Cribbage

Marshall Giles

Cribbage has quite a history. Sir John Suckling an English soldier, courtier, poet, gamester and gambler invented cribbage in the early 1600s. And cribbage is the only game permitted for legal play within pubs and clubs in Britain without requiring the permission of local authorities.

In the past month we had some notable winners:

February 12, Joe Gang placed first, Ed LaGree placed second

February 19, Roger Swanson placed first, Ed LaGree placed second

February 26, Joe Gang placed first, Ed LaGree placed second

March 4, Mike Brophy placed first, Ed LaGree placed second

The highest scoring hand you can get is a 29 hand and both Denny Schrader and Roger Swanson came close with a 24 hand. Mike Brophy had a 20 hand this month.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

The young man and the frog

There was once a young man who was crossing the road. As he was making his way over a frog called out to him and said, “If you kiss me, I will turn into a beautiful princess.” The young man picked up the frog and put it in his pocket.

The frog called out from the young man’s pocket, “If you will kiss me and turn me back into a beautiful princess, I will come to your house for one week and cook and clean for you.” The young man took the frog out and smiled at it and then put it back into his pocket.

The frog called out from the young man’s pocket again, “If you kiss me and turn me back into a beautiful princess, I’ll stay with you for as long as you want and do anything you want me to.” Again, the young man removed the frog, smiled at it, and then placed it back into his pocket.

Finally, the frog called out from the pocket, “What is it with you? I told you I’d stay with you, and cook and clean for you and do anything you want me to do. Why won’t you kiss me?”

The young man took the frog from his pocket and said, “Look, I’m a computer programmer. I don’t have time for girlfriends — but a talking frog is really cool.”

How many does it take to change a light bulb?

Gleaned from the Internet

Q: How many Californians does it take to change a light bulb?
A: Six. One to turn the bulb, one for support, and four to relate to the experience.

Q: How many psychiatrists does it take to change a light bulb?
A: Only one, but the bulb has got to really WANT to change.

Q: How many software people does it take to screw in a light bulb?
A: None. That’s a hardware problem.

Q: How many graduate students does it take to change a light bulb?
A: Only one, but it may take him more than five years for him to get it done.

On ‘busyness’
Being busy does not always mean real work. The object of all work is production or accomplishment and to either of these ends there must be forethought, system, planning, intelligence, and honest purpose, as well as perspiration. Seeming to do is not doing.

Now that's irrepressible

According to Gene Shalit in Great Hollywood Wit, Oscar Levant was one of Hollywood's most irrepressible personalities. He was a quick wit and a concert pianist; he composed 19 film scores; he wrote three best-sellers; and he was known to drink up to 36 cups of coffee a day.

One day Levant showed up for a physical to join the World War II effort.

“Do you think you can kill?” a psychiatrist asked him.

“I don't know about strangers,” Levant said, “but friends, yes.”

He was deferred from service.

Joke-telling 101

According to Greg Dean, author of Step by Step to Stand up Comedy, in Health magazine, there are things you can do to tell a joke optimally. Here are his tips:

- Form a picture of what is happening in the joke in your mind. That should key in voice tone and body language that will help you with the storytelling facet of your joke.
- Practice on family or friends before you go public with your joke telling. Develop confidence in the telling of your joke.
- Never tell people that you're not good at telling jokes. Let them decide. Do not sabotage yourself.
- Once you deliver the punch line, be quiet and let your audience laugh. Don't distract them.
- If you bomb when telling a joke, make light of it. Tell listeners it was much funnier when you told it to your dog.

All in a day's work

A van carrying a dozen movie stuntmen on the way to a film location in the mountains spun out of control on an icy road, crashed through a guardrail, rolled down a 90-foot embankment, turned over and burst into flames. There were no injuries.
