From The President

Diane McSweeney

Dear Resident Shareholders,

It has been quite a winter season at Holiday Shores. Rose and her group has provided wonderful activities for all of us to participate in. Kudos to all the volunteers! The weather has been great and everyone has been enjoying themselves.

Many thanks to the folks that have donated to the game area. The steak Committee, headed by Dave Crossman donated two eight-foot picnic tables. The Activities Committee donated a shed and an adult Jenga Game. The area looks fantastic due to our resident artists headed by Brenda Lyness. Please use the area. Grass will be planted shortly and the area should be complete at this time. Still looking for donations of outside games too.

During the summertime, we have some folks from the surrounding neighborhoods that enter the pool and facilities without permission. If you suspect someone is in the facilities, please contact the office. Remember according to our rules you do have the right to ask who they are staying with. Unfortunately, some of the teenagers that frequent the pool from the neighborhoods look at a nameplate on the houses and give that name. We are working on a resident ID card to help alleviate this problem.

Pinellas County will be giving us more information on the water and sewer project in early May. I will keep you updated on the information we receive.

Wherever you are, enjoy the upcoming summer! Our park remains to be one of the nicest around!

Best Regards

From The Office

Gay Rosetti

Dear Board and Residents,
It is amazing how time flies when we are all busy and many of you are getting ready for vacation or returning to your northern home. It is also hard to believe I have completed a full month as your licensed manager, and I work in such a lovely friendly community as Holiday Shores Park!

I have listed below a few items of reminders for everyone leaving or staying.

DEPARTURE NOTICES:

Please come to the office to pick up your Departure Forms before you leave for the summer months. If you are gone and realize you didn't submit your form, they are available on the website. Or you can contact the office to have one emailed or faxed to you.

GUEST SLIPS:

Reminder: When you have a guest coming to visit, please come to the office and get them registered prior to arrival. This ensures your guests are processed and receive parking passes should they need one for their vehicle.

Finally, please feel free to step in the office and introduce yourself. I look forward to meeting each one of you.

People get their eyes tested and their teeth checked on a regular basis,

Why Not Look After Your Ears Too?

Hearing changes often do not result in an overall loss of volume. Some sounds remain as audible as they always were, yet others become harder to hear, and some conversations require more attentiveness. You might notice that words just don't sound clear.

If you suspect that your hearing may be changing, it's up to you to be alert to the signs and have your hearing tested by a qualified professional.

George Belanger

As spring rolls in, many of our American and Canadian "Snowbirds" will be heading North to summer residences. A reminder to all that in your absence you still have a responsibility to ensure the upkeep of your home in Holiday Shores. Summer, the rainy season in Florida, is when weeds tend to proliferate, and mold can grow, especially on the north side of coaches. Many seasonal residents work out agreements with friends or neighbors in the park who are full-time residents to maintain their properties in good condition. Also, several residents take on multiple properties as part-time employment. The following residents can be contacted to enlist their services:

1. Frank Milette 727-397-8892
2. David Gonzales 508-989-7665
3. Steve Sikorski 630-803-4951

Any of these gentlemen are willing to accept new clients.

Finally, during my absence, Steve Mikulka assisted by Monty Slaybaugh will be taking over the responsibility of regular "ride arounds" to monitor the park and ensure that the stature of Holiday Shores as "The Jewel of Pinellas" is maintained. Thank you to all, safe travels and we will see you again in the Fall of 2023.

Holiday Shores Activities Association

Rose Maiolino

Well, here it is May already what an amazing season our Activities Committee has had. They have all worked so hard to bring everyone in our park fun parties. The farewell breakfast was really very nice. We got to see our neighbors who will be leaving soon. We want to wish our seasonal neighbors a safe trip home. Coming up we are having a pizza party on May 6 and on May 14 luncheon at the Roosterfish. Our Activities secretary Danette has decided she will be leaving the activities committee to pursue other interest. We wish her luck.

I would also like to thank everyone who has helped with our parties, Carolyn Sperry, Vickie, Kelly, Mary, Tina, Jim, Diane, and so many more. Also, a big thank you to Steve and Rhonda Jones for preparing the entrée for our Easter dinner Thank you everyone.

GOLF: HOLIDAY CHIPPERS

Priscilla Donegan

There were 22 golfers who came out to show off their putting skills in March. Dave Harrison was first with 16 putts for the men. There was a three-way play off for 2nd & 3rd place between George Belanger, Dave Crosman, and Ton Mikulka with 17 putts each. Tom got 2nd and Dave came in 3rd.

Peggy Wallace won 1st with 18 putts for the women. Merrill Morrissey was second with 19 and Jan Harrison 3rd with 21 putts.

Jeff Grimm and John Boyle each had a hole in one and decided to split the prize with each getting $5.00.

No one won the mystery hole.

There were two drawings for the 50/50 with Diane Wall and Jack Wallace won. Each received $18.00 and Jack donated his back to Chippers.

Many of our members will be heading back North and wish them safe travels.

Hope to see more of you next month for this event. Come on out and enjoy the wonderful dogs and brats cooked by our chef Bill Wall. There are beverages for everyone to purchase.

See you on the green.

Sharing and Caring

Arlene Orton

Please call me (847-337-6840) if you are aware of any of our friends and neighbors who are ill, have had a death in the family, or have had a surgical procedure. I will keep you posted on any new developments. Please keep these friends and neighbors (and their families) in your prayers. Thank you.

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,

Theater

David Middleton

On April 11th, 2023, The Way-Off-Broadway Theatre Group held a meeting to review the 2022-2023 season. Everyone agreed that the season had been a huge success with both the Murder Mystery Dinner, “Death in Dusty Gap” in November, and the March “Heaven help Us” Production.

Due to popular demand, it was decided to continue the Murder Mystery Dinner with its two-night production. So, mark your calendars now for Friday and Saturday, November 17 and 18, 2023. Get set for “Shake, Rattle & Croak!”. An Elvis Impersonator performs a one-night-only, fund-raising show at the Brotherhood Of Zenful Owls, Lodge #420. He plans to make a life-changing announcement sometime during the performance. Come see what this shocking revelation might be! There will be food, laughs and of course nefarious characters all around.

We also discussed our “big show” for next March 2024. The actual show title and dates will be announced later so stay tuned. Final show details will be announced next Fall.

It was unanimously agreed that the officers will remain the same: David Middleton, President; Linda Dunn, Vice President; Judy Garneau, Secretary; and David Helms, Treasurer.

Theater activities are suspended for the summer and will start up again with our first regular meeting on Tuesday, October 10, 2023. Theatre Group officers encourage you to come join us; we’re always looking for new talent on stage and off and if you have any ideas or suggestions or comments contact David Middleton: jdmiddle78@gmail.com

What to do when someone interrupts you

It is annoying when someone interrupts you while you're talking. Here are a few strategies for handling interrupters:

- Just hold up your index finger. You might be surprised at how effective this is. Merely say, "Wait a minute, I'm not done with what I'm saying..."
- Keep talking and interject, "What I was trying to say was..."
- The next time someone interrupts you, use it as an opportunity to do something rather than just get upset.
- Pause, then say, "I wasn't finished; hear me out." Or pause, then tell the person how it makes you feel when you are cut off—without attacking the person. Here are a few lines that might help:
 - "Please let me finish..."
 - "It's really hard for me to listen to you right now because you did not let me finish what I was saying."
 - "When I'm talking to you and you interrupt me with something that has nothing to do with what I'm talking about, it makes me feel like you're not interested in what I'm saying."

—adapted from The Lost Art of Listening, by Michael P. Nichols

How to win someone over

If you want to win people over to your way of thinking, here are some guiding principles to help you:

- If you want to get the best out of an argument—avoid it.
- Always show respect for another person's opinions.
- When you're wrong—admit it.
- Be friendly.
- Find a way to get the person to agree with you on something right away — even if it's just a small point.
- Let the other person talk— a lot.
- Allow the other person to think the idea is hers.
- Try to see from the other person's perspective.
- Be truly sympathetic to what the other person is saying.
- Try to appeal to noble notions in the other person.

How to keep an argument from escalating

Here are some suggestions on how to keep a disagreement from blowing up into an argument:

- Welcome the disagreement. Try to think of it this way—perhaps the argument will give you the chance to correct something before you make a big mistake.
- Distrust your first instinct to be defensive. Be careful. Slow down and stay calm. Sometimes our first reaction to something is our worst reaction.
- Rein in your temper. Hang on and don't get angry too fast. If you do, it will likely make you look bad.
- First and foremost—listen. Give the other person a chance to speak her mind. Try to build bridges and dismantle any barriers your mind tries to create.
- Look for agreement. After the other person has had his say, first look for areas that you agree on and say them out loud.
- Be honest. Look at what the other person is saying and if she's right, tell her. This will likely have a disarming and calming effect on the conversation.
- Promise to think over what the other person has said, even if you don't like it. And then make good on your promise.
- Thank the other person for his or her interest. Try to think of the other person as someone who really wants to help you. After all, you are interested in the same things.
- Don't take action until you have had time to think things over. Suggest a meeting for later, and then prepare for that meeting by asking yourself lots of hard questions. Could the other person be right? Could I be wrong? Partially wrong?

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Dumb things people have said:

We don't like their sound. Groups of guitars are on their way out.
— Decca Records rejecting the Beatles, 1962

This “telephone” has too many shortcomings to be seriously considered as a means of communication. The device is inherently of no value to us.
— Western Union internal memo, 1876

Everything that can be invented has been invented.
— Charles H. Duell, U.S. Commissioner of Patents, 1899

Nothing of importance happened today.
— Written by King George III of England, July 4, 1776

For the majority of people, the use of tobacco has a beneficial effect.
— Dr. Ian MacDonald, in Newsweek, 1969

There is no reason for any individual to have a computer in their home.
— Kenneth Olsen, president and founder of Digital Equipment Corporation, 1977

Airplanes are interesting toys but of no military value.
— Marshal Ferdinand Fock, French military strategist and future WWI commander, 1911

[Man will never reach the moon] regardless of all future scientific advances.
— Dr. Lee de Forest, inventor of the audion tube and father of radio, 1967

[Television] won't be able to hold on to any market it captures after the first six months. People will soon get tired of staring at a plywood box every night.
— Darryl F. Zanuck, head of 20th Century-Fox, 1946

On lawyers

It is the trade of lawyers to question everything, yield nothing, and talk by the hour.
— Thomas Jefferson
