MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Greetings all,
 June is upon us as well as the heat is back! In our April meeting members voted to institute an HOA fee to be a member in good standing. This is a minimal amount of $25, but it will help our community. Upon receipt of payment, you will be issued a membership card. With this membership you will be able to vote at meetings, participate in meetings and are entitled to free meals at events, except for special events. We encourage you to join!

ELS will be working on the Laundry areas, getting new machines, new sinks, and painting. Please keep these areas clean as everyone uses the facilities.

Additionally they are continuing to complete the pool deck.

Will be Better,

Cheryl Doty

From The Activities Team

Jay Freeland & Bobbi Christian

Wow, can't believe it's June already. go some updates from the last few months.

There was an Easter Brunch we had over 30 people come for an amazing meal. Mother's Day we had another Brunch & once again had Delicious Food, Desserts & Wonderful Friends attend. Our Beautiful Miss Polly Pifer won the 50 / 50 Drawing For $95.00 exactly her age. I think it was meant to be because on her ticket the first two numbers reversed are 95, There's also the #50 which is her lot#. CONGRATULATIQNg M1gg POLLY. We've started a monthly Pot Luck Dinner usually the third gaturday of the month, all are welcome. If you bring a dish to share it's free, if you can't we ask a donation of $5.00.

We're also having a Memorial Day Cookout. Hope to see you there. The next brunch will be on Fathers Day 06/16/2024. Then the 4th. Of July Cookout.

$3.00 for residents & $5.00 for guests.

Because of the rising cost of supplies there will be a $3.00 charge for take out trays. There's always a sign up sheet at the Clubhouse on the Bulletin Board for all activities . If you can't make it there you can contact Jay or Bobbi & we'd be happy to sign you up. We also have two web pages you can sign up there.

RECIPE

Jewel's baked beans

2 cups yellow eyed beans
 ½ teas baking soda
 ½ lb salt pork with rind
 2 teas salt

¼ teas dry mustard
 ½ maple syrup
 Boiling water

Wash and clean beans. Soak overnight in water covered. In the morning boil in salted water until tender, about 20 minutes. During the last few minutes of cooking add baking soda. Drain. Score pork and place half of the pork in the bottom of crock pot rind side down.

Cover with beans, add mustard and syrup. Place remaining pork on top and fill to the top of an 8 qt crock pot. Cook for about 6 hours on low with cover on. Remove cover and let brown. Serves 6 to 8 generously.

Jewel's note: I use a little brown sugar and a little more syrup because I like them sweet!

This recipe is from our friend Jewel in Vermont!

Manufactured Home Tie Down and Anchoring

Tie-downs anchor the home to the ground providing stability and protection against severe weather events.

Lic# IH/1149363

Tie-downs are important for the safety of manufactured homes, also known as mobile homes, because they stabilize the home during high winds. Strong winds can lift them up or cause them to roll over in a tornado or hurricane.

At United vapor barrier & floors we follow all of the 15C Florida regulations to provide safety and security to your home!

Hitting the fan

Swearing seems to be a bit more acceptable these days than it used to be. And so, you don't get the colorful euphemistic exclamations that were constantly being created to replace swear words in days gone by, when it was considered very bad taste to use the name of God or Jesus or other religious figures in your everyday rantings.

Of course, the English being who they are have a long history of employing euphemistic phrases. This probably comes of the very English desire to communicate but not be explicit at the same time. This likely gave rise to the delight the English took in their comedies, according to the Web site Phrases.org.uk. Look back into time and you'll find a rich history of comedies based on double entendres.

And we can probably thank the folks across the pond for "minced oaths" as well. Minced oaths are subgroups of euphemisms, according to Answers.com. They're something that people say instead of swearing when they're surprised or annoyed. So for instance, if there were delicate-eared folks around, you might say "Fudge bars" instead of ...well, you get it, right?

Here is a list of some minced oaths gleaned from Answers.com and Wikipedia:

- Bejabbers • Figs
- Blimey • For crying out loud
- By George • Freaking
- By golly • Frickin'
- By gosh • Fudge
- By gum • Fup duck

On what can happen

Anything can happen, but it usually doesn't.

— Robert Benchley

On resentment

If there is one thing that I resent (and there is), it is to be told that I resent being told anything.

— Robert Benchley

On nostalgia

Nostalgia isn't what it used to be.

— Peter de Vries

On fathers

A father carries pictures where his money used to be.

— anonymous

By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong.

— Charles Wadsworth

On how to diaper a baby

Spread the diaper in the position of the diamond with you at bat. Then, fold second base down to home and set the baby on the pitcher's mound. Put first base and third together, bring up home plate and pin the three together. Of course, in case of rain, you gotta call the game and start all over again.

— Jimmy Piersal

On working mothers

The phrase "working mother" is redundant.

— Jane Sellman

On worry

The reason why worry kills more people than work is that more people worry than work.

— Robert Frost

On work

My grandfather once told me that there were two kinds of people: those who do the work and those who take the credit. He told me to try to be in the first group; there was much less competition.

— Indira Gandhi

To tell the truth

Once a young man from Ohio was running for the Senate. One day his political adviser called him into his office and seemed quite upset.

“What’s wrong?” the young politician asked.

“You’re going to have to go to Cleveland right away or you’re going to lose a lot of votes,” the adviser said. “They’re telling a bunch of lies about you there.”

The young politician thoughtfully rubbed his chin and said, “Well, I’ve got to go to Cincinnati first.”

“Why do you have to go to Cincinnati?” the adviser asked.

“They’re telling the truth about me there,” the candidate replied. As retold from Good Clean Jokes, by Anne Kostick, Charles Foxgrover and Michael J. Pellowski

Keeping a stopwatch on your desk might be a good idea

Georges Doriot invented the practice that has become known in recent times as venture capitalism. In other words, he had the ability to assess thousands of business proposals and then fund the best ones. According to the PBS Web site, Doriot pioneered the development of venture capitalism in the 1950s. He was born in France in 1899, and then traveled to the United States to study. He ended up staying on and working for an investment bank and taught at Harvard Business School.

The savvy businessman was known for keeping a stopwatch on his desk and telling those who asked him about it, “Sometimes I use it to see how long it takes someone in a meeting to tell me the same thing three times.”

Is your ice cream feeling a little warm?

The two substances in ice cream that are usually varied are the amount of fat and air that are incorporated. According to On Food and Cooking: The Science and Lore of the Kitchen by Harold McGee, “ice cream is a foam that is stabilized by freezing much of the liquid.” So if you’ve ever bought an ice cream that seems a bit warmer and fluffier than other versions you’ve had, the reason is probably because the brand you’ve bought is cheaper and incorporates more air. What this means is that the sensation of coldness is lessened because there is less ice and less icy solution because more air has been added to the frozen foam mixture.

Another thing that can happen is that fat content can be reduced in a brand. This can in reverse fashion result in a product that feels colder. This is because the fat globules are not present to break up the ice crystals. Often this also produces a grainy, ice-flecked texture to the brand—think ice milk and sherbet products.

What treasures might be found in an attic?

You never know what might be lying around in your attic. Journalist Ken Wilkie was covering a story about Vincent Van Gogh by following in the footsteps of the now famous artist, and his inquiries took him to England where Van Gogh as a young man had gone to work as an apprentice art dealer. While in England Vincent lived a lonely life and eventually, it is known from his letters he fell in love with his landlady's daughter. The girl, however, did not return Vincent's feelings and rejected him. Vincent was so hurt—that he set out on a path that would lead eventually to his total devotion to art.

After much research, the address of where Van Gogh had lived as a boarder was finally determined. Wilkie visited the residence and snapped off a few photographs of the building. After much investigation, Wilkie successfully located the granddaughter of the woman who had spurned Vincent. The journalist told the woman that it was her grandmother that Vincent, one of the Western world's most famous artists, had fallen in love with—and that it was her rejection that eventually led Van Gogh to become an artist. The woman was shocked, and she offered to look through her old photographs to see if she could find any of her grandmother. This would be the first look the world had ever gotten of the woman Vincent had fallen in love with. She invited Wilkie to come by the following day.

Wilkie arrived at Kathleen Maynard's home and was treated to tea and sandwiches. As Wilkie talked to Maynard he spotted an old cardboard box. Mrs. Maynard had already gone through the box and pulled out pictures of her grandmother, Vincent's love interest, and her great grandmother, Vincent's landlady. Wilkie was delighted. Even so, he asked Maynard if he might take a peek through the old box. Maynard agreed and Wilkie eagerly sorted through the contents.

At the very bottom of the box Wilkie saw an old drawing, stained and soiled with time, of the very address he had photographed a few days before. He says he felt his skin tingle as he realized what he was looking at. A new Van Gogh work had been found.

The secret of life

The great secret, Eliza, is not having bad manners or good manners or any other particular sort of manners, but having the same manner for all human souls: in short, behaving as if you were in Heaven, where there are no third-class carriages, and one soul is as good as another.

— George Bernard Shaw

On kindness

Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on; 'Twas not given for thee alone, Pass it on; Let it travel down the years, Let it wipe another's tears. Pass it on.

— The Rev. Henry Burton

Kindness is good will. Kindness says, "I want you to be happy."

How to stay healthy

Dr. Andrew Weil is famous for his health and nutritional advice. Weil told CNN producer Kelley Colihan that he received only about 30 minutes of nutritional training when he was in medical school. He recommended the following general tips for healthy living:

- Eat a diet that’s rich in fresh, organic foods. Weil says the consumption of fruits and vegetables helps protect from many chronic diseases.
- Eat a colorful diet. Weil says that it’s important to ask yourself if you’ve covered your colors. Have you eaten your greens, reds, yellows, purples, etc? This will help keep the focus on a healthy variety of fruits and vegetables.
- Take a good multivitamin. Even if you are a healthy eater, it’s difficult to have an optimal diet every day. That’s why Weil recommends taking a multivitamin, not to replace healthy eating, but to make sure if you miss something in your diet inadvertently, you will still get it through your supplement.
- Women should pay attention to bone health early. Waiting until you’re older is not a good idea, Weil says. Bone health is the result of what you eat and exercise habits in your teens, 20s and 30s.
- Men should watch their diets in regard to prostate cancer. That means getting away from animal-based foods and high-fat diets and eating a diet rich in fruits, vegetables, omega-3s. Cooked tomatoes could be especially important, he says, because they are a source of lycopene, which is protective. More soy foods are also recommended.
- If you suffer from hypertension, then you will want to reduce the amount of processed and refined foods you consume, and increase intake of fruits and vegetables, which will deliver more potassium and have a relaxant effect on blood vessels.
- Make sure you get enough Vitamin D. New research shows that Vitamin D has important protecting effects, but that people are getting less of it from sun exposure because of sunscreens.

On living with purpose

What one has, one ought to use; and whatever he does, he should do with all his might.
— Cicero

Nothing of worthy or weight can be achieved with half a mind, with a faint heart, and with a lame endeavor.
— Isaac Barrow

Firmness of purpose is one of the most necessary sinews of character, and one of the best instruments of success. Without it genius wastes its efforts in a maze of inconsistencies.
— Lord Chesterfield
