Fairway Social Committee (FSC)

Ronnee Patterson, FSC Chairperson

May is the month when a lot of Fairway Village social activities start to slow down. A lot of our snowbirds have already headed north and this month many more will be gone. Well, for the rest of us, there's good news and bad news. The bad news is it's going to be getting hotter in Florida. The good news is we can pretty much golf whenever we want and there will be more room at the pool too. We can also hope the south pool will reopen.

There's not too much on the calendar this month. Koffee Klatch is a must for a chance to sit with friends and have a donut or other sweet treat with a cup of coffee or tea.

If you can't get to Paris for the Summer Olympics, don't worry. Fairway Village Olympics are coming to our village this month. On May 4 and 5, participants from our 8 districts will be competing against each other in a variety of sports and games. FV Olympics are the brainchild of Kim SeEVERS and Joanne Witt. They and their team have been planning and working on this event for a long time. We wish all the participants good luck and will be cheering you on. We don't want to miss the Opening and Closing Ceremonies which will be a lot of fun.

We are always looking for volunteers for the many activities here in Fairway Village. If you're new to the park, please consider helping out on an event. It's a great way to meet your new neighbors.

Stay safe and healthy.

Ronnee

Koffee Klatch

Melinda Baker

Come up to the Clubhouse and enjoy visiting with friends and neighbors with a fresh cup of coffee/tea, and a delicious doughnut. Koffee Klatch will happen Saturday, May 18, from 8am-9am. We encourage you to bring your own mug, but we do provide cups for those that don't. Sign-up on the bulletin board in the Clubhouse, making sure you include your last name and lot number. Please do your best to show up if you sign up. We have had a lot of "no shows" lately. The sign-up sheet will be removed on Wednesday, May 15 at 5pm.

The Welcome Mat

Let us give our new neighbors a warm welcome to the community. Scott and Nancy Duncan, #363, this part-time couple comes to us from the great state of Missouri. Before retiring, both were owners of a Property Management Company. In his leisure time, Scott enjoys playing the guitar while Nancy enjoys traveling. They have two sons and two grandchildren (twins – boy and girl).

Fred and Mary Anderton, #213, this part-time couple spends their summers in beautiful Ontario. Fred's previous work career was an On-Air News Reporter and Nancy was a School Board Administrator. While Fred is on the links enjoying a round of golf; Nancy enjoys swirling around the dance floor. Family consists of six children, seven grandchildren and a furry friend named Mickey.

Mike and Marian Lowell, #266, this part-time couple hails from the mid-west state of Indiana. Mike was employed by General Mills as a Maintenance Man and Marian was a Medical Office Manager. In their spare time they both enjoy traveling. They have two children.

Cindy Tilton, #269, even though Cindy is still working – Director, Global Accounts for HelmsBriscoe; this full-time resident from New Hampshire still finds time for traveling and sailing.

Address Allergies, Naturally!

As May in Florida gets into full swing, we naturally want to get outside and enjoy the beautiful weather before we are confined to our air-conditioned enclosures. But the warmth and lush vegetation that we love so much can give rise to allergy triggers such as pollens and molds. Allergies show up as increased sneezing, nasal mucus, watery or itchy eyes, scratchy throat or even just fatigue. These allergic reactions can turn into a full-blown miserable sinus infection.

Effective Natural Tactics to Avoid Allergy Flare-ups:

Keep your nose clean. Keep your nose in tip top shape. Hydrate by drinking plenty of water to keep mucus thin. Use a neti pot (ideal) or saline rinse to keep passages clean and clear. Lubricate nostrils with a couple drops of olive oil or ghee – swish it around to create a moisturizing barrier. Finally, if you know you are sensitive, wear a face mask when you're enjoying the outdoors, especially between 5 -10 AM (when pollen counts are highest and mid-afternoon if it's windy outside).

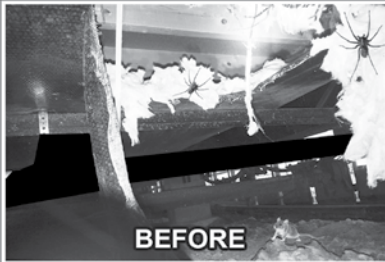

Control your environment. Besides a mask, even on a cloudy day wear sunglasses and a floppy hat to keep pollen out of your eyes and off your hair. If this seems like a lot, download an app on your phone or check the map on <https://www.pollen.com/map> to help decide if extra protection is needed. INDOORS, keep a super clean house, even if you must hire someone. Hepa filters can only help to a certain extent: Allergens reside more on surfaces, they're only airborne when disturbed, like when you plop into a chair. Sleep cleaner by using allergen-proof bedding – covers for mattresses, pillows and box springs.

Use food as medicine. Tweak your usual anti-inflammatory plant dominant diet by eating something spicy to thin mucus and clear congestion – throw some capers and red onions on your salad, and you'll get a bonus dose of quercetin, which has been shown to help with allergies. A spoon of spicy kimchi will clear your nose and power up your microbiome. Make a fruit salad with fresh pineapple and papaya for bromelain, which boosts sinus health and reduces systemic inflammation. A spoonful of raw local honey stirred into some ginger-mint tea will soothe your throat and increase your immune function.

Strengthen your respiratory and immune systems. Check your daily routine to make sure you're getting plenty of movement – a minimum of 150 minutes every week of moderate intensity – heart rate increases, you sweat, you can talk but not sing). This will look different for different people! Be honest with yourself and push your own edge to get the full benefits. If you have medical reasons that prevent you from vigorous exercise, at least give your body the protective benefits of stretching and deep breathing exercises.

Most of these steps are simple and inexpensive to adopt, you need only commit to a proactive and preventative approach to your health. Prioritize healthy habits and amplify your ability to live large and enjoy the beauty and wonder of the great outdoors! Remember always to check with your doctor before making any major changes in your diet or lifestyle, and if you find these changes too challenging or confusing, seek a professional for advice.

Architectural Review Committee

The ARC Rules and Regulations Governing Document defines and outlines the guidelines for all exterior changes to homes, as well as, for replacing homes. This document is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website. Before any work begins, a Home Replacement or Modification Request Form must be completed and return to the FVRA office. The ARC, which meets most Mondays in the Clubhouse, looks forward to working with you in replacing your home or planning the changes to the outside of your home. Any questions contact the ARC Chairperson.

Ladies Golf League

Michele Lumadue and Carol Kriebler

The Ladies Golf League Executive Committee for the 2024/25 season are Cindy Kraus – Chair, Michele Lumadue – Vice Chair, Cindy Gutcher – Treasurer, and Judy Cardwell – Secretary.

Our Championship Play was held February 14, 21, 28, and March 6. The best three out of four scores determined the First-place winner in Gross and Net for Flights A, B, C. Those winners were: Flight A Gross: Wen Smith; Flight A Net: Patty Kennedy (in playoff). Flight B Gross: Michelle Lumadue; Flight B Net: Marta Smith; Flight C Gross: Kim Metcalf; Flight C Net: Colleen Zoellner. These six ladies represented our league in The Classic held Tuesday March 26.

Wednesday March 27, was perfect weather for our 4-person scramble; we had 86 players on 22 teams. The scores were - 1 at 25, 1 at 26, 6 at 27, 5 at 28, 6 at 29; a total of $249 was split among the scorers. Closest to the Pin on #4 was Karen Royer; Closest to the Pin on #8 was Gwen Mc Cormack; Closest to the Chalk line on #6 was Diane Courier. They each received $5. A total of 19 birdies were made, with two teams having 3 each.

The highlight of the day was a HOLE IN ONE by Gwen McCormack on # 5! A social was held at 3 pm in Clubhouse to receive their winnings. A great time to end our formal season!

As of April 5, we have 9 honorary members and 32 paid members for the 2024/2025 season. League play begins November 6, the Team Leader Meeting is November 12, and the General Meeting is November 25.

Everyone enjoy your summer. See you all in the Fall.

Golf Scramble

Erik Kaunisviita

It was a beautiful day for our last scramble of the season with 138 golfers. Twenty-eight teams competed for bragging rights. Thanks to Melinda and our starters for keeping everyone on schedule.

A special thank you to the volunteers, Check-in folks: Margie Fields, Janet Smith, Julie Semprini (hugger supreme), Patsy Greer, Brenda & Steve Ford. Starters: Linda Catalino, Ralph Courier and Jeff Semprini. Scorers: Sandy & Jack Crawford, Debbie Correia, Sherry Moore, Jerry Stillar and Rudy Krueger.

A good time was had by all, especially all those that got to witness Glenda Haas getting a hole in one on the 1st hole! The breakdown of the scoring was as follows: 6 at 25, 7 at 26, 7 at 27, 5 at 28, and 3 teams at 29.

Very tight scoring!

The next scramble (unless someone organizes a summer season) is scheduled for Saturday, November 2.

See you in the Fall!

There are times for plucky behavior and bold action

Knowing when to obey orders is important, especially if you're in the military. Horatio Nelson, the famous British leader and naval hero, was respected greatly by his men, because he showed them respect and led with compassion.

According to the BBC Web site, Nelson was famous for his predilection for bold action—and for occasional disregard of orders. At the Battle of Copenhagen, Nelson refused to acknowledge orders to cease action. In an earlier battle at Calvi in the Mediterranean, Nelson had been wounded and lost sight in his right eye. When he was given the order to cease action in Copenhagen by distant signal, the commander lifted his telescope to his blind eye and claimed he couldn't see the signal. He and his men were victorious.

A brave act wins loyalty

According to the Absolute Nelson Web site, when Horatio Nelson was a schoolboy, the schoolmaster, the Rev. Mr. Jones, had some lovely pears on his desk. His students looked at the pears during the day and wished very much that they could have them. But none of the boys was brave enough to attempt procuring them because they were all afraid they would be caught.

The young Horatio, however came forward and offered to get the pears for the boys. He was not afraid of the consequences of getting caught. And so one night, his anxious schoolmates lowered him from the dormitory by way of a long rope of sheets that had been tied together for the adventure. And though it was a risky endeavor, Horatio boldly claimed the pears as his own and was secretly hauled up into the dormitory again by his mates. But the adventure was apparently all that was important to Horatio. He shared the pears amongst his school friends and did not save even one bite for himself.

"I only took them because every other boy was afraid," Horatio claimed.

The next day a reward of five guineas was offered for the name of the thief who had made off with the master's pears—but by that time Horatio had won the other boys' hearts so completely not one would betray him.

On happiness

The recipe for a happy life is a good digestion and a bad memory.

— Ingrid Bergman

On worries

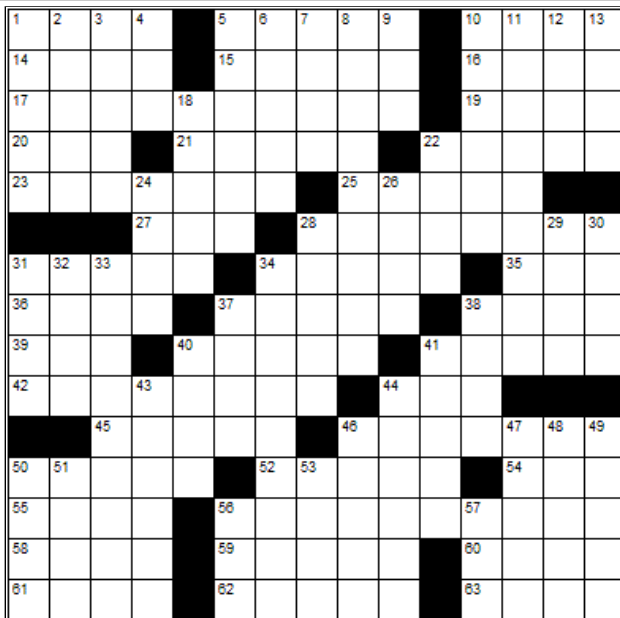

When I look back on all the worries I remember the story of the old man who said on his deathbed that he had had a lot of trouble in his life, most of which never happened.

— Winston Churchill

The delightfully anguished English of Sam Goldwyn

According to Gene Shalit in his book Great Hollywood Wit, Samuel Goldwyn was a perfectionist—who had, ahem, an unusual way with words. The legendary moviemaker had a plethora of great ideas, and he always wanted to hire the best talent available. But one area where his attention to detail was wanting was his language usage. He just couldn't seem to get it right, and he became famous for what those who knew and loved him came to call "Goldwynisms." Here are a few examples:

- An aide once said that he thought a screenplay was too caustic, Goldwyn replied, "Who cares about the expenses?"
- While making a movie, Goldwyn told his staff to "spare no expense to make everything as economical as possible."
- Goldwyn was told that more Indians were needed as extras for a Western he was making. "Get some more from the reservoir," he replied.
- Following a preview Goldwyn said: "It will create an excitement that will sweep the country like wildflowers."
- Goldwyn liked to get the opinions of others and one day, while inviting employees to do just that, he said, "I don't want any yes-men around me. I want everybody to tell me the truth even if it costs them their jobs."
