President's Report

By Paula Bunevith #202

Hello everyone: Well, it's December already! Hope you all are enjoying this great fall weather. It's been warm and then we had a cold spell according to FL weather man. It dropped from the mid-80's to the low 70's.

For those who are renting out your unit during the season. This is a friendly reminder that all paperwork MUST be filed with the office prior to the arrival of your tenants. That would include the Seasonal Rental Form as well as the background check. Failure to provide the office with all the paperwork will result in your tenants being told that they are trespassing and to vacate the property immediately. Which will be embarrassing to you. We must know who is in the park and what dates they will be here. Please make sure that all paperwork is in order with the office so there will be no inconvenience to your tenants.

Also please be diligent about water use. Our water bills are high and mother nature has not been very helpful in this matter. The region is down 14.50 inches of rain for the season. We have had all the water valves checked and replaced. If you see a water leak, please notify a board member immediately.

Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Holidays to All. Watch a sunset, Enjoy the pool, and have fun.

Safe Travels to all.

Season Greetings:

Welcome all you residents that have returned to the park for the winter. As you can see our GA Calendar is filled up with activities for December. Check it out and enjoy.

It is hard to believe that the last month of 2023 is upon us and that another year is ending. As the year draws to a close, let's take a moment to reflect on the friends we've made and the friends that we have lost. Those who have left us will always be fondly remembered. For those who have joined the G.A. family this year, I hope that you have felt welcomed and are enjoying your time, not only in our park, but also in Delightful Dunedin.

As December progresses, here are some important days to remember:

Thursday, December 21st is the Winter Solstice, marking the beginning of winter and the shortest day of the year.

Thursday, December 7th Chanukah, the Festival of Lights (also called Hanukkah) begins and lasts 8 days.

Monday, December 25th is Christmas, the biggest holiday of the year. May all of you have a very peaceful and prosperous holiday season.

Quote of the Month: “Every moment is a fresh beginning.” – T.S. Eliot, poet, essayist, publisher, playwright, literary critic, and editor

Until next time,
May God bless and keep you well and safe...

Greetings from the Office

Wishing you a festive Holiday Season and a very Happy New Year.

Recreation Report

By Debbie Douthit #60
Recreation Chair

Season's Greetings to ALL!

We hope this letter finds you well and enjoying the unexpected warmth of December. As we come to the close of our season, I wanted to take a moment to share some highlights and express gratitude for a few of the exceptional efforts that make our park truly special. Once again, the holiday season is just around the corner, and at Golden Acres we are fortunate to have Karin Desmone as our long-term office manager. She works tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure that your club is the best it can be. Although she may not be as visible in all her many functions, her hard work and dedication throughout the year is vital to our park.

Give a BIG Cheer to Board president Paula Bunevith and each board member if you happen to spot them bustling around attending to all the many details that make Golden Acres 2022-2023 Park of year! Our park, a source of pride for us all, is in impeccable shape.

Karin, Paula, board members, and all our many volunteer residents' commitment to excellence is evident, and I'm sure you will join the recreation committee in recognizing and appreciating their hard work.

Coffee hour and community updates are every Wednesday beginning at 9:00 a.m. and so we are off to another successful season. Linda St. Peter, Deb. Pollard, Maureen Shannon, and entire team work tirelessly to coordinate and execute coffee flawlessly. Each of your dedication has undeniably contributed to the enjoyment of our time and fellowship. We need weekly coffee hour volunteers. Please sign up on the bulletin board or contact Linda St. Peter for details.

Ed Richtmyer, we owe a debt of gratitude. As we reflect on the season, I encourage each of you to take a moment to express your appreciation for his outstanding loyalty to our Wednesday donut hour and prompt delivery.

Sue Bailey's newsletter contribution is invaluable, and without her, the successes we've enjoyed this year would not have been possible. Thank you, Sue, for being a vital part of the GA community!

Equally deserving of recognition are Joe and Paula Bunevith, who orchestrated the Thanksgiving feast at the clubhouse. You are to be recognized for your unwavering dedication and hard work as you created an environment where we could relax and savor moments with friends and family.

A lot is going on in the month of December and we are looking for old and new resident participation. Signup sheets are posted in the club house.

Each year the park has a Holiday drop off box in the club house. Residents who would like cards delivered throughout the park may drop them off in the box provided. (We have a sign-up sheet for volunteers to distribute the cards.)

Luminary co-host Larry, Debbie, and Gina Douthit request volunteers to help fill sandbags and light candles. (signup sheet in the club house).

Tis the Season to Remember! Sign-up if you would like to bring a dish and share a warm Christmas meal with friends and neighbors. The rec. committee will provide meat and each of us will bring our favorite side-dish to complete the meal. We are looking for the “perfect Little Elf” to step forward and host this special event. They will need many elves to help accomplish this event such as: cook meat, organize menu, and clean up.

Be sure to mark your calendars and purchase tickets early for this year’s New Year’s Eve dance. Eric, Nancy, Claudia, and Jack will co-host and sell tickets. Papa J and band will perform Dec 31, 2023 from 9:00 a.m.-12:30 a.m. With this dynamic foursome at the helm, we anticipate a full house and a night to remember!

Calendar changes and updates will be posted in the clubhouse.

March 2024 will mark the two-year anniversary of the rec. chair position. Therefore, this and other committee positions will need to be filled at that time. Each of us would like to thank you for your support as we look forward to those who wish to step in and take over for the next two-year term. (Sign-up posted in the club house) You will be blessed to be a part of the committee by many payments of the heart.

A blessed season and heartfelt thanks to each of you for the countless hours invested in making this season a resounding success. We apologize in advance to any volunteers that we inadvertently failed to mention. Please know that your services were invaluable to our success.

Merry Christmas & Blessings for a great 2024!

Water Conservation Ideas for GA

By Chris Sprague #96

A couple of times last winter at our community meetings a discussion took place about being conscious of how much water we use and ways of trying to cut back on that usage. I had mentioned that at our home in Nova Scotia several summers we were put on a three-month water conservation due to very low rain. (Certainly not the case this year as it rained most of the summer). Since we also must pay the city for our water in Nova Scotia, I have continued using several of them.

I mentioned to Sue Bailey that I would gladly share them for the park newsletter. You may even find that there are some on the list that you want to take back to your homes when you leave in the spring as it may apply better there than at GA. You may also find that some are already a part of your daily life.

1. Install low flow shower heads and sink taps.
2. Install a dual flush toilet when doing a bathroom upgrade.
3. Use the saying for flushing: "If it is brown, flush it down, if its yellow let it mellow."
4. Take shorter showers by reducing shower time by a couple of minutes.
5. Turn off the tap while brushing your teeth or even use just a glass of water.
6. Fill the sink with water while shaving or washing face and hands rather than letting the water run continuously. Also, will help reduce your water heating bill.
7. Wash only full loads of laundry and dishes.
8. Check for a running toilet by putting food colouring in the tank. If the water in the bowl starts to turn colour you have a slow leak and may need to replace the ball. Another way is to turn the tank off for a couple of hours. If the water level in the tank drops, you have a leak.
9. Reduce car/RV washing unless it is dirty. Make sure the hose is not running when laying on ground during washing.
10. Check for leaks/drips anywhere there is pipe/plumbing inside and out often.
11. Use rain barrels (if allowed) to catch water and use to water gardens and grass. This may only be helpful at our summer homes.
12. Use mulch in gardens and on plants to help retain moisture and water less.
13. Sweep driveways and walkways rather than using garden hose or pressure washer each time.
14. If using a dehumidifier, take the collected water to water your plants or garden.

Editor's Note: This is a great article and very timely since the President's report also indicates that we need to be diligent with our water use. Thank you, Chris.

What is Palliative Care?

From NIH (News in Health) newsinahealth.nih.gov

Palliative care is a specialized type of medical care for people who have a serious or life-threatening illness. It can help relieve pain, discomfort, stress, and other symptoms. It aims to improve the quality of life when a person is seriously ill. You may receive palliative care while getting treatment for a serious illness. It can help you deal with side effects of medical treatments. You might consider it if you have pain or other symptoms caused by any serious illness. This can include cancer, heart disease, multiple sclerosis, kidney failure, and more.

Palliative care can be provided in a hospital, during outpatient visits, or at home. It involves a team of specialists who focus on ways to improve quality of life for patients and their families. The team may include doctors, nurses, social workers, nutritionists, and others.

Palliative care is different from hospice care. Hospice focuses on the final months of life. People in hospice always receive palliative care to help relieve suffering. But you don't have to be at the end of life or in hospice to receive palliative care.

If you think you might need palliative care, talk to your health care provider. Ask how to access palliative care in your area. You may need a referral to get palliative care services. It's never too early to start palliative care if you have a serious illness. Learn more about palliative care by visiting go nih.gov/NIHNIHOct-23PalliativeCareHospice.

Threat Level Rises for Fraud Targeting the Military Community

By Sue Bailey #188 as an AARP Fraud Watch Fighter

Free Helpline at (877) 908-3360 or

<https://www.aarp.org/benefits-discounts/all/aarp-fraud-helpline/>

How it Works

- Phone calls, emails, or text messages from “officials” with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) may seek sensitive personal information to update records or to apply for health services, such as through the new PACT Act.
- Offers for “free” or discounted devices for veterans abound in ads, by email, text, and online.
- Investment “advisers” approach veterans with promises to help grow retirement funds or obtain extra benefits from the VA.
- Service members needing quick cash may be approached with offers to buy out future disability or pension benefits with a lump-sum payment.

What You Should Know

- The VA will never contact you out of the blue and ask for sensitive personal information or require payment upfront in exchange for health or other services.
- The PACT Act is a new law that expands VA health care and benefits for veterans exposed to burn pits, Agent Orange, and other toxic substances. Scammers are misleading veterans into “applying” through them for a fee. To learn more, visit VA.gov/PAC or call 800-698-2411.
- “Free” medical devices aren’t free. Not only will you receive nothing or an inferior version of what was offered, but the VA will be overbilled for the device.
- Anyone can claim to be a financial adviser. Always check them out at brokercheck.finra.org.
- Any offer for payment upfront for future benefits will likely be pennies on the dollar.

What You Should Do

- If someone contacts you claiming to be from the VA and requests personal information, hang up and contact the VA directly at 800-827-1000.
- Ignore unsolicited offers related to your VA benefits. Use VA-accredited representatives to help you instead. The VA maintains a searchable database of attorneys, claims agents, and veterans service organizations.
- Stay on top of veterans’ scams. AARP’s Veterans Fraud Center is an online hub with information on the latest scams targeting the military community, tips for spotting other types of consumer frauds, and specially tailored resources to help protect veterans and military families.
