HOME MAINTENANCE

We would like to give a shout out to all the residents who have been keeping your homes maintained and looking fabulous. We appreciate you maintaining the beauty and charm of Sugar Creek. In the month of May, we will be looking at items outside of your home that may blow around in the upcoming months. Look around the outside of your home to see if you need to put some items inside. Of course, we are also looking at your entire lot.

RESIDENTS LEAVING FOR THE SEASON

It is that time of year when many of you leave the community for the summer months. Here are some action items to remember before leaving:

- Please secure all outdoor items that may blow in the wind.
- It is very important that you notify the office when you are leaving and check to make sure we have your correct phone number and address where you can be reached while you are away.
- If you would like us to turn your water off and on when leaving and returning, please contact the office and we will be glad to do this for you.
- Please remember to give us the name of the person who will be doing your trimming while you are gone.
- If you have given permission for someone to park their vehicle in your driveway, please leave a note at the office.

YOU MUST PUT IN A CHANGE OF ADDRESS TO THE POST OFFICE AND OATES ENERGY SO YOU WILL RECEIVE ALL THE CORRESPONDENCE FROM SUGAR CREEK AND RECEIVE YOUR WATER BILL.

SUGAR CREEK POOL BRACELETS

The pool bracelets are for guests and when they leave the bracelets need to be returned. Do not keep them for the next visitor, every visitor needs to be signed in, every time they visit. Please look around your house and return all the bracelets to the office. Thank you!

PHONE BOOKS

The new 2024/2025 phone books are in. Please come to the office and pick one up or give us a call and we can drop one off at your home.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

We would like to give a shout out to those who volunteer their time to make activities available to ALL who live in Sugar Creek, from outdoor activities, karaoke, pool exercise, to indoor delicious breakfasts, daytime and evening games, exercise classes, happy hour, and more. There's fun waiting, just open your monthly media and read the calendar or come down to the clubhouse to read the board for all upcoming events. Come on down and have some fun or just watch!

HOME SALES

We often have people come to the office telling us Sugar Creek is a desirable community, so thank you to our residents for making Sugar Creek a friendly and welcoming environment for all. If you are considering selling your home, just let Daniel or Vicki know and we will use the resources at our fingertips to sell your home as quickly as possible and for a great price. We are here to help: 727-586-2002.

HAVE A HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY AND A SAFE MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND.

SUGAR CREEK MANUFACTURED HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION

The HOA Board members will be going around the park collecting signatures on a letter to the owner of the park to help raise money for emergency attention to trees that are a potential danger to our residents or their homes. All we need is signatures to show the owner that our residents support this proposal and are interested in keeping a beautiful community. We are not asking any residents for money or to join the HOA. Thank you to everyone who has already signed the letter.

To become an HOA member, please call Patti Owens at 860-646-4962. The cost is $10 per year per household.

SUGAR CREEK SOCIAL CLUB PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The lazy days of summer are around the corner. April was our pool party and we had a fabulous turn out. Tom Davis provided the entertainment. Our 1st Cake Auction was a huge success. Thank you to those who donated your beautiful and delicious cakes, Ted & Dorene, Judy Viera and Jeanette Owen. I hope everyone took advantage of our photo booth and captured some great pictures. Reminder – what happens at the pool party- stays at the pool party.

Saturday, May 4th 5:30 is the Kentucky Derby Day party. There will be a hat contest for men & women, with a prize for 1st place. This will be a pot luck event, so everyone please plan on bringing a dish to share. If you have any questions, Scott Pietro is heading this event. Thank you, Scott.

All residents are invited to join us for breakfast on Saturday, May 13th. Menu to be determined. If you have a suggestion for breakfast, please let us know. Tickets are available for $6 from Joe Pacheco, Nancy Pietro, Diane Williams or call Patti Owens at 860-646-4962.

May 27th at 11:00 there will be a Memorial Day ceremony and luncheon. You must sign up in the Clubhouse before 5/22 so that we can get a count for the food needed.

A big thank you to Joe for providing karaoke for the last several months. He is heading back up north and I know the residents will miss it greatly.

Everyone please have a wonderful May!

Kathy Wellington #241

MEMBERSHIP S.C.C.C.: The cost is $10.00 per person per year or $25.00 per person for 3 years. Remember the members of the S.C.C.C. always get first choice. Please contact a Board member to join.

POSTAL CARRIER FOOD COLLECTION

On May 11 the postal workers, in an effort to alleviate hunger, will be collecting non-perishable food items. Please donate knowing you are a part of the solution for hunger locally. Your postal carrier will provide a bag in your mailbox prior to May 11. Any donation no matter the size helps and is greatly appreciated. Your donation will go to your local food pantries and be provided to those less fortunate. Please try to have your donation at your mailbox by noon on May 11 for pickup.

THANK YOU!!

Connie Beaver, Sugar Creek resident

AMERICAN FLAGS

Sugar Creek residents, if you proudly fly the American Flag outside your home and you see that your flag is faded or torn, you may think about replacing it. Each month, if anyone gives me a worn flag, I take it to the American Legion. There is a specific disposal manner for the American Flag. The Legion has a "burn box", where I deposit the flags and when they have enough, they will properly burn the used flags. This is an honorable way for the flag to be disposed of.

Also, I purchase my new flags from the American Legion. They are approximately the same price as ANNIN flag and less expensive than those sold on Amazon. If you wish to buy a new flag from them, let me know.

Jerry Conway

TINA'S COTTAGE CARDS

No card classes in May, but look for the June newsletter to find out the next dates.

RESIDENTS RETURNING TO YOUR SUMMER COMMUNITY

As you plan your return home for the summer, please leave your non-perishable food items from your winter home behind for distribution to others. You can bring your items to Sugarcreek Mobile Home Park and leave them with Kathy lot 96, Connie lot 92, or take them directly to Abundant Life Ministries Food pantry at 1550 South Belcher Road, Largo. Thank you!!

A MOMENT OF LAUGHTER

A duck is standing next to a busy road, cars zooming past while he waits for a break in traffic. A chicken walked up to him and says, “Don’t do it, man. You’ll never hear the end of it.”

What if our dogs fetch the ball only because they think we really like throwing it?

A boy asked his father, “Why are some of your hairs white now?”
His father replied, “Every lie you tell turns one of my hairs white.”
“Oh,” the boy said. “Now I understand why all of Grandpa’s hairs are white.”

SUGAR CREEK LIBRARY

After a colder than normal winter here in Sugar Creek it looks like warm temps are finally around the corner. Time to visit the S C library and find some reading material for lounging at the pool.

We are still receiving books by some new authors. Feel free to take as many as you want and return them to the basket provided. Due to lack of space, please do not leave any magazines or boxes of jigsaw puzzles. Happy reading!

Jerry and Marie

DISTRIBUTION MANAGER:

The summer weather will be coming soon. Please put up a clip, a basket, or something for Park mail. When the rain & wind starts there's no guarantee your newsletter won't blow away or get wet.

Thank you,
Kate McGettigan

KITCHEN:

When renting the Clubhouse for a Private Party, you need to supply your own paper goods & trash bags. Also, you are responsible for cleaning up the kitchen and hall to get back your security deposit of $200. Need something for the Sugar Creek residents' functions, leave me a note on the fridge. When wiping the countertops, please use Windex, which is under the sink.

Now that's depressing

In honor of the birthday of Jack Paar—May 1, 1918.

Oscar Levant was famous for his music, movie appearances and having a wildly self-destructive personality — even for Hollywood. He was known as a brilliant wit and a gifted concert pianist. Levant popularized the notion of being “neurotic.” He appeared on national television on The Jack Paar Show and delighted the audience with his dark wit. According to A Talent for Genius: The Life and Times of Oscar Levant by Sam Kashner and Nancy Schoenberger, when he and Paar began to discuss his experiences as a mental patient Levant said, “I was thrown out of one mental hospital because I depressed the patients.” Later he said, “There is a thin line between genius and insanity, and I have erased that line.”

The audience loved him. But some viewers and critics thought he crossed the line of good taste by talking about his mental illnesses on television.

Mind your manners

According to The Wit and Humor of Oscar Wilde, edited by Alvin Redman, Oscar Wilde was much more concerned about manners than about morals. Wilde was known for his kindness to others and rarely spoke unkindly—but he would correct what he thought were poor manners exhibited by others. Once an enthusiastic noblewoman came up and slapped Wilde on the back while he was talking.

“Why, Oscar,” she said, “You are getting fatter and fatter!”

Without looking at the woman Wilde said, “And you are getting ruder and ruder.”

The fastidious diner

Joke retold from Laughter Incorporated by Cerf Bennett

A man entered a diner and ordered a steak. The man was well-known for being a fastidious diner, and when his steak arrived he became enraged and complained to the waiter that the steak had not been prepared the way he had ordered it. The man had the waiter take the steak back to the kitchen. Soon the waiter came trotting back with the man’s steak. The waiter reported that the chef said to tell him that the steak was perfectly fine just the way it was and he would not prepare another.

“Is that what he says, ay,” the angry diner said. “Well, you just take that steak back to the chef and tell him to ram it down his own throat if he likes it so much!”

But in a few moments the waiter was back with the same steak and said “I’m sorry, sir, but the chef says there are two steaks and four lamb chops ahead of you.”

On health food

Old people shouldn't eat health food. They need all the preservatives they can get.

There are times for plucky behavior and bold action

Knowing when to obey orders is important, especially if you're in the military. Horatio Nelson, the famous British leader and naval hero, was respected greatly by his men, because he showed them respect and led with compassion.

According to the BBC Web site, Nelson was famous for his predilection for bold action—and for occasional disregard of orders. At the Battle of Copenhagen, Nelson refused to acknowledge orders to cease action. In an earlier battle at Calvi in the Mediterranean, Nelson had been wounded and lost sight in his right eye. When he was given the order to cease action in Copenhagen by distant signal, the commander lifted his telescope to his blind eye and claimed he couldn't see the signal. He and his men were victorious.

A brave act wins loyalty

According to the Absolute Nelson Web site, when Horatio Nelson was a schoolboy, the schoolmaster, the Rev. Mr. Jones, had some lovely pears on his desk. His students looked at the pears during the day and wished very much that they could have them. But none of the boys was brave enough to attempt procuring them because they were all afraid they would be caught.

The young Horatio, however came forward and offered to get the pears for the boys. He was not afraid of the consequences of getting caught. And so one night, his anxious schoolmates lowered him from the dormitory by way of a long rope of sheets that had been tied together for the adventure. And though it was a risky endeavor, Horatio boldly claimed the pears as his own and was secretly hauled up into the dormitory again by his mates. But the adventure was apparently all that was important to Horatio. He shared the pears amongst his school friends and did not save even one bite for himself.

"I only took them because every other boy was afraid," Horatio claimed.

The next day a reward of five guineas was offered for the name of the thief who had made off with the master's pears—but by that time Horatio had won the other boys' hearts so completely not one would betray him.

On happiness

The recipe for a happy life is a good digestion and a bad memory.

— Ingrid Bergman

On worries

When I look back on all the worries I remember the story of the old man who said on his deathbed that he had had a lot of trouble in his life, most of which never happened.
