Please keep in mind that office hours for Glenwood are 10:00 a.m. to 4 pm, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. The office is closed on Friday.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ENFORCEMENT

Glenwood Estates has recently experienced a large raccoon around the clubhouse that the B.O.D. had to pay to have it removed. Raccoons are here because residents are feeding their feral cats, birds, and pets outside, leaving food accessible. THIS MUST STOP NOW!

We suspect that there are residents in the Park that are violating Condo Doc 15.18: FEEDING OF WILD ANIMALS AND BIRDS.

A reminder to all residents that the feeding of wild animals and birds, including but not limited to pigeons, egrets, rabbits, opossums, feral cats, and squirrels is prohibited. Any person who violates this Rule may be subject to a fine.

ATTENTION / BUDGET REVIEW

There will be a BUDGET REVIEW meeting on Monday, September 16th at 7:00 pm in the Clubhouse. This meeting will be open for all residents who wish to attend.

Social Committee Message from the Chair

Pam Barger

Hello Glenwood Community.

I am so glad to live in this park. I can look out my window and see the beautiful lake, and puffy white clouds in the sky. Gary and I have been gone for almost a month and missed out on the storms that came through. We didn't miss the heat and humidity that we heard about.

I just want to say Thank You to everyone that has been here for the summer months, the full timers. Thank you, because of our great neighbors, we did not have to worry too much if the weather was going to damage our houses. I had many messages and phone calls from the family of neighbors that we do life with. Assuring me that the house was still standing and except for minor issues of down branches and lots of water.

We do the same for you when you are away. We keep a watchful eye on the homes and people that are here. So, I can say proudly that I love living at Glenwood and am blessed by far to call you family.

A few things coming up on the calendar are the Labor Day potluck on Sept. 2, 2024. Then as summer comes to a close, we will have our larger events: Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Watch for information on the Facebook page and posters.

I did some follow up on the pool chaise lounges that we ordered months ago and was told they are working on them and we should have them in two weeks. YAY! So, by the time you receive this Gazette, we might just have some new furniture by the pool! I Sure hope so!

Here is my Kindness Quote, I like this one. "I shall pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again." — Stephen Grellet

MADD HATTERS LUNCHEON

Jan Kearney

Madd Hatters is for all women and occurs on the first Tuesday of the month with a hostess who schedules the restaurant where the lunch will occur. These luncheons are a great way to socialize with friends in the park and to get acquainted with new neighbors.

Mary Cronin was the hostess for the July lunch at E & E Stakeout in Belleair Bluffs. We had a nice group of ladies to join us. The waitress was very attentive and the wide variety of food was very good.

We went to Sea Breeze Restaurant in August with a smaller group of ladies and everyone enjoyed the food and conversations. Mary Cronin will be our hostess in September at The Sweet Sage.

Please see the sign-up sheet for the September lunch posted on the bulletin board in the clubhouse. Hope to see you there! If you need a ride please let us know so we can assist you.

NEEDLEWORK

Barbara Strachan

The Glenwood Needlework group meets Monday mornings at 10 am. Members work on their own projects between holidays, and we offer instruction to those interested.

We also accept any yarn you may not need.

OUTDOOR SHUFFLEBOARD

Connie Ramsey

We are hopeful that the weather will be cooler in September and that we can resume playing outdoor shuffleboard! Please check the Clubhouse Bulletin Board, Glenwood website, and Glenwood Face Book pages for any updates. All are welcome to come and play!

THANK YOU NOTE

MG Duchene

The Glenwood folks who use the outdoor pool want to thank Lauren Merrifield for designing and installing the wires above the swimming pool. The ingenious design is flying high over the pool and patio. Lauren installed the metal poles strategically placed around the pool and then added strong guide wires to resist the the winds.

The sea gulls are completely foiled in their attempts to take over our pool! We watch them swoop and dive from above the trees and then turn and fly off. It is very amusing to sit and watch them. We no longer have to chase the gulls or the ducks away from the pool!

Thank you, Lauren!

SCAM

ALERT

Family Scams

Scammers are good at pretending to be someone that they're not. They try to trick you into thinking a loved one is in trouble.

Once the scammer makes you think they're your grandson and in trouble, they pressure you to quickly send them money. But it's all a scam.

Your family member was never in trouble.

- The scammer will say it's urgent and that you're the only one who can help.
- The scammer might tell you it's important to keep it secret. They don't want you talking to other family members and friends and realizing it's a scam.
- The scammers will play with your emotions. They're counting on you to act quickly to help your family or friend. And they're counting on you to pay without stopping to check out whether there's really an emergency. If you get a call like this, you can be sure this is a scam.

Slow down. Verify.

Making it up as she goes along

As a child, Ve Neill loved to scare herself by watching an old movie about a severed, murderous hand. She also loved to use makeup to transform her friends into horrible, terrifying creatures. Neill’s next-door neighbor was a makeup artist for some local television shows and used to help Neill with her Halloween costumes. She would declare passionately, “Oh, Mr. Lotito, I want to do what you do when I grow up.” Mr. Lotito, though, had little hope for her. He knew that makeup was a “man’s field” that women rarely had the opportunity to break in to.

Neill’s first professional job was working for a strange band that dressed like aliens. She dyed and styled their hair, and created their makeup and costumes. Neill found that she was great at painting faces—and incredibly patient with detail. For inspiration she attended a sci-fi convention where she ran into the man responsible for the look of the original Star Trek series. He gave her the big break she’d been waiting for—a job on a major motion picture.

Neill went on to create some of the most memorable movie characters in recent film history: Michael Keaton as Beetlejuice, Johnny Depp as Edward Scissorhands, and Robin Williams as Mrs. Doubtfire. Over her 30+-year career, Neill has won numerous international awards for her work, three Academy awards, and was recently nominated again for the Pirates of the Caribbean series.

You might say she spent a lifetime preparing for her success. A “man’s field,” indeed.

No excuses: The power of using what’s on hand

When Spanish artist Bartolomé Esteban Murillo was asked to create a series of paintings for a church in Seville, he formed a friendship with the monk who served as the cook in the refectory. The cook waited on Murillo hand and foot while the artist worked on the commission. When the artist’s work was accomplished, the cook begged Murillo for a memento—a painting just for him.

Murillo said he’d be happy to create something for his friend, but he’d exhausted every scrap of his canvas already. He had nothing to paint on.

The cook told the artist, “Never mind, sir, just take this napkin,” then offered him the linen the artist had just used at dinner. Without a second thought, Murillo took the napkin and converted it into a portrait of the Madonna and Child that glowed with life and color. The work—Virgin of the Napkin—is now thought to be one of the artist’s most beautiful and resides in the Museum of Seville in Spain.

A dream come true

A young woman once dreamed about becoming a renowned writer. She fantasized about writing things that the whole world would read and react to passionately, things that would evoke strong emotion — making people scream, cry, or howl with feeling. She now works for a software company — writing error messages.

The price of adding value

There was once a poor shoemaker whose shop was next to a fine restaurant. Every day the shoemaker would take his lunch of rice and beans out to the back of his shop, where he took great pleasure in the exquisite aromas emanating from the restaurant kitchen next door.

One day the shoemaker received an invoice from the restaurant for his lunches, and he went to speak to the manager about it.

The manager said, “You are enjoying my food while you eat, so you should pay for it!”

The shoemaker refused to pay and the restaurant sued him. The judge asked the restaurant manager for his side of the story at the hearing.

The manager said, “Every day, this shoemaker sits near our kitchen and smells our food while he eats his lunch. We are adding value to his simple meal, and we should be paid for it.”

The judge then asked the shoemaker for his side of the story.

The shoemaker said nothing, but stuck his hand in his pocket and rattled around the change he had inside.

“What is the meaning of that?” asked the judge.

The shoemaker answered, “I’m paying for the smell of his food with the sound of my money.”

What to do (and not do) after a car accident

No one ever plans to be in a car accident, but unfortunately many of us will find ourselves involved in one some day. Here's what you should do if you're in an accident, according to the Better Business Bureau:

1. Don't leave the scene.
2. If there are injuries, call for medical assistance and provide basic first aid.
3. Call law enforcement if needed. Once the officer arrives, when appropriate get the officer's name and police station address.
4. Ask for the case number, when the accident report will be filed, and how to get a copy.
5. Take careful note of the following:
 - Date and time of the accident
 - Street and city
 - Weather and road conditions
 - Direction and speed you and other travelers were going
 - Description of how the accident occurred
 - The numbers of the license plate, driver's license, and insurance policy of each driver involved

You may like blue potatoes, but stay away from the green ones

Most people have seen their potatoes turn strange colors of green, but few likely understand the chemistry of what's going on with the tubers.

The leaves, stems, and sprouts of potatoes contain high levels of compounds called glycoalkaloids (usually solanine and chaconine), which are toxic to humans. These compounds are part of the plant's natural defenses against fungi and insects, and are also present in small amounts in the potato's flesh and skin.

However, those small amounts can increase with improper handling and storage. When potatoes are exposed to light, they turn green because of increased levels of chlorophyll—which can also indicate higher levels of solanine and chaconine. According to researchers at the University of California–Davis, cooking does not destroy these compounds, so it's best to cut away any green areas before cooking. When buying potatoes, it's good to keep in mind that potatoes marketed in a well-lighted retail display can show dramatic increases of glycoalkaloids after just 24 hours: Solanine doubles at a temperature of 45°F, quadruples at 60°F, and is nine times greater at 75°F. So your best bet is to buy potatoes that are marketed in opaque plastic film or paper bags and have been kept in cool environments.
