National Calendar Day for June

June 14 National Flag Day -

On May 30, 1916, President Woodrow Wilson issued a proclamation deeming June 14th as Flag Day. President Wilson stated, “It is the anniversary of the day upon which the flag of the United States was adopted by the Congress as the emblem of the Union.” He also wrote, “On that day rededicate ourselves to the nation, ‘one and inseparable’ from which every thought that is not worthy of our fathers’ first vows in independence, liberty, and right shall be excluded and in which we shall stand with united hearts.”

June 18 Father’s Day

FATHER’S DAY | THIRD SUNDAY IN JUNE

On the third Sunday in June, Father’s Day honors the role fathers play in the family structure and society. The day recognizes not just fathers, but the father figures in our lives. These are the men we look up to who set solid examples for us and guide us throughout our lives.

The first recorded celebration of Father’s Day happened after the Monograph Mining Disaster in West Virginia. The disaster killed 361 men and left around 1,000 children fatherless in December of 1907. Grace Golden Clayton suggested a day honoring all those fathers to her pastor, Robert Thomas Webb. On July 5th, 1908, the community gathered in honor of the men lost in the mining accident. They assembled at Williams Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church South, now known as Central United Methodist Church, in Fairmont, West Virginia.

June 20...SUMMER BEGINS

On the longest day of the year, Summer Begins in the Northern Hemisphere. It is also known as the Summer Solstice, which happens either on June 20th, 21st, or 22nd. It all depends on the time zone in which you live. The sun's rays more directly impact the Northern Hemisphere giving us more daylight and more warmth. It's a time when plants grow rapidly and animals are more active.

Whether you spend the day hiking, biking, reading a good book on the beach or grilling some burgers, the important thing is that you celebrate summer. Spend some time outside in the fresh air. Take a long walk in our neighborhood and wave to your neighbors.

ANNUAL VOLUNTEER AWARDS DINNER

This year’s Annual Awards for Volunteers dinner was held on Wednesday, April 12th. More than 40 volunteers within our Southwind Community attended this event, sponsored by Management.

WINNER WINNER Chicken Dinner was served by 7 HOA Board Members, which included Dale Fieste, President; Danny Coy, Vice President; Maggie Griscavage, Secretary; Karen Ragsdale, Treasurer; and Board Members Rita Angle, Connie Brandt, and Dudley Harvey. Rita Angle purchased white daisy bouquets that adorned each table and volunteers got to take home after the event.

A 2022 trophy was awarded by Management, to Jane and Richard Szarlan, for many years of volunteer work running the Library in the Club House and decorating the club house for monthly and seasonal events (until the remodeling was done). Jane and Richard continue to maintain the Library where residents can make book donations, and borrow books out. Inside the library, is our Southwind’s internal mailboxes. At Christmas time and throughout the year, residents can use the boxes to put cards and notes for neighbors – there is a space for each letter of the alphabet to send notes like “thank you” cards, birthday cards, etc. Example: a card or note to the Szarlan’s would go in the “S” box. Residents should check their box regularly to retrieve these cards and notes. Jane and Richard also donate extra copies of books and take them to local senior facilities in the area.

Our Southwind HOA also purchased 5 gift cards valued at $25 each, as prizes in a drawing for volunteers. The tables were decorated in black and white and silverware was at each table setting – very elegant with thank you notes for each volunteer. Everyone who attended enjoyed the dinner.

LCR SOCIAL EVENT

On the 3rd Friday of the month, at the Club House starting by 6:00pm, the popular LCR (Left Center Right) dice game is played among residents and guests. Everyone brings their own beverages, and we play 3 rounds of the dice game, at a dollar per game. It usually only takes about 1 - 2 hours and is very easy to learn. It’s also a great way to meet your neighbors and have a fun time within walking distance from home.

The winners for April 21st included: Round 1 – Connie B, Round 2 – Karen R, and Round 3 was won by Terri C. There were 19 players. Congratulations winners!

Hope to see you at the next event on Friday, June 16th *this may be the last game until October

HOW TO SAVE MONEY ON AIR CONDITIONING COSTS

By Terri Campbell

Correction to last month's article: Neighbor Tina Deveno did not purchase a new A/C system from Mobile Home Depot last year – she was checking out pricing only and shared this info - should you need a new unit, a 2.0 Ton AC Unit was $2,995.99 with tax and Standard Installation is $700. Total cost was less than $3,700. The cost may have increased in 2023, but it is still worth checking into if you can save money on a new unit. There are 2 locations close to our area, in Largo & New Port Richey. They sell mobile home parts and supplies, vinyl siding and skirting, carport and patio covers, doors and windows, tubs and showers, steps and rails, etc. to interior repairs such as plumbing and electrical. www.mobilehomedepot.net

Inside the Duke Energy bill for April, there was a small ad that read “Leaky ducts can drain your budget”. It stated that finding and fixing air leaks in your ductwork is an easy, cost-effective home improvement that could lower your bills. It offered a duct test and repair with a rebate on the cost of the test and the repair. However, this rebate program DOES NOT INCLUDE MOBILE HOMES.

My electric bill doubled this past month, and my a/c was not working well. I set the thermostat at one temperature but it read a higher temp than the setting, so I contacted an A/C repair company to come and check it out. What was discovered was that the ductwork under my home was “shredded” by critters (bunnies that burrowed underneath and damaged the duct flex run). This is what was causing all the trouble. To have the ductwork replaced was very expensive!

Picture of the damaged ductwork alongside the new ductwork I had to have installed are attached. While that was done, they also checked out my vapor barrier but it was in good shape, thankfully. There was a noticeable difference, after the duct work was replaced, in my A/C performance on the same day.

If your A/C (electric) bills are getting inexplicably and substantially higher, beyond just a Duke Energy rate increase, you could benefit from an evaluation of your ductwork system. Don't put it off, the sooner it's fixed the better for your electric bill budget and the more money you can save now!

When you come to a fork in the road.....take it!

by Lyle Neumann, former HOA President

Fourteen years ago, I took a path at the fork in the road that led me here to Southwind. It was a good choice. We quickly made friends, settled in, and discovered the good life we were seeking. Paradise Found!

Soon, you elected me to lead your Homeowner's Association Board, and with the help and dedication of many, over the next nine years, your Board and volunteers transformed this park into the place to live.

With the support of the Board, I secured a quarter million-dollar grant to install additional wind mitigation anchors in 85% of our homes. I started the "Help Your Neighbor Day" initiative, activated committees, and with the help of so many volunteers, we initiated a Monday Night Kitchen that soon became the most popular board initiative ever, and the most profitable. Snowbirds were scrambling to buy into Southwind.

But when you least expect it, life can change on a dime. A new fork in the road can appear when you are unprepared to change. The combination of a personal tragedy and health issues transformed my life quickly. This is when I discovered that my Southwind friends were more than friends, they are family. You know who you are, and I sincerely thank you and will eternally remember you.

So once again, I am at a fork in the road. I live by three principles: (1) is it fair?, (2) is it the truth?, and (3) is it good for my fellow residents? I need all three. Now I am confident that with a new energized HOA board, and a renewed interest from several residents to resume volunteering, the time is right for me to take that leap of faith and choose a new fork in the road once again. Maybe in some small way I will have made a difference in the future of the Southwind lifestyle.

Fifty years ago, a university professor told me: "things turn out best for those that make the best of the way things turn out." I'm going to work very hard on that. I plan to remain in this area and hope to continue to stay in touch and forever remain friends. I sincerely thank each of you for your kindness and support.

note from Terri Campbell – thank you Lyle for all the work you have put into making Southwind this great place to live, and for instating me as Editor of the Southwind Breezes in 2018. We are thriving once again (since Covid) with activities and volunteer participation. A return on our investments in this park is better than ever and we are a family of friends here. Good Luck to you and yes, please keep in touch.

Knock On The Door

By Bill Roberts

As I was thinking about what to write for Father's Day this year, I happened to come across the song by Miranda Lambert "The House That Built Me." In this "touching base" with our feelings when we get a little lost on the road of life, Miranda goes back to her childhood home to reconnect. In the song Miranda acknowledges that you can't go home again, just as Thomas Wolfe also told us, but she asks the current owner of the house if she can enter to take nothing but a memory. The thing that caught my eye though was that in the video it showed Miranda walking up to the house and knocking on the door. That's when, as usual, the good Lord let it all click with me. Yes, I will agree with Miranda and Mr. Wolfe that a person cannot in some cases physically go home again. In my case, it has been many years since I have been able to knock on my childhood home door. But I will have to argue that even though one might not be able to touch that door with their hand they will always be able to do so with their mind and more importantly with their hearts.

With that being said what I wouldn't give to be able to knock on my Dad's door and talk to him about my grandchildren or for him to put them in his truck and drive them down to the store for a bag of suckers, as he did for my children many years ago. Maybe even a chance to watch him amble up to the microphone to do karaoke at the annual fish fry and for good measure to throw in the secret of why his fried fish melted in your mouth. I would also love to knock on my step-father's door and have him address me as "goat" as was the usual for him. To talk to him about our beloved Kentucky Wildcats and in my opinion maybe it was time for a coaching change. Of course, he would calm my impulsiveness with a reminder that you better watch what you wish for.

Even though it is Father's Day I would like to knock on some other's doors today also. I would like to enter Mama Dot's door and have her tell me to come on in and get something to eat. To sit and talk with her about life as she reminded me to always go through life with a smile. What a thrill it would be for me to knock on Mom Mac's door and play a game of Aggravation or a hand of Rook. And when we finished we could have some laughs as we watched an episode of Sanford & Son. And of course, I would love to knock on my Granny and Papa's door for some country ham, canned biscuits, and red eye gravy. Then listen to my Granny exclaim, as she always did, "I love to watch that boy eat." Then Papa chiming in, "let the boy eat Mandy Helen."

Well, I realize I will never knock on those doors again. But you know what makes it great is that at one time in my life I did knock on those doors and these people provided me and my brother and sisters a lifetime of memories. Those doors have been closed for some time now, but in our memories they will forever be open. So now at this stage of my life it is time for me to make sure that I'm making memories for my children and grandchildren for when they can no longer knock on my door.

I would like to wish a happy Father's Day to all the Dads out there and of course to Sheldon, the father of my grandchildren. Keep making those memories for Sammy Samson and Surf. Everybody out there today let Dad know how you feel either in person, by phone, or through long ago memories. Knock on that door.

DAD JOKES

- Q: What's the difference between a "dad joke" and a "bad joke?"
A: The direction of the first letter.
- Q: When does a regular joke become a "dad joke?" A: When it becomes apparent.
- Q: What's the difference between a hippo and a Zippo? A: One is very heavy, the other is a little lighter.
- Q: How do you cure a fear of a speed bump? A: You slowly get over it.
- Q: Why are balloons so expensive? A: Inflation.
- Q: What is the most popular time for a dentist appointment? A: Tooth hurty.
- Q: What do you call cheese that isn't yours? A: Nacho cheese!
- Q: What happened when the world's tongue-twister champion got arrested? A: They gave him a tough sentence.
- Q: What do you call a fish with no eye? A: A fsh.
- Q: What did the fish say when he hit the wall? A: Dam.
- Q: Why are peppers the best at archery? A: Because they habanero.
- Q: What state is known for its tiny beverages? A: Minnesota
- Q: Why did the computer get mad at the printer? A: Because it didn't like its toner voice.
- Q: What's the best way to watch a fly-fishing tournament? A: Live stream it.
- Q: Why did the broom decide to go to bed? A: It was very sweepy.
- Q: Did you hear about the square that got into a car accident? A: Yeah, now he's a rect-angle!
- Q: How do you tell the difference between a bull and a cow? A: It is either one or the utter.
- Q: Why is it hard to understand volunteers? A: Because they make no cents.
- Q: What's the easiest way to burn 1,000 calories? A: Leave the pizza in the oven.
- Q: What do you call a hippie's wife? A: Mississippi.
- Q: What did the drummer call his twin daughters? A: Anna One, Anna Two
- Q: Did you hear about the king who was exactly 12 inches tall? A: He was a great ruler!
- I have a joke about banking, but I lost interest.
- I have a joke about cows, but I don't want to milk it.
- I have a joke about construction, but I'm still working on it.
- I have a joke about being an electrician, but it's too shocking.
- I have a joke about immortality, and it never gets old.
- I have a joke about paper, but it's tearable.
- I have a joke about trickle-down economics, but 99% of you will never get it.
- I have a joke about drilling, but it's boring.
- I have a few jokes about retired people, but none of them work.
- I have a joke about a broken clock, but it's not the right time.

Florida State of Mind

By Bill Roberts

As I exited in the old gray mare (actually old silver Toyota) from another sun drenched day at Honeymoon Island and headed up Alt. 19, Billy Joel blares from the radio singing his classic New York State of Mind. Upon hearing one of my favorites it got me thinking that over the last three years or so I have been in a Florida State of Mind. The warm weather, bright sun, constant breeze, and bikinis are not a bad way to live. Since I don't believe Billy Joel will be singing about Florida anytime soon, I would like to share some of the things I have come to love about the Sunshine State.....

Walking the Dunedin Causeway in the evenings as the burnt orange sun melts into a colorful glow and hides itself beyond the water

Cruising down Gulf Boulevard passing the sky rising hotels one by one with an ocean backdrop and stopping off at the Madeira Beach Snack Shack for a tasty fish taco or continue on to The Friendly Fisherman at John's Pass for the best clam chowder this side of New England

Catching the water taxi in Dunedin and powering over to Clearwater while being refreshed by beads of water splashing up from the side

Hitting the bike trail and enjoying the warm breeze hitting your face as you travel to your destination shrouded in safety while enjoying the great outdoors

Taking your grandson on the Jolley Trolley who is probably wondering why you would ever drive when you can enjoy this neat mode of public transportation

Venturing out to Zephyrhills on a two lane road to remind this small town boy of being out in the country again

Picking up family from the airport and watching their eyes widen as you cross over the Bayshore Bridge and tell them welcome to Florida

Beholding the site of the bridge being raised perpendicular to the sky on the Dunedin Causeway and being in awe as a sailboat passes through

Catching the sun glistening on the water as a pathway to eternity is ensconced and never tiring of seeing it

Realizing the enormity of the ocean and Creation itself as you stand on the beach in the dark of night

I will always be a hick from the sticks. A born and raised Kentuckian where the blood runs too proud to ever want or assume of being anything else. Generations going as far back as I or anyone can remember. But I will have to admit that after exploring the adventures that are always offered, I'm finding myself in a Florida State of Mind.

DISCOVERING THINGS TO DO IN OUR AREA

By Terri Campbell

We are very fortunate to live in the Tampa Bay area of Florida, with many events and activities we can enjoy right here. We don't need to travel very far. Now that we are retired/ retiring, we actually have time to enjoy the good life.

Even if you have lived in this area for a long time, you can still be a "tourist" and go explore and discover whether you are with family, a friend or a spouse. This summer would be a great time to experience and enjoy the area we live in.

If you have any stories about fun activities or events in our area that you would like to share, please send them to breezes.editor@gmail.com.

Go discover your "Florida State of Mind" and please tell us about it. See photos from Clearwater Marine Aquarium – pet the stingray tank, Clearwater Beach Sugar Sand Sculpture Festival, and St Pete's Sunken Gardens flamingo pond

Here are some other events/ activities you might enjoy:

It's back!! Every first Thursday of the month, Tarpon Springs Recreation Center puts on a Sunset Beach Free Concert. Come join us to watch the sun set over the Gulf and dance in the sand. Bring a lawn chair or blanket. Look for a helium balloon tied to the host's chair.

Trop Rock Junkies Thu, Jun 01, 2023, 7:00pm Location: Sunset Beach 1800 Gulf Road Tarpon Springs, FL (727) 942-5628

Don't miss "Feeling Groovy" a musical tribute to the 60's featuring BackBeat USA (aka Trop Rock Junkies). This magical mystery tour through the 60's includes the Beach Boys, Beatles, Rolling Stones, Monkeys, Lovin' Spoonful, Motown, soul and many more. It's a fun show that will have you dancing on...

Summer Fun

Free Parking & Shuttle at the Dog/Splash Park at 508 Live Oak St. (5:30 pm – 10:30 pm) Where: 100 E. Tarpon Ave. Date: 06/02/2023 Time: 6:00pm - 10:00pm

A free family event held the 1st Friday of the month – featuring Art, Food, Vendors, Shops, Music, and Beer & wine, with a fun theme every month! Historic Downtown Tarpon Springs
