SAFE TRAVELS WITHIN GATEWAY

Peter Soehrlen

The early evening darkness presents the need for added precautions when walking, biking and driving along our Gateway neighborhood streets, especially around the clubhouse. Florida does not offer extended twilight. The sunsets and nighttime darkness is upon us in a matter of minutes rather than the hour or so as is common in northern latitudes.

Walkers should wear vests, shirts, or pants with yellow reflective tape to alert drivers of their presence. Please keep in mind you are in a community where drivers are older and are more likely to have visual impairments. Your pet should also have reflective tape attached to their collar or vest.

Bikers, unlighted and wearing dark clothing while riding at night, are all too familiar at Gateway, and it is frankly a miracle that someone hasn't been hit and injured. Bikes should have front and rear lights and reflectors in wheel spokes. Drivers (auto & golf carts) should be especially cautious in the early evening as there are bike riders returning home from work and others heading off to the clubhouse for activities.

Please obey the Gateway 15 mph speed limit, stop at the intersections, and be especially cautious around the clubhouse and at unlit crossing streets where that dark-clothed, unlit biker, golf cart, or walker can suddenly appear from the shadows.

THE HALLOWEEN DANCE

Fifty-plus residents and their guests had a great evening of fun and fellowship at our annual Halloween Dance. Thanks to Jerry Zimmerman & Roger Rex for contracting Sound Wavz to entertain us. All enjoyed the music, and many dancers were on the dance floor. There were so many great costumes that our judges (Michelle Johnson, Cheryl Welch-Williams, & Jerry Zimmerman) had a tough time deciding our four winners. They were Cassie Gilbert, One Night Stand; Bob, Deb, & Ariel Waldorf, The Adams Family; Butch Fleitz, Hooter Girl, & Roger Rex as Mrs. Doubtfire.

Congratulations to our winners, and thanks to our judges. Ariel Waldorf won a prize for her decorated pumpkin, and Debbie Harvey won the 50/50.

We had many nice prizes to give away, thanks to those of you who donated them.

A special thanks to Matt & Peter Soehrlen for hanging the lights and to those who helped decorate and clean up.

Most of all, thanks to all the Veterans for attending and for their service.

Then, on Thursday, November 16th, we were all treated to a delicious sausage gravy & biscuit breakfast hosted by Matt & MaryLynn Soehnlén.

A big thanks goes out to Matt & MaryLynn for all their hard work. What a great way to begin the Bike Parade season. Join us on December 14th & 21st for the Bike Parade. Remember, you don't need a bike to come and have coffee & pastries.

POOL EXERCISE

Connie Aguero 440-773-5062

---

Pool Exercises have started up every Monday and Wednesday at 9:30 am. We'll go through a 40-minute routine, starting with a brief meditation to center us, then warm up and stretch from head to toe, leading into a light aerobic workout-all to music and focusing on breathwork. Bring Water! We do some treading, so if you would like, bring a noodle. We'll be watching the morning temperatures. Rule of thumb is if the air temperature is less than 65 degrees by 9 am we will cancel. Connie will have a sign up for Pool Exercises text reminders and announcements in the Clubhouse.

GATEWAY SUNSET DRUMMING

---

Sunset Drum Circle is starting back up! We'll get together on the 2nd and 4th (5th) Sundays of each month for about 45 minutes before sunset. Our December Sundays fall on the Santa Parade and Christmas Eve, so NO DRUMMING IN DECEMBER... unless we decide on other evenings...watch for Facebook posts! We will start regularly in January and slide the time later as the days get longer. Bring a chair, a refreshment, and some rhythm instruments. It could be a drum, tambourine, noisemaker, maraca, sticks, shaker, Tupperware container, pot, or anything that will make a rhythm. I do have some extra drums if you can't find anything. Hear the rhythm, relax into it, and play along! Connie will have a sign-up for Drum Circle text reminders and announcements in the Clubhouse.

HISTORY OF THANKSGIVING

The United States holiday of Thanksgiving is generally understood to be inspired by the harvest feast celebrated by the citizens of Plymouth Colony (later known as pilgrims) and the Native Americans of the Wampanoag Confederacy in the fall of 1621.

Although there is evidence of earlier thanksgiving celebrations in the Americas by the Spanish in the 16th century and at the Jamestown Colony of Virginia in 1610, following what is known as the "starving times" of 1609, these are not recognized as the "First Thanksgiving", a term coined by the editor Alexander Young in 1841 referring specifically to the account of the 1621 event as given by the Plymouth Colony's chroniclers William Bradford (1590-1657) and Edward Winslow (1595-1655) in Mourt's Relation (published 1622), the earliest work on the first year of the establishment of Plymouth Colony.

Sarah Josepha Hale (1788-1879), the writer and editor of the popular periodical Godey's Lady's Book (published 1830-1878), campaigned for the national observance of Thanksgiving Day beginning in 1846. She wrote to each sitting president advocating the adoption of the holiday. Still, it was only acted upon in 1863 by President Abraham Lincoln (served 1861-1865) during the American Civil War (1861-1865) to encourage national unity.
