Issue 4
48th Year

A photograph of an elderly man, John Jean Orton, wearing glasses and a plaid shirt. He is smiling and holding several balloons. One large balloon is red, another is multi-colored with 'HAPPY BIRTH' written on it, and two smaller gold balloons are at the bottom. The background is a gold, sparkly pattern.

Happy 99th Birthday, John Jean Orton!

John turned 99 in January and remains the flirt and tease he's always been!
He's a WWII Army Vet and actively plays shuffleboard in Holiday Shores.
Thank you for your service!

Are you selling your home?

Please call the Twin Lakes Office at 727-799-4807 so we can help. We will free advertise for you by putting your home on our Homes For Sale list. This list is given to anyone that comes into the office, emails or calls us looking for a home. Being on this list can really boost the amount of people that come to check out your home. Remember if you refer a friend and they purchase one of our brand new park owned models, you can get a free months lot rent.

Send us your photos!

Help, we need pictures of our residents in our community having fun at our various events. Wouldn't it be fun to have some of our residents make the cover page of the Twin Lakes Times! You can email any of these pictures directly to info@monthly-media.com. Just make sure to include a brief description of the picture and a statement saying that you release them to reprint the picture. We can scan them at the office too if you only have a printed copy. If you have any questions just call Maureen at the office.

Dumpsters – Garbage

Just a few reminders:

- Please use garbage bags when possible so that your trash does not fly out of the dumpster, grocery bags are very light and tend to fly when they dump the dumpster into the truck.
- NO Mattresses are allowed to be put in the dumpster, No furniture (recliners, couches, etc..) is to be put in the dumpster, they are your responsibility to get rid of.
- Put everything in the dumpster, not around the dumpster, no one else wants your trash.
- There are 3 dumpsters that everyone is allowed to use. You are not assigned to one dumpster, so if your usual dumpster is full, please take to one of the other two.
- Do not put trash in the blue recycle bins, also no garbage bags or grocery bags in the recycle bins.
- When it comes to recycling, we put out a pamphlet in the newsletter to remind everyone of all the do's and don'ts of recycling in Clearwater (It is different in every county and every state). Please follow the flyer and when you are in doubt, please just throw it out. It is better to throw it out than to put the wrong items into the recycling system. If you need a new one just ask the office, we will be glad to give you one.
- If you have any scrap metal or old appliances that you need to get rid of, there is a junkman that will come to your home and pick it up and take it off for free for you. Ronnie Kitchen at 727-657-4428, He will also come and pick up those items that you are not allowed to put in the dumpster, such as mattresses, furniture, or other large items but he does charge a FEE for this. You can also call a local thrift store such as St Vincent's, hospice, goodwill, or Salvation army and donate to them if the item is in good repair.

Got a great recipe?? Please Share!

Email to twinlakesclearwater@gmail.com or drop it off to the office. We want everyone to enjoy them. We will put your picture in the newsletter along with your recipe (but only if you want us to, haha). Please help us out!

Hitting the fan

Swearing seems to be a bit more acceptable these days than it used to be. And so, you don't get the colorful euphemistic exclamations that were constantly being created to replace swear words in days gone by, when it was considered very bad taste to use the name of God or Jesus or other religious figures in your everyday rantings.

Of course, the English being who they are have a long history of employing euphemistic phrases. This probably comes of the very English desire to communicate but not be explicit at the same time. This likely gave rise to the delight the English took in their comedies, according to the Web site Phrases.org.uk. Look back into time and you'll find a rich history of comedies based on double entendres.

And we can probably thank the folks across the pond for "minced oaths" as well. Minced oaths are subgroups of euphemisms, according to Answers.com. They're something that people say instead of swearing when they're surprised or annoyed. So for instance, if there were delicate-eared folks around, you might say "Fudge bars" instead of ...well, you get it, right?

Here is a list of some minced oaths gleaned from Answers.com and Wikipedia:

- Bejabbers • Figs
- Blimey • For crying out loud
- By George • Freaking
- By golly • Frickin'
- By gosh • Fudge
- By gum • Fup duck
- Christmas • Gadzooks
- Crikey • Gee whiz
- Cripes • Gee willikers
- Crud • God bless America
- Dablastit • Golly
- Dad gum • Good grief
- Dagnabbit • Heck
- Dang • Holy cow
- Darn • Jeepers creepers
- Doggone • Jiminy Christmas
- Drat • Jiminy Cricket
- Egads • Judas Priest
- Feck • Jumping Jehosaphat
- Fiddlesticks • Sam Hill
- Sheesh • Sufferin' succotash
- Shoot • Sugar
- Son of a gun • Tarnation

On what can happen

Anything can happen, but it usually doesn't.

— Robert Benchley

On resentment

If there is one thing that I resent (and there is), it is to be told that I resent being told anything.

— Robert Benchley

On nostalgia

Nostalgia isn't what it used to be.

— Peter de Vries

On fathers

A father carries pictures where his money used to be.

— anonymous

By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong.

— Charles Wadsworth

On how to diaper a baby

Spread the diaper in the position of the diamond with you at bat. Then, fold second base down to home and set the baby on the pitcher's mound. Put first base and third together, bring up home plate and pin the three together. Of course, in case of rain, you gotta call the game and start all over again.

— Jimmy Piersal

On working mothers

The phrase "working mother" is redundant.

— Jane Sellman

On worry

The reason why worry kills more people than work is that more people worry than work.

— Robert Frost

On work

My grandfather once told me that there were two kinds of people: those who do the work and those who take the credit. He told me to try to be in the first group; there was much less competition.

What treasures might be found in an attic?

You never know what might be lying around in your attic. Journalist Ken Wilkie was covering a story about Vincent Van Gogh by following in the footsteps of the now famous artist, and his inquiries took him to England where Van Gogh as a young man had gone to work as an apprentice art dealer. While in England Vincent lived a lonely life and eventually, it is known from his letters he fell in love with his landlady's daughter. The girl, however, did not return Vincent's feelings and rejected him. Vincent was so hurt—that he set out on a path that would lead eventually to his total devotion to art.

After much research, the address of where Van Gogh had lived as a boarder was finally determined. Wilkie visited the residence and snapped off a few photographs of the building. After much investigation, Wilkie successfully located the granddaughter of the woman who had spurned Vincent. The journalist told the woman that it was her grandmother that Vincent, one of the Western world's most famous artists, had fallen in love with—and that it was her rejection that eventually led Van Gogh to become an artist. The woman was shocked, and she offered to look through her old photographs to see if she could find any of her grandmother. This would be the first look the world had ever gotten of the woman Vincent had fallen in love with. She invited Wilkie to come by the following day.

Wilkie arrived at Kathleen Maynard's home and was treated to tea and sandwiches. As Wilkie talked to Maynard he spotted an old cardboard box. Mrs. Maynard had already gone through the box and pulled out pictures of her grandmother, Vincent's love interest, and her great grandmother, Vincent's landlady. Wilkie was delighted. Even so, he asked Maynard if he might take a peek through the old box. Maynard agreed and Wilkie eagerly sorted through the contents.

At the very bottom of the box Wilkie saw an old drawing, stained and soiled with time, of the very address he had photographed a few days before. He says he felt his skin tingle as he realized what he was looking at. A new Van Gogh work had been found.

The secret of life

The great secret, Eliza, is not having bad manners or good manners or any other particular sort of manners, but having the same manner for all human souls: in short, behaving as if you were in Heaven, where there are no third-class carriages, and one soul is as good as another.

— George Bernard Shaw

On kindness

Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on; 'Twas not given for thee alone, Pass it on; Let it travel down the years, Let it wipe another's tears. Pass it on.

— The Rev. Henry Burton

Kindness is good will. Kindness says, "I want you to be happy."
