FROM THE EDITOR

Six months into this year already! Time seems to go by so fast. I hope everyone has had a good start to their summer. The remnants of spring still linger at the pond, with the little baby duck floating around the pond. Enjoy your summer!

I am resigning my position as Managing Editor of the Monthly Media guide. I have had so much fun doing this, but my new work schedule just doesn't allow the time to do it.

If you would like to become the managing Editor, please contact Robert Bears, Jill Norwick, or Tammy Blaisse for assignment.

The Managing Editor is responsible for putting together all of the articles that goes into the monthly publication and submitting it to the publisher in a timely fashion. I will make every effort to ensure a smooth transition.

See you all soon!

Thank you,
Linda Olone

This publication, Island in the Sun Sentinel, also referred to as the Monthly Media, contains names, contact information, community articles and information, an activities calendar as well as general interest articles. IITS residents can contribute ideas, articles, and photos to the publication. Contact Robert Bears, Jill Norwick or Tammy Blaisse.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Open positions:

We have a few open positions if you are interested in volunteering for anything.

NON-Board Positions

1. Looking for a new Managing Editor for the Monthly Media. Please see Robert Bears, Jill Norwick or Tammy Blaisse.
2. We need a volunteer for Bingo. We are looking for a backup caller. Duties would be once a month or so. The computer does most of the work, and almost all of the calling (with the exception of one game). It is a very simple program to use, and we are a fun bunch to spend time with! If you are interested, please call Linda at 727-214-7334 or email at Linda.olone@gmail.com.

Ladies Luncheon

On the 3rd Thursday of every month, the ladies of Island in the Sun get together for lunch. Having attended a couple of these, I can tell you, it is a good time! Cindy Sadusky does a great job organizing this. Cindy keeps a sign-up sheet in the clubhouse. If you would like to participate, please sign up every month. Cindy will announce the location on the Facebook social page.

IITS Activity

The activities group has been very busy bringing events for the residents. Please find one of these great events to attend.

Independence Day

July 4th little known facts

Independence Day should have been celebrated on July 2, 1776.

Although the document was dated July 4, congress actually voted for independence from Great Britain two days prior on July 2, 1776. It apparently wasn't signed by everyone until a month later on August 2, 1776.

John Adams wrote a letter to his wife about how memorable Independence Day would be in American history...

He was obviously right — in his letter, he said the day should be celebrated with parades, bonfires and fireworks. Scarily accurate, right?... but he thought it was celebrated on the wrong day. In fact, he was known to turn down invitations to 4th of July celebrations in protest. In his correspondence to his wife, Abigail Adams, he only referred to Independence Day as July 2nd.

The 'Pennsylvania Evening Post' was the first newspaper to print the Declaration.

It came out in the newspaper on July 6, 1776, for everyone to see, after a local printer named John Dunlap produced copies of the declaration's manuscript.

Three presidents who signed the Declaration of Independence died on July 4.

John Adams and Thomas Jefferson both died on July 4, 1826 — on the 50th anniversary of the country's independence. James Monroe died five years later on July 4, 1831.

The Liberty Bell rings 13 times every Independence Day to honor the 13 original states.

Descendants of people who signed the Declaration of Independence tap the bell, located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 2 p.m. eastern time every 4th of July.

Independence Day was once celebrated on July 5.

The holiday fell on a Sunday in 1779, so the country celebrated on July 5th instead.

The very first 4th of July fireworks show took place in Philadelphia in 1777.

Fireworks, canons and bells all went off to honor the 13 original states. Much like modern celebrations, they even had a dinner and parade for the Declaration of Independence's first anniversary.

Americans spend over $1 billion on fireworks every year.

According to the American Pyrotechnics Association, the numbers continue to go up every year. The biggest celebration is the Macy's 4th of July Fireworks show, which takes over 8,000 hours to prepare!

There are 33 places in the United States with the word "liberty" in their names.

According to the U.S. Census, four of them are counties — Georgia, Florida, Montana and Texas have a Liberty County.

Calvin Coolidge was the only president born on the 4th of July.

That probably helped his presidential campaign, right?

Thomas Jefferson believed that a new Constitution should be written every 19 years.

In a letter to James Madison, he asked if "one generation of men has the right to bind another," saying that otherwise "the lands would belong to the dead, and not to the living, which would be the reverse of our principle".

Americans eat around 150 million hot dogs each Independence Day.

According to the National Hot Dog and Sausage Council, from Memorial Day to Labor Day, which they call 'peak hot dog season', Americans consume around 7 billion hot dogs. That means that 818 are being consumed every second. Producers estimate that during July, which is designated National Hot Dog Month, 10% of annual retail hot dog sales occur. That's a lot of hot dogs!

Thunderstorms –

by Rusty Leslie

Storm coming in
The skies darken
The wind picks up
The anticipation builds
The wind visible in the plants
Leaves flying
Lightning flashing
Thunder rumbling
Sometimes cracking
The world so alive
With the electricity
I love it
The excitement
The not knowing
Will we lose power
Will something blow away
Will we have hail
The rain pounds down
Blown sideways
The earth fully engaged
Awed by the sheer power
Of Mother Nature's display

I love love love
Thunderstorms
I always have
We lived on the top floor
High up on a hill
Overlooking a valley
Mum used to have us
Come stand at the picture window
To admire the sheer magic
The dark clouds roaming
Watching the wonder of lightning
Counting down the thunder
Jumping and laughing
When it crashed
Incredible memories
Brought back by every thunderstorm
Life is so amazing
Filled with so many
Wonderful moments
And today..
Thunderstorms
Yes!!!!

Today's Inspiration

Welcome Wagon Corner – Rusty Leslie

My name is Rusty Leslie, and I am the Welcome Wagon lady here at Island in the Sun. I moved here in February 2022, and I love living here and I expected to have a Welcome Wagon visit. Well, it did not happen, and I had to rely on neighbors to find out all the little things you only know about when you live here. I decided to ask the HOA board if I could start a Welcome Wagon here. I found out that there used to be one a few years ago but with Covid etc, there was no longer one. The board approved what I had put together and Cal Am started asking new residents if they would like a welcome visit. They sent me the names of those who would like a visit, and so began my Welcome Wagon journey. I love welcoming new residents and going over the information sheet on all the little details about living here. It is a fun time for both of us, at least, that is what I have been told by those I have visited. If you are a new resident and would like a welcome visit, please contact me at 865.232.9072, via email at kohanadancer@gmail.com or in person at lot 310.

At this time, I would like to welcome to our community some new residents:

Sheila and Dan Darcy at lot 113

Please make them welcome and may they love living here as much as I do.

Groans and giggles for July 4 th you have been warned LOL

What happened as a result of the Stamp Act? The Americans licked the British!
How come there are no Knock Knock jokes about America? Because freedom rings.

Why did Paul Revere ride his horse from Boston to Lexington? Because the horse was too heavy to carry.

Did you hear the one about the Liberty Bell? Yeah, it cracked me up!

What did one flag say to the other flag? Nothing. It just waves

A battery and a firework were arrested. They charged one and let the other one off.

What will you call an American drawing? A Yankee Doodle.

What did the American colonists wear to the Boston Tea Party? They wore tea-shirts.

Where was the Declaration of Independence signed? On the bottom of the paper.

Short Story

From our very own Island in the Sun resident: Lorelei Confer

Iremember.... Growing up in the 50's and 60's on a self-sustaining farm in rural Pennsylvania Mom always made sure I had a dime to make a phone call in case of an emergency. It was tied in the corner of a handkerchief, which was usually linen, or silk and my grandmother had embroidered around the edges and/or in one of the corners. I loved the handkerchief with three pansies embroidered in the corner. I don't remember how to tie it anymore but mom sure was fast at it.

Girls were not allowed to wear pants or jeans to school. Dresses or skirts were required. The only time we could wear pants was during the winter in freezing temps and deep snow. We wore them on the bus but once we arrived at school we had to remove them just like our coat and boots.

During summer school vacation if you mentioned being bored you were sent to the garden to hoe a long, long row carrots, red beets, etc. This was learned at an early age.

Dad would go up in the woods and dig up sassafras roots and bring them home in a burlap bag. Mom would wash them and boil them in a large pot of water. The aroma was fabulous. Later we'd enjoy a hot or iced tea with homemade honey and milk. It was such a treat.

We picked out our Christmas tree during the year, trimmed/shaped if necessary and a few days before Christmas we'd go chop it down and drag it home in the snow. We always stopped along the way and gathered armfuls of trailing pine for on top the mantel.

There was no work or exchange of money on Sundays. All retail stores, gas stations, convenience stores, etc. were closed. We didn't have any near us but would pass by them on our way to church.

Where and how did you grow up? Tell me: loreleiconfer@gmail.com

Stay Informed

Hurricane season is upon us. Please make a plan. www.Pinellascounty.org is a valuable resource. Search for Hurricane once you are on the site.

- Know your shelters, evacuation routes, what to prepare for.
- Please make a plan for your pets. Most shelters do not accept pets.
- Check the traffic before you hit the road: FL511.com for tools on traffic information statewide, regional or roadway-specific; Florida 511 mobile app; or call 511 toll free for updates in English and Spanish.
- Make a list of local hotels ahead of time so you have the information handy when the time comes.
- Attention Veterans: Did you know about Vet Tix? Veteran’s can obtain free tickets to many events.... Baseball, football, soccer, concerts, etc... Register at www.vettix.org and start registering for free tickets. You will need your DD214, I believe. If you need help, let me know (Linda Olone) and I can help you register if you have trouble.
