PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Submitted by Jan McCoy

And so, they're off... our snowbirds, including a significant number of our board of directors, headed north for the summer with hopes of carrying a little Florida sunshine to be gifted upon arrival. The winter weather here may not have been as expected but it didn't seem to matter to most. A good time was had by all, and we worked together on a variety of focuses too. Thank you to our board members and to all who contributed to our initiatives this season. You are very much appreciated and will be missed. If you forgot to sign out when you left, please give our office a call so the water billing can be adjusted. A reminder that planters should not be left outside, and carports are not to be cluttered with storage of personal items, when leaving for the season. They may become projectiles in a storm. Our manager has been especially busy this past month addressing violations and issuing warning letters. If not responded to, the complaint will move forward to the fining process. Our thoughts and prayers go out to our sick, shut-ins, and those who have lost loved ones. We are here for you as a community. Enjoy your summer!

Geraldine Huston

Submitted by Donna Vance Christensen (niece)

WITH DEEPEST
Sympathy

Geraldine Huston, 92 and a thirty-year resident of Sunset Palms, transitioned on April 27th while a hospice patient at Gateway Rehabilitation Center.

Her ashes along with those of her husband, “Tex”, were interred near the niche of her parent's, James and Mildred Vance in the Royal Palms Memorial Gardens on May 8th. The parents were also members of our community and all four were enthusiastic participants in many of the available activities.

A huge “thank you” to the many who came to Gerri’s aid as her vision and mobility started failing a few years ago.

Mark your calendars for our Halloween Dance Costume Party October 31st.

We also have Music Bingo scheduled Oct- April.

All our events are on the website calendar. See you in the fall!

INCOMING TIDE

Submitted by Palph Payne

Looking out over the blue Atlantic, as far as the eye could see
Walking the sandy beach and roving along the sea
The bright blue sea, rippling along toward the east
Effortlessly swelling above, like the watered rising yeast

The bright mornings drew us outside until lunch at noon
Like the incoming tide being tugged by the luring of the moon
Back when the ocean's waters were calmer and warmer in any weather
Those days, like the endless sky seemed to go on forever

Rain or shine, we were outside every minute we could
As my memories take me back to a contented childhood
Each matching day always seemed to be much of the same
Our energy was wild, even Mother Nature couldn't tame

Summers seemed hotter and longer back then
The days were filled with happiness as we played in the warm wind
Seemed there were more people around, more circling outside
Advancing back and forth, just like the oceans tide

I often revisit those days long ago
Back when I need a repose from the demanding flow
Not becoming too contorted, let the askew slide
Go back for a moment and walk through the Incoming Tide

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Navigate Cruise Traps with Sunset Palms Groups

Joining our Sunset Palms group cruises ensures you steer clear of the common pitfalls that often catch first-time cruisers off guard. Here are some insights from your travel committee:

All-Inclusive Packages:

Many holidaymakers end up spending a significant portion of their initial cruise payment on additional expenses. Cruise lines often tempt guests with "all-inclusive" packages, which may include Wi-Fi, drinks, dining, and upgrades. However, these deals may not always offer the best value, with subpar Wi-Fi or unused beverage packages. The cost when added to a single booking is rather significant.

Our group negotiations often include these amenities as a group perk, saving you from unnecessary additional expenses.

Upgrade Bidding:

Before even boarding the ship, guests are enticed to bid for room upgrades. However, many find themselves paying more for upgrades than if they had booked the desired room initially. It's easy to get caught up in the excitement of bidding, but the result may not justify the extra cost. Your group coordinator will have discussed this tactic in advance so there will be no issues.

Excursions:

Onboard, guests are often persuaded to book expensive excursions, with warnings about the risks of exploring independently. While some excursions may be worthwhile, many are overpriced. Our group provides leadership and encourages pre-planning through clubhouse and Zoom sessions, helping you make informed decisions and providing guidance from start to finish.

Itinerary Changes:

Cruise lines reserve the right to change itineraries due to a variety of reasons without offering compensation. However, our group coordinator frequently secures additional onboard credit in such situations. By booking through our group, you're often informed about potential itinerary changes in advance.

Free Items:

Free items handed out on cruises regularly come with strings attached, aiming to drive traffic to onboard shops. While these offers can be enticing, it's important to remember they're ultimately a marketing tactic. Our group ensures you're aware of these strategies, helping you avoid overspending.

Loyalty Programs:

Cruise companies offer loyalty programs to retain customers, while they try to limit your exploration of other cruise lines. Many people do not realize what extra benefits are available and never utilize them. Our group coordinator keeps you informed about your loyalty benefits and can often match your loyalty status between companies when participating on group cruises.

In conclusion, by cruising with Sunset Palms groups, you can enjoy a more informed and budget-friendly travel experience, steering clear of common marketing traps.

Lift Station Monthly Reminder - IMPORTANT

Submitted from the Office

F LUSH ONLY: Body waste and toilet paper.
It is highly recommended that only ONE-PLY toilet paper be used to prevent clogging the toilet.

DO NOT FLUSH:

- Tampons
- Sanitary pads
- Diapers
- Depends
- Swiffer Cloths
- Dust Cloths
- Wet Wipes
- Kleenex
- Food, etc.
- When in doubt, DON'T FLUSH IT!

When we flush, the waste goes into a holding tank that has two pumps to expel the waste UP and OUT into the Pinellas Park sewage system. When any of the above gets flushed, it clogs the pump, overheats it and burns out the motor.

The story of the mustard seed

In a far away land, lived a young woman and her name was Kisagotami. Now this young woman had only one son—and she loved him with all her heart. But one day her beloved boy fell sick and, despite all the young mother’s efforts to save him, he tragically died. The young mother was so distraught at her loss that she was not able to accept the death and loss of her son, and so desperately, the young mother approached each one of her friends and begged them, “Please, save my child.” But each one of her friends said the same thing: “Kisagotami, dear one, the child is dead. There is nothing now that can save him.”

But the grieving mother refused to accept her friends’ well-meaning words. Instead she carried her child to the Buddha. Weeping uncontrollably, Kisagotami said, “Please save my child. Please give me some medicine that will cure him.”

Buddha looked at the woman with compassion and wisdom, he told the young mother that he would make a medicine for the child, but to do so the Buddha would need some special ingredients—among the things the Buddha said he would need was a handful of mustard seed.

However, the Buddha gave the young mother some special instructions for procuring the mustard seeds: “You must get the mustard seeds from a household where not one of its inhabitants has died—parent, child or servant.”

And so the aggrieved mother set out to accomplish the task. She went from house to house in the hope that she would find just such mustard seed as the Buddha desired for the medicine. And every person she spoke to very gladly offered her the seed in the hope that it would save the child’s life. But each time the seed was offered and Kisagotami asked whether anyone had died in the house, she found that every single household had suffered just such a loss. At the first house she stopped at, it was the husband who had died. At the second house she stopped at, it was a daughter who had died. And at the third, it was an old grand-mother. Kisagotami could not find one household that had escaped suffering.

Very sadly, Kisagotami returned to the Buddha and very, very gently she laid her child’s body on the ground, and said, “I understand now what you and the others were trying to tell me.

The compassionate Buddha said, “You thought you were alone in your suffering. But it is the nature of life that no one can escape the suffering of impermanence.”

This is a well-known Buddhist tale adapted from Tales for Change: Using Storytelling to Develop People and Organizations, by Margaret Parkin

*On living with purpose
Every man must decide whether he will walk in the light of creative altruism or in the darkness of destructive selfishness.
