"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

President's Message

Wendy Duplex

W elcome back to all our northern residents! I am so glad we all made it through the hurricane. Thank you, Dennis, at ABC Action News. Florence Miller has stepped up to be the new vice-president of the social club. Thank you, Florence! We are still in need of 5 directors for the social club. You must be a member of the club to be on the board. Please contact me if you are interested. Wendy (781) 799-8386

Halloween is fast approaching, and Carolyn Mosser has graciously volunteered to head-up the party. I'm sure she would love some help. Carolyn can be reached at (727) 601-3473.

Deaths in our community

J oe Walker and Domenic Fusco. We'd like to express our deepest sympathies to their family and friends.

Ladies Luncheon

Carolyn Mosser

W e will meet for lunch at Outback Steakhouse, 3690 E Bay Drive on Tuesday, October 10 at 1 pm. If you are new to the community, please join us and meet some new friends. If you have questions, please contact Carolyn at (727) 601-3473.

BOWLING

Carolee Kingsbury

T hank you everyone who let me know in the group text that you would be bowling. I hope to have the teams set by October and will send out a text to the captains to see if you want a name instead of a number. I still need people to bowl full time. Talk to your neighbors.

Bowling will start on Wednesday, October 18, and we bowl every Wednesday at Maple Lanes. Doors open at 9 am and we have 15 minutes of practice at 9:15. Bowling starts at 9:30 am. We have a great time, and if you are new to the park, it is a terrific way to meet people. Carolee Kingsbury (860) 990-0253

About Joe Walker

Charlotte Thompson

There are so many life stories locked within each person it is a shame not to share them with family and friends. Here at Bayside Waters, we are beginning a new chapter of neighborly closeness which I believe will enrich all of us as we become more familiar with each other.

This article is a tribute to Joe Walker, a friend to so many. I would like to call him a Renaissance man as a special honor to a life well lived.

His mother was a Native American and his father was British. Being an only child, Joe spent time between his parents' home and his grandparents, which was one way he began travelling. He graduated from high school at 16, after which he worked on a cruise ship as a cabin boy and had other jobs that came his way. At one point he entered a military academy. He worked with his parents at their restaurant /gas station.

He later joined the Army and was stationed in Germany during the Korean war, and his job was working on codes. While in Germany he utilized his time off travelling throughout Germany and Europe.

When he came home and eventually married, they lived in Malone, NY where I think he was involved in restoration of the Alonzo Wilder home. That was a very interesting story.

There were so many interesting jobs, such as a used car salesperson which he didn't like, because as he put it, 'I had to lie, and I didn't want to do that to the customers. He went on to work as the director of the New York Travel and Tourism, and later he retired as dispatcher for the New York State Police.

This is not the end of his interesting experiences; I'm just running out of space.

Eventually Joe moved to Florida and bought a home on Pagoda Drive in our Japanese Garden, where, lucky for us, the next chapter of his life began.

He spoke of his joining community groups working to restore our beaches and planting grass and working on projects to clean the water to make it safe for the seabirds and fish, and of course us.

Life for Joe was commitment and loyalty. He was the true recreator of his life and the world around him. To know him was to realize his actions followed his words. He was filled with ideas and worthy commitments he held lovingly within his heart for years and years and offered creative ways to improve and encourage those programs already in progress, as with our very own social club. He at one time, was vice resident of our social club and kept on working with the rules and the prospectus to keep the park running smoothly.

Joe was a dedicated friend, anytime day or night he and Florence were there to give assistance to their friends or neighbors. Joe so often tried cheering others with a friendly joke, (he had a large repertoire of jokes), very often a warm smile was directed at you, just for you.

If you ever stopped by to say hello you were usually invited back ... He would say, "Anytime, anytime."

Wherever I saw him he always had a joke or a friendly word to say that lifted my spirits.

Joe will never be forgotten and will always be a source, at least for me, of remembered smiles, positive vibes, and many interesting life stories.

If you know anyone who is special to you and has had an interesting personal experience, why not write it down and send it to Cindi Miller, her e-mail address is in the directory or the front page of the Domei. Send it before the 10th of the month so we all can enjoy your story and you.

Labor Day Celebration

Susan Grippin

Hello everyone! We had a wonderful Labor Day celebration with many of our Bayside Waters residents. It was kicked off by everyone standing to the Pledge of Allegiance and Star-Spangled Banner. Patriotic music played throughout while everyone enjoyed eating and visiting and just spreading some good cheer. We had a great cookout by Angie Stroh.... grilling her famous "roasted wieners". Many wonderful side dishes, as well as desserts, were provided by many who joined in. I thank Rob Lloyd for helping me make this luncheon happen. He definitely knows the ropes to managing these types of events. Also, thank you to the all the volunteers who helped with everything involved. I was truly blessed to have so many friends offering to help with anything needed. Once again, thank you to everyone that made this such a fun time and event.

Bid Euchre

Cathy Whyte

Wanda Mooney started off the new season with a bang. She was way out front with 192 points and Chris Rau came in second with 157 points. It's a fun game and anyone interested in playing, just give me a call. Cathy (727) 535-9723

You May Need An Audiologist

The easiest way to determine if you should go to an audiologist is to determine if you have hearing loss

SOME TELL-TALE SIGNS TO LOOK FOR ARE:

- People sound muffled or mumbly
- You have difficulty hearing high-pitched sounds such as birds, doorbells, your phone, or alarm clock
- It's challenging understanding conversations in noisy places, like a restaurant

But don't let this list define your hearing loss—you can (and should) visit an audiologist before you even have signs of hearing loss. This will ensure that if you do develop hearing loss over time, it's caught as soon as possible and prevents disruption to your life.

A doctor-recommended exercise

Here is a miracle exercise recommended by a doctor. You can do this standing or sitting down. Do it in front of a mirror, or better still, with someone. Here's how:

- Raise the corners of your mouth an inch, take a deep breath and hold it for 10 seconds.
- You are smiling. If you have people watching you, they'll probably start smiling too.
- Now release your breath in short exhalations. You're now laughing. Unless those with you are curmudgeons, they'll undoubtedly start laughing, too.

This simple muscular action of inhaling, raising the corners of the mouth, then exhaling in rhythmic, short bursts causes the diaphragm to bounce up and down, pats the liver on the back, and pleasantly vibrates the stomach. The heart, which rests above the diaphragm, begins to pump at a slightly faster rate, sending blood coursing throughout the body.

The effect is a general feeling of well-being. More important than this, however, is the effect on others who observe you going through this exercise. They feel better, too. This triggers happy emotions within you, and the stage is set for any number of pleasant personal and business relationships.

All this from one simple little exercise! — from IdeaBank

The path to attaining what you desire in life

There was once a young man who went to a wise old man and said, “Master, I want to have all the riches in the world. I want no limitations on it—and with that wealth I want to do good things for the world. I want to use it for its healing powers in the universe. Can you please tell me the secret of creating unlimited wealth?”

The old man answered, “There are two goddesses that reside in your heart, that reside in the hearts of all men and women. Every person falls deeply in love with both of these goddesses.”

The old man went on, “Though it is true that you have great love in your heart for both of these supreme beings, you must choose one. You must choose the one who reigns over the kingdom of knowledge. She is Sarasvati. Seduce her. Love her boldly. Pay great attention to her, because she adores attention. The other, Lakshmi, rules over the kingdom of wealth. The secret is to pay more attention to the goddess of knowledge, because then the goddess of wealth will become jealous and pay more attention to you. The more you seek and pursue Sarasvati, the more Lakshmi will pursue you. She will never go away and will be yours for the taking. Then you will always have what you desire—unlimited wealth.

Make an inner resolution to change your life

At age 20, Joe was a mess. He had been rebelling against authority for many years already. He was defined as a failure. He hadn't finished high school, as a matter of fact he had flunked four times. He became a street fighter, and he had 25 scars to prove it. And there was more—by 20 he had lost 30 jobs and been kicked out of the Marines. He was deemed incorrigible.

Nine years later, Joe was the valedictorian of Harvard Law School's 1967 graduation. He then went on to begin a career with the U.S. Department of Justice. He was considered one of the brightest of the young men employed there and seemed to have a great future before him.

Joe had turned his life around. He had pulled himself out of his long pattern of revolting against authority and was living a productive life. Several months after he was booted out of the Marines, Joe signed up for high school classes and he began reading constantly. Two years later he graduated with a 99 average. He went on to go to the University of California at Santa Barbara and was elected his senior class president. He graduated magna cum laude. He contacted the Marines and told officials there that he felt he had a blemish on his life and he wanted to make it right. He was allowed to reenlist and became a platoon leader and was given an honorable discharge after he had served his two years.

Time magazine described Joe's valedictory speech as the "year's most moving graduation address."

When asked about his turnaround, Joe said, "Once I'd made up my mind, it wasn't too tough."

And when asked about the inner change he had certainly gone through, he said, "[I] guess you could call it an inner resolution. I was just sick of being a failure." — adapted from The Guideposts Pocket Book of Inspiration, edited by Norman Vincent Peale

A fishing story

Afamous editor returned from an angling expedition in Colorado. One of his friends asked him how the fish were in those parts. The editor answered, "Well, I can't really say for sure. I kept dropping them lines every day—but there was never a reply."

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

Wishing you good health and safety,
The Florida Anchor & Barrier Team
