Thursday, July 20th NATIONAL MOON DAY

National Moon Day on July 20th commemorates the day man first walked on the moon in 1969. NASA reported the moon landing as being "...the single greatest technological achievement of all time". Caught up in the thrill of the adventure, millions of Americans watched the mission from Earth.

Televisions around the world tuned in to the live broadcasts. The astronauts had a worldwide audience. As a result, all witnessed as Neil Armstrong stepped onto the moon's surface and described the event as "one small step for [a] man, one giant leap for mankind."

According to the Nielsen ratings:

The all-time most watched television broadcast in US history:

#1 Apollo 11 Moon Landing, with an estimated 150 million viewers on July 20, 1969

Sunday, July 23rd GORGEOUS GRANDMA DAY

On July 23rd, Gorgeous Grandma Day recognizes all women of a certain age, whether they are grandmothers or not.

In many scenarios, grandmother-types step into the role where no grandmother remains. These women lend ears, laps, and hugs, much like the nanas of memory. Of course, they build foundations and set young men and women on their path.

Nearly all of these fantastic women pass down family traditions while teaching children to stand on our own. Full of wisdom and wit, what would anyone do without their grandma?

If you are a grandma, treat yourself to massage or a mani/pedi.

If you have a gorgeous grandma in your life (could be a wife or daughter or a friend), treat her with something special like a dinner out or flowers – just show her how much you love and appreciate her.

SUNSET SOCIAL LCR GAME

Terri C

There were sixteen players at the May 19th LCR game up at the Clubhouse. It was Ken Lynam's lucky night as he won both the first and second rounds! The third round winner was Sharon Kendall.

Joanne Zeffiro proposed an option that a player's dollar can be used to buy a scratch off ticket instead of a cash pot, so we will try that for the June game and let you know how that went. Ice cream was served after the second game. Sometimes during the summer, LCR games are on break but keep an eye out for the Events Board to see when the next game will be held.

LCR (Left Center Right) dice game is played among residents and guests. Everyone brings their own beverages, and we play 3 rounds of the dice game, at a dollar per game. It is very easy to learn, a great to meet your neighbors and have fun getting out of the house.

CRAFTS CLASS

With Sharon Kendall

The Crafts Class in May was the last class until September 2023. This unique project created flags that were made from window blinds! Nice work, ladies.

Thank you, Sharon for bringing your creativity to Southwind and for the photo.

HOA MEMORIAL DAY COOKOUT

By Terri C

On Monday, May 29th our HOA held a cookout for residents in the Clubhouse. The menu consisted of hamburgers, hotdogs, potato salad, baked beans, a drink and ice cream for dessert- for only $6 per plate. Chef Patrick served as the grill master and the Activities Volunteers served residents. About 60 lunches were sold.

Volunteer Teresa Russell, sold 50-50 raffle tickets to help raise money for the HOA. The lucky raffle winners were Lot#33 – Frieda Juran and Bill Kairis who won over $80 – Congratulations!

New residents, Loren & Gordon Wilder #111 and Loren's mother, MaryAnn Bramlett #134 said this was her first event since recently moving in to Southwind and they enjoyed their lunch. MaryAnn was festively dressed in her red, white and blue stars and stripes (see photo). Thank you for coming out and meeting your neighbors at this Holiday event. Our HOA appreciates your support.

WHERE WILL YOUR TRAVELS TAKE YOU THIS SUMMER?

For Ken and Nancy Lynam, they will be visiting his hometown of South Haven, Michigan famously known for its beaches on Lake Michigan. This is where Ken and Nancy met and married more than 40 years ago.

Thank you, Ken for sharing your travel plans and we hope you have a great visit!

*If you are traveling this summer and would share your story or photo of your travels, please email your info to: breezes.editor@gmail.com

Have a wonderful trip and we'll see you back home soon...

THANKS TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

By Terri Campbell

Southwind has a dedicated group of volunteers who deserve to be acknowledged for their service to our Community.

Under the leadership of Sandy McDonald, our newsletter – The Southwind Breezes is hand-delivered faithfully each month by her route captains.

Sandy receives more than 200 copies, sorts them by route, and keeps track of which residents are seasonal, or are out of town, which homes are vacant / for sale. Then she loads her golf cart and delivers the carefully counted batches of newsletters to the team captains for distribution, and also to the Management office and the Clubhouse library every month. It's a lot of volunteer work but she manages it with the help of Joanne Zeffiro, who fills in for Sandy when she goes on vacation or if she needs any help otherwise.

Thank you route Captains for delivering our newsletters each month! They include: Laurie Barber #6, who has 2 routes; Dick Farr #62, who has 2 routes; Jerry Antonczak #56; Sherry Brown #190; Sue Curtain #37; Cheryl Hudecek #148; Frieda Juran #33; and Nancy Lynam #124

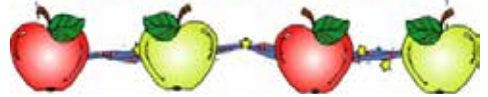

The Breezes newsletter is free to the residents, paid for by the advertisers on the condition that they are hand-delivered by residents to each home in our Community.

If you are out of town, you can still read the newsletter online (and see the pictures in color) by going to www.monthly-media.com, then click on the top tab that says Park Newsletters, then scroll down to the “Nautilus Zone” and click on Southwind. The most recent newsletter will appear on the screen and you scroll down the page to read it online.

Much appreciation to our dedicated Route Captains, Sandy and Joanne for your service to our Southwind Community!!!

TO YOUR HEALTH

Current information about Covid

According to health.harvard.edu, here are some answers to frequently asked questions:

I recently spent time with someone who tested positive for COVID-19. I'm fully vaccinated and boosted. Do I need to get tested?

According to the latest CDC guidelines, you should wear a mask around others for 10 days and take a COVID test about five days after you were exposed to the virus. If you develop symptoms, get tested sooner and isolate at home. These recommendations apply regardless of your vaccination status. You do not need to quarantine unless you personally have symptoms of COVID or have a positive COVID test.

How do I know if I have COVID-19, the flu, or just a cold?

Now that the Omicron variant of COVID-19 is the dominant strain, telling the difference is more challenging than ever. Even if you have been vaccinated and boosted, you can still get symptoms, but they are likely to be mild to moderate in severity. For those not vaccinated, the risk of severe symptoms that can be life-threatening is still substantial.

At the current time, people with "flulike" symptoms should assume they have COVID. If possible, arrange to get tested or do a home test. If the test is positive, you should isolate at home for five days. If you had a negative test when symptoms started, it's still best to isolate at home for two to three more days, to monitor your symptoms and prevent spreading infection. (That's because there is a chance of false negatives with antigen tests, which means you can still have COVID with a negative test.) Consider testing again before going out. Once you are ready to leave home, continue to consistently wear a mask for at least five more days.

I'm vaccinated but got a breakthrough COVID infection. Can I still spread the infection to others?

Yes, you can. That's why the CDC recommends that everyone who tests positive for COVID-19 should isolate from others for at least five days, regardless of their vaccination status.

TRAVEL JOKES

Q: What travels around the world but stays in one corner? A: A stamp

Q: What goes through towns, up hills, and down hills but never moves? A: The road!

I didn't realize how bad of a driver I was until my GPS said, "In 400 feet, do a slight right, stop, and let me out."

I got excited when my son joined the cross-country team. But then I learned they don't cross the country and are back home in a few hours.

Halfway between New York City and Washington, D.C., the train's engine fell silent. "I've got good news and bad news," the conductor announced. "The bad news is we lost power." My fellow passengers groaned. "The good news," he added, "is we weren't cruising at 30,000 feet."

I couldn't decide whether to go to Salt Lake City or Denver for vacation, so I called the airlines to get prices. "Airfare to Denver is $300," the cheery salesperson replied. "And what about Salt Lake City?" "We have a really great rate to Salt Lake—$99," she said "But there is a stopover." "Where?" "In Denver," she said.

"The Star-Spangled Banner,"

by Francis Scott Key written Sept. 14-16, 1814

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thru the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave

(3 more verses follow)

The "Second War of Independence"

Sometimes referred to as the "Second War of Independence," the War of 1812 was the first large scale test of the American republic on the world stage. With the British Navy impressing American sailors, and the British government aiding Native American tribes in their attacks on American citizens on the frontier, Congress, for the first time in our nation's history, declared war on a foreign nation: Great Britain. Battles raged on the high seas.

British soldiers invaded American soil, captured Washington D.C., and even burned the White House. In the end the Star-Spangled Banner waved "O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave." Known as the Battle of Baltimore, this clash inspired the words of the 'Star Spangled Banner'. Key's song would become the American National Anthem.

Fort McHenry in Baltimore, Maryland, is a five pointed star shaped brick building originally constructed as a defensive structure between 1799 and 1802. Named after James McHenry, the Secretary of War from 1796 to 1800, Fort McHenry served its most famous role during the War of 1812. From 13 to 14 September 1814, the British attacked Fort McHenry. Over 1,000 American soldiers defended Fort McHenry, managing to repel the British.

Fort McHenry is a historical American coastal pentagonal bastion fort on Locust Point, now a neighborhood of Baltimore, Maryland. It was first built in 1798 and was used continuously by the U.S. armed forces through World War I and by the Coast Guard in World War II. It was designated a national park in 1925, and in 1939 was redesignated a "National Monument and Historic Shrine". – Wikipedia
