From The President

Diane McSweeney

Dear Shareholder Residents,
June is upon us and the heat is also with us. The park looks great! Thank you to all that put away all the grills, pots, planters, and other objects that could “fly” during extreme weather conditions. Hurricane info on shelters and other info is available on the website. We are so hopeful we do not have to utilize this information.

We have heard from the new professional engineer for the water and sewer project. Her PR person has also been in contact, and we are awaiting updates on the project. As soon as we know anything, it will be on the website.

The lights that were originally bought for the pool area will be installed for the games area. They will shine downwards and should not impact any of our residents. Additional lighting will be installed underneath the awning. These lights will not be on continuously.

We have had problems with folks utilizing the pool that are not shareholders, visitors, and or guests. We are looking into cards that will identify a guest and shareholder at the pool and other areas. It will be the responsibility of each person to have this clearly visible while utilizing the areas. I will keep you updated on this process and implementation. Hopefully this will aide in keeping others from using our facilities.

Have a wonderful summer!

From The Office Manager

Gay Rosetti

MANAGER

We have been lucky to have such a lovely spring, and many of our residents have left or are getting ready to leave for the summer. Reminder... please be sure to come into the office and meet with Sue to fill in your departure slips. It is important that we know who is here and who is gone. Also, remember all guests need to come in and be registered. This is very important to verify we do not have outsiders who are trying to sneak in and use our facilities.

As we all know the Fire Dept has advised that it is mandatory to have your house numbers displayed on the front street side of your home. If you haven't placed your numbers in the visible area by now, please take the time to do so. You can purchase the numbers at any Lowes, Home Depot, Hardware store or even Michaels Crafts. The numbers are very important so the fire department and/or ambulance can find you in an emergency. We appreciate that you follow through and make it a priority.

Quick note, I will be out of the office on vacation for two weeks in June from the 19th and returning to the office on June 5th. If you need anything during this time, as always Sue and David are here to assist you in the office.

GOLF: HOLIDAY CHIPPERS

Priscilla Donegan

On a beautiful Saturday in April, 23 golfers showed off their putting skills. There was a playoff in the mens between Mike Wicks and Dave Crosman. Mike was 1st and Dave 2nd. Steve Jones came in third.

For the women, Peggy Wallace was 1st and there was a playoff between Merrill Morrissey and Jill Wicks, with Merrill coming in 2nd and Jill came in third.

No one won the mystery hole. There were two hole-in-ones. Tom Speranza and Steve Jones. They decided to donate their winnings to St. Vincent de Paul soup kitchen.

Jeff Grimm and Diane Wall won the 50/50 draw which made them each $32.00 richer.

Want to thank everyone who came out to golf. A big thank you to Peggy and Jack Wallace for filling in for me. There were several new people involved in this event and we are pleased to see you.

Not sure if there will be an event in May. Watch the sandwich boards and media for that information. Anyone heading north, safe travels.

Shuffleboard News

Mary Brown

Attention Everyone - this was supposed to be included in a May's newsletter but deadlines got in the way. We are including this in June to ensure that everyone is acknowledged for their achievements.

March was quite a busy month. The annual shuffleboard tournament was held March 13, 17, & 20. The results are as follows:

3/13 Womens: 1st - Dara Frakes; 2nd - Vickie Nichols and 3rd - Priscilla Donegan

3/17 Mixed Doubles: 1st - Dara Frakes/Louie Paris; 2nd - Peggy Wallace/Dave Crossman
3rd. Priscilla Donegan/Gene Kluk

3/20 Men: 1st - Gene Kluk; 2nd - Cecil Hillier and 3rd -Guy Markham

The final 8 shuffling had 3 men in their 90s: Gene Foster - 92; Wally Ross - 96 and John Orton - 98. An inspiration to all

The awards luncheon was held @ Acropol restaurant on 3/24, where good food was enjoyed & prizes were awarded.

This year the Traveling Trophy was awarded to Gene Foster, given by last year's recipient, Anne Belanger.

The Blind Shoot offered at the Park Picnic was held 3/25. The winners were:

WOMEN: 1st - Vickie Nichols - 56; 2nd - Dara Frakes - 51 and 3rd Peggy Wallace

MEN: 1st - John Orton - 55; 2nd - Doug Brown - 46; and 3rd tied - Jay Orton - 45 and Dave Nichols - 45

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL.

A big thank you to all who volunteered to help. A special thank you to Dave Crossman for setting up the tournament, & Priscilla Donegan for taking over in my absence.

People get their eyes tested and their teeth checked on a regular basis,

Why Not Look After Your Ears Too?

Hearing changes often do not result in an overall loss of volume. Some sounds remain as audible as they always were, yet others become harder to hear, and some conversations require more attentiveness. You might notice that words just don't sound clear.

If you suspect that your hearing may be changing, it's up to you to be alert to the signs and have your hearing tested by a qualified professional.

What would you do?

You are one of two people on a malfunctioning airplane with only one parachute. How would you react?

- Pessimist: You refuse the parachute because you might die on the jump anyway.
- Optimist: You refuse the parachute because people have survived crashes just like this before.
- Procrastinator: You play a game of Monopoly for the parachute.
- Bureaucrat: You order them to conduct a feasibility study on parachute use in multi-engine aircraft under code red conditions.
- Lawyer: You charge one parachute for helping them sue the airline.
- Internal Revenue Service: you confiscate the parachute along with their luggage, wallet, and gold fillings.
- Advertiser: You strip-tease while singing that what they need is a neon parachute with computer altimeter for only $39.99.
- Engineer: You make them another parachute out of aisle curtains and dental floss.
- Scientist: You give them the parachute and ask them to send you a report on how well it worked.
- Mathematician: You refuse to accept the parachute without proof that it will work in all cases.
- Philosopher: You ask how they know the parachute actually exists.
- English major: You explicate simile and metaphor in the parachute instructions.
- Comparative Literature student: You read the parachute instructions in all four languages.
- Psychoanalyst: You ask them what the shape of a parachute reminds them of.
- Actor: You tie them down so they can watch you develop the character of a person stuck on a falling plane without a parachute.
- Artist: You hang the parachute on the wall and sign it.
- National Rifle Association member: You shoot them and take the parachute.
- Environmentalist: You refuse to use the parachute unless it is biodegradable.
- Auto Mechanic: As long as you are looking at the plane engine, it works fine.
- Tobacco Grower: You explain very patiently that despite a number of remarkable coincidences, studies have shown no link whatsoever between airplane crashes and death.

Oh, my aching neck...

The neck is a pretty common place to experience pain. That's because your neck is the most mobile part of the spine — so injuries and painful conditions are more likely to occur there. If you are suffering from neck pain, you should see a health professional about it.

To prevent neck pain and injury, follow these tips:

- Maintain proper posture. Use a chair that is appropriate, stable and the right height. Use a table that is also the right height to avoid neck strain. Change your position periodically, so that exhaustion and pain will not occur. Avoid twisting your neck suddenly. When you are standing, maintain a relaxed neck, with your head upright and your chin retracted. You'll also want to get the right size pillow. A pillow should support your neck in a balanced position.
- Exercise your neck regularly to maintain and improve flexibility. Take a break from whatever you do during the day, about every half hour. Stretch your neck in different directions by looking up, down, to the right and to the left. Another good way to exercise this area is to raise and squeeze your shoulders together and then relax. Repeat this a few times.

Could I have my dressing on the side, please?

Trying to live a healthy lifestyle takes some practice— especially when it comes to eating a better diet. If you are trying to count calories or limit your fat intake, here are a few pointers for dining in or out:

- Watch the sauce. Pay attention to the amount of salad dressings or other sauces you use. Order condiments on the side and add small amounts at a time so that you are in control.
- Hold the mayo. Instead, use spices, herbs and mustards for taste.
- Get steamed. Make or order foods that are baked, grilled, poached or steamed, rather than fried.
- Make it veggie. Dishes that contain lots of veggies or fruits are usually lower in calories and fat.
- Get a doggie bag first. Before you dig in, scrape some of that mega-portion into a doggie bag.
- Mix it up. One of the healthiest ways to eat is to include variety, moderation and balance. — adapted from the National Restaurant Association Web site

How to get that healthy glow

Want skin that looks young and healthy. Here are a few commonsense tips to keep that glow:

- Eliminate all tobacco use.
- Eat a diet that is balanced and includes whole foods.
- Reduce your alcohol intake and replace it with water.
- Use sunscreen that contains SPF 15 or higher on any part of your body that is exposed to sunlight. — adapted from the Whole Foods Market Web site

Laughing all the way to the gym

It might sound, well, funny, but laughing has become the focus of some exercise classes. It seems that world-wide people are joining “laughter clubs and practicing a form of yoga being called “laughteryoga” or “hasya yoga.” It combines traditional forms of stretching, etc., with laughter techniques, such as “hearty laughter,” “cocktail laughter,” “silent laughter” and many others.

According to the teachings of this yoga form, laughter gives a constant massage to the digestive tract while providing a better blood supply to internal organs. This distributes nutrients more effectively to all parts of the body. Laughing also increases respiration rates, which in turn increases the supply of oxygen the body receives.

Laughter can help reverse negative emotions and drain tension from the body, as well.

Laughter yoga was developed by Dr. Madan Kataria, a physician from Mumbai, India. He has become known as the “Guru of Giggling.” — adapted from “Laugh and Be Well,” by Wendy Priesnitz, in Natural Health Magazine

Brush your teeth - gently

Nothing is as easy as brushing your teeth—doing it correctly can improve your dental and general health. Here are a few tips for good brushing habits:

- Buy a soft toothbrush that fits your mouth size. If the brush is too big you won’t be able to properly brush your back teeth.
- Buy toothpaste with fluoride.
- Brush at least twice a day.

Another good thing about being poor is that when you are 70 your children will not have declared you legally insane in order to gain control of your estate.
