December Birthstone

Turquoise and another famous blue gemstone, lapis lazuli, were the traditional birthstones for December. Today, the more brilliant blue topaz and zircon have become the most popular modern gemstones for December birthdays. Winters. Zircon can be found in a variety of colors, but blue is the overwhelming favorite.

Topaz Birthstone Meaning

The word turquoise dates to the 13th century, from the French expression 'pierre tourques', referencing the stone's journey from Turkey to Europe. Today, the December birthstone is associated with meanings of freshness, femininity, tranquility, intuition, serenity, creativity, emotional balance, and loyalty.

December Awareness

HIV/AIDS Awareness Month, Universal Human Rights Month, Seasonal Affective Disorder Awareness Month

HIV (human immunodeficiency virus) is a virus that attacks the body's immune system. If HIV is not treated, it can lead to AIDS (acquired immunodeficiency syndrome).

Universal Human Rights The document goes on to define what human rights should be respected and protected universally, as well as emphasizing how important it is to do so.

Seasonal Affective Disorder Each year, millions of people struggle with Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD) but may not recognize the symptoms or know how to treat the disorder.

December Recipes

Honey-Glazed Ham

Ingredients

- ¾ cup water, or as needed
- 2 whole star anise
- 12 whole cloves
- 1 (7 pound) country-style ham

Glaze:

- 1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- ¼ cup honey
- 2 tablespoons Dijon mustard
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 ½ teaspoons black pepper
- ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 pinch cayenne pepper

Directions

Step 1 Preheat the oven to 325 degrees

Step 2 Prepare ham: Add water, star anise, cloves to the bottom of a roasting pan. Place a roasting rack into the pan; place ham on the rack. Cut 1/4-inch-deep slashes, 1/2-inch apart, lengthwise, and crosswise across the top of ham. Step 3 Bake in the preheated oven for 20 minutes.

Step 4 While ham is baking, make glaze: Whisk together brown sugar, honey, mustard, vinegar, black pepper, Worcestershire sauce, and cayenne pepper in a medium bowl until thick and smooth.

Step 5 Brush glaze all over ham. Continue baking ham, brushing with glaze every 20 minutes, until glaze is deep golden and ham is heated through, about 2 hours 10 minutes. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center of ham should read at least 145 degrees

Step 6 Run a kitchen torch over ham until glaze is crispy and caramelized, 2 to 5 minutes.

Christmas Rum Balls

Ingredients

- 11 ounces vanilla wafer cookies crushed
- 1 cup chopped pecans (approximately 1 1/4 cup prior to chopping)
- 1 cup powdered sugar (plus approximately 3/4 cup more for rolling)
- 1/3 cup light corn syrup
- 1/4 cup rum (I prefer using dark spiced rum)

Instructions

- Combine all the ingredients in a large bowl. Mix with a kitchen spoon or a stiff wooden spoon. The mixture will be thick and sticky.
- Use a tablespoon to make balls. Roll them in extra powdered sugar before transferring to a wax paper lined tray. Let dry for 30 minutes before storing in an airtight container for up to two weeks.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Do we really want to have the Midas touch?

In modern times, the name Midas is associated with someone who has such good luck that everything seems to go his or her way—and they become rich without even trying. But the original meaning of the King Midas story was very different.

Midas was the king of Phrygia, according to Edith Hamilton's classic book Mythology. Phrygia was the land of roses, and Midas maintained large, beautiful rose gardens near his palace.

One day, the old man Silenus wandered off from Bacchus' caravan because he was intoxicated. The rotund and aging drunkard was found passed out in a bower of roses near the palace. The servants, having a little fun, bound him with garlands of flowers and crowned him with a wreath of roses and took him stumbling and looking ridiculous to King Midas as a great joke.

Midas welcomed Silenus and entertained him for two days. Then the king led the old man back to Bacchus, the god of wine and intoxication, where he belonged. Bacchus was so glad to get Silenus back that he told Midas that whatever wish he made would come true.

Without giving the matter any thought, Midas immediately wished that whatever he touched would turn to gold. Bacchus, being a god, of course, immediately saw the folly of the king's wish, but granted it anyway.

Then Midas sat down at his table to take his dinner, but as he lifted his food to his lips he saw that it had become a lump of metal. Frightened, and beginning to suffer from hunger and thirst, he was forced to hurry off to Bacchus again and beg him to take the favor he had been granted back. Bacchus instructed the king to wash in the source of the river Pactolus and he would lose the fatal gift. The king did so, and that is why, they say, that gold was found in the bed of that river.

And what are we to take from this tale? Midas was not able to profit from his riches because he had committed a folly, which was just as fatal as sin. Even though the poor king meant no harm, he had failed to use his intelligence, and because of that he faced certain doom, had he not begged the gods to rid him of what he had asked for.

The story tells us that failing to use our intelligence can bring us to ruin just as quickly as wrongdoing. That being intoxicated with the so-called "riches" of our world can bring us down quickly, and the best course of action is to stop and think about the consequences of what we are about to ask or wish for.

On giving

Giving frees us from the familiar territory of our own needs by opening our mind to the unexplained worlds occupied by the needs of others.

— Barbara Bush

The habit of giving only enhances the desire to give.

— Walt Whitman
