JULY FUN FACTS...

Submitted by Gaby Brown

July is synonymous with fun in the sun. In the northern hemisphere, July is typically characterized by sunny days, warm weather and long hours of daylight, making it an ideal month to enjoy a little rest and relaxation. Though it might be a great time for some R&R, July also boasts an interesting history. As revelers soak up some sun this summer, they can ponder these fun facts about the month of July.

1. July is named after a person whose been famous for thousands of years. According to the Farmer's Almanac, Roman dictator Julis Caesar developed the precursor to the Gregorian calendar used today. Though that made him worthy of a month named in his honor, it didn't do much to protect him during his life, as Caesar was famously assassinated in 44 B.C.
2. July is a celebratory month for fans of revolution. American Independence Day (July 4) and Bastille Day (July 14), which commemorates the storming of the Bastille and the dawn of the French Revolution in 1789, are among the notable revolutionary moments celebrated in July.
3. Baseball historians know that many significant events in the game have taken place in July, and some records set in the month have withstood longer than others. On July 12, 1931, Mel Ott of the New York Giants hit his 100th career homerun, becoming the youngest player to reach that milestone. Ott was 22 years and 132 days old when he set the mark, which still stands today.
4. One of the more famous statements in United States history was uttered in July, though it wasn't within American borders or even on the planet Earth. On July 20, 1969, American astronaut Neil Armstrong, after stepping onto the surface of the moon, declared, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."
5. Two men who played integral roles in the American colonies gaining their independence from Great Britain both passed away on July 4th, the day that celebrates that very independence. On July 4th, 1826, former presidents John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, who were once friends, then political rivals and, finally, friends again, passed away within hours of each other.

This Day in History: July 25

Near Niagara Falls on this day in 1814, British troops commanded by General Phineas Riall thwarted an invasion of Canada by a U.S. force under General Jacob Brown in the Battle of Lundy's Lane during the War of 1812.

What is the Fourth of July? The Fourth of July celebrates the passage of the Declaration of Independence by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776. The Declaration announced the political separation of the 13 North American colonies from Great Britain.

From Wikipedia:

The Declaration of Independence, formally titled The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America (in the engrossed version but also the original printing), is the founding document of the United States. On July 4, 1776, it was adopted unanimously by the 56 delegates to the Second Continental Congress, who had convened at the Pennsylvania State House, later renamed Independence Hall, in the colonial era capital of Philadelphia. The declaration explains to the world why the Thirteen Colonies regarded themselves as independent sovereign states no longer subject to British colonial rule.

The 56 delegates who signed the Declaration of Independence came to be known as the nation's Founding Fathers, and the Declaration has become one of the most circulated, reprinted, and influential documents in world history.

From National Archives In Congress, July 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America, When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

Memorial Day

Our Memorial Day BBQ brought the community together to Remember, Honor, and Celebrate all of the brave men and women who sacrificed for our freedom.

Many thanks to Dawn and Brent McCowan for hosting this great event, and to all who contributed to its success.

SCAM ALERT

Romance Scams

www.fbi.gov/how-we-can-help-you/scams-and-safety/common-scams-and-crimes

Romance scams occur when a criminal adopts a fake online identity to gain a victim's affection and trust. The scammer then uses the illusion of a romantic or close relationship to manipulate and/or steal from the victim.

The scammer's intention is to establish a relationship as quickly as possible, endear himself to the victim, and gain trust. Scammers may propose marriage and make plans to meet in person, but that will never happen. Eventually, they will ask for money.

If someone you meet online needs your bank account information to deposit money, they are most likely using your account to carry out other theft and fraud schemes.

Tips for Avoiding Romance Scams:

- Be careful what you post and make public online. Scammers can use details shared on social media and dating sites to better understand and target you.
- Research the person's photo and profile using online searches to see if the image, name, or details have been used elsewhere.
- Go slowly and ask lots of questions.
- Beware if the individual seems too perfect or quickly asks you to leave a dating service or social media site to communicate directly.
- Beware if the individual attempts to isolate you from friends and family or requests inappropriate photos or financial information that could later be used to extort you.
- Beware if the individual promises to meet in person but then always comes up with an excuse why he or she can't. If you haven't met the person after a few months, for whatever reason, you have good reason to be suspicious.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Headlines: Sometimes weird and embarrassingly obvious

According to PoynterOnline Multimedia Editor Larry

D. Larsen, the following headlines have actually appeared on news stories. Here are a few of his favorites:

- Woman found dead with arrow in head
- Three cheers for Spears' rear
- Flying moose lands on car's roof
- Police chief fries thief
- Chong gonged for selling bong
- First ever pooper scooper powwow
- Kraft: Who cut the cheese?
- Snowstorms may be precursor of winter
- Bombs are frightening, SA human shield says
- Police find body in cemetery
- Flaming car with body inside "suspicious"
- First-time exotic dancers should avoid the pole
- Minnesota's population aging faster than predicted
- Girl gives frozen metal pole a lickin', her tongue keeps on stickin'
- Authorities seek flasher—police: Man typically wears no pants
- Activist upset by Girl Scouts in Alaska who trap, skin beavers
- Police: Man slashes friend in argument over who has hairiest buttocks
- Grits argument turns violent
- Experts sniff out why Uranus gas is silent but violent

In the 'it's not as easy as it looks on TV' category...

The Victorville, Calif., Daily News recently reported a burglary gone wrong ("Burglary attempt backfires," by Katherine Rosenberg). A would-be burglar and his accomplice decided they would rob a store. And in a brilliant move, one of the criminals decided he would use a gun to burglarize a cell-phone store that closed at about 1 a.m. The owner of the store said one of the burglars decided he was going to "Jesse James" the lock, or shoot the metal lock out. As bad luck would have it (for the criminal, that is), the bullet ricocheted off the lock and slammed into the man's chest. While the bullet did not puncture the skin of the gunman, the security camera did catch a not so pretty picture of the incident: The bullet angled off the lock, thumping the man in the chest and knocking the air out of him causing him to vomit on the spot.

On regret

My one regret in life is that I am not someone else.

Tie-downs are important for the safety of manufactured homes, also known as mobile homes, because they stabilize the home during high winds. Strong winds can lift them up or cause them to roll over in a tornado or hurricane.
