Fairway Social Committee

Ronnee Patterson

Remember last winter when it was so cold, golfing at some of those early tee times made you feel like you could be on the frozen tundra of Lambeau Field. Well, whoever is still praying for warmer weather, please Cut It Out! (lol) The summer heat has arrived here in Florida. Make sure you stay hydrated and take advantage of our 2 swimming pools and the air-conditioned clubhouse.

Along with the regular weekly activities, we have some events going on in the clubhouse this month. You can check out the upcoming events listed on the calendar in the middle of the flier.

Some of these are-

July 9 th – Board of Directors Meeting

July 20 th - Koffee Klatch

July 21 st – Ice Cream Social

July 28 th – Largo High School Recital

Marianne McGrail, our FSC vice chairperson, will be handling the FSC event financials and clubhouse keys until my return in September. Marianne's contact information is in the yellow book. Georgia Nicholson and Steve Perry are the go-to people for the kitchen this summer.

Remember you can check out a lot of the future FSC events by going to the website. Click on the last line under the FSC section titled, Upcoming FSC events. Bob Moore has put together posters containing the information for a lot of these events.

I will be heading north for a couple of months, but I can still be contacted at 774-571-0853 or email me at ronneepatterson.fsc@gmail.com.

Live, Love and Laugh

Ronnee

Koffee Klatch

Melinda Baker

Continue to beat the heat by signing up for doughnuts and coffee/tea during July's Koffee Klatch. You might see your neighbor or meet a new friend while enjoying the sweet treat and air conditioning! Koffee Klatch will be Saturday, July 20th from 8am-9am. Don't hesitate to bring your favorite mug from home. Please sign up on the bulletin board in the Clubhouse. Please include your last name and lot number. The sign-up sheet will be removed Wednesday, July 17th at 5pm.

Architectural Review Committee

The ARC Rules and Regulations Governing Document defines and outlines the guidelines for all exterior changes to homes, as well as, for placing homes. This document is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website. Before any work begins, a Home Placement or Modification Request Form must be completed and returned to the FVRA office. The ARC, which meets on Mondays in the Clubhouse, looks forward to working with you in replacing your home or planning the changes to the outside of your home. Any questions contact the ARC Chairperson.

July Crossword

Headlines: Sometimes weird and embarrassingly obvious

According to PoynterOnline Multimedia Editor Larry

D. Larsen, the following headlines have actually appeared on news stories. Here are a few of his favorites:

- Woman found dead with arrow in head
- Three cheers for Spears' rear
- Flying moose lands on car's roof
- Police chief fries thief
- Chong gonged for selling bong
- First ever pooper scooper powwow
- Kraft: Who cut the cheese?
- Snowstorms may be precursor of winter
- Bombs are frightening, SA human shield says
- Police find body in cemetery
- Flaming car with body inside "suspicious"
- First-time exotic dancers should avoid the pole
- Minnesota's population aging faster than predicted
- Girl gives frozen metal pole a lickin', her tongue keeps on stickin'
- Authorities seek flasher—police: Man typically wears no pants
- Activist upset by Girl Scouts in Alaska who trap, skin beavers
- Police: Man slashes friend in argument over who has hairiest buttocks
- Grits argument turns violent
- Experts sniff out why Uranus gas is silent but violent

In the 'it's not as easy as it looks on TV' category...

The Victorville, Calif., Daily News recently reported a burglary gone wrong ("Burglary attempt backfires," by Katherine Rosenberg). A would-be burglar and his accomplice decided they would rob a store. And in a brilliant move, one of the criminals decided he would use a gun to burglarize a cell-phone store that closed at about 1 a.m. The owner of the store said one of the burglars decided he was going to "Jesse James" the lock, or shoot the metal lock out. As bad luck would have it (for the criminal, that is), the bullet ricocheted off the lock and slammed into the man's chest. While the bullet did not puncture the skin of the gunman, the security camera did catch a not so pretty picture of the incident: The bullet angled off the lock, thumping the man in the chest and knocking the air out of him causing him to vomit on the spot.

SCAM ALERT

Romance Scams

www.fbi.gov/how-we-can-help-you/scams-and-safety/common-scams-and-crimes

Romance scams occur when a criminal adopts a fake online identity to gain a victim's affection and trust. The scammer then uses the illusion of a romantic or close relationship to manipulate and/or steal from the victim.

The scammer's intention is to establish a relationship as quickly as possible, endear himself to the victim, and gain trust. Scammers may propose marriage and make plans to meet in person, but that will never happen. Eventually, they will ask for money.

If someone you meet online needs your bank account information to deposit money, they are most likely using your account to carry out other theft and fraud schemes.

Tips for Avoiding Romance Scams:

- Be careful what you post and make public online. Scammers can use details shared on social media and dating sites to better understand and target you.
- Research the person's photo and profile using online searches to see if the image, name, or details have been used elsewhere.
- Go slowly and ask lots of questions.
- Beware if the individual seems too perfect or quickly asks you to leave a dating service or social media site to communicate directly.
- Beware if the individual attempts to isolate you from friends and family or requests inappropriate photos or financial information that could later be used to extort you.
- Beware if the individual promises to meet in person but then always comes up with an excuse why he or she can't. If you haven't met the person after a few months, for whatever reason, you have good reason to be suspicious.
- Never send money to anyone you have only communicated with online or by phone.

A roadside mystery

A man was walking alongside a road when he saw a car come swishing by and run over a rabbit who was hopping across the road.

The man was surprised when the car pulled over and a man got out carrying an aerosol spray can. The driver proceeded to walk back to the rabbit, leaned over and sprayed the entire contents of the can onto the rabbit.

To the observer's great surprise, suddenly the rabbit twitched, and slowly pulled itself from the road, shaking itself as if to wake up. Then the rabbit began to make its way down the road, but after a few hops, it turned around and waved. Then the rabbit turned back to its path but it stopped again after a few steps and turned around once more and began waving wildly. The rabbit continued in this way until he disappeared over the horizon.

Befuddled and scratching his head the observer watched as the man who had sprayed the rabbit, tossed the can alongside the road and got into his car and drove away. Curious, the observer walked to the can and picked it up. The label read: For hair restoration and permanent wave. As retold from Good Clean Jokes, by Anna Kostick, Charles Foxgrover and Michael J. Pellowski.

A look into the brilliant mind of a CEO

A CEO was standing in front of a shredder looking vexed as a young executive happened by.

"Darnit, the CEO said. "This is really important and my assistant is gone. Do you know how this stupid machine works?"

"Sure," said the young executive. He turned the machine on and held the paper against the opening so that the machine grabbed on to the sheet and started to pull it through.

"This is great," said the CEO. "I just need one copy." As retold from the Office Diversions Web site.

On yoga

I was in yoga the other day. I was in full lotus position. My chakras were all aligned. My mind is cleared of all the clatter and I'm looking out of my third eye and everything that I'm supposed to be doing. It's amazing what comes up when you sit in that silence. "Mama keeps whites bright like the sunlight, Mama's got the magic of Clorox 2."

— Ellen DeGeneres

A mind to admire

He had a mind so fine that no idea could violate it.

— T.S. Eliot (on Henry James)
