Veteran's Corner

The Real MASH

Near the end of WWII, a new idea was implemented near the battlefield. Who knew at the time that this idea would play a vital role in the lives of numerous American's five years later during the Korean and Vietnam War. This new idea was called the Mobile Army Surgical Hospital; most of us know it as MASH.

It was initially designed to bring emergency lifesaving surgery closer to critically wounded casualties, the concept was overlooked under wartime pressure.

During the popular television series "MASH", the unit was always at the same location. However, the real MASH units were required to be disassembled, loaded onto vehicles, and ready to depart on a six-hour notice. After arrival at its new destination, it was operational within four hours.

This quick reaction kept the surgical units within reach of those that needed lifesaving surgery.

During the Korean and Vietnam War, helicopters, referred to as "air ambulances" were introduced, which evacuated wounded soldiers from battlefield positions to MASH units close to front lines. Air EVAC or Medevac as Vietnam Veterans called them, reduced the death rate of wounded soldiers. The fatality rate for the Army's wounded reached a new low of 2.5 percent.

NOBODY PAYS MORE

The triage medical officers, nurses and surgeons evaluated each injured patient, and the most critical were prioritized for surgery.

Those patients requiring surgical therapy, such as plastic surgery or dialysis were evacuated to specialty centers.

The experiences of those MASH units translated to improvements in resuscitation and trauma care, patient transport, blood storage and distribution, patient triage and evacuation.

The studies from the Korean and Vietnam War in the medical profession greatly influenced trauma care around the World. The greatest advance during this time was in vascular surgery including vascular injury repair.

My deepest respect and personal thank you, for the women and men of our Park Royale community that may have served in the MASH units during my Vietnam Service.

Respectfully,
Anthony Suglia

June Awareness

June

During the month of June, we celebrate several awareness events, including Juneteenth, Pride Month, PTSD Awareness month, and Men's Health month. In honor of Juneteenth: Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day

Juneteenth is the oldest-known celebration marking the end of slavery in the United States, first recognized by the state of Texas. It is also known as "Freedom Day," "Juneteenth National Independence Day," or "Emancipation Day."

Pride Month, is a month, typically June, dedicated to celebration and commemoration of lesbian, gay, bisexual.

PTSD National Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder Awareness Month, and is intended to raise public awareness about issues related to PTSD.

Men's Health Month encourages men to take charge of and be proactive in their overall health. It is a great time to remind the men you know.

June Recipes

Crispy Everything Chicken Cutlets

- 4 chicken cutlets
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cup milk
- 2 large eggs, beaten
- 1 1/4 cups panko breadcrumbs
- 3 tablespoons everything bagel seasoning
- 3 tablespoons salted butter
- 3 tablespoons olive oil

Directions

1. For the chicken: Heat a large skillet over medium heat.
2. Season the chicken with 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Add the flour to a shallow bowl. Whisk together the milk and eggs in a second bowl. Mix the panko and everything bagel seasoning in a third bowl.
3. Bread the chicken by dredging each cutlet first in the flour, shaking off the excess. Next, dip into the egg wash, then cover in the seasoned panko.
4. Add the butter and oil to the skillet. When the butter is melted, add the chicken and cook until golden and crisp (or registering 165 degrees F), 4 to 5 minutes per side. Remove to a rack to rest.

Cherry Delight Dessert

Ingredients

- 1-1/2 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 1/3 cup confectioners' sugar
- 6 tablespoons butter, melted

FILLING:

- 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened
- 1 cup confectioners' sugar
- 1 carton (8 ounces) frozen whipped topping, thawed (3 cups)
- 1 can (21 ounces) cherry pie filling

Directions

1. In a bowl, combine the graham cracker crumbs, confectioners' sugar and butter. Press onto the bottom of a greased 8-in. square pan.
2. In a large bowl, beat cream cheese and confectioners' sugar until smooth; fold in whipped topping. Spread over crust. Spoon pie filling over top. Refrigerate until set, about 1 hour

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
