Fairway Social Committee (FSC)

Sherry Moore, FSC Chairperson

October is upon us and the village is being more populated every day as our snowbirds return to their winter homes. Along with the increased population, our social activities are also increasing.

September presented a very stressful few days with the threat of hurricane Idalia, we were blessed in the fact we did not receive a direct hit.

October's calendar is filling up fast. Oktoberfest, a tradition of many years, provides wonderful food and entertainment for all to enjoy. Karaoke will return to Fairway with Jeff Dupuis, once again leading an evening of fun and enjoyment.

These are just a few, please refer to our calendar in the center of this flier for a full listing of events.

October 10 – BOD Meeting

October 11 – Flier Deadline

October 21 – Oktoberfest

October 28 – Karaoke

October 31 – BOD Planning Meeting, FSC Executive Meeting

FSC is always looking for volunteers, if you would like to help out, email sherrymoore94@gmail.com or call/text 902-410-7588. Feel free to contact me at any time. I may not know the answer to your question; however, I will find one.

Thanks again for all you do, support is crucial to having such a vibrant community to live in. Cheers and Stay Safe, Sherry

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Cal Morris Live

Nancy Whitford

Cal Morris is a violinist and musician who splits his time between both coasts, and his childhood home is Oklahoma. So, it will not surprise you that he was booked for Fairway Village nearly a year ago. I had the pleasure of being one of one of his venues back in 2017, and all 240 guests purchased his CD, he is that good.

The very next year, Cal was diagnosed with a rare blood cancer (MDS-Myelodysplastic Syndrome). After a very long four-year battle with cancer and chemo, bone marrow transplants from his brother Micah, and near death in ICU, his life was saved and he returned to music.

Cal taught himself how to play the piano with his twin brother at the age of six and immediately fell in love with the magic of music. At age thirteen they decide to pursue violin and a few months later Dr. Hong Zhu from the University of Central Oklahoma heard him play. He wanted to take them on as classical students, and they wanted to learn as much as they could.

Puns to ponder

- Two vultures board an airplane, each carrying two dead raccoons. The stewardess looks at them and says, “I’m sorry, gentlemen, only one car- rion allowed per passenger.”
- Did you hear that NASA recently put a bunch of Holsteins into low earth orbit? They called it the herd shot ’round the world.
- Two boll weevils grew up in South Carolina. One went to Hollywood and became a famous actor. The other stayed behind and never amounted to much. The second one, naturally, became known as the lesser of two weevils.
- A three-legged dog walks into a saloon in the Old West. He slides up to the bar and announces: “I’m looking for the man who shot my paw.”
- Did you hear about the Buddhist who refused Novocain during a root canal? He wanted to transcend dental medication.
- A group of chess enthusiasts checked into a hotel and were standing in the lobby discussing their recent tournament victories. After about an hour, the manager came out of the office and asked them to disperse. “But why?” they asked, as they moved off. “Be- cause,” he said, “I can’t stand chess nuts boasting in an open foyer.”
- A woman has twins, and gives them up for adoption. One of them goes to a family in Egypt and is named “Amal.” The other goes to a family in Spain; they name him “Juan.” Years later, Juan sends a picture of himself to his birth mother. Upon receiving the picture, she tells her husband that she wishes she also had a picture of Amal. Her husband responds, “They’re twins! If you’ve seen Juan, you’ve seen Amal.”
- These friars were behind on their belfry payments, so they opened up a small florist shop to raise funds. Since everyone liked to buy flowers from the men of God, a rival florist across town thought the competition was unfair. He asked the good fathers to close down, but they would not. He went back and begged the friars to close. They ignored him. So, the rival florist hired Hugh MacTaggart, the roughest and most vicious thug in town to “persuade” them to close. Hugh beat up the friars and trashed their store, saying he’d be back if they didn’t close up shop. Terrified, they did so, thereby proving that: Hugh, and only Hugh, can prevent florist friars.
- And finally, there was a person (guess who?) who sent 10 different puns to friends, in the hope that at least one of the puns would make them laugh. Unfortunately, no pun in ten did.
— from the Today’s Senior Web site

On being in the know

A man plummeted out of a ninth story window. He was lying on the ground when a crowd started to gather round him. Then a uniformed police officer came on the scene and looked at the man with astonishment.

“What happened?” the police officer asked.

“I don’t know,” the stunned and confused man answered. “I just got here myself.”

You May Need An Audiologist

The easiest way to determine if you should go to an audiologist is to determine if you have hearing loss

SOME TELL-TALE SIGNS TO LOOK FOR ARE:

- People sound muffled or mumbly
- You have difficulty hearing high-pitched sounds such as birds, doorbells, your phone, or alarm clock
- It's challenging understanding conversations in noisy places, like a restaurant

But don't let this list define your hearing loss—you can (and should) visit an audiologist before you even have signs of hearing loss. This will ensure that if you do develop hearing loss over time, it's caught as soon as possible and prevents disruption to your life.

What are the four most familiar lines in English?

Do you know who wrote Mary Had a Little Lamb? Her name was Sarah Josepha Hale, born in 1788, and she was a feminist. Hale was a self-educated woman and she eventually became a teacher—she also wrote short stories and verse in her spare time. After her husband died, she wrote a novel to critical acclaim and became an editor of a magazine. She also became the editor of a children’s magazine called Juvenile Miscellany, and in 1830 her poem, originally titled Mary’s Lamb, first appeared.

Here it is: Mary had a little lamb
Its fleece as white as snow
And every where that Mary went,
The lamb was sure to go.

Hale began to travel in esteemed social circles, with the likes of Oliver Wendell Holmes and other well-thought-of people of her day. She also petitioned several presidents to get Thanksgiving recognized as a legal holiday—Abraham Lincoln finally approved the measure. She kicked off the movement to have Mount Vernon recognized as a historic landmark. Thomas Edison used her little poem for the first-ever sound recording on his invention—the phonograph.

Hale wrote many brilliant pieces during her lifetime, but is remembered for what are probably the best-known four lines in the English language. — adapted from the mental_floss Web site

On the origins of the jack o’lantern

Have you ever wondered how the practice of turning pumpkins into scary jack o’lanterns was born? The origin is quite fascinating.

O’lantern sounds Irish, and it is. The flickering, carved pumpkin faces that animate the American Halloween derive from an old Irish custom of creating rustic lanterns from vegetables. The Irish child’s typical Halloween flashlight was a hollowed-out turnip or potato with a candle inside, and when the Irish landed in America in the nineteenth century, they were quick to spot the possibilities in the pumpkin. — from IdeaBank

In good company

Do you know the derivation of the word company? Most people probably don’t think of a group of people sitting down and eating bread together when they hear the word company, but that is exactly what the word meant in its original sense. The word comes from the Latin con, which means together, and panis, which means bread. Thus, company originally encompassed the idea of people being such good friends that you share your bread with them.

— adapted from Thereby Hangs a Tale, by Charles Earl Funk
