Welcome Back Our Northern Friends...
We're Glad You're Here

We are seeing more and more of our Northern friends return and are excited to see you at all our fall and winter events this year.

The Halloween Dance was a great success with some amazing costumes and the Halloween Golf Cart Parade was impressive as well. We had a great turnout for the 2nd Pizza/Karaoke night where you could unleash your singing talents. Fun was had by all. The Men's club put on another great night of entertainment with Rich Wilson.

By the time you read this we will have served approximately 220 Thanksgiving dinners to our residents, all at no charge. We want to thank our sponsors – The Church in the Park, PI HOA BOD, PI Social Committee and a huge Thank You to all the residents who volunteered to help out in so many ways. We would not be able to do this without all of you! It is all the truly wonderful residents who make this community a great place to live.

The Largo PD brought their Senior Empowerment Program to Paradise Island on Nov 29th where we learned ways to protect ourselves from fraud. There were also several non-profit agencies that have services available for the senior community. They even provided lunch for all those who signed up to attend. I believe everyone who attend learned some thing new.

We look forward to the Ladies Holiday Luncheon, Christmas Caroling, Golf Cart Christmas Parade, Christmas/Holiday Community Dinner and New Year's Eve Dance. Look for the individual write-ups on these events for more information as well as watching the Activities Board in the Clubhouse and our FB pages. It's time to enjoy and have fun with your neighbors and friends.

We welcome all the new residents of PI and encourage you to volunteer to help out at your favorite events. The Social Committee operates solely on volunteers and we appreciate your participation.

The Social Committee Board of Directors and Officers would like to wish everyone a Very Merry Holiday Season. May the time you spend with family and friends be filled with love, joy and happy memories!

If you can BE anything, BE KIND! Happy Holidays to all.

Semi-Annual Flea Market

By Tiffani Neu

The Annual PI Flea Market is being resurrected! We are changing it to be bi-annual (every March and October). If you have ANY donations - furniture, household goods, collectibles, decor, kitchen items/appliances, etc. contact Liz or Tiffani. We might be able to pick some things up now. We may ask that you hold big items until we have enough space to store them.

Tiffani Neu, 713-922-9025 - Liz Neumann, 727-242-4597

SEEKING VOLUNTEERS: If you are interested in volunteering to help us pick up items, price items, run a bake sale, or work on the day of the flea market. contact Liz or Tiffani. We can't do this without our volunteers! All proceeds from the flea markets will be given to the PI Social Committee to use within our community.

Neighborhood Watch

By Nancy LaBelle

Our Monthly meetings are held the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 10AM. Everyone is always welcome to attend. Officer Keith Bowling, our Largo PD liaison, is usually there to discuss concerns and planning upcoming events for the residents. An OLYMPIC EVENT is in the works for spring. Not to worry senior friendly and lots of fun, information, snacks, AND maybe prizes!! Date still TBD.

I hope you've all watched the video about locking your vehicles posted on PIFAN. If you are not on PIFAN, but on Facebook, get on Largo Police Department Facebook page. Lots of great information, including this video. WATCH TIL THE END!

Y'all are doing a great job calling the block captains. No worries if you call the wrong one. We can all help you out. Stop in the office for awesome color coded maps. FYI, great for showing the ponds, so you know where the gators are when someone gives a shout out!

As our population increases, please be kind and thoughtful when parking, so emergency vehicles can get around corners and access homes. Don't block hydrants or opposite another car if it makes a tight spot, or makes it impossible to back out.

We say the younger generations don't have common sense, so let's use ours!

Have a Safe and wonderful Thanksgiving. Lock Up! Lights on!

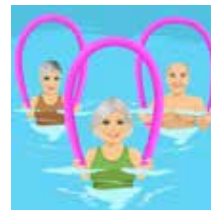

ALSO.... Have you wondered how secure your home is? The Residential Security Assessment is a FREE home security consultation with Largo Police Officers certified in Residential Home Security and Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED). The consultation takes approximately 30 minutes and the resident must be present at the time of the inspection.

Residents will learn a variety of crime prevention concepts and techniques including perimeter, exterior and interior security, lighting, landscaping, windows, locks and alarms. For more information or to schedule a consultation, please contact Ofc. Joel Quattlebaum or Ofc. Keith Bowling at 727-587-6730.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Men's Club

By Ken Jonas

Wow, here we are back into a very busy schedule of events!! First on the list is the Ladies Christmas Luncheon on Saturday 12/2, when the Men's Club has the honor to prepare and serve the ladies a nice lunch! Then, don't forget to come over to the clubhouse on Monday 12/4 or 12/11 and get your tickets for the Christmas Dinner Dance to be held on Saturday 12/16. I reported last month that this event would cost $5, but due to the generosity of the Church in the Park and the HOA, the Men's Club and the Social Committee have decided to once again make this a free event for all Paradise Island residents. It promises to be a fun night with dinner followed by dancing to the music of Tom Davis. Come join the fun! (Reservations are required)

Then, with the Christmas and New Year Holidays being on Mondays, we will be selling tickets at the clubhouse on Tuesday 12/26 and 1/2 for the next Men's Club Show to be held on Saturday 1/20 when we will present a Variety Show with Petrina! She is a terrific entertainer who puts on a great show with lots of audience participation and this is one show you definitely don't want to miss!! We have never had Petrina here in Paradise Island before but we are sure she is another entertainer we will want to have back again and again!

Don't forget our next Men's Club Meeting, Tuesday 12/5, coffee and donuts at 8:30 and meeting at 9 AM.

Heads up!! Save the date!!

By Terri Dacy

The Paradise Island Social Committee is sponsoring our second annual Christmas Caroling event. Last year it was a great success and so much fun was had by all. Our goal is to have many more participants this year, so we're getting the word out early!

It will be casual and open to all residents, utilizing the old standard Christmas songs that everyone knows! Let's all get into the Christmas spirit! The caroling date will be on Saturday, Dec. 9th from 5:30pm until 10pm. We will have an organizational/rehearsal meeting the prior Sunday, December 3rd in the clubhouse, from 3:30pm to 5:30pm.

If you would like to participate, please notify Terri Dacy by phone call or text message at 727-278-3395 or by email at tdacy1@gmail.com. Please spread the word to everyone you know, as some residents do not have access to email or social media. The more, the merrier! Mark your calendars!

Paradise Island Church in the Park

By Pastor Serena Johnson

Happy Christmas!

The month of December is so enjoyable. Everywhere you look it has a festive feel to it. Although for some it is not as happy as they are alone and not able to get out and do the things they once were able to do. Remember your neighbors and friends this time of year and really every day. Greet them with a smile, bring them some cookies or something to share. Spend a little time with them so they know you care. They are so special to God and He asks us to help others.

Christmas is the time of the birth of Jesus Christ who ultimately gave His life for us so that we may be saved and be in a right relationship with God the Father. If you have not asked Jesus to forgive your sin and come into your heart and life, why not do it today? He loves YOU! May you feel a special sense of His presence today and every day throughout the New Year. Happy Birthday, Jesus!

Everyone is cordially invited to join us on Sunday mornings at 9:30 AM in the Clubhouse. We are a non-denominational church, we welcome all, and look forward to meeting you. Come feel the love of God as we worship the Lord together. If you are unable to come you can view the service on YouTube under "P I Church in the Park."

You are welcome to attend our Bible Study on the Book of Romans, Thursday mornings at 9:30AM led by Ron Ellis. After Bible Study we have Choir Practice from 10:30 to 11:30 AM led by Jenny Caldarello.

Prayer meeting on Fridays at 10:30 AM led by Serena Johnson is on hold at least till January. Thank you...

If you know of someone who needs prayer and you would like to add to or take off our prayer list, please contact Pat Murphy by email: pamurphy51@gmail.com, with pertinent information.

BE AWARE WE CARE! If you know of someone in the Park who is ill and/or needs some encouragement and a Prayer Bear please contact Wilma Largent at (260)316-1296 or largentw6048@gmail.com.

If you know of someone in the Park who has a need, please let us know. All requests are confidential. We would like to help if we can. Please call one of the numbers below and we will look into what we can do to help,

Do you have need of prayer or would like a visit, please do not hesitate to contact: Pastor Serena Johnson (727)530-5905 or Associate Pastor Ron Ellis (614)753-6744. If no answer please leave a message and you will be called back asap.

Prayer does not change God, but it changes him who prays. — Soren Kierkegaard

VETERAN'S CORNER

By Bob Behm

This Friday's renaming of FT Gordon to Fort Eisenhower marks the final such installation-level move for the Army, culminating a nearly three-year process that began when Congress' fiscal 2021 defense policy bill established the bipartisan Naming Commission to rename the military's places and objects that honored Confederates. Four members of the commission attended the final redesignation at Eisenhower.

I personally never agreed with making these changes and felt it was a waste of money and erasing history just to please a very divided country! But then I started to understand a little better after reading some of the stories about some of the names that were on some of the bases such as Ft Gordon below!

FORT EISENHOWER, Ga. — When this installation's former namesake invaded Maryland, the U.S. Army shot him five times. Despite receiving five bullets at Antietam in 1862 — and three additional wounds in other battles — as he rose from captain to major general in the Confederate army during the Civil War, former slaveowner John Brown Gordon survived to become the head of the Klu Klux Klan in Georgia. As a member of the U.S. Senate, Gordon helped negotiate the end of Reconstruction in 1877, which rehabilitated the white Southern elite and allowed a new era of racial oppression to emerge. A two-term governor of Georgia, Gordon was also the first commander of the United Confederate Veterans.

But as I stated above in a Friday morning ceremony just outside of Augusta, the Army eschewed Gordon's legacy in favor of that of Dwight D. Eisenhower, the post's new namesake. Eisenhower helped lead the destruction of Nazi Germany as a five-star general in World War II, and oversaw key racial integration milestones later as president. In 1957, Eisenhower deployed the 101st Airborne Division to Arkansas and federalized the state's National Guard when the governor attempted to block nine Black students from attending Little Rock Central High School.

Army Secretary Christine Wormuth spoke of Eisenhower's achievements in a speech accompanying the ceremony, which members of the former president's family attended. The vice chair of the commission, retired Army Brig. Gen. Ty Seidule, voiced a similar sentiment in a Wednesday phone interview. "It's never too late to recognize true American heroes...that represent the values of this great country," he said.

The following Army installations received new names this year:

- Fort Barfoot, Virginia, once Fort Pickett, was renamed after Col. Van T. Barfoot on March 24. He received the Medal of Honor during World War II for his actions as a noncommissioned officer in Italy in 1944.
- Fort Novosel, Alabama, once Fort Rucker, was renamed on April 10 for Chief Warrant Officer Michael Novosel, who fought in three wars and received the Medal of Honor for a Vietnam War medical evacuation mission.
- Fort Gregg-Adams, Virginia, once Fort Lee, was rechristened April 27 for Lt. Gen.

Arthur Gregg, the Army's first Black lieutenant general, and Lt. Col. Charity Adams, who commanded the all-Black female 6888th Postal Battalion during World War II

- Fort Cavazos, Texas, once Fort Hood, was redesignated for infantry Gen. Richard Cavazos, the service's first Latino four-star, on May 9. Cavazos, who led soldiers in both Korea and Vietnam, twice received the Distinguished Service Cross.
- Fort Bragg, North Carolina, became Fort Liberty on June 2.
- Fort Polk, Louisiana, transitioned to Fort Johnson on June 13. Nearly a century after his exploits, Sgt. William Henry Johnson of the World War I "Harlem Hell fighters," received the Medal of Honor in 2015.
- Fort A.P. Hill, Virginia, transitioned to Fort Walker, named for Civil War surgeon and Medal of Honor recipient Mary Edwards Walker, August 25.
- Camp Beauregard, Louisiana, was renamed Louisiana National Guard Training Center-Pineville on Oct. 20.
