HURRICANE SEASON HAS ARRIVED – DO IT NOW!

2024 Hurricane Season 6-1-23 – 11-30-23

- Start bringing drinking water into your house. Plan for 1 gallon per person per day. Avoid shopping when a storm watch is issued. Get it now.
- Shop for non-perishable food, 3 days of food is recommended. Avoid stocking up with PERISHABLE “buy one-get-one” items.
- Find a place to store any outside grills, garbage cans & recycling bins before a storm approaches.
- Lawn ornaments, flags, and plants should be picked up and stored. They will become dangerous projectiles during a storm.
- Have a plan to close your awnings or board up windows. Arrange to get help from a neighbor.
- Have an evacuation plan in order – a shelter, staying with a friend, or staying in a motel.
- Take personal papers with you.
- If our park sustains damage, keep an eye on the local news channel for re-entry information into our park.
- Make sure your car has a FULL tank of gas.
- Have CASH on hand, small bills.
- Turn off your water at the meter.
- Use common sense and stay safe.

There were articles in the May Scuttlebutt, please refer to those when making your preparations.

HERE’S WHAT’S COOKING:

Taco Dog: Wrap grilled halved hot dogs in grilled flour tortillas; top with shredded cheddar cheese, lettuce, salsa and sour cream. Quick and easy.

If you have a recipe you would like in the Scuttlebutt for others to enjoy, please send it via e-mail to jafroscoe46@yahoo.com

GOLF CARTS:

This information was sent out on April 2nd requesting us to follow the Florida Law. “Under the previous law, 14-year olds were allowed to operate golf carts on public roads. However, under the new bill, the legal age to drive a golf cart in Florida has changed. Individuals under 18 must now be at least 15 years old with a learner’s permit or 16 years old with a driver’s license”. Please keep this in mind when you have company.

SAFETY ISSUES:

Even though many residents have left the park for the season, there are a number that reside here year round. Please remember the speed limit for cars, golf carts, and electric bikes is 15 miles per hour within or community, also obey the stop signs. If it says stop that means stop. When out on your golf cart or riding your bike after dark, turn your lights on, if you are enjoying a night time stroll, carry a flashlight or wear some type of reflective clothing. Safety for your dog at night is also key, have a reflective leash, collar, or harness to protect your furbaby.

SKY WATCH:

What is happening in the night sky this month?

On the 1st at 4:30am, look for the crescent Moon halfway between Saturn and Mars. Both planets share the same 1st-magnitude brightness. Due east on the morning of the 2nd and 3rd, Mars is the bright orange “star” near the Moon at 4:30am. After the 15th, Jupiter returns as a morning star due east at 4:30am. On the 30th, Mars hovers halfway between the crescent Moon and brilliant Jupiter, a sight best seen at around 4:45am. Summer in the Northern Hemisphere begins with the solstice on the 20th at 4:51pm EDT. This is the day when the Sun is highest at midday, rises at its leftmost position, and sets at the year’s rightmost spot on the horizon.

June Moon manes: June’s full Moon, the Full Strawberry Moon, got its name because the Algonquin tribes knew it as a signal to gather ripening fruit. It was often known as the Full Hoer Moon and the Full Hot Moon.

Manufactured Home Tie Down and Anchoring

Tie-downs anchor the home to the ground providing stability and protection against severe weather events.

Lic# IH/1149363

Tie-downs are important for the safety of manufactured homes, also known as mobile homes, because they stabilize the home during high winds. Strong winds can lift them up or cause them to roll over in a tornado or hurricane.

At United vapor barrier & floors we follow all of the 15C Florida regulations to provide safety and security to your home!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Hitting the fan

Swearing seems to be a bit more acceptable these days than it used to be. And so, you don't get the colorful euphemistic exclamations that were constantly being created to replace swear words in days gone by, when it was considered very bad taste to use the name of God or Jesus or other religious figures in your everyday rantings.

Of course, the English being who they are have a long history of employing euphemistic phrases. This probably comes of the very English desire to communicate but not be explicit at the same time. This likely gave rise to the delight the English took in their comedies, according to the Web site Phrases.org.uk. Look back into time and you'll find a rich history of comedies based on double entendres.

And we can probably thank the folks across the pond for "minced oaths" as well. Minced oaths are subgroups of euphemisms, according to Answers.com. They're something that people say instead of swearing when they're surprised or annoyed. So for instance, if there were delicate-eared folks around, you might say "Fudge bars" instead of ...well, you get it, right?

Here is a list of some minced oaths gleaned from Answers.com and Wikipedia:

- Bejabbers • Figs
- Blimey • For crying out loud
- By George • Freaking
- By golly • Frickin'
- By gosh • Fudge
- By gum • Fup duck
- Christmas • Gadzooks
- Crikey • Gee whiz
- Cripes • Gee willikers
- Crud • God bless America
- Dablastit • Golly
- Dad gum • Good grief
- Dagnabbit • Heck
- Dang • Holy cow
- Darn • Jeepers creepers
- Doggone • Jiminy Christmas
- Drat • Jiminy Cricket
- Egads • Judas Priest
- Feck • Jumping Jehosaphat
- Fiddlesticks • Sam Hill
- Sheesh • Sufferin' succotash
- Shoot • Sugar
- Son of a gun • Tarnation
