BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Board of directors

SAFETY

Due to a recent incident that occurred in our park, the Board would like to remind everyone to please make sure your cars and homes are locked every night. If you suspect suspicious activity at any time, day, or night, call 911 immediately.

TRASH

It has come to the Board’s attention that some owners are leaving plastic bags of food garbage on their driveway to be picked up. All garbage / trash should be in a covered garbage receptacle. If trash is left in bags, birds, cats, rats, raccoons, possums, coyotes, etc. are attracted by the scent, and after tearing the bags open to feed themselves, the remaining nasty litter is left on the streets which the owner must then clean up.

RISING COST OF WATER

The Board is trying to keep your maintenance fees from increasing next year. Therefore, due to the increased cost of water, up $7,000 in 2023 from Pinellas County, use of City Water to wash or rinse any moving vehicle, including cars, trucks, boats, trailers, golfcarts, motorcycles, and bicycles is prohibited at any time.

THANK YOU

The Board would like to thank Larry and Becky Bailey for their generous donation of a Christmas Palm Tree to the Glenwood grounds.

Social Committee Message from the Chair Pam Barger

Hello Glenwood! Can you believe that we are in April already? January ushered us in as a new Social Committee. February the Valentine’s Party. March the St. Patrick’s Day Party and Easter.

I want to thank everyone that helped with the Valentines Party. Everything was beautiful and the food was so delicious. We’ve had so many compliments that it gave us the incentive to head right into the St. Patrick’s Day Party. We have so many talented people that know how to put things together to present to our community fun and successful events.

Now that two of our major parties are over, we can focus on the smaller get togethers such as the Meet -n-Greet. If anyone would like to take this on, please sign up on the bulletin board or talk to me and we’ll get you scheduled.

As a reminder, the Workshop meeting will be April 11th at 10:30 am and the regular Social Board meeting will be April 13th after coffee. See you there!

COFFEE is on Saturday mornings at 9:00

The residents of Glenwood Estates are invited each Saturday morning to get together to visit and chat with our neighbors and friends.

We have coffee, hot chocolate, tea, donuts, and bagels. Volunteers make the coffee and there is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board so please sign up if you are interested in helping. We greatly appreciate it! We have people who will be glad to help you learn what is involved in preparing the coffee.

Coffee costs $1 and the donuts and /or bagels are $1 each.

We also need volunteer emcees for each coffee to share some jokes and announcements for upcoming events. There is a sign-up sheet on the Bulletin Board for coffee and emcee volunteers. Thank you in advance for your willingness to help!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. SHORTBREAD

Kathy Moore

1. Beat together 1 and 1/2 cups of butter with 1 cup of icing sugar until fluffy and pale.
2. Mix 1 cup of corn starch with 2 cups of flour.
3. Gradually beat it into the butter and sugar.
4. Drop from a spoon on a non - greased cookie sheet.
5. Bake at 325 for 15 to 20 minutes (depending on your oven)- don't let them get too golden (they will get bitter), but make sure they are dry.
6. Ice with butter cream icing with real vanilla extract.

*Do not put vanilla in your shortbread dough.

If you plan to roll these out don't beat as much.

Drop the drive for perfection

Journalist and novelist Anna Quindlen says that when she was younger and in college that she rose every day and tried to be perfect—in every possible way. She studied when she was supposed to, she got her assignments turned in on time and she smiled at everyone as she passed them in the dorm halls.

In a 1999 commencement address given at Barnard, where she had graduated 25 years earlier, she said that being perfect was hard work—and the rules changed. What constituted perfection in 1970 when she started college (sweaters and pleated skirts) morphed into her new version (Doc Martens and turtlenecks) as she found herself striving to be a hyper intellectual.

Eventually, the burden of trying to be perfect year after year became too heavy. Here are her words of wisdom on the art of perfectionism:

“Trying to be perfect may be sort of inevitable for people like us, who are smart and ambitious and interested in the world and in its good opinion. But at one level it’s too hard, and at another, it’s too cheap and easy. Because it really requires you mainly to read the zeitgeist of wherever and whenever you happen to be, and to assume the masks necessary to be the best of whatever zeitgeist dictates or requires. Those requirements shapeshift, sure, but when you’re clever you can read them and do the imitation required.

“But nothing important, or meaningful, or beautiful, or interesting, or great ever came out of imitations. The thing that is really hard, and really amazing, is giving up on being perfect and beginning the work of becoming yourself.”

Daily meditation can bring insight

When you’re feeling at loose ends, it could be a good idea to participate in some type of meditation. According to the Web site Learningtomeditate.com, you don’t have to think of meditation as an Eastern art, complicated to learn, where an old man under a tree comes up with all the answers to the mysteries of life. It can be a lot more practical than that.

Meditation often is no more than seeking out peacefulness and calmness during the stress and struggle of everyday living. Simple practices can work well. Find a quiet place, focus on your breathing and grow quiet. Eventually you will grow calm, and if you practice on a daily basis and learn how to empty your mind, you may find that you gain insight into matters that seemed to evade your understanding previously.

If you can't beat 'em — start your own company

Mary Kay Ash, who would later found the $2-billion-a-year company Mary Kay Cosmetics, once worked for Stanley Home Products. There she learned the direct marketing scheme that would bring her fortune and fame. According to Anecdote.com, she once received an incentive reward: a flounder light. The company had given her a light that she could clip onto waders when she went fishing. Mary Kay did not appreciate the gift.

Later, at the same company, she found out that she had been passed over for a promotion that was given to a man that she had trained. She learned that men were making $50,000 a year and she was only pulling in $25,000. That was all the incentive she needed. She took a month off, gathered up $5,000 and started her own company.

Her rewards for employees: pink Caddies.

Oprah shares the secret of her success — learning to be herself

Life should teach you who you are, according to Oprah Winfrey in a 1997 commencement address she gave at Wellesley College. The talk show host and media mogul says that life's everyday experiences will teach you who you are — moment by moment. How did she learn this? Oprah says for a long time she spent her life wanting to be someone else. She says when she first saw Diana Ross with the Supremes on The Ed Sullivan Show she thought, "I want to be like that." However, she says it took her some time to realize that no matter how many diets she tried—she was never going to have Diana Ross's thighs.

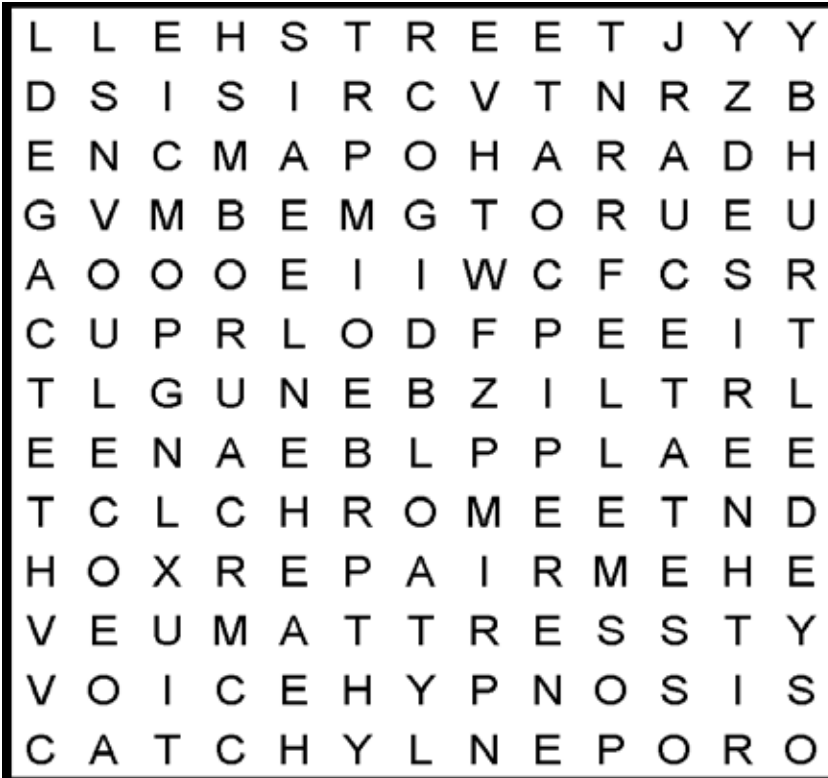

Later, when Oprah was an anchorwoman, her news director told her that her hair was too thick and her eyes were too far apart and that she needed a makeover. Oprah found herself sitting in a French beauty salon. There she had a French permanent put on her hair. The perm burnt her, but she didn't have the confidence to say that it was hurting her. She ended up bald a week later. She had to go on air as a bald news anchor.

Oprah also says she wanted to be like Barbara Walters, and discovered she was not when she could not pronounce "Barbados" on air. "That may be 'Barbados' to you but it was 'Barb-a-does' to me," she said. She said she started to laugh on air — which was not very Barbara like. But Oprah felt OK about it, because she was being who she really was—finally. From that moment, Oprah says she knew that she could be a better Oprah than a Barbara, and though she still kept Barbara as a mentor, she decided to pursue just being herself once and for all. Her phenomenal success was the result of being "demoted" from news anchor to talk show host.

"I am just thrilled that I get paid so much money every day for just being myself, but it was a lesson long in coming, recognizing that I had the instinct, that inner voice that told me that you need to try to find a way to answer to your own truth was the voice I needed to be still and listen to."
