PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The IITS HOA monthly Board meetings will resume on Tuesday, September 12th at 7pm in the clubhouse. This meeting will be held on the second Tuesday in September due to the Labor Day holiday. Future meetings will then return to the first Tuesday of each month.

Have an enjoyable summer and please contact me, Jill or Tammy with your community concerns or to become a member - still only $15 per household.

Open positions:

We have a few open positions if you are interested in volunteering for anything.

NON-Board Positions

1. We need a volunteer for Bingo. We are looking for a backup caller. Duties would be once a month or so. If you are interested, please call Linda at 727-214-7334 or email at LindaIITSmedia@gmail.com.
2. I need someone to review the birthday and anniversary list every 3 months for accuracy before it goes to print. If you are willing to look at that list for me in advance, please let me know. See Tammy Blaisse (Managing Editor). Update for new residents and remove any residents that are no longer here.
3. Remembrance Corner - OPEN - Need this person to report obits or to Tammy Blaisse for adding to Media and so I am able send a card from the community.
4. Neighbor Helping Neighbor – OPEN - need Volunteer.

Pop Tabs

You can help support the Ronald McDonald House Charities by donating the tabs you pull to open soda, soup and other aluminum cans. The funds generated from our Pop Tab Program help support our programs.

Collected pop tabs are recycled, generating much-needed funds to support the House and the nearly 1,100 families we serve each year.

Funds received from the recycling of tabs typically add up to around $5,000 annually. All this money goes to the operating expenses of the Ronald McDonald House Charities such as our utilities.

People ask why the tabs only: Although the whole aluminum can is valuable, the tab is cleaner and smaller, making it easier to collect in large quantities than whole cans. The tab of a standard soda can is made of high quality, high-grade aluminum. By itself, it doesn't mean much, but when you pull together, pop-tabs add up and become a valuable donation.

Sharon Carnes is collecting the Pop Tabs for Ronald McDonald Charities. There is a jar setting up on the cabinets below the TV at the right hand end. Please save your tabs and drop them off, Ronald McDonald Houses really appreciate every tab they receive.

You May Need An Audiologist

The easiest way to determine if you should go to an audiologist is to determine if you have hearing loss

SOME TELL-TALE SIGNS TO LOOK FOR ARE:

- People sound muffled or mumbly
- You have difficulty hearing high-pitched sounds such as birds, doorbells, your phone, or alarm clock
- It's challenging understanding conversations in noisy places, like a restaurant

But don't let this list define your hearing loss—you can (and should) visit an audiologist before you even have signs of hearing loss. This will ensure that if you do develop hearing loss over time, it's caught as soon as possible and prevents disruption to your life.

Ladies Luncheon

On the 3rd Thursday of every month, the ladies of Island in the Sun get together for lunch. Having attended a couple of these, I can tell you, it is a good time! Cindy Sadusky does a great job organizing this. Cindy keeps a sign-up sheet in the clubhouse. If you would like to participate, please sign up every month. Cindy will announce the location on the Facebook social page.

IITS Game Night

If you missed this one you missed out on a fun night to be remembered for a long time to come. Over 40 people came for the event not quite sure what to expect. What a surprise it was. The host kept things moving and kept us laughing the entire time. So many residents participated in the many games that we played like Trivia, Password, aJopardy and Friendly feud and all had a great time. People brought snacks to share as we enjoyed this sometimes hilarious adult entertainment. Everyone wants to do it again.

Watch out next year – we may be having another game night then....
Until then.. Our survey says.....

September Trivia

Happy Labor Day weekend, America

The very first Labor Day in the country was celebrated in 1882, and it became an official federal holiday in 1894. The holiday falls on the first Monday of September — Sept. 4 this year. The day typically celebrated with picnics and parades has more to it than that, though.

To mark the nation's 141st Labor Day, here's some trivia about the holiday you didn't know you needed:

It was celebrated in a few states first before it became a federal holiday

Labor activists first started recognizing Labor Day before states started to unofficially celebrate it. New York was the first state to introduce a bill to write the holiday into state legislation. Oregon, though, became the first state to pass it into law, in 1887. Colorado, Massachusetts and New York soon followed.

The first Labor Day celebration had a lot of beer

The first major Labor Day parade was held in Manhattan near city hall in 1882. Police were worried about a riot breaking out, so there was a large police presence in the area. The problem, though, was that almost no one showed up at first to actually march. Awkward.

There was no music playing, and the few people present almost gave up before 200 people from the Jeweler's Union showed up and then things were on a roll. Around 20,000 people ended up marching that day.

Then came the party. Reports at the time said after the parade, there were "Lager beer kegs ... mounted in every conceivable place."

Some traditions, it seems, really stand the test of time.

In the Department of Labor, women led first

The Department of Labor, which was created after the holiday, was the first department led by a woman: Frances Perkins. Perkins helped lead President Franklin Roosevelt's administration through changes in labor policy after the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire in 1911, in which 146 people — mostly women and girls — died.

The Labor Department is also the agency that has had the most women secretaries, six in total. The department's headquarters is named after Perkins.

The day off is great. But what exactly are we celebrating?

A lot. Do you enjoy not having to work weekends? The 40-hour work week? Having sick days and paid time off? You can thank labor leaders for that. Thousands of Americans have marched, protested and participated in strikes in order to create fairer, more equitable labor laws and workplaces — and still do today.

Including the rainy ones

by Rusty Leslie

A rainy day
A cool day
Grey skies
Breezes
Lovely
A gift from Mother nature
After so many days of sunshine
It is an opportunity
To wear my yellow raincoat
Which makes me think
Of Paddington Bear
A favorite from childhood
The dogs don't seem to mind the rain.
But then
They were born with their own raincoats
The road shines in the rain
The world is so different
Puddles appear
Rain drops splashing
Making patterns
As I stand in awe
I cannot splash in the puddles
While walking the dogs though
I remember jumping in puddles

With my daughter when she was little
It was pouring and we were walking home
And I realized that we were already wet
And how much fun we could have
So I said "Let's run and jump in the puddles"
And we did
Running, holding hands
And jumping full force into the puddles
Making the biggest splashes we could
Screaming with laughter
It was such a special day
Do I still jump in puddles?
Yes
They are nature's invite to play
Am I going to grow up?
No..
Life is too much fun
Do I love the rain?
You know I do
Every day
In every way
Life gets better and better
Including the rainy ones

Positive thinking

Friends are the family we choose!
