SUMMER CANCELLATIONS

The snowbirds are gone and the year 'rounders are traveling Soooo, Euchre has been suspended until October and Bingo is suspended until September. We'll post something on Facebook when they start up again as there won't be a September Piper issue because the Editor is on vacation. Thanks!!!

GREAT TURNOUT FOR SHARON

Would just like to say "Thank You" to everyone who turned out for Sharon's Retirement Party!! It was a great way to show our appreciation for her years in the office.

JUST A REMINDER

When leaving the park via the Falcon Street exit, please remember that there are TWO stop signs for protection of those who live along Falcon Street. Please remember to stop and look and make sure no one is coming from either side, then proceed to the stop sign at Falcon. And be careful coming in off of Falcon, too. Thank you for paying attention.

ACTS OF KINDNESS

by Brenda Boudreau

Now we are in August, another month goes by. The month that sticks out the most for me so far this year is the month of June. What I remember the most from June is that I witnessed just how wonderful and precious grandmothers are, and we have some wonderful grandmothers here in Lake Highlander Park. Don't get me wrong, there are great grandpa's out there too, but grandmothers hold a special bond with their grandchildren no matter what age.

The two things I noticed that stuck in my head was a grandmother that had her granddaughter here for a week. This granddaughter is very sweet and has a very outgoing personality. She loves people and loves to see them smile. So, with her grandmother's help she took requests to do drawings with chalk on the street in front of the resident's homes. Some dolphins, turtles, flowers, and for me, she did a beautiful drawing of the American flag. What a wonderful thing to do for us LH residents. With some help from her grandmother, this child is on her way to becoming a wonderful caring adult.

The second act of kindness I noticed was another grandmother who still works back in her home state but came to Florida with a few of her grandchildren and to visit a few of her grandchildren that live in Florida. So she had a bunch of young ladies. HATS OFF TO HER!!!! She only had a week with them, so she planned every day keeping them busy and leaving them with very special memories. On her last day she wanted to teach them kindness, and how important it is to respect and do for others. So she went out and bought several little pink flamingos, the ones you stick on your lawn. Gave them to the girls and told them to knock on doors of residents in the park and offer them a free flamingo and place them on their lawn.

I'm sure this brought many smiles to resident's faces. Especially ones that don't get out much. How wonderful that grandparents can be such a good influence on their grandchildren's lives. Especially in these days where kindness is far and few between. I thought it was wonderful to see so many grandmothers interact with their grandchildren and to see how many wonderful grandmothers we have in our wonderful community here in Lake Highlander. We are all blessed, not just the grandchildren.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

1. If a bottle of poison reaches its expiration date, is it more poisonous or is it no longer poisonous?
2. Which letter is silent in the word "Scent," the S or the C?
3. Do twins ever realize that one of them is unplanned?
4. Every time you clean something, you just make something else dirty.
5. The word "swims" upside-down is still "swims".
6. Over 100 years ago, everyone owned a horse and only the rich had cars Today everyone has cars and only the rich own horses.
7. If people evolved from monkeys, why are monkeys still around?
8. Why is there a 'D' in fridge, but not in refrigerator?
9. As I've grown older, I've learned that pleasing everyone is impossible, but pissing everyone off is a piece of cake!
10. I'm responsible for what I say, not for what you understand.
11. Common sense is like deodorant. The people who need it the most never use it.
12. My tolerance for idiots is extremely low these days. I used to have some immunity built up, but obviously, there's a new strain out there.
13. It's not my age that bothers me - it's the side effects.
14. I'm not saying I'm old and worn out, but I make sure I'm nowhere near the curb on trash day.
15. As I watch this generation try and rewrite our history, I'm sure of one thing: it will be misspelled and have no punctuation.
16. As I've gotten older, people think I've become lazy. The truth is I'm just being more energy-efficient.
17. I haven't gotten anything done today. I've been in the Produce Department trying to open this stupid plastic bag.
18. If you find yourself feeling useless, remember: it took 20 years, trillions of dollars, thousands of lives and four presidents to replace the Taliban with the Taliban.
19. Turns out that being a "senior" is mostly just googling how to do stuff.
20. I want to be 18 again and ruin my life differently. I have new ideas.
21. I'm on two simultaneous diets. I wasn't getting enough food on one.
22. I put my scale in the bathroom corner and that's where the little liar will stay until it apologizes.
23. My mind is like an internet browser. At least 18 open tabs, 3 of them are frozen, and I have no clue where the music is coming from.
24. Hard to believe I once had a phone attached to a wall, and when it rang, I picked it up without knowing who was calling.
25. My wife says I keep pushing her buttons. If that were true, I would have found mute by now.

On finding perfection

Two men met on an airplane and began to talk. They asked each other the usual questions, and it came to be disclosed that one of the men was married and the other man was not. After a while the married man asked, “Why is it that you never married?”

The single man looked pensive then said, “Well, I think I just never met the right woman, you know.”

“Oh, come on, man,” the married man replied, “surely you’ve met at least one girl during your lifetime that you wanted to marry.”

The single man once again thought about the man’s statement, “Well, yes, that’s true,” he said. “There was one girl ... once. The perfect girl. Actually, she was the only perfect girl I have ever met. Everything she did was absolutely right on. She really was the perfect girl for me.”

“Well, why on Earth didn’t you marry her?” the married man asked?

“She was looking for the perfect man,” the other replied. — adapted from www.OneSmartClick.com

On giving sage advice

An extremely famous writer came to deliver a lecture to a group of students who, it was known, were absolutely determined to pursue their own literary careers.

The esteemed lecturer walked to the front of the room, gazed out at the ambitious faces in the audience and asked: “How many of you really want to be writers?”

Every student in the audience raised his or her hand. The lecturer calmly looked around the room and then said, “In that case, I won’t be needing these.” He returned his notes for his talk to his coat pocket in a sweeping motion. He looked up and said, “The best advice I can give you is to go home and write.”

And with that the esteemed writer left the room. —adapted from the Speaker’s Sourcebook II: Quotes, Stories, and Anecdotes for Every Occasion by Glenn Van Ekeren

An honest man

Cincinnati Red’s closer Danny Graves lost his wallet recently during a trip to the West Coast for a game. Graves just assumed his wallet was gone forever. The wallet contained about $1,400, credit cards and Graves’s driver’s license.

Graves didn’t know it, but he had lost his wallet on the bus that took the Reds to the airport. Lucky for Graves, the man who cleaned that bus was an honest man. The man didn’t just return the wallet to Graves, he went to a lot of trouble to make sure the ball player got everything back safely. The bus cleaner took the cash in and exchanged it for traveler’s checks so that it wouldn’t get stolen in the mail. The man also overnighted the wallet to Graves. And what did this honest man want in return?

He sent his name and address and asked for an autograph for his father. —adapted from The Rugged Elegance Inspirational Network Web site

Ready, set - get your energy flowing

If you feel sapped of all life, maybe you need to reenergize. Your energy is the essence of who you are. The ancients who studied energy did not see it as something expendable that you run out of, but rather saw it as a force that can become blocked. You can unblock your energy by making some healthy and balanced changes in your life. Here are some suggestions on how to get your energy going:

- Take a shower—and contrast the temps. That means after your regular warm shower, turn the knob to dispense water as cold as you can bear for 30 seconds. Switch it back and forth two or three times. Make sure the water hits your chest, back and back of the neck.
 - Skip the coffee and start out with something that will truly perk you up. Pour hot water into a cup, add the juice of one-quarter to one-half lemon and shake in a pinch of cayenne. The sour taste of the lemon releases bile and stimulates digestive juices. Cayenne stimulates gastric acids in the stomach and raises metabolism. It gets everything started.
 - Thump yourself. It will invigorate you, so give it a try. Gently pound the insides and outsides of your arms and legs with loosely closed fists. Then try it out on your solar plexus, lower back and neck and your abdomen. It will increase your circulation and make you feel good.
 - Exercise. Get your heart moving. It will trigger the release of chemicals in the brain that will make you feel good.
 - Eat your breakfast. And continue eating small meals throughout the day, so you don't hit that wall in the afternoon.
 - Stretch your bod. When you're feeling washed out, try some stretching exercises to re-energize.
 - Go ahead—sparkle. Turn the volume up on whatever it is you do best. Try throwing in that extra oomph. Don't act like some lunatic or a phony. Just try being more upbeat than you usually are. Pay attention to how people respond.
 - Seek out those who are energetic. Good energy after all is contagious.
 - Break free of your rut. Let your energy be free and see where it takes you. Go to a new restaurant. Listen to music you've never heard before.
 - Put your personal stamp on everything you do. Living creatively does not necessarily mean you turn out amazing works of art. It does mean that you bring your uniqueness to everything you do, though. Dare to live an inspired life.
- adapted from body+soul

Resolve to be tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving, and tolerant with the weak and the wrong. Sometime in life you will have been all of these.

— Lloyd Shearer

How to overcome insomnia

If you suffer from insomnia, you know how miserable it can be. About half of all Americans report chronic problems sleeping. Here are a few things you can try to get yourself on the way to a perfect night's sleep:

- Set your body clock. It will take about two weeks to do this. Set a time for bed and awakening that work with your lifestyle. You'll also want to make sure that you're allowing yourself enough time for sleep. Then stick to your routine. Don't take naps during the day.
 - Prepare yourself, so that you can sleep deeply. That means stay away from caffeine and nicotine for at least six hours before you plan to sleep. You will also want to avoid alcohol and marijuana, or other recreational drugs, at least six hours before you sleep. They can predispose you to anxiety or depression—and that can turn into a sleep problem. You might also want to try a snack of bananas and warm milk. Both are high in tryptophan, which can help you get to sleep. Avoid fluid intake, so you won't be awakened by the need to go to the bathroom. Exercise regularly (five times a week), and you'll be surprised at how much your sleep will improve.
 - Stretch and meditate. Doing this just before bedtime will relax you.
 - Avoid the television and computer for one hour before you sleep. These light sources can encourage your body to stay alert. And they can also keep you thinking, which can interfere with sleep.
 - Make your bedroom perfect for sleeping. Make it dark, and make it quiet. And make your bed comfortable and cozy. Keep the temperature setting at whatever works for you.
- adapted from Utne magazine

Is organic milk really better for you?

Does “organic” milk really have more nutrients than non-organic milk? The Danish Institute of Agricultural Research suggests that it does. Researchers found that organic milk from pasture-fed cows has significantly higher levels of antioxidants, omega-3 fatty acids, beta carotene and Vitamin E. It may all go back to what our mothers pounded into our heads: You are what you eat. Organic, pasture-fed cows eat lots of grass and clover. Non-organic cows are sometimes fed genetically modified feed, plastic pellets, manure and urea. — adapted from “Got organic milk?” by Alexis Adams in Natural Home & Garden

So, you're finally going to get that promotion ...

Once, a long time ago, an editor on an exotic adventure was captured by cannibals. “Unhand me!” he cried out indignantly. “I am an editor, and I demand immunity of the press!”

“Most interesting,” the cannibal chief, who had graduated from Columbia years before, but had fled society to find the meaning of life, said. “Are you a senior editor or a regular editor?” the chief demanded to know.

The man hung his head in shame and admitted to the cannibal chief that he was, indeed, only a mere editor.

“Well, you can consider this your lucky day. And let me be the first to congratulate you on your impending promotion,” the chief said warmly. “After dinner tonight you’ll be editor-in-chief.” — adapted from Laughter Incorporated by Bennett Cerf

Future fame and paying bills

A crafty journalism student was short on cash and unable to pay his rent, trying to talk his landlord into being patient.

“You know, in a few years time, people will make it a point to walk by this building and point to my window and say ‘Jackson, the famous writer, once lived there.’”

The landlord drew his eyebrows into a scathing look and said: “If I don’t get the rent tonight, they’ll be able to say that tomorrow.” — adapted from Laughs for Teens

Two philosophers go for a walk...

Did you hear the story about the two philosophers, Goethe and Kant?

Kant was confused about something important and so the two famed philosophers took a walk in the woods.

Later, Kant was asked if taking a walk in the woods with Goethe helped. Kant answered, “Definitely, yes. I’m still confused, but at a much higher level.” — adapted from the Tully Communications Web site

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,

Now, that's flattering

The actor, Tony Randall, once recalled walking down Madison Avenue when he spied a very attractive tie in a shop window. Randall went in and immediately the storekeeper recognized him. The shopkeeper was so excited he told Randall that he just had to call his wife while the actor was standing right there because she was never going to believe he was in the store.

The storekeeper proceeded to call his wife and asked Randall to speak to his wife—to just say anything.

Randall said that he was so flattered that he bought the tie and six shirts, but then realized he did not have enough money to pay for the items.

The actor asked the shopkeeper if he would take a check, and the shopkeeper replied, “Do you have any identification?” — adapted from the Anecdote Web site

On being consistent

There was a woman who frequently turned up in traffic court to answer routine traffic tickets. Each time she came in over a period of years the judge asked her the same standard questions.

“What is your age?” he asked.

“Thirty,” the woman replied.

“Come on now, lady,” the judge said, “you’ve been coming into this courtroom for five years, and you always give me the same age.”

“I know,” agreed the woman, “but I’m not one of those people who says one thing today and another thing tomorrow.” — adapted from Laughs for Teens, compiled by Arthur Liebers

Memo: In our infinite wisdom we have decided ...

If you’ve ever worked in an office, you’ve probably had someone in management decide that it would be a good idea for everyone in the office to move to another location or desk. Who knows where this crazy restless exercise originates in the minds of those who order it, but apparently the practice has been around for quite a while. Harold Ross, the famous founder of The New Yorker, was so fond of moving the desks of workers and the partitions in the magazine’s offices, that James Thurber hung a sign in the entrance hall that read: “Alterations Going On As Usual During Business.” —adapted from Laughter Incorporated, by Bennett Cerf

On progress

Progress was alright. Only it went on too long.
