surrounding the Capitol are selected by lottery to compete in a televised battle royale to the death.

The book received critical acclaim from major reviewers and authors. It was praised for its plot and character development. In writing The Hunger Games, Collins drew upon Greek mythology, Roman gladiatorial games, and contemporary reality television for thematic content. The novel won many awards, and was named one of Publishers Weekly's "Best Books of the Year" in 2008.

The movie will be shown at 3:00, on Thursday May 20th the location is 66266 Oxford Rd. There are extra novels available if interested in reading the story, or if you would like to just try us out come by for the movie and discussion. There are always plenty of snacks and beverages!

FOR MANUFACTURED/MOBILE HOME OWNERS ON RENTED LOTS

Our accomplishments are numerous and include the creation of Florida Statute 723, "The Florida Mobile Home Act", which safeguards your rights as homeowners on rented lots in Florida.

Most recently we've successfully lobbied for the extension of The Mobile Home Tie-Down Program for 10 more years.

Veteran's Corner

by Anthony Suglia arsuglia@gmail.com

With Memorial Day weekend approaching next month, there is the question, what do I say to a friend or neighbor? Happy Memorial Day?

My understanding, the intention of Memorial Day is to honor friends and family that died while serving their country. It is often a solemn day of remembrance. Although our intentions may be well meaning, it may be insensitive to wish some-one a happy day if their grieving the loss of loved ones.

I often say “Enjoy your weekend, but please know that I will be taking a moment this weekend to honor those who served our nation and are no longer with us”

My personal understanding and belief is “ It is the Veteran, not the Preacher, who has given me the Freedom of Religion”.

“It is the Veteran, not the Reporter, who has given me, the freedom of the Press”.

“It is the Veteran, not the Poet, who has given me the freedom of Speech”.

“It is the Veteran, not the Protestor or Demonstrator, that has given me the free-dom to Assemble.”

“It is the Veteran, not the Attorney, who has given me the right to a fair trail”

“It is the Veteran, not the Politician, who has given me ,the right and privilege to Vote.

“It is the Veteran, who salutes Our Flag, who serves under the Flag, and whose coffin is draped by the flag”.

To the Veterans and their families, I humbly encourage you to enjoy your week-end, but please remember!

Things not to say when you get pulled over

1. I can't reach my license unless you hold my beer.
2. Sorry, officer, I didn't realize my radar detector wasn't plugged in.
3. Aren't you the guy from the Village People?
4. Hey, you must've been doin' about 125 mph to keep up with me.
Good job!
5. Are you Andy or Barney?
6. I thought you had to be in relatively good physical condition to be a police officer.
7. You're not gonna check the trunk are you?
8. I pay your salary!
9. Gee, officer! That's terrific. The last officer only gave me a warning too!
10. Do you know why you pulled me over? OK, just so one of us does.
11. I was trying to keep up with traffic. Yes, I know there are no other cars around. That's how far ahead of me they are.
12. When the officer says "Gee, son...your eyes look red, have you been drinking?" You probably shouldn't respond with, "Gee officer your eyes looked glazed, have you been eating doughnuts?" —from cybersalt.org

A leadership odyssey

The story of Homer's Odyssey is about a king named Odysseus. He and his men spent 10 years fighting the Trojan War, and they won.

Then they spent another 10 years trying to get home. Along the way, Odysseus and his men stop at an island to get provisions. They meet people who sit around all day and eat the sweet fruit of the lotus trees.

The fruit is so delicious these lotus eaters spend all their time eating it. They stop caring about anything else.

Odysseus' men try the fruit and soon they are addicted too. They have no interest in going home.

They forget all about their goal.

Odysseus wants to get back home and he gets his men to get on the ship and leave.

Odysseus kept his eye on his vision and purpose.

He never forgot his goal.

On life

Someone told me life is a water wheel. It turns. The trick is to hold your nose when you're under and not get dizzy when you're up.

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,
The Florida Anchor & Barrier Team
