Church in the Park Update: Golden Gate Church in The Park

Our Congregation is growing, but there is room for more! Our Services are Nondenominational and are held every Sunday at 8:45 am in the Club house. We also have our Services on-line at our Church Web-site: Golden Gate Church in the Park. Pastor John Bowers presides at our Services and is great at deciphering the Bible for us. We hope you will stop by. Following our Services, we have donuts and coffee and socialize for a while. Hope to see you there.

WOMEN'S CLUB

WHAT TO DO THIS SUMMER

As the snowbirds fly north for the summer, full time residents of the Golden Gate Community look forward to participating in summer activities. The Women's Club doesn't shut down during the summer. Instead, we organize and host many fun activities.

We start with honoring all fathers by holding a Fathers' Day luncheon. This event will be held on Monday June 19th.

July 4th activities will include a Parade with prizes and a picnic. This event is hosted by all the Golden Gate Clubs and includes a free lunch for all Golden Gate residents.

Sunday July 16th from 2-3pm we will all enjoy an ice cream social.

Saturday, August 5th a Back-to-School luncheon will be held. Donations of school supplies will be collected to help Pinellas County school children return to the classrooms.

The summer events will end on September 4th, with a Labor Day picnic.

ALL EVENTS "REQUIRE TICKETS" OR SIGNUP SHEETS TO PROVIDE AN ACCURATE HEADCOUNT TO CALCULATE FOOD QUANTITIES NEEDED. WE DON'T WANT TO RUN OUT OF FOOD.

As many residents leave for the summer, we are asking for volunteers to help with these activities. If you would like to volunteer, signup sheets are in the clubhouse or call Debby Cook (727) 459-3634.

The fall will bring the return of all club activities. The Women’s Club will host monthly ice cream socials, bake sales, and a Christmas celebration with a toy drive for area children.

A Sugarcoated Danger

This month’s “Ask Dr. Kevin” Column (see page 24) addresses the toxicity of xylitol, a common sugar substitute used in sugarless gum, mints, toothpaste, and candy. Consuming just one-and-a-half sticks of chewing gum can cause liver failure, seizures, and for many small dogs, death.

After his own dog survived xylitol poisoning, Brian Landi, of Connecticut, created an online petition to encourage companies to include a warning label on products containing xylitol, or even ban the sweetener entirely.

To sign the petition, visit xylitolpetition.org.

Oh, my aching neck...

The neck is a pretty common place to experience pain. That's because your neck is the most mobile part of the spine — so injuries and painful conditions are more likely to occur there. If you are suffering from neck pain, you should see a health professional about it.

To prevent neck pain and injury, follow these tips:

- Maintain proper posture. Use a chair that is appropriate, stable and the right height. Use a table that is also the right height to avoid neck strain. Change your position periodically, so that exhaustion and pain will not occur. Avoid twisting your neck suddenly. When you are standing, maintain a relaxed neck, with your head upright and your chin retracted. You'll also want to get the right size pillow. A pillow should support your neck in a balanced position.
- Exercise your neck regularly to maintain and improve flexibility. Take a break from whatever you do during the day, about every half hour. Stretch your neck in different directions by looking up, down, to the right and to the left. Another good way to exercise this area is to raise and squeeze your shoulders together and then relax. Repeat this a few times.

Could I have my dressing on the side, please?

Trying to live a healthy lifestyle takes some practice— especially when it comes to eating a better diet. If you are trying to count calories or limit your fat intake, here are a few pointers for dining in or out:

- Watch the sauce. Pay attention to the amount of salad dressings or other sauces you use. Order condiments on the side and add small amounts at a time so that you are in control.
- Hold the mayo. Instead, use spices, herbs and mustards for taste.
- Get steamed. Make or order foods that are baked, grilled, poached or steamed, rather than fried.
- Make it veggie. Dishes that contain lots of veggies or fruits are usually lower in calories and fat.
- Get a doggie bag first. Before you dig in, scrape some of that mega-portion into a doggie bag.
- Mix it up. One of the healthiest ways to eat is to include variety, moderation and balance. — adapted from the National Restaurant Association Web site

How to get that healthy glow

Want skin that looks young and healthy. Here are a few commonsense tips to keep that glow:

- Eliminate all tobacco use.
- Eat a diet that is balanced and includes whole foods.
- Reduce your alcohol intake and replace it with water.
- Use sunscreen that contains SPF 15 or higher on any part of your body that is exposed to sunlight. — adapted from the Whole Foods Market Web site

Laughing all the way to the gym

It might sound, well, funny, but laughing has become the focus of some exercise classes. It seems that world-wide people are joining “laughter clubs and practicing a form of yoga being called “laughteryoga” or “hasya yoga.” It combines traditional forms of stretching, etc., with laughter techniques, such as “hearty laughter,” “cocktail laughter,” “silent laughter” and many others.

According to the teachings of this yoga form, laughter gives a constant massage to the digestive tract while providing a better blood supply to internal organs. This distributes nutrients more effectively to all parts of the body. Laughing also increases respiration rates, which in turn increases the supply of oxygen the body receives.

Laughter can help reverse negative emotions and drain tension from the body, as well.

Laughter yoga was developed by Dr. Madan Kataria, a physician from Mumbai, India. He has become known as the “Guru of Giggling.” — adapted from “Laugh and Be Well,” by Wendy Priesnitz, in Natural Health Magazine

Brush your teeth - gently

Nothing is as easy as brushing your teeth—doing it correctly can improve your dental and general health. Here are a few tips for good brushing habits:

- Buy a soft toothbrush that fits your mouth size. If the brush is too big you won’t be able to properly brush your back teeth.
- Buy toothpaste with fluoride.
- Brush at least twice a day.

On dressing

We eat to please ourselves, but dress to please others.
