Notes from the Twin Lakes Management Office

Well Spring has Sprung here in Twin Lakes and the weather is beautiful!! Hope everyone is getting outside to enjoy it!! Whether you take a short trip to one of our amazing local beaches or just a stroll down to the pool, you just can't beat the weather here in Clearwater!

Just a few reminders from the office:

- *Please NO grass parking
- * No Street Parking
- *Put all trash inside the dumpsters, not on top of or around the dumpsters. If your normal dumpster is full, please check the other two so that trash does not get scattered around.
- *Please park in the parking lot to use the laundry facilities.
- *Please register all guests with the office and get pool pins for your guests if they would like to use our pool
- *And Please Remember the Rules are put in place for the protection of our residents and their homes. We want everyone to always feel safe in our community and be proud to call Twin Lakes "Home"!

Our email address is twinlakesclearwater@gmail.com if you ever have any questions or concerns. Please take a look at and share with your friends our website at www.twinlakesinc.org You can also check us out on Facebook at www.facebook.com/twinlakesinc. Don't forget to hit the LIKE button so you can see all the activities that are posted!

Are you selling your home?

Please call the Twin Lakes Office at 727-799-4807 so we can help. We will free advertise for you by putting your home on our Homes For Sale list. This list is given to anyone that comes into the office, emails or calls us looking for a home. Being on this list can really boost the amount of people that come to check out your home. Remember if you refer a friend and they purchase one of our brand new park owned models, you can get a free months lot rent.

Send us your photos!

Help, we need pictures of our residents in our community having fun at our various events. Wouldn't it be fun to have some of our residents make the cover page of the Twin Lakes Times! You can email any of these pictures directly to info@monthly-media.com. Just make sure to include a brief description of the picture and a statement saying that you release them to reprint the picture. We can scan them at the office too if you only have a printed copy. If you have any questions just call Maureen at the office.

Got a great recipe?? Please Share!

Email to twinlakesclearwater@gmail.com or drop it off to the office. We want everyone to enjoy them. We will put your picture in the newsletter along with your recipe (but only if you want us to, haha). Please help us out!

Dumpsters – Garbage

Just a few reminders:

- Please use garbage bags when possible so that your trash does not fly out of the dumpster, grocery bags are very light and tend to fly when they dump the dumpster into the truck.
- NO Mattresses are allowed to be put in the dumpster, No furniture (recliners, couches, etc..) is to be put in the dumpster, they are your responsibility to get rid of.
- Put everything in the dumpster, not around the dumpster, no one else wants your trash.
- There are 3 dumpsters that everyone is allowed to use. You are not assigned to one dumpster, so if your usual dumpster is full, please take to one of the other two.
- Do not put trash in the blue recycle bins, also no garbage bags or grocery bags in the recycle bins.
- When it comes to recycling, we put out a pamphlet in the newsletter to remind everyone of all the do's and don'ts of recycling in Clearwater (It is different in every county and every state). Please follow the flyer and when you are in doubt, please just throw it out. It is better to throw it out than to put the wrong items into the recycling system. If you need a new one just ask the office, we will be glad to give you one.
- If you have any scrap metal or old appliances that you need to get rid of, there is a junkman that will come to your home and pick it up and take it off for free for you. Ronnie Kitchen at 727-657-4428, He will also come and pick up those items that you are not allowed to put in the dumpster, such as mattresses, furniture, or other large items but he does charge a FEE for this. You can also call a local thrift store such as St Vincent's, hospice, goodwill, or Salvation army and donate to them if the item is in good repair.

Are you at risk for a stroke?

According to the American Heart Association and the American Stroke Association, risk factors are traits and lifestyle habits that increase the risk of disease. Studies have verified that most of the risk factors for strokes can be modified, treated or controlled. Some of the most important things to know are the warning signs of a stroke. They are:

- Sudden weakness or numbness of the arm, leg or face—especially when it occurs on one side of the body.
- Sudden confusion, or trouble understanding or speaking.
- Problems with vision, in one or both eyes.
- Sudden trouble walking, dizziness, loss of balance or coordination.
- Sudden, severe headache without a known cause.

If you, or someone you know is experiencing symptoms, call 911 immediately. Lost time can be devastating in stroke treatment.

If you want to begin the work of reducing your risk for stroke, a health care professional can help you devise a safe and effective plan. The following is a list of risk factors for stroke that can be controlled or treated: high blood pressure, tobacco use, diabetes mellitus, carotid or other artery disease, atrial fibrillation, other heart disease, transient ischemic attacks or “warning strokes,” certain blood disorders, sickle cell disease, high blood cholesterol, physical inactivity and obesity, excessive alcohol use, illegal drug use.

For more information: American Stroke Association <https://www.stroke.org/en/help-and-support/for-family-caregivers/stroke-family-warmline>.

Slowing the effects of aging

According to the Discovery Health Web site, if you want to be a lively 80 or 90 year old some day—then you need to start following an anti-aging program. Here are some of the recommendations:

- Follow a low-fat, high complex carbohydrate diet. Eat five servings of fruits and vegetables and three servings of whole grains every day. Drink five to eight glasses of water per day. Derive only 30 percent to 35 percent of your diet from fat—20 percent of which should be unsaturated (examples are 1 percent milk, canola and olive oil.) Fifteen percent of your diet should be protein, with the rest having an emphasis on complex carbohydrates (examples are wild rice, whole wheat bread and oatmeal).
- Develop and follow a regular exercise routine. Regular aerobic exercise will help slow down the aging process, experts say. Strength building is also important. Consult a health professional to adopt a routine that will be right for you. Good exercise programs should help prevent the loss of stamina, strength, balance and bone density.

There are times for plucky behavior and bold action

Knowing when to obey orders is important, especially if you're in the military. Horatio Nelson, the famous British leader and naval hero, was respected greatly by his men, because he showed them respect and led with compassion.

According to the BBC Web site, Nelson was famous for his predilection for bold action—and for occasional disregard of orders. At the Battle of Copenhagen, Nelson refused to acknowledge orders to cease action. In an earlier battle at Calvi in the Mediterranean, Nelson had been wounded and lost sight in his right eye. When he was given the order to cease action in Copenhagen by distant signal, the commander lifted his telescope to his blind eye and claimed he couldn't see the signal. He and his men were victorious.

A brave act wins loyalty

According to the Absolute Nelson Web site, when Horatio Nelson was a schoolboy, the schoolmaster, the Rev. Mr. Jones, had some lovely pears on his desk. His students looked at the pears during the day and wished very much that they could have them. But none of the boys was brave enough to attempt procuring them because they were all afraid they would be caught.

The young Horatio, however came forward and offered to get the pears for the boys. He was not afraid of the consequences of getting caught. And so one night, his anxious schoolmates lowered him from the dormitory by way of a long rope of sheets that had been tied together for the adventure. And though it was a risky endeavor, Horatio boldly claimed the pears as his own and was secretly hauled up into the dormitory again by his mates. But the adventure was apparently all that was important to Horatio. He shared the pears amongst his school friends and did not save even one bite for himself.

“I only took them because every other boy was afraid,” Horatio claimed.

The next day a reward of five guineas was offered for the name of the thief who had made off with the master's pears—but by that time Horatio had won the other boys' hearts so completely not one would betray him.

On happiness

The recipe for a happy life is a good digestion and a bad memory.

On worries

When I look back on all the worries I remember the story of the old man who said on his deathbed that he had had a lot of trouble in his life, most of which never happened.

Now that's depressing

In honor of the birthday of Jack Paar—May 1, 1918.

Oscar Levant was famous for his music, movie appearances and having a wildly self-destructive personality — even for Hollywood. He was known as a brilliant wit and a gifted concert pianist. Levant popularized the notion of being “neurotic.” He appeared on national television on The Jack Paar Show and delighted the audience with his dark wit. According to A Talent for Genius: The Life and Times of Oscar Levant by Sam Kashner and Nancy Schoenberger, when he and Paar began to discuss his experiences as a mental patient Levant said, “I was thrown out of one mental hospital because I depressed the patients.” Later he said, “There is a thin line between genius and insanity, and I have erased that line.”

The audience loved him. But some viewers and critics thought he crossed the line of good taste by talking about his mental illnesses on television.

Mind your manners

According to The Wit and Humor of Oscar Wilde, edited by Alvin Redman, Oscar Wilde was much more concerned about manners than about morals. Wilde was known for his kindness to others and rarely spoke unkindly—but he would correct what he thought were poor manners exhibited by others. Once an enthusiastic noblewoman came up and slapped Wilde on the back while he was talking.

“Why, Oscar,” she said, “You are getting fatter and fatter!”

Without looking at the woman Wilde said, “And you are getting ruder and ruder.”

The fastidious diner

Joke retold from Laughter Incorporated by Cerf Bennett

A man entered a diner and ordered a steak. The man was well-known for being a fastidious diner, and when his steak arrived he became enraged and complained to the waiter that the steak had not been prepared the way he had ordered it. The man had the waiter take the steak back to the kitchen. Soon the waiter came trotting back with the man’s steak. The waiter reported that the chef said to tell him that the steak was perfectly fine just the way it was and he would not prepare another.

“Is that what he says, ay,” the angry diner said. “Well, you just take that steak back to the chef and tell him to ram it down his own throat if he likes it so much!”

But in a few moments the waiter was back with the same steak and said “I’m sorry, sir, but the chef says there are two steaks and four lamb chops ahead of you.”

On health food

Old people shouldn't eat health food. They need all the preservatives they can get.

— Robert Orben
