* * * *SOCIAL CLUB (TIME) CORRECTION * * * *

An article in the October News and Views mistakenly said refreshments started at 9:30 a.m. with the meeting following at 10:00 a.m. The actual times are refreshments at 9:00 a.m. with the meeting starting at 9:30 a.m. Sorry for any confusion this has caused.

LIBRARY

Yes, Demary has a PI license; but her area of expertise, at which she makes good money, is genealogy and historical research. Life is good. Until the day this obnoxious jerk comes in and wants her to tap his phone lines, which she declines to do. As she is showing him the door, he has the nerve to get shot and killed in front of her. And in the process, she sustains a head wound and wakes up in the hospital! Only to find out her secretary, Martha, has been kidnapped. And the bodies keep falling.

E.L. Larkin, who wrote “Hear My Cry”, seems to be somewhat a mystery. I could find that she spent years as owner/operator of restaurants in Washington, California and New Mexico where she could observe people. Evelyn now resides in Aberdeen, Washington. And except for a list of her many books, that is all I could find on her. So, enjoy her cozy books. They are a fun read.

The library is located at Lot 231 and is open daily 10-6. We have WiFi and air. We also have a lot more than books. Check out our DVDs, puzzles and games.

Please remember to shut the door and turn off the lights when you leave.

FROM THE OFFICE

This is a reminder to not leave the laundry room while your clothes are washing/drying. Someone had their clothes stolen recently. If you see suspicious activity in the laundry rooms, call and report “suspicious” person to the police department!

By the time you are reading this, winter people will be arriving. Please do not stop in the middle of the streets to “catch up”. Please stay to the side. A reminder to everyone.....stop signs still mean STOP! And do not drive around the speed bumps....to do so, you are going on someone’s grass...do you want your lawn driven on? The speed limit remains at 15 mph: remember that when your door locks automatically lock, you have reached the speed limit!

Winter activities will soon be in full swing.....watch your calendars for days and times, a reminder that flyers are posted in the cases outside of both Clubhouse doors, on the office door, in the library and in the laundry rooms. Please pay attention to when tickets are being sold for each event, as most activities do not sell tickets at the door so they can have an accurate head count.

Embassy will be doing a toy drive this year; it will not be toys for tots, but the toys will be staying in Pinellas County. There will be a box in the office and one in the Clubhouse. We will be doing a raffle at the end during bingo on Dec. 13th. You will receive one entry ticket per toy, suggested retail value of toys is $10 - $20. (Raffle tickets will be available if you bring toys to the office, as well as at Bingo.)

Included with your rent letter was a prospectus change that very few people understood. Basically, what it means is that if the power on the pole needs to be replaced (Embassy's responsibility), most likely the power to your mobile will need to be updated to a 100-amp service (which is your responsibility). This must be done by a licensed electrician, with a city or county permit. The main purpose of this change was so that the park would pay for it during installation, but you are responsible for paying the park back. This new lease allows you to set up a payment plan with the Park, with $100 a month being your minimum payment. The cost varies from mobile to mobile, depending on how far the pole is from your mobile, how much space is available to get under your mobile, tree roots that need to be cut through, etc. If you already have 100-amp service installed, it will just be the cost to get it from the pole to your electrical box. The other part is that you cannot have any sub boxes on the power poles, such as someone adding an a/c unit, dryer, etc. These must all be removed by March 31, 2024. The Park owns 80% of the power poles in the park and many of the power boxes, wires, etc. are still original: there are usually 2 or 4 homes affected by each meter box issue, so we upgrade all of them on that pole when the need arises.

Recycling improperly will result in a rule violation notice: two (2) in a twelve (12) month period can result in eviction. No one can force you to recycle, but if you choose not to recycle, make sure you are NOT putting your garbage in the blue recycle bins. Unfortunately, FL Statute 723 would not allow me to assess fines for the offenders. I would like to thank everyone that is recycling (or not) but putting everything in the proper containers and keeping the lids closed. There are many more good apples than bad apples when it comes to garbage. I am doing my best to educate everyone so that Embassy does not get any more fines, as they can be used to compute future rent increases.

This rent increase was the largest ever, but look at how much groceries, gas, Duke Energy, etc. have increased. All these increases affected the Park, including insurance, water, and sewer bills. If you think you can't afford to live here, check around at other alternatives: it is still cheaper to live here than in an apartment or Senior housing. We are in the bottom 20% of rent fees for mobile homes in Pinellas County. All members of the rent committee were given a copy of the comparison, so see one of them if you have questions (Ron Russell, Little Mike, Angela Robinson and Joyca Latuga).

As the full-time residents know, we have had an unusually dry summer. Grass cutting is now on an "as needed" basis. The palm trees will be trimmed; if you have a dead palm tree in

THE PUMPKIN PATCH

(Submitted by Jessie Buchholtz)

It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown was a movie and a book based on the comic strip, Peanuts, by Charles M. Schulz. It originated in 1966.

Growing up in MI, it was a fall local trip (or several) every fall. We picked apples, took a hayride, watched cider being "pressed", etc. Over the years, cider mills began expanding to add homemade jams, jellies, fudge, caramel apples, apple dumplings, homemade pies, etc. BUT nothing beats that first glass of fresh cider with a cinnamon sugar donut!

If we just wanted a quick trip, we went to Yates Cider Mill, powered by a water turbine. Yates is the oldest cider mill in MI, with early beginnings in 1863. Other times we went to one of the Blakes Cider Mill locations, which had everything Yates had, but offered special fall offerings, such as roasted corn on the cob, rolled in butter, kielbasa sandwiches, corn mazes, just to name a few added attractions. The only state that has more cider mills than MI is NY (this is an official answer from Siri).

This fall trip tradition has been passed down to each generation in my family. This year I was able to take both of my Great Granddaughters to a Cider Mill. In September I took Delaney, at 5 weeks old, to White House Fruit Farm in Canfield, OH. It was on one of the most beautiful fall weekends that we, as Floridians, do not get to enjoy (low seventy degrees, sunshine, no rain or wind). The site offered a kid’s petting zoo, hayrides, pumpkin picking, food trucks, and a fruit and vegetable retail store that is open year-round. Jerome Hull purchased the acreage in 1924; during the depression, they raised turkeys to supplement the farm. They left the turkey side of the business in 1968, and their son David Hull took over the business. Today 2nd, 3rd and 4th generation family members still run the business. One of the special touches was that they offer small wheelbarrows and several different sizes of wagons free of charge to haul your goodies to your car! Several young workers were doing nothing but retrieving these items from the parking areas and returning them for the next customer.

In October, I took my oldest Great Granddaughter, Lylah, at almost 9 months, to 2 different cider mills (better pumpkin selection at the second one)! One of them was Farmhaus Farms, which originally was Moelker Orchards; the original owners sold so they could retire after over a century of it being the family business. The new owners added “Apple cake”, which is an old Norwegian family recipe of one of the new owners. (Absolutely delicious)! They kept things very close to the same way the original owners ran the cider mill, fresh cold (or warm) cider, fresh donuts, apples, pumpkins, etc. The weather was windy and a balmy 60 degrees, but still a nice fall weekend.

If I am not available, I am sure my Grandsons will continue to take them for the pumpkin/cider fun fall day as an annual tradition.

CHEWY PUMPKIN COOKIES

(Submitted by Gracie)

INGREDIENTS:

3/4 cup unsalted butter, softened
1 cup light brown sugar, packed
2 egg yolks at room temperature
2 tsp vanilla
1/2 cup canned pumpkin purée
1 3/4 cup all-purpose flour

1 TBS pumpkin spice
1/2 tsp baking soda
1/2 tsp baking powder
1/2 tsp salt
1/4 cup granulated white sugar
1/2 tsp pumpkin spice

DIRECTIONS:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
2. Start by drying your pumpkin (this step is not optional)! Spread the canned pumpkin on a plate and lightly press with a paper towel to remove the excess liquid. Repeat this step until the pumpkin volume goes from 1/2 cup to 1/4 cup. Set aside.
3. In a small bowl, whisk together the flour, pumpkin spice, baking soda, baking powder and salt. Set aside.
4. In a separate small bowl, mix the granulated sugar and 1/2 tsp pumpkin spice (the last 2 ingredients listed). Set aside.
5. In a large bowl, cream the softened butter and brown sugar together with an electric mixer on high speed for 1 or 2 minutes until light and fluffy.
6. Add the egg yolks and vanilla; mix on medium speed until pale and fluffy (1 to 2 minutes).
7. Add the pumpkin and mix on medium speed to combine.
8. Add the dry ingredients and mix on low speed just until combined.
9. Scoop the dough with a 2 TBS cookie scoop and roll them into balls. Roll the dough balls into the pumpkin spice sugar mix. (If the dough is too sticky you can put it in the refrigerator for 10 minutes and then proceed.)
10. Place the cookie dough balls 2 inches apart on baking sheets.
11. Bake the cookies 12-14 minutes (12 minutes for a chewy cookie or 14 minutes for a slightly crispier cookie). When the cookies are done baking the centers should be slightly puffy. As they cool the centers will fall and the cookie will look 'wrinkly'.
12. Let the cookies cool on the baking sheet for 5 minutes, then transfer to a cooling rack to finish cooling. They are best when they have cooled for at least 15 minutes.

NOBODY PAYS MORE

GAIN WITHOUT THE PAIN

Many of us tell ourselves almost daily that we need to get out and exercise more. Perhaps we tell ourselves that we will get out and walk for a few (30) minutes each day. But the first time it is raining, or the temperature has risen/fall to an unbearable level, we decide to skip it and our good intentions are soon forgotten. And who in their right mind wants to endure more pain when our aging bodies are already moaning and groaning when we try to get out of bed or even stand up from that easy chair?!?

Here at Embassy you can get that exercise WITHOUT inflicting the pain and regardless of the weather. From October through April there are exercise classes available on Tuesday and Friday mornings, 8:45-9:30 a.m. in the Clubhouse. Elaine Pepper walks us through a series of low impact exercises designed to strengthen our weakened muscles and improve our sometimes-unstable balance. Exercises are performed either sitting in a chair or standing. THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO NEED TO GET DOWN ON THE FLOOR (or a mat).

Can't afford to pay for a weekly exercise class? Classes are free and no sign-up is required. Just show up at the Clubhouse before 8:45 a.m. and get ready to move those limbs.

Don't have the right equipment? Not to worry. Over the years Elaine has collected a variety of plastic balls, hand weights, and stretch bands so you can just borrow hers. You are, of course, welcome to dust off those ones you put in the back of your closet and bring them with you. LOL

What's that you say? Yoga pants just aren't your style? You don't need them. Just make sure that whatever you wear is loose (but not falling off) and comfortable ... shorts or sweatpants with a baggy t-shirt works just fine. Footwear may be a bit trickier. I wore Crocs but most of the other attendees wore tennis shoes. Again, whatever you wear should be comfortable for YOU.

Bad knees? Sore shoulders? Arthritis in the hip? Again, not a problem. You need only do the exercises you want to do, and no one will judge you. We all have physical limitations, so we understand. And it really is true what they say, "Use it or lose it." I, myself, discovered that a few minutes a day on a stationary bike (or 3-wheeler outdoors) has improved my mobility immensely.

So, you are running out of excuses. Put on those comfy shorts and t-shirt and join us for the next class. You never know .... You might enjoy it!

BACKGROUND: Elaine Pepper has led exercise classes here at Embassy for the last 14 years (Minus the COVID isolation months). Upon her retirement, Elaine decided she was going to take full advantage of her gym membership and even engaged a personal trainer to develop her fitness routine. She has taken Zoomba, Jazzercise and aerobics classes gleaned which exercises would be most beneficial to seniors. Elaine also teaches classes in Ohio during the summer months so she doesn't lose her flexibility from inactivity. And she is always on the lookout for new routines or movements that she can incorporate into her classes at Embassy.

ALL OCCASION HOLIDAY RECIPE

(suitable for Thanksgiving OR Christmas)

INGREDIENTS:

Warm and cozy setting

Decorations

People

Food - don't forget the dessert!

Good cheer - make sure there is plenty to go around.

DIRECTIONS:

1. Choose a setting. Look for a place with a “warm and cozy” atmosphere.
2. Add holiday decorations to set a festive mood.
3. Invite your guests: family, friends, maybe even someone who has no family and needs a friend.
4. Plan the menu according to your personal preferences. You will need food, food, and more food in massive quantities. Ask your guests to bring a dish to share to lighten your workload.
5. Once everyone is gathered round the table, add 1 cup of good cheer to toast the occasion.
6. EAT before the food gets cold. Enjoy the many dishes and various flavors associated with the season.

NOTE: At this point you are all way too stuffed to think about dessert. So, sit around, relax and enjoy each other's company .... this is also a good time to clear the table, put leftovers in the fridge, and start the dishwasher.

7. Time for dessert! It all looks so good you want to sample everything. Just a little taste of each because “I swear I can't eat another bite!”
8. Add another cup of good cheer to top off the day.

EMBASSY LUNCHEON

The October Embassy Luncheon was held at Country Pizza Italian Grill on Wednesday, October 11th with 12 people in attendance. Several of us enjoyed their buffet which included salad, pasta, chicken, vegetables, and pizza. The rest ordered off the menu which also offered sandwiches and appetizers. Four people won Publix gift certificates as door prizes.

Embassy Luncheons happen every month; locations vary depending on who has volunteered to ‘host’ the event. Watch for sign-up sheets posted outside the Clubhouse.

AN AMERICAN THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving is a cherished American holiday, marked by a bountiful feast and expressions of gratitude. Its origins can be traced back to the early 17th century when English Pilgrims arrived at Plymouth, Massachusetts, in 1620. These early settlers faced harsh conditions, unfamiliar terrain, and limited resources, but with the help of Native Americans, particularly the Wampanoag tribe, they learned essential survival skills.

The first recorded Thanksgiving took place in 1621, celebrating the Pilgrims' successful harvest. This three-day feast marked the cooperation between the Pilgrims and the Wampanoag, who had taught them vital agricultural techniques, such as planting corn, squash, and beans. The menu included venison, fowl, seafood, and locally grown vegetables. Over time, Thanksgiving has evolved from a simple harvest celebration to a complex holiday with numerous customs and traditions. The turkey, a North American bird, became the centerpiece of the Thanksgiving meal, replacing the variety of game enjoyed by the Pilgrims. Mashed potatoes, stuffing, cranberry sauce, and pumpkin pie have all become staples of the modern Thanksgiving table.

Thanksgiving didn't become an annual tradition immediately. It wasn't until 1863, during the Civil War, that President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed Thanksgiving as a national holiday in an attempt to foster unity during a deeply divided time. In 1941 President Franklin D. Roosevelt officially moved Thanksgiving to the fourth Thursday in November, where it remains today.

One enduring Thanksgiving tradition is the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, which began in 1924 as a marketing effort to promote the Macy's store in New York City. Today, it's an iconic event featuring giant character balloons, marching bands, and performances, watched by millions across the nation.

Football has also become synonymous with Thanksgiving, with NFL games being a major part of the holiday since the league's inception. Families often gather around the TV to watch their favorite teams compete while enjoying the Thanksgiving feast.

While not officially part of Thanksgiving, Black Friday has become synonymous with the holiday weekend. On the day after Thanksgiving, retailers offer massive discounts, leading to a frenzy of shopping as people kick off their holiday gift-buying.

Thanksgiving is also a time for giving back. Many people volunteer at shelters and food banks to help those in need, emphasizing the spirit of gratitude and generosity. In recent years, a new tradition known as "Friendsgiving" has gained popularity. Friends who may not be able to travel home for the holiday come together to celebrate and share a meal.

"May your stuffing be tasty. May your turkey be plump. May your potatoes and gravy have nary a lump. May your yams be delicious and your pies take the prize, and may your Thanksgiving dinner stay off your thighs!" —Anonymous.
