September Unusual Facts

September's name is really quite inaccurate these days. It was originally the seventh month of the ancient Roman calendar, and as such it was named Septem, which translates into "the seventh month". It wasn't until 451 BC that the months of January and February were added to the calendar, making September the ninth month.

September also used to only have 29 days. Thanks to Julius Caesar's reform of the Roman calendar in 46 BC the month now has an additional day!

The Romans would quite often associate different months with different gods. The month of September is associated with Vulcan, the Roman god of fire, quite possibly because it was a fiery hot month back when it was the seventh month of the year.

In the year 1752, the British Empire skipped 11 days of September, between the 2nd and 14th. This was actually due to another calendar change, although this time it was when the British Empire changed from the Julian calendar to the Gregorian calendar.

Back in the days of the Anglo-Saxons September used to be called Gerst Monath, which translates into "barley month". It was given this name because it was the time of year that the barley crop was harvested, and it was a special time as they brewed a popular drink out of it.

The Anglo-Saxons had another name for September too, which was Haefest Monath. This is a particularly interesting one as this translates into harvest month, and our modern-day usage of the word harvest originates from this name!

September begins on the same day of the week of just one other month, December. While it shares the first day, the month does not end on the same day of the week as any other month.

SCAM

Family Scams

Scammers are good at pretending to be someone that they're not. They try to trick you into thinking a loved one is in trouble.

Once the scammer makes you think they're your grandson and in trouble, they pressure you to quickly send them money. But it's all a scam.

Your family member was never in trouble.

- The scammer will say it's urgent and that you're the only one who can help.
- The scammer might tell you it's important to keep it secret. They don't want you talking to other family members and friends and realizing it's a scam.
- The scammers will play with your emotions. They're counting on you to act quickly to help your family or friend. And they're counting on you to pay without stopping to check out whether there's really an emergency. If you get a call like this, you can be sure this is a scam.

Slow down. Verify.

Example of a Family Emergency Scam Call

Hi Grandpa, it's me.

Sebastian? Is that you?

Yes, it's me, Sebastian. Grandpa, I'm in trouble, and I need money for bail.

What happened?

Please don't tell Mom or Dad. I'll get in so much trouble.

Please help me!

Me and the pool

After living here for 2.5 years, I finally did something I had been threatening to do since I moved in.. I went to the pool!!! And it was beautiful. It was so nice in fact, that I have started going every day that I can. This has had repercussions like having to buy new bathing suits and a cover up to go back and forth and save the world at large from the sight of me in a bathing suit. Lol.

I actually went to the pool to exercise and use the resistance to enhance my routine. It is amazing the difference and I am having so much fun. One reason is the music playing and I sing along and dance in the water. I do apologize to whoever is there that has to listen to me sing... if you heard me you would understand the need to apologize. I do warn people up front about the possibility of bursting into song. I always know the refrain and sometimes some of the words too!!

Friends have suggested that I use water weights and gloves and that is a wonderful idea that I plan to introduce when I have built up some kind of muscle. I think I will wait rather than overdo it. Slow and steady is my motto.

My body has come alive .. like. Wow.. you remembered me and are loving me again. It is an awesome feeling.. like new life is flowing throughout my body.

So for the first time in years I am actively doing something to enhance my physical conditioning and it feels wonderful. I plan on turning the clock backwards so I can hit my eighties in tip top condition. That's why I've started now at 78!! I want to begin my next decade in far better shape than I started this one.

Sadly I cannot use my fitbit in the water so I cannot track my actual exercise impact that way but I do log my time in the pool each day. I am so excited that there is finally enough of me available to do this for me. The scale is going up instead of down right now and I will go along with the old adage that I am making muscle and it weighs more than fat. So more salads and less carbs will be in my future too.

This us like a whole new beginning for me and I can't wait to see where it takes me. I plan on my 80s being better than my 50s.

- 1. Secure your Facebook account with a strong password and two-factor authentication

Avoid including your name, phone number, email address or common words. Don't reuse your Facebook password on other services online, and never share your password with others.

- 2. Don't accept friend requests from people you don't know

Scammers may create fake accounts in an attempt to friend and manipulate people.

Things that happened in September....

September

September 1, 1715: Louis XIV, known as the Sun King, died at the age of 76, after ruling France since the age of five. He was succeeded by Louis XV and Louis XVI, who was executed during the French Revolution in 1789, thus ending the reign of monarchical rule in France.

September 1, 1939: In the early morning hours of this day, Hitler invaded Poland, starting World War II in Europe. Der Führer called the move a "defensive" retaliation against the persecution of Germans in Poland.

September 2, 1666, was a terrible time for the city of London. A raging fire broke out within the older section of the city, completely destroying all it touched within the ancient Roman walls. It was believed to have started in a bakery and took three days to put out. What's most surprising about this tragedy is that there were only 6 recorded deaths!

September 5, 1774: The 1st Continental Congress was called to order. Comprised of delegates from all 13 American colonies, it served as the governing body during the American Revolution, from 1774 to 1789. Two years later, on September 9, it changed the name of the United Colonies to the United States.

September 5th, 1961: President John F. Kennedy signed a hijacking bill, making air piracy a federal crime. Punishment ranged from a $10,000 fine to 20 years in prison; if a deadly weapon was used, the perpetrator(s) could receive life in prison or even death.

September 8, 1974: President Gerald Ford gave an unconditional pardon to former president Richard M. Nixon, for his role in the infamous "Watergate" fiasco.

September 9, 2006: Typhoon Ketsana hit the Philippines, China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, and Thailand, resulting in 750 fatalities and over $1.09 billion in damages.

September 11, 2001, changed the shape of the world forever. It was on this fateful day that the worst terrorist attack on US soil happened when four commercial airliners were hijacked. Two of the planes were flown straight into the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center, and another was crashed into the Pentagon. The fourth plane crash-landed into a field in Pennsylvania after the passengers of the flight attempted to regain control of the plane from the terrorists.

September 14, 1901: President William McKinley was shot while attending the Buffalo Pan-American Exposition in New York. He passed away eight days later.

September 17th 1787 is an incredibly important day for the US, as it was on this day in 1787 that the US Constitution was adopted. If it weren't for the Constitution the US could be an incredibly different country today, with far fewer civil liberties!

September 25, 1690 is the date that the first newspaper to ever be put into print in the US was published on. The paper was called Publick Occurrences Both Foreign and Domestick and was published in Boston.
