From The President

Diane McSweeney

Dear Shareholder Residents,
Welcome July!

Many thanks to Monty Slaybaugh for the Memorial Day Service. It was presented extremely well and well attended. We are so thankful to have so many veterans in our park.

As many of you know, the freshwater line replacement has been rescinded by Pinellas County. This is due to cost overruns of the sanitary sewer lines replacement project. The County will continue to attempt to get grant funding for this project. It makes sense that both systems should be replaced at the same time, but the initial grant does not specify the fresh water, so it is not included. Grant money has to be followed as written.

Many of us were shocked to be informed that the bridge on Palm Dr. will be closed for 6 - 8 weeks. Hopefully this will be when most residents are not here. All correspondence and timelines concerning the sanitary sewer line is also found under documents on the website. There is a link on the website for those of you that could not access the meeting. The setup of the meeting and zoom was done by a public relations firm representing Pinellas County.

Security in the park. Resident badges have been distributed. NO one should be in the exercise, pool table area, or pool without the resident card. All visiting grandchildren should have them on their person. There have been many incidents that have led the park to this decision. Please cooperate. Please tell your visitors that residents do have the right to ask who they are visiting. Pool Hours have NOT changed. Adult swim is still 1- 4 PM. Any visitor that is 14 or above is not considered a child. If you have visitors, please pay attention to their behaviors. Running, jumping, and splashing is not allowed. Please be respectful of the senior adults. The pool is for recreational enjoyment of all residents and their guests to enjoy.

The park looks terrific! Thank you all for maintaining your residence to a very high standard.
Enjoy July,

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

From The Office

Gay Rosetti, LCAM

The Office

We want to wish everyone a safe and happy summer! Whether you are a full-time or part-time resident, it is the time of the year for traveling, enjoying BBQs with friends and family, and the opportunity for water sports and beaches. Enjoy!

ID Pool Tags:

The I.D. pool tags are in the office for all the owners. You will receive 2 tags and will need to get a lanyard or a clip to be sure you always have it with you when you are at the pool or using any of the facilities. If you have guests who are 14 and older who will be using our pool, be sure to inform them they will need to have the pool tag with them to enter the area. If you are here during the month of June, we will try to get your pool tags to you. If you don't receive I.D tags or are away for the summer, please stop in the office and pick them up.

Sidewalks:

There have been multiple complaints about cars and other vehicles being parked over the sidewalk. This is against the rules, and it is a detriment to others who use the sidewalk for safety reasons. Please be courteous to everyone and make sure your car is not parked on the sidewalk at any time.

Pet Waste:

Unfortunately, we are having a major issue with residents and non-residents walking their dogs through the streets in the park and not picking up after them. Let us please be courteous to our neighbors and pick up after your pet! It is very easy to bring a bag with you and dispose of the waste in the trash. We have pictures of someone who left their dog waste in the middle of the street. This carelessness is extremely inconsiderate toward your neighbors and the community.

Did You Know?

Out of about 20,000 bee species, there are only 4 that make honey?

A typical beehive can produce 400 pounds of honey per year?

Honey has natural preservatives and bacteria can't grow in it?

Famous people who refused to be failures

We've all heard the stories of famous people who had rough or bumpy starts. Here's a few for the record:

- Lucille Ball: She began studying to be an actress in 1927 and was told by the head instructor of the John Murray Anderson Drama School, "Try any other profession. Any other."
- Clint Eastwood and Burt Reynolds: In 1959, a Universal Pictures executive dismissed them at the same meeting with the following statements. To Burt Reynolds: "You have no talent." To Clint Eastwood: "You have a chip on your tooth, your Adam's apple sticks out too far and you talk too slow."
- Marilyn Monroe (Norma Jean Baker): In 1944, Emmeline Snively, director of the Blue Book Modeling Agency, told modeling hopeful Norma Jean, "You'd better learn secretarial work or else get married."
- Elvis Presley: In 1954, Jimmy Denny, manager of the Grand Ole Opry, fired Elvis after one performance. He told Presley, "You ain't goin' nowhere son. You ought to go back to drivin' a truck."
- Alexander Graham Bell: When he invented the telephone in 1876, it did not ring off the hook with calls from potential backers. After making a demonstration call, President Rutherford Hayes said, "That's an amazing invention, but who would ever want to use one of them?"
- Thomas Edison: He was one of the greatest inventors in American history. When he first attended school in Port Huron, Mich., his teachers complained that he was "too slow" and hard to handle. As a result, Edison's mother decided to take her son out of school and teach him at home. In his lifetime, Edison produced more than 1,300 inventions.
- Franklin D. Roosevelt: Paralyzed by polio at 39, he went on to become one of America's most beloved and influential leaders. He was elected president of the United States four times.
- Julia Child: In 1953, she and her two collaborators signed a publishing contract to produce a book tentatively titled French Cooking for the American Kitchen. Julia and her colleagues worked on the book for five years. The publisher rejected the 850 - page manuscript. Child and her partners worked for another year totally revising the manuscript. Again the publisher rejected it. But Julia Child did not give up. She and her collaborators went back to work again, found a new publisher, and in 1961—eight years after beginning—they published Mastering the Art of French Cooking, which has sold more than 1 million copies.
- Douglas MacArthur: He might never have gained power and fame without persistence. When he applied for admission to West Point, he was turned down, not once, but twice. But he tried a third time, was accepted and marched into the history books.
- Abraham Lincoln: He entered the Blackhawk War as a captain. By the end of the war, he had been demoted to the rank of private.

—from the IdeaBank Web site

How to convince someone...

In the musical “My Fair Lady,” based on George Bernard Shaw’s novel Pygmalion, Professor Higgins has driven his cockney prodigy Eliza Doolittle to exhaustion teaching her how to speak “proper” English.

Late in the play, Eliza responds with frustration when her would-be swain Freddie talks about his affection for her in romantic phrases but doesn’t kiss or hold her.

“Words! Words! Words!” Eliza explodes. “I am so sick of words! I get words all day through. First from him, now from you! Is that all you blighters can do?”

Then she sings, “Don’t talk of stars burning above; if you’re in love, show me! Tell me no dreams filled with desire. If you’re on fire, show me!”

There is a profound lesson here for anyone trying to persuade someone to his or her point of view.

An old American proverb says: “Tell me, and I will forget, show me, and I may remember; but involve me, and I’ll understand.” —from The IdeaBank Web site

A lesson about getting to the top

A tired and disheartened turkey had a chat with a bull. During the conversation the turkey revealed one of his deepest desires to the bull. “I would love to get to the top of that tree there,” the turkey said, “but I just don’t have enough energy to do the job.”

The bull scratched his head and after a moment he came up with an idea. “Why don’t you eat some of my droppings. It won’t cost you anything, and my dung is packed with nutrients.”

The turkey thought about this for a minute, then began pecking around and nibbling at the dung. After the turkey had finished a whole lump of dung, he suddenly felt the strength to reach the first branch of the tree.

The next day, the turkey ate some more dung, and he was able to reach the second branch. After two weeks of dining on dung, the turkey could finally be seen proudly perched at the top of the tree. Soon he was spotted by a farmer and shot out of the tree.

Moral: While bullsh*t might help you get to the top, it probably won’t keep you there for long. — adapted from Paul Tomko’s Collection of Humorous Quotes Web site

The anti-cancer lowdown on herbs and spices

Many spices and herbs are believed to be imbued with health-building properties and have anti-cancer effects. Herbs and spices are believed to be full of antioxidants, which prevent the damage that free radicals can do to cells.

The National Cancer Institute has identified the following herbs and spices as having cancer-preventing properties: tarragon, cumin, coriander, anise, caraway, turmeric, fennel, rosemary, thyme, oregano and sage. Some of these; caraway, tarragon, fennel and cumin; may also prevent tumor growth, and they are believed to reduce cholesterol levels. Coriander, it is believed, is effective in combating carcinogens. Turmeric contains curcumin, which gives it a yellow color, and has been shown to protect mice against Alzheimer's. Saffron and paprika are believed to stimulate immunity. Cloves and nutmeg are believed to fight bacteria, and chili peppers and ginger might help prevent tumor formation. Cinnamon could be a possible treatment for diabetes in the future. One to two teaspoons were found to lower blood sugar and prevent insulin spikes. —adapted from the U.C. Berkeley Wellness Letter

The importance of proofreading ...

The following is a list of newspaper corrections that has been widely circulated over the Internet:

- Important notice: If you are one of hundreds of parachuting enthusiasts who bought our Easy Sky Diving book, please make the following correction: on Page 8, line 7, the words state zip code should have read pull rip cord.
- There was a mistake in an item sent in two weeks ago which stated that Ed Burnham entertained a party at crap shooting. It should have been trap shooting.
- There are two important corrections to the information in the update on our Deep Relaxation professional development program. First, the program will include meditation, not medication. Second, it is experiential, not experimental.
- Our newspaper carried the notice last week that Mr. Oscar Hoffnagle is a defective on the police force. This was a typographical error. Mr. Hoffnagle is, of course, a detective on the police force.
- In a recent edition, we referred to the chairman of Chrysler Corporation as Lee Iacocoo. His real name is Lee Iacocca. The Gazette regrets the error.
- Apology: I originally wrote, “Woodrow Wilson’s wife grazed on front lawn of the White House.” I’m sorry that typesetting inadvertently left out the word “sheep.”
- In one edition of today’s Food Section, an inaccurate number of jalapeño peppers was given for Jeanette Crowley’s Southwestern Chicken Salad recipe. The recipe should call for two, not 21, jalapeño peppers.
- The marriage of Miss Freda vanAmburg and Willie Branton, which was announced in this paper a few weeks ago, was a mistake which we wish to correct.

How a town got its name

Sometimes towns get their names because of founders, prominent citizens or natural landmarks. But a town in southern Ohio has a more colorful history it would seem. Knockemstiff, Ohio, is a tiny hamlet that has no main roads or stores. One story about how the town got its unusual name is that it was named for the fighting ability of its young men. Another story is that there was a huge brawl in the town saloon. The third, and final story about how the town got its name is that an angry wife asked the town preacher how she could get her cheating husband to stay home. The preacher’s answer: “knockemstiff.”
