PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association President

Yahoo! December has arrived! For many of us it's the happiest time of the year – warm memories of seasons past mixed with joyful anticipation of celebrating another sacred holiday with family and friends. Family, friends, colorful packages wrapped and tied up with bows and glowing Christmas lights, all we're missing is the snow! Hummm, are we really missing it??

But let's not forget about November – it had a holiday too, Thanksgiving. We had a full house for our November Turkey Dinner potluck and want to thank those who came to share the evening with us - you were the Thanksgiving blessing to us. Many thanks to Lei Crance and Cheri Mathews for baking the turkeys, and to Carol McCalvy and Peggy Lyter who did much of the prep work and shed many a tear chopping the onions for the dressing. Thanks also to all who helped serve and clean up – such teamwork – you're the best!

The Hobby Club ladies wish to thank all who turned out for its annual Arts & Crafts sale and took a tour around the room to check out what their busy hands created.....and many of you took advantage of the opportunity to make an early Christmas purchase. Thank you so much for your continued support – we do not take you for granted. You put a smile on our faces when we see you walk through the door.

I also want to give a shout out to those who came to set the stage for our annual Christmas Party. What a great job you did decorating the clubhouse and the trees – somehow you managed to make even our older ornaments look festive; and to those who worked on the pool area – outstanding job! Everyone will benefit visually from your hard work; we consider your efforts a gift to us all.

Speaking of benefitting visually – we are eager to tour the parks to ooh and aah over the festival of blinking lights and beautiful yard ornaments that you have displayed for the Christmas Decoration Contest. If all goes as planned, there will be golf cart tours of Lake Haven available so everyone has an opportunity to admire the scenes created to reflect the joy of the season. Check for flyers with details.

You should have purchased your ticket to the Christmas Dinner by now. We're looking forward to yet another great evening of food, fellowship, dining and dancing. We always consider it a special gift to have friends from the other two parks share the evening with us.

What else?? How about a fabulous New Year's Eve Party! CC and John Corley have lots of secret fun things planned – you won't want to miss it. These two know how to throw a party, so grab your best gal, guy or friend – or come stag, we're all friends here – and show up at Park 1 Clubhouse for a good time. Flyers with all the necessary details are posted on Facebook and

PARK 2 Christmas Gift Drive

Park 2 donated to seniors in need within our own park last year and it was a heartwarming experience for all to see someone in need have their wish list come true. Sometimes that wish list is as simple as basic necessities. So, we are again this year hoping for your generous donations. We are asking for donations for men and women, extra-large sizes, new products only, i.e., t-shirts, shorts, flip flops, toiletries or cash donations that we will use to purchase a Christmas dinner and staples for each person.

Please bring whatever donations you can to Lori (254), Susan (501), Barbara (404) or Susie (280) by Wednesday, December 20, 2023 so that we can put these gifts together and deliver them before Christmas.

Any questions please reach out to any of us.

Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Park 3 Guana Cay

President: Robert Peacock

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
We hope you all had a great Thanksgiving holiday and Black Friday bargain shopping. It's hard to believe Christmas is right around the corner already. No matter how old you are, the magic of Christmas and memories of past Christmases are special. Park 3 Christmas party will be celebrated on Wednesday, December 13th in our clubhouse. 5:00pm for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres followed by dinner at 6:00pm. The event will be catered by "The Stuffed Mushroom" again this year and "Soulfish" entertaining us at 7:00pm. Check your tubes and Facebook pages for information. Seating will be limited so be sure to sign up as soon as you get the information.

The annual Dunedin Christmas parade and Carting Dunedin will be Saturday, December 9th at 4:00pm kicking off on Douglas Avenue by the VFW and TB Ball Park. Parade applications are available. Have fun! Many activities are planned for downtown on that day including Clydesdale horse drawn carriage rides.

Park 3 association meeting will be Wednesday, December 6th at 10:00am followed by decorating the pool and Clubhouse. We currently have an opening on our board for Treasurer. We will go through a nomination process and vote. Due to the ongoing rent increase negotiations with ELS and the Town Hall Meeting, the November association meeting was cancelled. The final rates for the rent will be made soon by ELS. Thank you to our negotiation team for their hard work and determination. They gave excellent representation. They did their absolute best for all of us!

Enjoy your holidays and all the wonderful events this month.

WE ARE FLORIDA'S #1 RETIREMENT COMMUNITIES PARTNER!

Only in L.A....

A man and a woman met at a Hollywood party and began to get to know each other through the usual introductory chitchat.

“Are you in the business?” asked the woman.

“Yes,” said the man. “I’m a stunt man. You know. I drive cars off bridges, I jump from cliffs, I fall out of airplanes... things like that.”

“Wow!” said the woman. “How do you manage to stay alive?”

“I wait tables in Santa Monica,” he said. As retold from Good Clean Jokes

Best excuses when caught sleeping at your desk

1. They told me at the blood bank this might happen.
 2. This is just a 15 - minute power-nap like they raved about in the last time-management course you sent me to.
 3. Whew! Guess I left the top off the liquid paper.
 4. I wasn't sleeping! I was meditating on the mission statement and envisioning a new paradigm!
 5. This is one of the seven habits of highly effective people.
 6. I was testing the keyboard for drool resistance.
 7. Actually, I'm doing a "Stress Level Elimination Exercise Plan" (SLEEP) I learned at the last mandatory seminar you made me attend.
 8. I was doing a highly specific yoga exercise to relieve work-related stress. Are you discriminatory about people who practice yoga.
 9. Darn! Why did you interrupt me? I had almost figured out a solution to our biggest problem.
 10. The coffee machine is broken...
 11. Someone must've put decaf in the wrong pot.
 12. Boy, that cold medicine I took last night just won't wear off.
 13. Ah, the unique and unpredictable circadian rhythms of the workaholic.
 14. Wasn't sleeping. Was trying to pick up contact lens without hands.

To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children...to leave the world a better place...to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.

Did You Know?

Reindeer are the only deer species in which both the male and female can grow antlers?

Males' antlers can grow up to a whopping 4.5 feet in length and have as many 44 points, called 'tines'?

Their noses are specially designed to warm the air before it gets to their lungs?

Do we really want to have the Midas touch?

In modern times, the name Midas is associated with someone who has such good luck that everything seems to go his or her way—and they become rich without even trying. But the original meaning of the King Midas story was very different.

Midas was the king of Phrygia, according to Edith Hamilton's classic book Mythology. Phrygia was the land of roses, and Midas maintained large, beautiful rose gardens near his palace.

One day, the old man Silenus wandered off from Bacchus' caravan because he was intoxicated. The rotund and aging drunkard was found passed out in a bower of roses near the palace. The servants, having a little fun, bound him with garlands of flowers and crowned him with a wreath of roses and took him stumbling and looking ridiculous to King Midas as a great joke.

Midas welcomed Silenus and entertained him for two days. Then the king led the old man back to Bacchus, the god of wine and intoxication, where he belonged. Bacchus was so glad to get Silenus back that he told Midas that whatever wish he made would come true.

Without giving the matter any thought, Midas immediately wished that whatever he touched would turn to gold. Bacchus, being a god, of course, immediately saw the folly of the king's wish, but granted it anyway.

Then Midas sat down at his table to take his dinner, but as he lifted his food to his lips he saw that it had become a lump of metal. Frightened, and beginning to suffer from hunger and thirst, he was forced to hurry off to Bacchus again and beg him to take the favor he had been granted back. Bacchus instructed the king to wash in the source of the river Pactolus and he would lose the fatal gift. The king did so, and that is why, they say, that gold was found in the bed of that river.

And what are we to take from this tale? Midas was not able to profit from his riches because he had committed a folly, which was just as fatal as sin. Even though the poor king meant no harm, he had failed to use his intelligence, and because of that he faced certain doom, had he not begged the gods to rid him of what he had asked for.

The story tells us that failing to use our intelligence can bring us to ruin just as quickly as wrongdoing. That being intoxicated with the so-called "riches" of our world can bring us down quickly, and the best course of action is to stop and think about the consequences of what we are about to ask or wish for.

On giving

Giving frees us from the familiar territory of our own needs by opening our mind to the unexplained worlds occupied by the needs of others.

Staying fit in old age keeps the brain sharp, study finds

A study published in the journal Neurology suggests that keeping physically fit in old age can also keep the brain functioning normally. “Our study suggests that being physically active in old age could keep the brain fit,” says study author Boukje M. van Gelder.

Physical activity can improve blood flow to the brain and in so doing reduce the risk of dementia, stroke and cognitive decline. Activity could stimulate the growth of nerve cells in the hippocampus, the region of the brain involved in memory function. This could help the brain prevent further deterioration, because there is a “reserve” of nerve cells available.

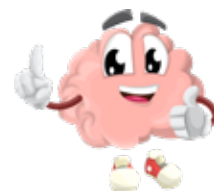

The study included data on 295 men between the ages of 70 and 90, born between 1900 and 1920. The study began in 1990, and the men were tracked for physical activity and mental agility over a 10-year period.

Researchers found:

- Men who reduced their physical activity by an hour or more were 2.6 times more likely to suffer cognitive decline than men who maintained their activity levels.
- Men who performed their physical activity at a lower intensity over a 10-year period were 3.6 times more likely to suffer cognitive decline than those who maintained intensity level.

Researchers prove learning keeps brain physically fit

Researchers at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology have finally proved that when it comes to brainpower the lowdown is “use it or lose it.”

According to DrWeil.com’s Weekly Bulletin, rats that were put into a two-chambered box and then learned to avoid a darkened area through receiving unpleasant foot shocks exhibited strengthened connections among synapses in the hippocampus.

Weil says that even though this learning/brain health connection has been suspected for decades—that this evidence actually shows the physical change in the brain when learning takes place.

This is an important piece of evidence that learning keeps the brain physically strong.
