Home Owners Association Update

Bob Campbell, President, 727-426-9200

The next Home Owners Association meeting will be Monday, May 8, 2023 at the Clubhouse. If you are new and/or haven't already paid your $10 dues, please come prepared to do so. Thank You.

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Karen Stancick, President, Lot 205, 610-349-7614

Hello neighbors! Spring is in full force and Summer is just around the corner. A drive or walk around Oakcrest is a treat at this time of the year, with everyone's trees, shrubs, and flowers blooming. The entrance and exit have been landscaped beautifully and are a nice welcome home.

A big thank you to everyone who has been coming to the monthly breakfast buffet. They have been a huge success and it is such fun seeing so many happy residents meeting neighbors and enjoying themselves. We hope to keep the served buffet going through June; and switch to a continental breakfast in July and August. Watch for more information in the near future.

We are hoping to find a new band for the holidays. Our previous Christmas entertainment is no longer 'a group'. If you have recommendations, please pass them along to the Activities committee, via the suggestion box, or give one of them a call. Your help and thoughts are always welcome, and your continued support is priceless.

The second annual Memorial Day picnic will take place at the Pavilion May 29, 1:00 p.m. Bring your own utensils, chairs, drinks, and a dish to share. Oh! And don't forget your bug spray.

Oakcrest-Acorn Residents Canadian Club

Oakcrest / Acorn-Neighborhood Watch

New chairperson needed

Activities Committee

Co-Chairs, Maureen Dunham Lot 60, 774-283-0991, Laurie Stone Lot 195, 585-233-0927
Roberta Zanol Lot 580, 724-986-4356

---

Spring is here and many of our snowbirds have already headed North. Wishing safe travels to all and know that we look forward to seeing you in the fall. We would like to welcome Maureen Dunham and Laurie Stone, who will be joining Roberta Zanol as co-chairs of the Activities Committee. Marianne Olsen needed to step down as Co-Chair for personal reasons, but will still be active on the committee.

We want to thank everyone who attended the April community breakfast. The next community-served buffet breakfast will be May 13, 2023.

Sorry, but the Kentucky Derby party will not be held this year. Mark your calendars for:

May 21, 2023 - movie night - movie TBA

May 29, 2023 Memorial Day Picnic/Potluck - bring your own utensils, drinks, chairs & bug spray

RESERVING THE CLUBHOUSE -personal use & Events

Kathy Meyers, 614-570 2772, Lot 15

---

I will be heading North May 8, 2023. Karen Stancick will be making reservations in my absence. Please call her until my return in late Fall. Thanks, Kathy

Reserving the Clubhouse is a three-step process:

1. Call Karen Stancick at 610-349-7614 to see if space is available when you want it (she will check with Presidents of HOA and Residents' Club to assure there is nothing scheduled on that date)
2. Pick up reservation form from Karen, once date is secured.
3. Take completed form and a $100 deposit (refundable if no damage) to the office

The Pavilion is used on a first come, first served basis. No forms or deposits required.

FYI—Most activities on the calendar are held at the Club House, unless otherwise indicated. We forget that there are always new residents coming into OakCrest, who may not be aware of this. If someone 'wanders' in around an event time, please welcome them and help make them feel comfortable and appreciated.

Due to the openness of our Club House, it is nearly impossible to schedule a private party on activity days. Please check your Messenger Calendar before you call Kathy or Karen to reserve space. Most importantly, know the date AND TIME of your event before you call. Thanks so much!

MEMORIAL DAY MEMORY

Kathy Meyers

Once heard it said that “Grief is love, with nowhere to go.” I thought about that for a very long time, after losing my late husband at the age of 53. For me, I think it was true. I didn’t know what to do with all the hugs and kisses and cuddles I was used to giving and getting with him. And then, my children found their spouses and started giving me grandchildren...one every year for five years in a row! It was wonderful, I have to tell you! Between running to their houses and hospitals and daycares, etc. I was so busy loving and hugging and kissing and cuddling all of them, I almost forgot that pang of loneliness that had been with me for four years after being widowed and before being grandmothered (I just made that word up)! Yet, every Memorial Day, I force myself to make some time to be alone and remember what it felt like to be newly widowed. It was hard. It was sad. It was lonely. In many ways, it was frightening. Regardless of which side of the issue you are on, I encourage you to be aware of those around you. Be there or don’t be there for them, whichever they need. Most importantly, recognize that Memorial Day, by nature, encourages us to remember those who are no longer with us. I suggest that we not only remember those who have passed on; but also remember those who were left behind. It is amazing what a phone call, a visit, a card sent by snail mail, can do to our state of mind. Being remembered is a joyous feeling. It is hard to open a card and not be smiling. Seeing the number of a friend from the past pop up on our phones is validation that we are important. It is just that simple. I hope this Memorial Day you will not only remember those you have lost; but will also remember those who may be struggling with their losses.

Memorial day

An alphabet for mom...

A is for ADULT: A person who has stopped growing at both ends and is now growing in the middle.

B is for BATHROOM: A room used by the entire family, believed by all except mom to be self-cleaning.

C is for COMMITTEE: As in decision by committee, which is how mom says something will be decided when she has already made up her mind how things are going to be.

D is for DATE: Infrequent outings with dad where mom can enjoy worrying about the kids in a different setting.

E is for EMPTY NEST: See “WISHFUL THINKING.”

F is for FABLE: A story told by a teenager arriving home after curfew.

G is for GUM: Adhesive for the hair.

H is for HINDSIGHT: What mom experiences from changing too many diapers.

I is for INFLATION: Cutting money in half without damaging the paper.

J is for JUNK: Dad’s stuff.

K is for KISS: Mom’s medicine.

L is for LEMONADE STAND: Complicated business venture where mom buys powdered mix, sugar, lemons, and paper cups, and sets up a table, chairs, pitchers and ice for kids who sit there for three to six minutes and net a profit of 15 cents.

M is for MAYBE: No.

N is for NONSENSE: What mom says your friends are full of.

O is for OVERSTUFFED RECLINER: Mom’s nickname for dad.

P is for PANIC: What a mother goes through when the darn wind-up swing stops.

Q is for QUIET: A state of household serenity, which occurs before the birth of the first child and occurs again after the last child has left for college.

R is for REFRIGERATOR: Combination art gallery and air-conditioner for the kitchen.

S is for SPOILED ROTTEN: What the kids become after as little as 15 minutes with grandma.

T is for TOWELS: See “FLOOR COVERINGS.”

U is for UNDERWEAR: An article of clothing, the cleanliness of which ensures the wearer will never have an accident.

V is for VACATION: Where you take the family to get away from it all, only to find it there, too.

W is for WALLS: Complete set of drawing paper for kids that comes with every room.

X is for XOXOXOXOXO: Mom salutation guaranteed to make the already embarrassing note in a kid’s lunch box even more mortifying.

Y is for “YIPPEE!”: What mothers shout the first day of school.

Z is for ZUCCHINI: Vegetable which can be baked, boiled, fried or steamed before kids refuse to eat it.

Bringing out the best in others — naturally

If you've ever had anyone appreciate you for your natural abilities, you'll appreciate the story of the flower seed principle.

Try to think of every person as a flower seed: He or she already has the disposition to become something amazing and beautiful. But each seed will become only a certain kind of flower.

In the workplace, you overhear a manager say—"I think that sunflower over there has some potential, and I think with a little training he could become a really great long-stemmed rose."

The truth is that a sunflower seed is only going to produce a sunflower—and how beautiful the flower becomes often depends on how it is nurtured.

But in the workplace what often happens is someone in charge brings in some information to try and teach the sunflower how to try and become a long stemmed rose. The sunflower is encouraged to have lunch with and network with the roses, in the hope that one day, he too can become one of them. Before the sunflower goes to bed each night, his boss tells him to say over and over to himself, "I am a beautiful long stemmed rose."

And so do you know what the sunflower becomes.

He does not become a rose—certainly not. No. He becomes the world's most insecure sunflower. Because no one has ever noticed his own innate beauty and the gifts he has for the world. Because for a long time everyone has been telling him it's not OK for him to be who he is.

The best thing anyone can do for someone else is to try and find out what that person's nature is. And then once you find out what that person's nature is you ask yourself, "What can I do to cultivate the person's natural talents and abilities?"

A true leader would say: "Here's a seminar on how a bunch of beautiful sunflowers got together and did something wonderful. Here's a place where you can go and network with other sunflowers."

That is how you help someone tap their true potential, which is what good leaders do. First you find out what kind of seed the people already have inside and then you help them grow into what they were naturally meant to be.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Things not to say when you get pulled over

1. I can't reach my license unless you hold my beer.
2. Sorry, officer, I didn't realize my radar detector wasn't plugged in.
3. Aren't you the guy from the Village People?
4. Hey, you must've been doin' about 125 mph to keep up with me.
Good job!
5. Are you Andy or Barney?
6. I thought you had to be in relatively good physical condition to be a police officer.
7. You're not gonna check the trunk are you?
8. I pay your salary!
9. Gee, officer! That's terrific. The last officer only gave me a warning too!
10. Do you know why you pulled me over? OK, just so one of us does.
11. I was trying to keep up with traffic. Yes, I know there are no other cars around. That's how far ahead of me they are.
12. When the officer says "Gee, son...your eyes look red, have you been drinking?" You probably shouldn't respond with, "Gee officer your eyes looked glazed, have you been eating doughnuts?" —from cybersalt.org

A leadership odyssey

The story of Homer's Odyssey is about a king named Odysseus. He and his men spent 10 years fighting the Trojan War, and they won.

Then they spent another 10 years trying to get home. Along the way, Odysseus and his men stop at an island to get provisions. They meet people who sit around all day and eat the sweet fruit of the lotus trees.

The fruit is so delicious these lotus eaters spend all their time eating it. They stop caring about anything else.

Odysseus' men try the fruit and soon they are addicted too. They have no interest in going home.

They forget all about their goal.

Odysseus wants to get back home and he gets his men to get on the ship and leave.

Odysseus kept his eye on his vision and purpose.

He never forgot his goal.

Why people are afraid of Friday the 13th

Every year has one to three Friday the 13ths. Friday, May 13, 2005, is the only Friday the 13th this year. Fear of the number 13 is known as triskaidekaphobia.

It's estimated that about 17 million to 21 million people in the United States are afflicted with a fear of Friday the 13th. Not only that, but it's estimated that somewhere between $800 million and $900 million is lost on any given Friday the 13th, because people are afraid to fly and do business like they do normally, according to Donald Dossey, founder of the Stress Management Center and Phobia Institute in Asheville, N.C. People who are afraid of Friday the 13th are possibly people who consider themselves to be unlucky in the first place, and they are probably superstitious, says Richard Wiseman, a psychologist at the University of Hertfordshire in Hatfield, England. In a survey of 2,068 people, Wiseman found that one-quarter of respondents believed that the number 13 was bad luck. He also found that the people who believed in this bad luck tend to be more anxious on Friday the 13th, and so it may be their own expectations and anxiety that bring on the "bad luck."

Here are a few facts about the history of the idea that the number 13 is unlucky:

- There was a Norse myth about 12 gods in heaven having a dinner party. A 13th guest walked in, the god Loki, and shot the god of joy, Balder. When Balder died the whole world became dark.
- Judas, who betrayed Jesus, was the 13th guest at The Last Supper.
- Witches in ancient Rome supposedly gathered in groups of 12. The 13th attendee was the devil.
- More than 80 percent of high rises lack a 13th floor.
- Most airports skip a 13th gate.
- Hotels and hospitals often do not have room number 13s.

As for the Friday part of the bad luck, it seems that this belief rose from the idea that Jesus was crucified on a Friday, that Eve tempted Adam on a Friday, and that Abel was slain by Cain on Friday.
