HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION UPDATE

Bob Campbell, President, Lot 253

Our general membership meetings will start up again on September 11, 2023. By virtue of your Oakcrest/Acorn residency, you are an HOA member and are entitled to attend the meetings and are encouraged to do so. It bears repeating that only members current in their dues can express their views and participate in the discussions at the meeting. If you need to bring your dues up to date, please drop $10:00 off to Elsie at Lot # 335. Elsie has a mail slot in her door so you can drop it off quite easily. Make sure you write your lot number on your check or envelope so Elsie can complete a membership card which we will deliver to you. We can also arrange to come to your home and pick up your dues. Just call any of us listed on page 2 of the Messenger. Hope you continue to have a great summer and hope to see you all in September!! "

Remember, the next HOA meeting will take place at 7:00 p.m., Sept. 11, 2023.

OAK CREST/ ACORN RESIDENTS' CLUB

Karen Stancick, President, Lot 205, 610-349-7614

Activities have slowed down for the summer; it appears that residents are taking it easy and trying to stay cool. Our next event is an Ice Cream Social on Friday, August 18 at 7:00 pm. at the clubhouse. You will be able to make yourself a refreshing ice cream sundae and visit with your friends and neighbors, and "think cool" while enjoying a treat! There is no cost to residents. A Labor Day Picnic for September is in the works. Keep an eye out for a flyer in your message box for more information. The Breakfast Buffet will resume October 7th .

ATTENTION ALL CRAFTERS: Keep cool while working on items for our 2nd Annual Craft Fair to be held on Saturday, October 21 in the Clubhouse. Please contact Jill DiMaggio at 443-741-5304 for more information and the cost to rent a table.

FREE FOOD BAGS—MY CARE MEDICAL & HUMANA!!!

Jill Chambers, Lot 234, 440-318-4738

My Care Medical will be providing free bags of food on August 1st, 1 p.m. and Humana will be providing healthy food bags on August 25, 3:00 p.m. You do not have to be customers of either of these companies to take advantage of this benefit. Instead of spending their marketing money on newspaper or other kinds of advertising; they are reaching out by providing food to those who may need it; but we are under no obligation to them. We are trying to get Humana set up for earlier in the day, so keep an eye on the OakCrest/Acorn website for updates. These food bags are available to anyone in the park.

NEED THE CLUBHOUSE?

Kathy Meyers, Lot 15

If you would like to reserve the clubhouse for an event, please contact Karen Stancick until I return in Mid-November. Please have the following information available when you call:

WHEN? DATE AND TIME

Know that you must pay a $100 deposit to the office, after you have filled out the appropriate paperwork you will get from Karen. Deposit is refundable if space is left in order when you leave.

The Clubhouse is intended for the use of Oakcrest/Acorn residents and their guests; therefore, a member of the community must be in attendance at the event.

The Ice Cream Social will be Friday, August 18, 2023 @ 7:00 p.m. in the Clubhouse. There is no charge for residents, but please sign up on the sheet at the clubhouse so we can be prepared. More activities to come, so be sure to check your calendar, while staying cool.

HOLIDAY CRAFT FAIR

Crafters! Crafters! Crafters! Get busy crafting and reserve your space for the 2nd Annual Craft Fair to be held October 21, 2023 at the Oakcrest/Acorn Clubhouse. We have room for thirty vendors and the cost for an 8-foot table is $15.00. Contact Jill DiMaggio at 443-741-5304 to reserve a table and complete a vendor contract. Please leave a message with your contact information if she is unavailable. Jill will get back to you as soon as possible. We will be advertising locally and expect a great turnout, just like last year.

All are welcome to participate in the craft club on Friday mornings from 9:00-12:00 a.m. and Tuesday evenings from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. Come with or without a craft idea. Maybe someone there is doing something you would like to learn!

TRUE STORY

James Schibik, Oakcrest/Acorn Resident

As a new resident, I discovered that my clothes dryer was not drying clothes very well. I pulled it out of my shed and removed a LARGE bucket full of lint from my dryer vent. I learned that dryer vent fires are a major cause of housefires in America, and I thought by sharing my experience, it could help others prevent a disaster.

Editor's note: Thanks so much for sharing, James. Do you have a 'true story' that could help our residents? In the future, send it to me at kmm33771@aol.com BEFORE the tenth of the month. Please include your name and phone #, in case I need to follow up.

Ready, set - get your energy flowing

If you feel sapped of all life, maybe you need to reenergize. Your energy is the essence of who you are. The ancients who studied energy did not see it as something expendable that you run out of, but rather saw it as a force that can become blocked. You can unblock your energy by making some healthy and balanced changes in your life. Here are some suggestions on how to get your energy going:

- Take a shower—and contrast the temps. That means after your regular warm shower, turn the knob to dispense water as cold as you can bear for 30 seconds. Switch it back and forth two or three times. Make sure the water hits your chest, back and back of the neck.
  - Skip the coffee and start out with something that will truly perk you up. Pour hot water into a cup, add the juice of one-quarter to one-half lemon and shake in a pinch of cayenne. The sour taste of the lemon releases bile and stimulates digestive juices. Cayenne stimulates gastric acids in the stomach and raises metabolism. It gets everything started.
  - Thump yourself. It will invigorate you, so give it a try. Gently pound the insides and outsides of your arms and legs with loosely closed fists. Then try it out on your solar plexus, lower back and neck and your abdomen. It will increase your circulation and make you feel good.
  - Exercise. Get your heart moving. It will trigger the release of chemicals in the brain that will make you feel good.
  - Eat your breakfast. And continue eating small meals throughout the day, so you don't hit that wall in the afternoon.
  - Stretch your bod. When you're feeling washed out, try some stretching exercises to re-energize.
  - Go ahead—sparkle. Turn the volume up on whatever it is you do best. Try throwing in that extra oomph. Don't act like some lunatic or a phony. Just try being more upbeat than you usually are. Pay attention to how people respond.
  - Seek out those who are energetic. Good energy after all is contagious.
  - Break free of your rut. Let your energy be free and see where it takes you. Go to a new restaurant. Listen to music you've never heard before.
  - Put your personal stamp on everything you do. Living creatively does not necessarily mean you turn out amazing works of art. It does mean that you bring your uniqueness to everything you do, though. Dare to live an inspired life.
- adapted from body+soul

Resolve to be tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving, and tolerant with the weak and the wrong. Sometime in life you will have been all of these.

Now, that's flattering

The actor, Tony Randall, once recalled walking down Madison Avenue when he spied a very attractive tie in a shop window. Randall went in and immediately the storekeeper recognized him. The shopkeeper was so excited he told Randall that he just had to call his wife while the actor was standing right there because she was never going to believe he was in the store.

The storekeeper proceeded to call his wife and asked Randall to speak to his wife—to just say anything.

Randall said that he was so flattered that he bought the tie and six shirts, but then realized he did not have enough money to pay for the items.

The actor asked the shopkeeper if he would take a check, and the shopkeeper replied, “Do you have any identification?” — adapted from the Anecdote Web site

On being consistent

There was a woman who frequently turned up in traffic court to answer routine traffic tickets. Each time she came in over a period of years the judge asked her the same standard questions.

“What is your age?” he asked.

“Thirty,” the woman replied.

“Come on now, lady,” the judge said, “you’ve been coming into this courtroom for five years, and you always give me the same age.”

“I know,” agreed the woman, “but I’m not one of those people who says one thing today and another thing tomorrow.” — adapted from Laughs for Teens, compiled by Arthur Liebers

Memo: In our infinite wisdom we have decided ...

If you’ve ever worked in an office, you’ve probably had someone in management decide that it would be a good idea for everyone in the office to move to another location or desk. Who knows where this crazy restless exercise originates in the minds of those who order it, but apparently the practice has been around for quite a while. Harold Ross, the famous founder of The New Yorker, was so fond of moving the desks of workers and the partitions in the magazine’s offices, that James Thurber hung a sign in the entrance hall that read: “Alterations Going On As Usual During Business.” —adapted from Laughter Incorporated, by Bennett Cerf

On progress

Progress was alright. Only it went on too long.

On finding perfection

Two men met on an airplane and began to talk. They asked each other the usual questions, and it came to be disclosed that one of the men was married and the other man was not. After a while the married man asked, “Why is it that you never married?”

The single man looked pensive then said, “Well, I think I just never met the right woman, you know.”

“Oh, come on, man,” the married man replied, “surely you’ve met at least one girl during your lifetime that you wanted to marry.”

The single man once again thought about the man’s statement, “Well, yes, that’s true,” he said. “There was one girl ... once. The perfect girl. Actually, she was the only perfect girl I have ever met. Everything she did was absolutely right on. She really was the perfect girl for me.”

“Well, why on Earth didn’t you marry her?” the married man asked?

“She was looking for the perfect man,” the other replied. — adapted from www.OneSmartClick.com

On giving sage advice

An extremely famous writer came to deliver a lecture to a group of students who, it was known, were absolutely determined to pursue their own literary careers.

The esteemed lecturer walked to the front of the room, gazed out at the ambitious faces in the audience and asked: “How many of you really want to be writers?”

Every student in the audience raised his or her hand. The lecturer calmly looked around the room and then said, “In that case, I won’t be needing these.” He returned his notes for his talk to his coat pocket in a sweeping motion. He looked up and said, “The best advice I can give you is to go home and write.”

And with that the esteemed writer left the room. —adapted from the Speaker’s Sourcebook II: Quotes, Stories, and Anecdotes for Every Occasion by Glenn Van Ekeren

An honest man

Cincinnati Red’s closer Danny Graves lost his wallet recently during a trip to the West Coast for a game. Graves just assumed his wallet was gone forever. The wallet contained about $1,400, credit cards and Graves’s driver’s license.

Graves didn’t know it, but he had lost his wallet on the bus that took the Reds to the airport. Lucky for Graves, the man who cleaned that bus was an honest man. The man didn’t just return the wallet to Graves, he went to a lot of trouble to make sure the ball player got everything back safely. The bus cleaner took the cash in and exchanged it for traveler’s checks so that it wouldn’t get stolen in the mail. The man also overnighted the wallet to Graves. And what did this honest man want in return?

He sent his name and address and asked for an autograph for his father. —adapted from The Rugged Elegance Inspirational Network Web site

How to overcome insomnia

If you suffer from insomnia, you know how miserable it can be. About half of all Americans report chronic problems sleeping. Here are a few things you can try to get yourself on the way to a perfect night's sleep:

- Set your body clock. It will take about two weeks to do this. Set a time for bed and awakening that work with your lifestyle. You'll also want to make sure that you're allowing yourself enough time for sleep. Then stick to your routine. Don't take naps during the day.
  - Prepare yourself, so that you can sleep deeply. That means stay away from caffeine and nicotine for at least six hours before you plan to sleep. You will also want to avoid alcohol and marijuana, or other recreational drugs, at least six hours before you sleep. They can predispose you to anxiety or depression—and that can turn into a sleep problem. You might also want to try a snack of bananas and warm milk. Both are high in tryptophan, which can help you get to sleep. Avoid fluid intake, so you won't be awakened by the need to go to the bathroom. Exercise regularly (five times a week), and you'll be surprised at how much your sleep will improve.
  - Stretch and meditate. Doing this just before bedtime will relax you.
  - Avoid the television and computer for one hour before you sleep. These light sources can encourage your body to stay alert. And they can also keep you thinking, which can interfere with sleep.
  - Make your bedroom perfect for sleeping. Make it dark, and make it quiet. And make your bed comfortable and cozy. Keep the temperature setting at whatever works for you.
- adapted from Utne magazine

Is organic milk really better for you?

Does “organic” milk really have more nutrients than non-organic milk? The Danish Institute of Agricultural Research suggests that it does. Researchers found that organic milk from pasture-fed cows has significantly higher levels of antioxidants, omega-3 fatty acids, beta carotene and Vitamin E. It may all go back to what our mothers pounded into our heads: You are what you eat. Organic, pasture-fed cows eat lots of grass and clover. Non-organic cows are sometimes fed genetically modified feed, plastic pellets, manure and urea. — adapted from “Got organic milk?” by Alexis Adams in Natural Home & Garden
