Shuffleboard League 2024

By Santo Amenta

The disks were bumping, the chatter was loud, spirits were high, and the weather was sunny and perfect, as the 2024 shuffleboard season came to an end with a 36-player double elimination, tournament, and BBQ lunch. When the dust had settled, the team of Randy Mounsey and Meg Fletcher had come away as the winners against runners-up, Glen Groff and Marty Boyd. A tasty BBQ lunch was enjoyed by over 40 people in-between tournament matches. We would like to thank the many volunteers that contributed to the success of the year end celebration.

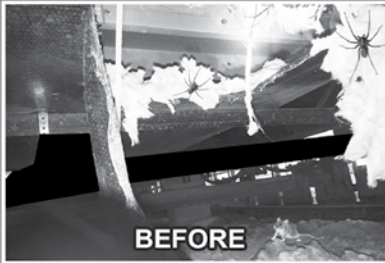

At the final presentations, as well as prizes for the winners and runner ups of the tournament, prizes were given out to the top 2 player averages in each time slots of season play as well as 4 draw prizes among the remaining participants. A group of 32 league players as well as 12 substitutes had friendly competitions during the 9 week, season to determine the best overall averages. The winners of the 10 a.m. group were, Patti Williams with an overall weekly average of 203 points and Joe Williamson with a weekly average of 189 points. The winners of the 11:15 a.m. group were Glen Groff with an average of 237 points and Gary McQueston with an average of 174 points.

With the end of the 2024 season, the shuffleboard courts will be closed for a month or so to replace worn out areas and resurfacing and painting all the courts, as well as making repairs to the whole complex. A lot of fun was had by all, and we all look forward to a good season next year with more players taking part. We will also be looking forward to playing on new courts for 2025.

Pancake Breakfasts

Karen Parr

Saturday, March 30, 2024, was the final season Pancake Breakfast in our Clubhouse. We had a total of 82 attendees. This great breakfast will resume in the fall, the last Saturday of each month. A huge thank you goes out to each of the men that helped prepare, serve and cleanup the breakfast.

A special thanks go to Jim Norton and Rob Bocchinfuso, etc., for your continued organizing, shopping and hospitality for this event.

Easter Dinner

Karen Parr

On Easter Sunday, at the potluck dinner, Ralph Cornelius made an announcement that he and wife Pat, were permanently moving down the road and returning to their home in Loveland, OH.

Their first home in Boca Ciega was 18 1/2 years ago in Lot #95. They loved this home and remodeled inside and the outside. During that time, they were caretakers of the house directly across the street. When that home was listed for sale, they bought Lot #102, their present home, and sold Lot #95. They have resided at their current home for 1 1/2 years, during which they made beautiful updates.

Ralph and Pat's lovely home has been sold and they will be departing the Park the last week in April, 2024.

Ralph and Pat want to extend a huge THANK YOU, to each person for extending so much friendship, acts of kindness, and support during their time here. Their love for so many residents, just brought tears to their eyes.

Ralph and Pat, will be SINCERELY MISSED and we all have many, many, fond memories of both of them! Safe travels and God Bless you and Grant you good health.

Auf Wiedersehen

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Thank you to everyone!

Deb & Gary McQueston

Gary & I would like to thank the Social Committee and all the volunteers who were instrumental in providing us with an AMAZING Year End Party! The Corn Hole tournament was lots of fun and the dinner was absolutely delicious!

It takes so much hard-work, organization, lots of planning and shopping & many hands to make events successful.

It was truly a team effort from the set-up to figuring out the Corn Hole logistics to selling the 50/50 tickets to preparing and cooking the dinner to cleaning up afterwards etc. etc.

We have truly appreciated all the events, Early Bird Dinners, Pancake Breakfast, Shuffleboard, etc, that have taken place this year!

Please remember that none of the social events such as the garage sale, dances, potlucks, BINGO, horse racing, beer/pizza/casino night, holiday dinners, shuffleboard, aquafit, cards & games, golf etc. can take place unless we have volunteers to step up to run or help out in any way possible....

Thank you!

The delightfully anguished English of Sam Goldwyn

According to Gene Shalit in his book Great Hollywood Wit, Samuel Goldwyn was a perfectionist—who had, ahem, an unusual way with words. The legendary moviemaker had a plethora of great ideas, and he always wanted to hire the best talent available. But one area where his attention to detail was wanting was his language usage. He just couldn't seem to get it right, and he became famous for what those who knew and loved him came to call "Goldwynisms." Here are a few examples:

- An aide once said that he thought a screenplay was too caustic, Goldwyn replied, "Who cares about the expenses?"
- While making a movie, Goldwyn told his staff to "spare no expense to make everything as economical as possible."
- Goldwyn was told that more Indians were needed as extras for a Western he was making. "Get some more from the reservoir," he replied.
- Following a preview Goldwyn said: "It will create an excitement that will sweep the country like wildflowers."
- Goldwyn liked to get the opinions of others and one day, while inviting employees to do just that, he said, "I don't want any yes-men around me. I want everybody to tell me the truth even if it costs them their jobs."

On the art of being a man of few words

According to Anecdote.com, Calvin Coolidge was well-known for being a taciturn man. One night, over dinner, one of his guests who knew his reputation for keeping mum tried to stir up a conversation with him. Trying to draw him out she said, "I have made a bet, Mr. Coolidge, that I can get more than two words out of you."

Coolidge replied coolly, "You lose."

Kids say the darnedest things

Joke retold from Laughter Incorporated by Cerf Bennett

A young girl waited eagerly for her father to come home from work, as she did every day. When her father walked in, he grabbed her, threw her in the air and asked her how her day at school had been. The daughter started her recitation reporting on a neighbor's problem child. "The teacher says she's a jubilant delinquent," she said.
