"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

RECIPE OF THE MONTH:

As a “prep” for all of our holiday bakers, I’ve decided to share my mother’s pie crust recipe.

PIE CRUST

(makes 3 2-crust pies)

Ingredients:

- 5 cups flour
- 2 cups Crisco shortening
- 1 egg
- 2 TBS vinegar

Directions:

1. In a 1-cup measuring cup, combine the egg, vinegar, and enough water to reach the 1-cup mark. Mix well with a fork. Set aside.
2. In a large owl, combine flour and Crisco shortening. Incorporate the shortening into the flour using a fork or pastry blend.
3. Add the liquid ingredients and mix well.
4. Roll out on a floured surface to desired thickness and size.

Note: Leftover dough will keep for up to 2 weeks stored in a covered dish in the refrigerator.

LIBRARY

Meg Gardiner was born in Oklahoma City, raised in Santa Barbara, graduated Stanford University and Stanford Law School, and now lives in Austin, Texas with her husband. She is also a three-time Jeopardy Champion! Her books have been translated into over twenty languages. Jo Beckett and Evan Delaney are her two most popular series, but she has also written stand-alone stories like this month's book "Phantom Instinct". Meg is considered a thriller author.

In this action-packed book Harper is a bartender at a crowded LA club when all hell breaks loose! Gunmen shooting, people trying to escape, and bad guy throws Molotov cocktail at bar causing huge fire. Harper's boyfriend Drew, in trying to save her, is shot and killed. Little does Harper know that the past she left long ago has come a calling! This book is filled with action, danger, and excitement.

The library is located at Lot 231 and is open daily 10-6. We have WiFi and air. We also have a lot more than books. Check out our DVDs, puzzles and games.

Please remember to shut the door and turn off the lights when you leave.

FROM THE OFFICE

The Office

Well, another Hurricane passed us by, just leaving Embassy with mild rain and some heavy winds. When I took a ride around the park on Wednesday, I noticed that a lot of people didn't prepare their yards and carports for a hurricane. ALL ladders, all the time, are to be in the shed or affixed to the side of the mobile/shed. Garbage cans are supposed to be kept in your shed; no garbage cans should be seen from the street. All items on your carport should be removed when we are under a mandatory evacuation order! Loose items may become flying projectiles and damage nearby mobiles. As I write this, there are currently 4 named storms out there. Hurricane season runs through November 30th. I don't know what other way there is to express to all residents that you need to notify the office if you evacuate! Joelle has created a spreadsheet so we can keep track of who leaves and who stays. If we ever get hit by a hurricane, I will just be checking on people I know stayed and/or people I like! We also had to keep the pool closed for an extra day while the water level needed to be pumped down to the proper level.

By now you should have received your rent letter, along with a few new rules and a minor change to the prospectus. If you have not received your letter by Oct. 10th, please contact the office. Park rules state that you must provide the office with an alternate address if you are not fulltime. If you have any questions, make an appointment to come see me (or discuss it at the pool, which seems to not only cool you off but provide a wealth of rumors)! The Rent Committee posted a date and time for all residents to talk to them prior to the increase being negotiated; they then met with Mr. Larson and me.

We continue to have carport break-ins; they must be reported to the police department! You can even do it online if you are in the Largo section of the park. That information can be found on the inside of the front cover. I cannot get extra patrols in the park without a valid reason, so these reports are important! The Pinellas County Sheriff Dept. attended the last neighborhood watch meeting and will continue to do so when possible. Everyone is welcome to attend these meetings, valuable information is shared. If you would like to join neighborhood watch, see Norm Hagen.

Soon the snowbirds will be returning. Reminder: do not stop in the middle of the street to catch up! With the return of snowbirds, there will be a lot more bikes, golf carts, cars and walkers in the street so please be careful. We had an accident involving a park resident and a person on a bike at the end of 3 rd St. and Frontage Road. Even though traffic is only coming from your left, be sure to look to the right for bikes, scooters, golf carts, etc. Everyone needs to slow down in the park! And NEWS FLASH, those red, eight sided signs mean STOP! A few smart ass have said that they don't have to abide by them because they are on private roads.....WRONG! Running these signs is a park rule violation, and two (2) in a year could be grounds for eviction.

SOCIAL CLUB

Have you noticed that during the winter season (November through April) each year, the Embassy Community is quite busy? Newcomers say the many activities here were a key factor in their decision to relocate. And plans are already afoot for the next busy season. Enter the monthly Social Club meeting.

What is the Social Club, you ask? The purpose of the Social Club is to organize and direct the social activities at Embassy. The Social Club meets on the first Wednesday of every month, November through April. Light refreshments are served 9:30-10:00 a.m. and the meeting starts promptly at 10:00 a.m. We occasionally have a speaker to talk on topics of interest to all. But mainly the purpose of the Social Club is to discuss, and vote on, the activities planned for the coming season. Dues are $3.00 per person ($5.00 for two people in the same unit) per year. All residents are invited to attend, but only dues-paying members may vote. Monies are used to pay for the activities directly sponsored by the Social Club. This includes sponsoring the Memorial Service, the Anniversary Celebration, Comedy Night (formerly Fun Night), the Fashion Show, and the many Christmas related events.

Other activities during the season? There are monthly breakfasts (sponsored by the Shuffle Club), dances, the annual park-wide yard sale, holiday dinners (Thanksgiving and Christmas) sponsored by various clubs, Christmas golf cart and bicycle parade, Christmas sing-along in the Clubhouse, Chinese auction, Canada Days, men's and ladies' fun shuffles, Valentine dance and St. Patrick dance. And, of course, there are game nights/day such as Texas Holdem every Sunday morning, Bingo on Wednesday night, Cribbage on Thursday night, and Euchre night on Friday. AND SO.....MUCH.....MORE!

You may wonder how we determine who gets to use the facilities on what day/night for what activity. This is what the Social Club does. At the END of the winter season, we meet to discuss the various activities, and hear from the sponsoring club as to when they would like to hold their event in the upcoming year. All requests are calendared and conflicts, if any, are discussed and resolved. Then, when meetings resume at the beginning of the next season, the event sponsors discuss the specifics of their event, whether or not there will be a fee for attendance, and, if so, when tickets will be sold. A call may also go out looking for volunteers to organize the various activities associated with an event.

The in-season monthly meeting is also when last minute events are proposed. No event is supposed to take place without the approval of the Social Club (Board) and the Park Manager (who has final approval for putting things on the calendar). The same applies for changing the date/time for an already approved and calendared event. Everyone likes to feel that their event is the most important thing happening, but the Social Club and Park Manager are the only ones who truly know of potential conflicts.

So, it's time to start preparing for the 2023/24 winter season. The first Social Club meeting of the season will be Wednesday, November 1st, at 9:30 a.m. This meeting is open to ALL residents so mark your calendars and plan to be there. You don't have to pay dues to attend (though you may want to bring money for the 50/50 drawing). Even if you are not a member you can hear what is being planned, when, and by whom.

Reminder to the Board of Directors (you know who you are) you will meet on the last Thursday of the month prior (October 26th).

CANADIAN THANKSGIVING DAY

Canada's Thanksgiving, celebrated on the second Monday of October each year, is a beloved holiday that holds deep cultural and historical significance for Canadians. It was officially declared a national holiday in 1879 and, in 1957, the Canadian Parliament fixed the holiday to its current date. Although similar in name to the American Thanksgiving, the Canadian version has its own unique origins and traditions.

The origins of Canada's Thanksgiving can be traced back to the early European settlers, particularly the English and French explorers who brought with them traditions of giving thanks for a successful harvest. Over time, these traditions merged with those of the Indigenous peoples of Canada.

One of the most iconic symbols of Canada's Thanksgiving is the cornucopia, also known as the "horn of plenty." This symbolizes abundance and is often depicted overflowing with fruits, vegetables, and other harvest-related items. Another important tradition is the Thanksgiving dinner, where families and friends gather to share a bountiful feast. The centerpiece of the meal is typically a roasted turkey, accompanied by a variety of side dishes like mashed potatoes, stuffing, cranberry sauce, and pumpkin pie. While the core elements of the Thanksgiving celebration remain consistent across the country, there are regional variations that reflect Canada's diverse cultural tapestry. For example, in the maritime provinces, seafood dishes are often incorporated into the feast, while in Quebec, the celebration may include tourtière, a traditional meat pie. Indigenous communities add their own cultural practices and foods into the festivities, as well.

Canada's Thanksgiving is not only a time for feasting and expressing gratitude for the harvest, but it also serves as a reminder of the importance of giving back to the community. Many Canadians engage in charitable activities during this time, such as volunteering at local food banks or donating to organizations that support those in need.

Countries around the world have their own "Thanksgiving" holidays and traditions. From Canada to Japan and Europe into Africa, you will find festivities that include religious observances, musical performances, dancing, fireworks, and – you guessed it — food.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween, celebrated on October 31st, is a centuries-old holiday that is a blend of ancient Celtic traditions, Christian practices, and modern cultural influences. The holiday has evolved over time, transitioning from a solemn observance to a festive and commercialized occasion celebrated with costumes, parties, and trick-or-treating.

Halloween's origins can be traced back to an ancient Celtic festival that marked the end of the harvest season and the beginning of winter, a time of year associated with death and decay. The Celts believed that on the night of October 31st, the boundary between the living and the dead was blurred, allowing spirits to roam freely among the living. To appease these spirits, people would light bonfires and wear costumes to disguise themselves and avoid recognition. When Christianity spread, the Catholic Church sought to replace pagan holidays with Christian ones. In the 9th century, Pope Gregory IV designated November 1st as All Saints' Day, also known as All Hallows' Day. The evening before, October 31st, became All Hallows' Eve, later shortened to Halloween.

As European immigrants, particularly the Irish, came to America in the 19th century, they brought their Halloween customs with them. Over time, Halloween in America evolved into a more community-centered holiday, with neighbors sharing stories of the dead, playing games, and telling fortunes. The practice of "guising" emerged, where children dressed in costumes and went door-to-door asking for food or money, a precursor to modern trick-or-treating. The early 20th century saw the holiday becoming more commercialized, with the emphasis shifting from community gatherings to consumer-oriented activities. The introduction of mass-produced costumes and decorations, as well as the standardization of trick-or-treating, transformed Halloween into a popular and widely observed holiday in the United States and beyond.

Today, Halloween has become a multi-billion-dollar industry, with people spending money on costumes, decorations, candy, and themed events. Halloween parties are a common occurrence, often featuring costume contests, haunted houses, and spooky-themed foods and drinks. In recent years, social media has played a significant role in popularizing elaborate and creative costumes, leading to a competitive spirit among participants. Trick-or-treating remains a beloved tradition, where children and families go door-to-door in search of candy, often in costumes that range from classic monsters to pop culture icons. Additionally, communities often organize events like trunk-or-treat, where cars are parked in a designated area and decorated, providing a safe space for children to collect treats.

We may not get trick-or-treaters here at Embassy, but many of our residents do decorate their homes and yards in recognition of the holiday. And, if you have a sweet tooth, this is the perfect time to stock up on your favorite candies. If costumes and candies just aren't your 'thing' you could invite friends over for a Spook Fest — watching scary movies and eating popcorn and pizza.

You May Need An Audiologist

The easiest way to determine if you should go to an audiologist is to determine if you have hearing loss

SOME TELL-TALE SIGNS TO LOOK FOR ARE:

- People sound muffled or mumbly
- You have difficulty hearing high-pitched sounds such as birds, doorbells, your phone, or alarm clock
- It's challenging understanding conversations in noisy places, like a restaurant

But don't let this list define your hearing loss—you can (and should) visit an audiologist before you even have signs of hearing loss. This will ensure that if you do develop hearing loss over time, it's caught as soon as possible and prevents disruption to your life.

2-1-1 TAMPA BAY CARES

We are all familiar with the importance of calling 9-1-1. This is the universal emergency call system whether you need police, fire, or medical assistance. And some of us may remember the old days when you dialed 4-1-1 for directory assistance when you couldn't find the telephone number for your neighbor, the local hardware store, or your favorite restaurant.

But have you heard about 2-1-1 Tampa Bay Cares? Also known as a “Senior Directory”, this is a comprehensive guide to locate services targeted for senior care and living. Each entry includes a thumbnail sketch of what services are offered and then gives a telephone number you can call for further information. From Alzheimer's and Dementia Care to Veteran Services, you can find someone out there to answer your questions and help in your time of need. Some of the entries that jumped out at me were:

Continuing Education Opportunities - Did you know that St. Petersburg College has a Senior Citizen program with a waiver to cover your tuition?

Financial Assistance Programs - Many of which provide assistance with paying for your prescription drugs, rent, and utilities.

Fitness and Recreation Services - The City of Largo Community Center and Pinellas Park Senior Center both offer programs and activities targeted for seniors.

Food Stamp/SNAP Assistance - In-person help for applying for food stamps/SNAP, Medicaid certification, and Medicare Advantage plans.

Free Meal Programs - In addition to the bi-weekly food program offered here at Embassy, you may qualify for home delivered frozen meals service or Meals-on-Wheels.

Health Support Services - including Dental Care

Medication and Prescription Assistance

Mental Health Services - In addition to the 2-1-1 Tampa Bay Cares assistance line, did you know 9-8-8 is a Suicide and Crisis Lifeline/Hotline?

Support Group information to include Alcoholics Anonymous, Gamblers Anonymous, and Hoarders Anonymous. Some of these groups are 12-step programs fashioned after the Alcoholics Anonymous program, but you can also find assistance for caregivers and family members who provide day-to-day for individuals with said affliction.

Whatever you need, 2-1-1 Tampa Bay Cares is there to assist. Everyone should have a copy of the Senior Directory booklet. They are free and may be picked up at the office during normal business hours.

DOING THIS ONE THING NOW, WILL SAVE YOU THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS LATER. TRUST ME.

STILL LOOKING FOR HOLIDAY RECIPES

We all have our favorite food for the holiday meal — be it a special way to cook the meat, a savory side dish, a dessert that is “to die for”, or a one-of-a-kind beverage. Or maybe you have recipes for 101 things to make with leftover turkey. Whatever the case, I ask that you share your recipe. I will print a different recipe (or 2 or 3, depending on how many I receive) each month beginning in October. You can send an email to embassymhp@hotmail.com or drop a paper copy of the recipe off at the office. Be sure to mark your email or paper copy “For News and Views” and to give your name and lot number so proper credit can be given in the News and Views (and so I can reach out if I have any questions).

HOLIDAY RECIPES

As promised, here are the first of the recipes submitted for your enjoyment.

French Onion Stuffed Mushrooms

(submitted by Sonny O’Leary)

Ingredients:

1 pound large fresh mushrooms	1/4 cup water
3 tablespoons butter	1/4 cup plain breadcrumbs
1/2 cup finely chopped onion	3 slices Swiss cheese, each slice cut into 4 squares
1 packet onion soup mix

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F.
2. Gently clean mushrooms by wiping them with damp paper towels. Remove stems from 12 mushrooms; set aside the caps.
3. Finely chop mushroom stems and remaining whole mushrooms.
4. In a large skillet over medium heat, melt butter; cook onion 3 minutes, or just until soft.
5. Stir in chopped mushrooms, onion soup mix, and water and cook 4 to 5 minutes, or until tender. Remove from heat and add breadcrumbs and black pepper; mix well.
6. Using a teaspoon, stuff mushroom caps with stuffing mixture. Place on foil lined ungreased baking sheet.
7. Bake for 12 minutes. Remove from oven, top each with a piece of cheese, and return to oven 5 minutes, or until cheese is melted and mushrooms are heated through. Serve immediately.

TIME TO EXERCISE

Attention Embassy residents:

Hello! My name is Elaine Pepper and I will be teaching a strength/conditioning exercise class for seniors here in the park. Would you like to be stronger? More flexible? Have more endurance and better balance? We will work on all those things using weights, stretch bands, and balls. We will stand or sit, no floor work required. We will be meeting starting on Tues, Oct. 10th and meet every Tuesday and Friday morning from 9 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. in the clubhouse. This program is free and available to both men and women. I will be in the park soon at lot 833. Stop by with any questions.
