Fairway Social Committee (FSC)

Sherry Moore, FSC Chairperson

As the summer continues and the temperature rises, we have a month of Social Fun in our beautiful cool Clubhouse. Karaoke is scheduled for July 15th, hosted by Rob Hathaway. The Summer Fun Parties continue with the second Port of Call scheduled for July 22nd, hosted by Nancy Whitford. Then of course our monthly Koffee Klatch, to sweeten up the month, hosted by Melinda Baker.

During July and August all FSC financial needs will be handled by our very own Cecelia Schroeder. Please contact her with any deposits or requests for funds. Do not go directly to the office.

FSC is always looking for volunteers, if you would like to help out, email sherrymoore94@gmail.com or call/text 902-410-7588. Feel free to contact me at any time. I may not know the answer to your question; however, I will find one.

Thanks again for all you do, support is crucial to having such a vibrant community to live in.

Cheers and Stay Safe, Sherry

Come Sail Away With Us On A Summer Cruise

Nancy Whitford

PARTY PARTY PARTY! Key West, Margaritaville, Jimmy Buffett – right here at Fairway Village and the fun has just begun. The cruise ship was full of passengers and time to get sailing again. Board the ship again as we are headed to our second Port of Call – Mexican Riviera with a stop in beautiful Cabo San Lucas. A five-piece band, delicious dinner, dancing, ship to shore and more – July 22nd with boarding at 5:00 pm.

Our last stop on this most memorable summer cruise is Hawaii – we are headed to Maui. Arrival at this port is August 19 at 5:00 pm. This excursion is not to be missed, so grab your tickets, get your leis and tropical attire – time to party with the most awesome entertainment, dinner with friends, dancing, and so much more!

Bring all three of your souvenir photos you collected to be eligible for the drawing from the cruise ship USS FAIRWAY – a gift basket full of gifts to one lucky winner!

Sailing this summer on you own private cruise – three ports – three adventures – three surprises!

Things have slowed down immensely in Fairway Village. We still deliver donuts on the third Saturday of the month to our shut-ins. Please let us know of anyone that may be in need of our services.

Meetings for the WWW will begin again on the first Wednesday from November until April. Join us in the Ambrose Marsh Meeting Room in the Clubhouse at 2:30 pm. We would love to have some new members with new ideas!

Have a great summer!

The Welcome Mat

Let us give our new neighbors a warm welcome to the community. Jim and Judy McAteer, #97, this full-time couple comes from New Jersey. Jim hasn't caught the full retirement bug yet as he is currently employed at Johnson Controls. Judy spent her career in the medical field as a Nurse. When Jim does find the time for relaxation, he enjoys softball, fishing and sports. Judy's hobbies include painting, needlework and beaching. They have three sons and a dog named Marlo.

Famous people who refused to be failures

We've all heard the stories of famous people who had rough or bumpy starts. Here's a few for the record:

- Lucille Ball: She began studying to be an actress in 1927 and was told by the head instructor of the John Murray Anderson Drama School, "Try any other profession. Any other."
- Clint Eastwood and Burt Reynolds: In 1959, a Universal Pictures executive dismissed them at the same meeting with the following statements. To Burt Reynolds: "You have no talent." To Clint Eastwood: "You have a chip on your tooth, your Adam's apple sticks out too far and you talk too slow."
- Marilyn Monroe (Norma Jean Baker): In 1944, Emmeline Snively, director of the Blue Book Modeling Agency, told modeling hopeful Norma Jean, "You'd better learn secretarial work or else get married."
- Elvis Presley: In 1954, Jimmy Denny, manager of the Grand Ole Opry, fired Elvis after one performance. He told Presley, "You ain't goin' nowhere son. You ought to go back to drivin' a truck."
- Alexander Graham Bell: When he invented the telephone in 1876, it did not ring off the hook with calls from potential backers. After making a demonstration call, President Rutherford Hayes said, "That's an amazing invention, but who would ever want to use one of them?"
- Thomas Edison: He was one of the greatest inventors in American history. When he first attended school in Port Huron, Mich., his teachers complained that he was "too slow" and hard to handle. As a result, Edison's mother decided to take her son out of school and teach him at home. In his lifetime, Edison produced more than 1,300 inventions.
- Franklin D. Roosevelt: Paralyzed by polio at 39, he went on to become one of America's most beloved and influential leaders. He was elected president of the United States four times.
- Julia Child: In 1953, she and her two collaborators signed a publishing contract to produce a book tentatively titled French Cooking for the American Kitchen. Julia and her colleagues worked on the book for five years. The publisher rejected the 850 - page manuscript. Child and her partners worked for another year totally revising the manuscript. Again the publisher rejected it. But Julia Child did not give up. She and her collaborators went back to work again, found a new publisher, and in 1961—eight years after beginning—they published Mastering the Art of French Cooking, which has sold more than 1 million copies.
- Douglas MacArthur: He might never have gained power and fame without persistence. When he applied for admission to West Point, he was turned down, not once, but twice. But he tried a third time, was accepted and marched into the history books.
- Abraham Lincoln: He entered the Blackhawk War as a captain. By the end of the war, he had been demoted to the rank of private.

Did You Know?

Out of about 20,000 bee species, there are only 4 that make honey?

A typical beehive can produce 400 pounds of honey per year?

Honey has natural preservatives and bacteria can't grow in it?

The anti-cancer lowdown on herbs and spices

Many spices and herbs are believed to be imbued with health-building properties and have anti-cancer effects. Herbs and spices are believed to be full of antioxidants, which prevent the damage that free radicals can do to cells.

The National Cancer Institute has identified the following herbs and spices as having cancer-preventing properties: tarragon, cumin, coriander, anise, caraway, turmeric, fennel, rosemary, thyme, oregano and sage. Some of these; caraway, tarragon, fennel and cumin; may also prevent tumor growth, and they are believed to reduce cholesterol levels. Coriander, it is believed, is effective in combating carcinogens. Turmeric contains curcumin, which gives it a yellow color, and has been shown to protect mice against Alzheimer's. Saffron and paprika are believed to stimulate immunity. Cloves and nutmeg are believed to fight bacteria, and chili peppers and ginger might help prevent tumor formation. Cinnamon could be a possible treatment for diabetes in the future. One to two teaspoons were found to lower blood sugar and prevent insulin spikes. —adapted from the U.C. Berkeley Wellness Letter

A hodgepodge of health tips

Here is a smattering of tips to keep you at your best:

- If you need long-lasting energy, eat foods like lentils, soybeans, couscous and dried fruits.
 - Make sure that you drink plenty of water. Eight to 10 glasses a day help replenish and cleanse the body.
 - Want to feel better? How about popping a chocolate kiss in your mouth. Just one has been shown to raise endorphin levels and make you feel better. More, however, won't make you feel any better than just one.
 - Add ginger to your recipes. Ginger has been used since ancient times in China to help digestion and cleanse the body.
 - After age 30, people begin to lose muscle mass, and it becomes increasingly important to perform weight-bearing exercises.
 - Eat 1 cup of yogurt per day. Women who ate 1 cup of yogurt per day for six months got 33 percent fewer yeast infections, according to a recent study.

How to convince someone...

In the musical “My Fair Lady,” based on George Bernard Shaw’s novel Pygmalion, Professor Higgins has driven his cockney prodigy Eliza Doolittle to exhaustion teaching her how to speak “proper” English.

Late in the play, Eliza responds with frustration when her would-be swain Fredrick talks about his affection for her in romantic phrases but doesn’t kiss or hold her.

“Words! Words! Words!” Eliza explodes. “I am so sick of words! I get words all day through. First from him, now from you! Is that all you blighters can do?”

Then she sings, “Don’t talk of stars burning above; if you’re in love, show me! Tell me no dreams filled with desire. If you’re on fire, show me!”

There is a profound lesson here for anyone trying to persuade someone to his or her point of view.

An old American proverb says: “Tell me, and I will forget, show me, and I may remember; but involve me, and I’ll understand.” —from The IdeaBank Web site

A lesson about getting to the top

A tired and disheartened turkey had a chat with a bull. During the conversation the turkey revealed one of his deepest desires to the bull. “I would love to get to the top of that tree there,” the turkey said, “but I just don’t have enough energy to do the job.”

The bull scratched his head and after a moment he came up with an idea. “Why don’t you eat some of my droppings. It won’t cost you anything, and my dung is packed with nutrients.”

The turkey thought about this for a minute, then began pecking around and nibbling at the dung. After the turkey had finished a whole lump of dung, he suddenly felt the strength to reach the first branch of the tree.

The next day, the turkey ate some more dung, and he was able to reach the second branch.

After two weeks of dining on dung, the turkey could finally be seen proudly perched at the top of the tree. Soon he was spotted by a farmer and shot out of the tree.

Moral: While bullsh*t might help you get to the top, it probably won’t keep you there for long. — adapted from Paul Tomko’s Collection of Humorous Quotes Web site

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,
The Florida Anchor & Barrier Team
