WELCOME BACK RESIDENTS, and WELCOME NEW RESIDENTS:

As our Snowbirds and Vacationers begin to return, we are pleased to say, Welcome Home.

To all new residents, Welcome to Harbor Lights, a great community in which to live. To find out what activities/events are taking place in the park, keep an eye on our Facebook page, e-mails that are sent out, monthly issues of the Scuttlebutt (that are delivered to your door by the 1st of each month), and the bulletin board next to the main entrance doors of the Clubhouse.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!!

I am personally sending out a huge THANK YOU to the volunteers in our park that deliver the Scuttlebutt to each home every month during the year. Words cannot express how much I appreciate that you give your time each month to do this for me, and our community. Thank you to the following volunteers, and please if and when you see these people around the park, tell them Thank You.

Patty Wood for managing the distribution of the Scuttlebutts monthly, Sam Battaglia, Debbie Boso, Alice Distasio, Marcia Frash, Joan Martini, Frank Sprada, Andrea Snow, and Bill & Heather Yunck.

There have been many other volunteers that have helped with deliveries over the past years, and to them, Thank You too.

If you are interested in volunteering to deliver the Scuttlebutts, please contact Patty Wood
Judi Farmer

HARBOR LIGHTS HOME OWNER'S ASSOCIATION:

As a reminder, Harbor Lights Home Owner's Association (HOA) meets the first Wednesday of every month following the Social Club meeting. The first meeting of the season is Wednesday, November 1, 2023. The HOA meetings are open to all residents of our park who own a mobile.

EUCHRE:

This is played the 1st Thursday of the month. Time is 6:30pm, at the Clubhouse. Euchre will be played any month they have at least 12 players (3 tables).

HERE'S WHAT'S COOKING:

Spicy Sweet Bacon Chicken Tenders: 8 thick slices bacon, 8 boneless, skinless chicken breast tenders, ½ c. brown sugar, and 2 T chipotle chili powder.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Wrap a bacon slice around each chicken tender, secure top and bottom of bacon with two toothpicks per tender.

In a shallow bowl, mix together brown sugar and chipotle chili powder. Roll bacon-wrapped chicken in mixture, then place on rimmed baking sheet. Bake for 35 minutes, or until chicken is fully cooked and bacon is crisp. (Place under broiler, if bacon is not crispy). Cool briefly on baking sheet, then roll in drippings and serve. Makes 8 servings.

If you have a recipe you would like in the Scuttlebutt for others to enjoy, please send it via e-mail to jafroscoe46@yahoo.com

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

SOCIAL SECURITY:

Social Security beneficiaries, who got big boosts in their cost-of-living (COLA's) the past two years as inflation soared, will likely see a more modest increase of 3% in their monthly checks next year.

That projected increase, is based on newly released government economic data, which would boost the average Social Security retirement benefit by about $55.00 a month in 2024.

Estimates for the 2024 COLA are slated to be announced in October, and will be about 3 percent. This year's COLA was 8.7% with last year's being 5.9%. In the 2010's the COLA averaged 1.5%.

Social Security COLA's are tied to the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers (CPI-W).

An increase in the Medicare part B premium in 2024 would offset a portion of the COLA increase for Social Security recipients who have premiums deducted from their benefit payments. In the 2023 annual report, Medicare's trustees estimate the Part B premium would be $174.80 a month next year, up $9.90 from the current rate.

November Crossword

Which dog will you feed?

There was once a young girl who went to her grand-mother's house, and it was her custom to ask her grandmother many questions about life.

One day the young girl came into the grandmother's cozy little house with a look of pure rage on her face.

"What has happened, little one?" the grandmother asked softly. The anger immediately left the girl's face, and she crumpled into a sobbing mass of tears.

The girl recounted her day to her grandmother. "I went to the store today, and while I was there I bought the most beautiful hair barrette. I had saved my money so that I could buy it. It was shiny and beautiful and something I wanted very badly."

"And then what happened," the kindly grandmother asked.

"Well, I went outside and was admiring my new barrette in the sunlight when three girls who I know from school came up to me. They started laughing at me and saying that I was ugly, then one of the girls pushed me down to the ground and another girl pulled the barrette from my hand. They said I was too ugly for such a beautiful thing." The girl stopped and the anger and rage returned to her face. "I hate those girls. I hate them more than anything in the world."

The old grandmother, who had been in the world for a long time, wrapped her arms warmly around her granddaughter.

"There, there," the old woman said. "I, too, have felt what you're feeling when people have taken things from me with no remorse or regret. But these feelings will wear you down and wear you out. It is like drinking a cup of poison in hope that it will make your enemy die, but in the end the poison will only hurt you. I have had these same feelings many times in life. It is as if there are two dogs inside of me. One is always good and does no harm. He is loyal and lives in harmony with me. He does not take offense in life, when it does no good to do so. He will fight when the time is right, and fight nobly, but if it would be to no avail he lets it go. The other dog is full of anger. The least little thing makes him go off, and he is ready to fight. He wants to fight everyone all the time and he doesn't really have to have a reason for the fight. His anger keeps him from thinking. His anger is helpless and will change nothing. It is hard to live with these two animals inside of me — both of them are always trying to win."

"Which one wins, grandmother?" the little girl asked.

"Ah," said the old woman, "it is always the one I feed."

On impact

If you think you're too small to have an impact, try going to bed with a mosquito.

A manual for life

At birth, there is a manual for life that is given to each of us. Here it is:

1. You have received a body. It will be yours for the duration of your stay this time around. You may or may not like it, but it is yours.
2. Pay attention to the lessons to be learned. You are enrolled in a school that is full time and informal—it is called life. In your school, you will have chances to learn lessons. You are free to like the lessons or think that they are very stupid.
3. Keep in mind that there are no mistakes, just lessons to be learned. You will be involved with a process of trial and error, and this process will, with luck, incite growth. The “failures” you experience will be as much a part of your process as the parts of your life that “succeed.”
4. You will repeat the same lesson, in its various forms, until it is learned. Then you will be free to go on to the next lesson.
5. Your learning in life is never over. As long as you are alive, there are lessons to be learned. There is no part of life that does not contain a lesson for you.
6. Places other than where you are will always look better to you, but this is a trick of the mind. It is never better to be other than what and where you are at the time. But it will always feel like you should be someplace else, be something else in order to find “happiness.”
7. Your fellow beings are merely reflections of yourself. Whatever you love or hate about them is exactly what you love or hate about yourself.
8. What you make of life is up to you. You have everything you need to live life. What you do and how you live is up to you.
9. The answers to life’s questions are within you. You just need to listen and trust your inner knowledge.
10. You will forget you have been told all of this.
