Editors Notes

If you read this in time, don't forget about the Halloween Party on the 28th of October or the golf cart parade on the 29th, which will start around 7pm. Come on out and cheer on your fellow Ranchers, Never know you might get some trick or treats!!

Managers Moment

Carol Alvey

People are outing mattresses and entertainment cabinets, futon coaches in our big dumpster. This is not allowed, anything big or large must be taken to the dump yourself. The pool has been painted along with some new loungers and umbrellas. We will see how the new loungers hold up before getting more.

Maintenance will not pick up big items from your home to dump. Homeowners must arrange for removal of these large or bulky items on their own and at their own expense, Cardboard boxes must be broken down.

We now have a new gate, please be patient while it is opening to let you in. The old gate has been hit by cars several times.

The cooler weather is here- now is a good time to clean up your yards and car ports and make our community attractive. Violations will be sent out to those who don't.

Ambulance Fund

Evelyn Hale, Coach 1364 727-403-6434

The Ambulance Fund is open to all residents for $2.50 per person per year. Payment qualifies members for 1 emergency transport per person per year. The fund pays the balance of the bill, up to $75, after Medicare and insurance. Membership period is stated on your card. There are no grace days.

JUST SAYIN'

Jeanne Humter

I'm looking at our politicians on television and thinking we've got a problem when they look old even to me. Geez, a couple of them look like backup singers for the Rolling Stones.

Well, we have speed bumps now and they are really annoying. That's great. That means they're working. I learned the hard way that on a golf cart slowing down doesn't work. Anything short of a full stop will loosen your teeth and rattle your bones!

Last week somebody left a mattress behind our dumpsters. We also had a few chairs and even a toilet. I was looking for a couple sheets of plywood. Figured if I put them up behind the dumpsters, I'd have a furnished apartment and could move in.

According to government statistics (and we always believe them!!!), the cost of living is up about 3.2% this year. So, explain to me where our electric bills fit in there. I make a budget each year and try to stay in it. When I add up my electric bills, I raise the amount 15% to give myself a little extra. When I paid the bill for October this year, I went over that amount. Just to be clear, in ten months this year my electric cost more than 115% of the annual entire amount I spent last year. What are they factoring into figure that 3.2% cost of living, cornflakes, and pedicures? It's sure not electric, groceries and housing cost.

Dog Tails...While I was off enjoying the life of fun and luxury on a Disney cruise ship, Lucy (warrior princess chihuahua) vacationed at Doggy Disney World of Largo, also known as Roger and Debbie Heil's home. I think she gained more weight than I did. Debbie told me Lucy wouldn't eat her food while I was gone. So, they fed her chicken...and hot dogs...and various human food delicacies, with lots of sympathetic attention. On her first night home, feeling bad that she was so sad without me, I gave her dog food dinner and watched her sniff once and walk away. I swear I heard her mumble, "I'll wait for the chicken." No chicken followed and the second night she gobbled that dog food up. Somebody tell the Heils they've been played.

After dinner, we now have what is known as "The War of the Lap." I am the battleground for animal supremacy. Cat and dog get fed and I eat in the living room and set my empty dish on a tv tray next to my chair. Lucy eats as fast as caninely possible so she can race to my side and do her imitation of a starving dog, hoping for a handout. Pip leisurely licks all the good juices off his food and occasionally takes a bite of the food, then joins us on my chair.

Now the fun begins. Lucy claims territorial rights to the middle. Pip takes the chair arm and slowly begins to slide over, almost touching Lucy. This is infringing on the demilitarized zone, not a good idea. Then Pip leaps onto the tv tray and checks out the remnants of my meal. Remember, this cat won't eat anything I offer him...cheese, meat, even tuna he sniffs and walks away. He sniffs and licks the plate. Then pauses and stares right at Lucy. She has not been allowed to lick the plate and Pip knows it. He licks it again, moves towards Lucy and stops. He begins the cat statue move. Completely still, he stares at Lucy. She attempts a low growl which comes out like a hesitant squeak. His pupils dilate and not a hair moves. Lucy bares her ferocious gums (most of her teeth have been pulled). The hair on her back stands up making her appear to be at least two ounces bigger. I sit motionless, hoping I don't become a casualty. Finally, a flurry of activity, dog and cat are both standing erect, exchanging blows with paws of fury, hissing and barking. In less time than it took to type this, they separate. Pip steps away and Lucy retreats to the couch, huffing out a tune of victory. She won the battle, but the war will continue. Across the room, Pip tries the stare statue tactic, but is ignored. I check for cuts and scratches. I am clear of injury, and I don't think they even touched each other, but they sure made some noise. Time for after dinner naps.

New Topic...A husband takes his wife for her first game of golf. Of, course the wife promptly hacked her first shot right through the window of the biggest house adjacent to the course. The husband shouted, "I wanted you to be careful. Now we have to apologize and go see what this is going to cost us." So, the couple walked up to the house and knocked on the door.

A warm voice said, "Come on in." When they entered, they saw the damage that was done. Glass was all over the place and a broken antique bottle was lying on its side near the broken window.

A man reclining on the couch asked, "Are you the people who broke my window?" "Yes, Sir, we're sure sorry about that," the husband replied. "Oh, no apology is necessary. Actually, I want to thank you. You see, I'm a ghost and I've been trapped in that bottle for a thousand years. Now that you've released me, I'm allowed to grant three wishes. I'll give you each one wish, but if you don't mind, I'll keep the last one for myself.”

“Wow, that's great,” the husband said. He pondered a moment and blurted out, “I'd like a million dollars a year for the rest of my life.” “No problem,” said the ghost. It's the least I can do. And I'll guarantee you a long, healthy life.”

“And now you, young lady, what do you want?” the ghost asked. “I'd like to own a gorgeous home complete with servants, in every country in the world,” she said. “Consider it done. And your homes will always be safe from fire, burglary, and natural disasters.”

“And now,” the couple asked in unison, “What's your wish, ghost?” “Well, since I've been trapped in that bottle and haven't been with a woman in more than a thousand years, my wish is to have your wife.” The husband looked at his wife and said, “Honey, we now both have a fortune and all those houses. What do you think?” She mulled it over for a few moments and said, “You know, you're right. Considering our good fortune, I guess I wouldn't mind. But what about you, honey?” “You know I love you, sweetheart,” said the husband. “I'd do the same for you.”

So, the ghost and the woman went upstairs where they spent the rest of the afternoon. The ghost was insatiable. After about three hours of nonstop fun, the ghost looked into her eyes and asked, “How old are you and your husband?” “Why we're both 35,” she responded breathlessly.

The ghost smiled.....”Really, 35 years old and both of you still believe in ghosts?”

Letter to the Review:

We rode all around the park and found that approximately 60 coaches were either full of weeds or car ports were very cluttered. It is up to each homeowner to keep their coaches free of clutter and weeds. It used to be for the “Snow Birds” that when they left to go back north, they had to turn into the office the name of the individual that was to keep their place free of weeds. The manager would issue letters to those that did not keep their place in good order.

The difference between our coaches and that of “Traylor Trash” is the appearance. Please, let's keep our places looking good!

November Happenings

Hope you are hungry this month:

First up: Game night

Kathy is hosting a games night on the 8th of November. She will be bringing approximately 20 board games. So come on down, bring your friends and pick one to play with or you can even bring one of your own. Who doesn't love a little friendly competition among friends?? See you at 7 on the 8th of November. Feel free to bring your own snacks and beverages.

Next, we have an All you can eat Veterans Day Breakfast is happening on the 11th. Yes, you read that right, we said ALL YOU CAN EAT. The menu includes pancakes, eggs, sausage, hash browns, coffee, and orange juice. All for only $7.00.

Serving 8:30 to 10:00.

Please bring a veteran, come with a veteran or if you would like to buy a veteran their breakfast who can't get here and we will deliver. The cooks tell me they have a small gift to thank all our veterans, so come on down, fill your bellies and enjoy each other's company.

To close out the month is the Thanksgiving Feast: Turkey will be provided; you bring potluck sides. Some easy ideas later in this issue. Don't forget about rolls or gravy, even desserts are also needed. There will be a sign-up sheet in the clubhouse, so hopefully we will get a great variety from all you Rancher chefs, cooks, and bakers.

Happy hour is at 1pm and dinner at 2pm.

Clubs and Activities

Bid Euchre

This will be held on Fridays at 1:15 at the clubhouse.

Please sign up in the clubhouse and bring 12 quarters.

Chair Exercises

Sharon Van Horn 828-318-5937

Now that the weather is cooler, we are moving back into the club house for chair exercises. A plan is being developed to demonstrate modified chair exercises for those who are challenged. This will help all who want to participate but as we get older have some challenges, but still want to work on mobility and balance.

All you need is sneakers, water bottle and hand weights if you have them.

We still meet on Tuesday and Thursday at 9AM.

Choir

I am looking forward to the music season for the Bay Ranch Chorus. Practices will begin in November with the Christmas Concert on Wednesday December 6th at 7pm in the clubhouse. The theme this year is Christmas traditions and treasured memories.

After many years our accompanist decided to retire so... I am looking for that one special person who can assume the duties of playing the piano for us. Please email me for details if you or you know someone who might be able to help us out.

New members of the Chorus are always welcome.

Great news: There will be a food truck on the first Tuesday of every month, at 6:30. The food truck is open to everyone. Don't play cornhole? Still come down and get some great tasting food.

CRAFTS

Crafts are held whenever anyone has a project to share, we can get together and do.

If you have a great idea, let us know, we have plenty of Ranchers waiting and willing to learn.

Euchre

Joan Seiders, Coach 123, 532-8409

Euchre is on Tuesday at 6:30. Bring yourself and a dollar. Don't know how to play? Come on down and we will teach you.

Food Pantry

The food pantry for November will be on the 20th. Time is 12 noon.

Game Night

Kathy Trombini

If we can get enough people to come and support this event, we will try to keep it going. The plan is to have it alternate Wednesday when there is no card bingo or other special events going on. We are holding a game night on the 8th, We will have many board games here, but feel free to bring your own and friends down with you.

Hope to see you at 7pm.

Golf

Jim Jones 605-730-1264

Golf is now on hiatus.

History of Veterans Day

World War I – known at the time as “The Great War” – officially ended when the Treaty of Versailles was signed on June 28, 1919, in the Palace of Versailles outside the town of Versailles, France. However, fighting ceased seven months earlier when an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, between the Allied nations and Germany went into effect on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. For that reason, November 11, 1918, is generally regarded as the end of “the war to end all wars.”

Veterans Day continues to be observed on November 11, regardless of what day of the week on which it falls. The restoration of the observance of Veterans Day to November 11 not only preserves the historical significance of the date but helps focus attention on the important purpose of Veterans Day: A celebration to honor America’s veterans for their patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.

Did you know the story behind Over the River and Through the Woods?

The poem was originally published as "The New-England Boy's Song about Thanksgiving Day" in Child's Flowers for Children. It celebrates the author's childhood memories of visiting her grandfather's house (said to be the Paul Curtis House). Lydia Maria Child was a novelist, journalist, teacher, and poet who wrote extensively about the need to eliminate slavery.

The poem was eventually set to a tune by an unknown composer. The song version is sometimes presented with lines about Christmas, rather than Thanksgiving. For instance, the line "Hurrah for Thanksgiving Day!" becomes "Hurrah for Christmas Day!" As a Christmas song, it has been recorded as "A Merry Christmas at Grandmother's". Although the modern Thanksgiving holiday is not always associated with snow (snow in late November occasionally occurs in the northern states and is rare at best elsewhere in the United States), New England in the early 19th century was enduring the Little Ice Age, a colder era with earlier winters.

Poem

The original piece had twelve stanzas, though only four are typically included in the song. One stanza has the word that ends in the M sound rhyme with the word that ends in the N sound.

Over the river, and through the wood,
To Grandfather's house we go;
the horse knows the way to carry the sleigh through the white and drifted snow.

Over the river, and through the wood,
to Grandfather's house away!
We would not stop for doll or top,
for 'tis Thanksgiving Day.

Over the river, and through the wood—
oh, how the wind does blow!
It stings the toes and bites the nose
as over the ground we go.

Over the river, and through the wood—
and straight through the barnyard gate,
We seem to go extremely slow,
it is so hard to wait!

Over the river, and through the wood—
When Grandmother saw us come,
She will say, "O, dear, the children are here,
bring a pie for everyone."

Over the river, and through the wood—
now Grandmother's cap I spy!
Hurrah for the fun! Is the pudding done?
Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!

The following verses appear in a "long version":

Over the river, and through the wood,
with a clear blue winter sky,
The dogs do bark, and children hark,
as we go jingling by.

Over the river, and through the wood,
to have a first-rate play.
Hear the bells ring, "Ting-a-ling-ding!",
Hurrah for Thanksgiving Day!

Over the river, and through the wood,
no matter for winds that blow;
Or if we get the sleigh upset
into a bank of snow

Over the river, and through the wood,
to see little John and Ann;
We will kiss them all, and play snow-ball and stay as long as we can.

Over the river, and through the wood,
trot fast, my dapple-gray!
Spring over the ground like a hunting-hound!
For 'tis Thanksgiving Day.

Over the river, and through the wood,
Old Jowler hears our bells.
He shakes his pow, with a loud bow-wow, and thus the news he tells

Awesome Creamy Corn Casserole

Ingredients

- 1 (15 ounce) can whole kernel corn, drained
- 1 (14.75 ounce) can creamed corn
- 1 (8.5 ounce) package dry cornbread mix
- 1 cup sour cream
- ½ cup butter, melted
- 2 large eggs, beaten

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Lightly grease a 9x9-inch baking dish.
2. Mix whole and creamed corn, cornbread mix, sour cream, melted butter, and eggs together in a medium bowl until well combined. Spoon mixture into the prepared dish. Bake in the preheated oven until the top is golden brown and a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean, about 45 minutes.

Thanksgiving silly food puns.

- What do sweet potatoes wear to bed? Yammies.
- What did the Thanksgiving turkey say to the Christmas ham? Nice to meat you.
- Why don't side dishes tell jokes? They're too corny.
- What do you call a sad cranberry? A blueberry.
- Do you know where you can get turkey stock in bulk? The stock market.
- What did the president say when presented with a poorly cooked turkey? "Is it too late for a pardon?"
- What does grandma say when you burn the holiday meal? Oh, good gravy!
- How did you find grandma's turkey this year? I just looked next to the gravy.
- Why did the cranberries turn red? Because they saw the turkey dressing.
- What side dish do you bring for Thanksgiving dinner when you accidentally sat on the sweet potatoes? Squash casserole.
- Why should you never set the turkey next to the dessert? Because he will gobble, gobble it up!
- What is a turkey's favorite dessert? Peach gobbler!
- Why was the Thanksgiving soup so expensive? It had 24 carrots.
- How did the salt and pepper welcome all the guests? By saying, "Seasoning's greetings!"
- What vegetables would you like with your Thanksgiving dinner? Beets me!
- Why did the policeman stop you on your way home last Thanksgiving? Because you far exceeded your feed limit.

GREAT TIPS TO ENJOY YOUR THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY SAFELY

Thanksgiving is a wonderful time to gather with friends and family, eat delicious food, watch football (or the parade!), and travel to visit loved ones. While enjoying the holiday, and as things might get hectic, it is important to always keep safety in mind.

Top safety hazards during the Thanksgiving holiday include:

FIRE ... kitchen fires, candles, and outdoor deep fryers

FOOD ... choking and poisoning, cuts and burns during food preparation.

TRAVEL ... car accidents, driving while intoxicated or distracted.

KITCHEN SAFETY

Keep children away from the stove.

Do not leave the house while the turkey is cooking.

Ensure the kitchen floor is kept clear and doesn't have any trip hazards.

Keep matches, lighters, candles, and knives out of the reach of children.

Thanksgiving is the #1 day of the year for cooking fires, reports State Farm Insurance. The U.S. Fire Department confirms that more than 4,000 fires occur on Thanksgiving Day and preparing deep fried turkeys, using a turkey fryer, is the cause of approximately 5 deaths, 50 injuries, and the destruction of 900 homes and more than $15 million in property damage every year.

Kitchen safety is even more important than usual during busy holiday times, like Thanksgiving, when more people might be working in the kitchen to prepare a large meal. But for casual cooks and experienced chefs alike, the kitchen presents more hazards than imagined

HOLIDAY FIRE PREVENTION TIPS

Keep baking soda on hand to put out kitchen fires.

Do not leave food cooking or the stove unsupervised.

Make sure smoke alarms are working.

A household fire extinguisher should always be nearby.

Do not leave candles burning unattended and do not burn candles near flammable items like curtains or potpourri.

Follow all instructions carefully when using a deep fryer and monitor closely!

FOOD SAFETY

Incidents of choking and food poisoning increase during the holidays, especially around Thanksgiving, as people are preparing and consuming more food than usual. Food Safety News reports that approximately 51 million turkeys are consumed on Thanksgiving.

Always wash your hands after handling raw or under-cooked poultry.

Use separate cutting boards for raw meat and produce to prevent cross-contamination.

The USDA recommends cooking the turkey at a minimum of 325 degrees. Use a food thermometer and cook the turkey to an internal temperature of 165 to 180 degrees to ensure the turkey is cooked thoroughly and to avoid illness caused by consuming under-cooked poultry.

Store leftovers within 2 hours or toss them.

PET SAFETY

The Veterinary Medical Association warns that turkey and chicken bones should never be given to pets because they can splinter, and pets may choke.

Dogs should be kept away from any dish that has onions, leeks, garlic, raisins, grapes, or chocolate, as those foods can be hazardous to your dog's health.
