"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Sadly, we have people dumping mattresses in and behind the dumpsters. This is not allowed. You are being caught on surveillance and will be fined.

A new gate has been ordered for the back. The previous one was destroyed by someone running their car into it. This has happened several times. Please take care when entering or leaving when the gate is operational to prevent this from happening again.

The pool will be closed October 2nd until the 6th of October so the deck can be painted.

Everyone will receive the new lot rent in October for the start of January 2024.

Ambulance Fund,

Evelyn Hale, Coach 1364 727-403-6434

The Ambulance Fund is open to all residents for $2.50 per person per year. Payment qualifies members for 1 emergency transport per person per year. The fund pays the balance of the bill, up to $75, after Medicare and insurance. Membership period is stated on your card. There are no grace days.

Welcome to Bay Ranch

JUST SAYIN'

Jeanne Humter

I watched a commercial with Kareem Abdul Jabbar (I think that's who it was, it's been a day or two. Anyway, he was a retired basketball player). He was talking about atrial fibrillation and how without the medicine he was selling, you have a 20% chance of having a stroke and bidding this world goodbye. Hmm, this made me start thinking (occasionally I do that). I take medicine for afib, so I have a 20% better chance of survival.

And I know if I eat less salt, my life expectancy is longer. And if I exercise, I get more years. And if I do strength exercises, I pick up at least another 10%. Hmm, I don't smoke, don't drink much, choke down dark chocolate on occasion (who made that healthier than milk chocolate!). All these increase my life expectancy. I could eat more salad and definitely eat less red meat because I can't afford it. I could spend less time sitting (my couch is very comfortable for lying down). So, according to everything I've read on Facebook, Google, and WebMD, I will soon be immortal! I'll check my math later, but right now my odds are looking good.

Cat Tails....The cat door has been in a while and it's working. I showed Pip how it worked by pushing him through it. Showed it to Lucy, my magnificent warrior princess chihuahua, and she won't go near the terrifying thing. I followed my plan and did nothing to encourage Pip to use it, totally ignoring it. A day later, he was hooked. The day after that I moved the litter box out there to the side room and reclaimed my second bedroom for humans. Now Pip spends lots of hours lurking in the laundry room on the shelves behind a toolbox. It's the closest he'll get to a sauna.

This upset the human-animal balance in our house. Things were going way too smoothly. So Pip stopped eating. He would take one little nibble and leave his food. To the grocery store I went. Tried different textures, pate, shreds, nibbles, nothing worked. Back to the store for salmon, beef, turkey, tuna and whatever flavor combinations I could find. Nope, not eating. He was still eating kibbles, so I knew his survival wasn't in question. I gave him TUNA. Nope. Finally, I bought the much-advertised Delectables. This stuff is expensive. And a little disgusting. For more than a dollar, you get three ounces of clear slime with a few tiny shreds of meat mixed in. Of course, this he ate...for three days. Then he switched to just eating the slime (still disgusting) and leaving the meat shreds. He must have put them in his mouth and sucked off the slime because he only left a bowl of little dried-up shreds. That was it. Next trip to the store was back to regular almost affordable cat food, shreds with lots of "gravy." He ate it!! Of course, he did. He was done toying with me. Sometimes he leaves a lot, and I don't care anymore. Once again, he has proved that dogs have owners and cats have staff. He has trained me well.

Levity...An atheist was walking through the woods. “What majestic trees! What powerful rivers! What beautiful animals!” he said to himself. As he was walking alongside the river, he heard a rustling in the bushes behind him. He turned to look. He saw a 7-foot grizzly bear charge towards him. He ran as fast as he could up the path. He looked over his shoulder and saw the grizzly closing in on him.

He looked over his shoulder again and saw that the bear was even closer. He tripped and fell on the ground. He rolled over to pick himself up but saw that the bear was right on top of him, reaching for him with his left paw and raising his right paw to strike him.

At that instant, the man cried out, “Oh, my God!” Time stopped. The bear froze. The forest was silent. As a bright light shone on the man, a voice came out of the sky. “You deny my existence for all these years, teach others I don't exist and even credit creation to cosmic accident. Do you expect me to help you out of this predicament? Am I to count you as a believer?”

The atheist looked directly into the light, “It would be hypocritical of me to suddenly ask you to treat me as a Christian now, but perhaps you could make the BEAR a Christian?” “Very well,” said the voice. The light went out. The sounds of the forest resumed. And the bear dropped his right paw, brought both paws together, bowed his head and spoke: “Lord, bless this food which I am about to receive from thy bounty, through Christ Our Lord, Amen.”

Sometimes while riding in the car, my grandson Quinn and I get into some interesting conversations. Here are a couple of them.

I thought I would teach him something while telling him the cautionary tale of Wander Franco. For those of you who don't know the story, here is a quick synopsis. Wander is a 22-year-old baseball player on the Tampa Bay Rays Team. He is a phenom, so good that he signed a long-term contract with the Rays, 11 years for $182 million. He is from the Dominican Republic. His future and his families were set. Recently news hit social websites that a couple years ago he had an inappropriate relationship with a 14-year-old girl. He has been removed from the team and is under investigation by major league baseball and the Dominican police. Word is he will never play baseball here again. Quinn was listening intently and wide eyed (the money amount got his attention). I ended by telling him, “So when you are old enough to date, remember only date girls older than you. He paused a second, looked at me and said, “So I should only date your friends?” Did I mention he has my sense of humor?

The next day, we were talking about Lucy, and I said, “She barks at all adults that come in the house, but if kids come in her tail is wagging and she runs right up to them. You and your friends are taller than me now, so how does she know you're all kids?" Quinn said it was by the smell. I asked what smell. He said, "Older people have two smells. Either the decomposing smell or that strawberry candy smell. You know, the candy you can't find in any stores anywhere, but every person over 60 always has a bowl of them and they keep it full." He teaches me something new all the time. I think he's right about that candy. I only ever saw it at my grandparents' house.

I need to wrap this up. It's time for a little Lego building and then rooting the Rays onto victory tonight.

Chair Exercises/Water Aerobics

Sharon Van Horn 828-318-5937

Now that the weather is cooler, we are moving back into the club house for chair exercises. A plan is being developed to demonstrate modified chair exercises for those who are challenged. This will help all who want to participate but as we get older have some challenges, but still want to work on mobility and balance.

We still meet on Tuesday and Thursday at 9AM.

Choir

I am looking forward to the music season for the Bay Ranch Chorus. Practices will begin in November with the Christmas Concert on Wednesday December 6th at 7pm in the clubhouse.

After many years our accompanist decided to retire so... I am looking for that one special person who can assume the duties of playing the piano for us. Please email me for details if you or you know someone who might be able to help us out.

New members of the Chorus are always welcome.

You May Need An Audiologist

The easiest way to determine if you should go to an audiologist is to determine if you have hearing loss

SOME TELL-TALE SIGNS TO LOOK FOR ARE:

- People sound muffled or mumbly
- You have difficulty hearing high-pitched sounds such as birds, doorbells, your phone, or alarm clock
- It's challenging understanding conversations in noisy places, like a restaurant

But don't let this list define your hearing loss—you can (and should) visit an audiologist before you even have signs of hearing loss. This will ensure that if you do develop hearing loss over time, it's caught as soon as possible and prevents disruption to your life.

It's a Winter Wonderland: The Christmas Tree Lighting

By Carol Raabe

Snowbirds will soon be back and retailers will be pushing Halloween, then Thanksgiving, then Christmas, then New Years, then....whoa! Let's back up a bit and concentrate on Christmas.

No, it's not too early. In 6 weeks, give or take, Christmas trees will be going up in this very park, won't they? Well, I won't name names, but you know who you are.

There's something about a decked-out fir tree that announces Christmas: The Christmas present. And the Christmas past.

The Christmas Tree Lighting celebrates both past and present. We honor our departed loved ones, we add beautiful ornaments to a lovely tree, we sing religious and secular songs, and we're entertained by some of Bay Ranch's finest vocalists and groups.

Last year the tree lighting was held inside the clubhouse, as it will be again this year. Most of us enjoyed sitting in a faux park and only pretending to be cold (we're Floridians now, and it doesn't take much to make us shiver). This year we plan on a magical Winter Wonderland theme.

As anyone who has decorated the clubhouse knows, this plan will take a committee to execute. Thanks to Evelyn Hale and Kathy Trombini for helping out in the early stages. Watch Neighbors on Facebook for information and requests for volunteers.

In the meantime, put Sunday, December 3, 2023, on your calendar. We will be setting up Winter Wonderland during the day. The program will begin at 7 p.m.

Stein Suds Little Known Facts About Beer

Germany Has a 500-Year-Old Beer Purity Law

In 1516, the Bavarian purity law called the "Reinheitsgebot" was formally passed. The law stipulated that beer would be made with only three ingredients: barley, hops, and water. It was amended to include yeast after Louis Pasteur discovered it in 1857. This law formalized a standard for keeping beer safe and pure for the purpose of consumer protection. It's still on the books hundreds of years later.

The Pilgrims Stopped at Plymouth Rock Because They Ran Out of Beer

The Mayflower had initially intended to sail to Virginia. When it arrived on the rocky shores of Plymouth, MA, the captain of the ship noted that they were running low on beer. In order to ensure that his crew had enough to make the trip back to England, he forced the Pilgrims ashore and made them drink water.

Straws Were Invented for Drinking Beer

In ancient times, beer was drunk through straws to prevent grain hulls from being consumed with the beverage.

Beer Was Brewed Mostly by Women Throughout History

Unlike today, beer was originally brewed primarily by women. While men were hunting, women would gather the ingredients and ferment the beverages. This tradition continued throughout most of human history. During the Middle Ages in Ireland, St. Brigid was not only an abbess but also a brewer. It wasn't until the industrialization of the brewing process that men began to take on the primary role as brewers.

Barley-Based Beer Was Invented by Sumerians in Mesopotamia Over 5,000 Years Ago

Ceramic vessels dating back to 3,400 BCE have been unearthed in Mesopotamia with sticky beer residue on them. The "Hymn to Ninkasi" is an ode to the Sumerian goddess of beer, and dates back to around 1800 BCE. Dogfish Head has recreated a similar beer called "Midas Touch," which is based on ingredients found in a 2,700-year-old drinking vessel that was discovered in the tomb of King Midas.

17th-Century Catholic Monks Invented an All-Beer Diet for Lent

In 1634, the Paulaner monks of Neudeck ob der Au invented a beer so malty and thick that they nicknamed it "liquid bread." For the entire 46 days of Lent they drank only this beer and water. It was believed that the beer would cleanse the body and soul in preparation for Easter. This beer was the original doppelbock and is sold under the name Paulaner Salvator.

Georgia Colonists Were Given 44 Gallons of Beer in Their Welcome Package

Georgia started out as a work colony for those in debtors' prison. As such, prisoners were sent to Georgia to work off their debts. The only problem was that there were many rules, including "no alcohol," which was a problem, because the only local water source was contaminated. After many struggles in the early days of the colony, the "no alcohol" rule was lifted. In order to give the colonists a sanitary source of drinking water, Major William Horton decided to start issuing welcome packages, which included 44 gallons of beer brewed at Jekyll Island.

Homebrewing Was Illegal from 1919 to 1978

From the start of prohibition, homebrewing was illegal on the federal level. In 1978, Jimmy Carter signed a law that allowed households to brew up 200 gallons of beer, tax-free. However, additional state and local restrictions still apply.

George Washington Had a Recipe for Beer

George Washington's memorandum for the autumn of 1757 included a recipe for something he called "Small Beer." The first president also adopted a "buy American" stance about beer during his term.
