HOA

Yvonne D'Angelo, President

Happy October!!! The days seem to pass quickly this time of year and the holidays are right around the corner. Our friends and neighbors are returning from their summer travels and we welcome everyone back to our little piece of paradise. A reminder to those returning...we still have two more months of hurricane season and there is information available at the clubhouse on storm preparedness. Our next HOA Meeting will be on Monday, October 14th at 7 p.m. at the clubhouse. We will have updates for you on what has been happening in our community as well as information on upcoming events. October will be busy with the carport sale, craft fair, Halloween golf cart parade and dance. We look forward to seeing all the Fall and “spooky” decorations that adorn our homes at this time of year.

Residents Club

Mark Zanol, President

Summer has come to an end, and fall is near. Welcome back to all our snowbirds, and hope you had a great summer. We have a full fall schedule of events for our Residents, which start on October's calendar and will continue for the rest of the year. Debbie Phillips has been appointed Nominating Chairperson, who's primary responsibility will be to prepare a slate of candidates to serve for calendar year 2025. Please let Debbie know if you are interested in serving on the Board of Directors next year. Debbie's number is 716-602-2494. At the November meeting, Debbie will present the slate of candidates to the Community. A special thank you to Pat Goodacre for donating an awesome TV to the Residents Club.

Community In-Reach

Jill Chambers

A luncheon will be held at the clubhouse October 3 starting at 12 o'clock. This will be free to all residents, and is focusing on updates to Medicare for 2025. This is being presented by the local medical community. We share no information about residents in our park. If you have not signed up on the bulletin board and would still like to come text me at 440-318-4738 with name, lot number and how many people.

Bingo

Sunday Bingo is expected to resume October 6th.

Activities

Marianne Olson

Happy Fall! Finally, the weather we've been longing for is here. Welcome back Snowbirds, we have missed you!

Thank you to everyone for coming out to the Coffee and Donuts, Glow dance party, Meet and Greet/Ice Cream Socials, Labor Day picnic and our Light Breakfast. The light breakfast was very popular with both croissant and English muffin sandwiches, as well as home fries and fresh fruit cups. Served on china and combined with hot food it generated lots of very favorable comments. October's breakfast will again focus on hot food with a touch of class. We expect everyone enjoyed Septembers Country Hoe Down and Line Dancing.

Yvonne D'Angelo

The Oakcrest/Acorn Fall carport sale will be Saturday, October 12th from 8 a.m. – 1 p.m. No early birds, please! The rain date will be Sunday the 13th. Acorn residents can set up outside the clubhouse to improve their visibility. Tables are available to borrow. You can sign one out on Thursday evening between 5 and 6 p.m. These old-school tables are VERY heavy. They must be returned on Sunday afternoon, between 3-4 p.m.

Holiday Craft Fair

Jill DiMaggio

Crafters! Crafters! Crafters! Get busy crafting and reserve or space for the 3rd annual craft fair being held October 19, 2024 at the Oakcrest/Acorn clubhouse. We have room for about 30 vendors and the cost for an 8-foot table is $15.00. Please contact Jill DiMaggio at 443.741.5304 to reserve a table and complete a vendor contract. Please leave a message with your contact information if she is unavailable and Jill will get back to you as soon as possible. We will be advertising local and expect a great turnout as we had had in previous years. All are welcome to participate in the Craft Club on Friday mornings from 9 am to 12 pm and on Tuesday evenings from 6 pm to 8 pm. Come with or without a craft idea – maybe someone will be doing something you would like to learn!

October Crossword

Did You Know?

Halloween used to be called All Hallows' Eve. All Hallow's Day, also known as All Saints day, was a Christian festival. It was a day to remember the dead, especially saints. This is where Halloween came from - it was originally All Hallows' Eve (the day before All Hallow's Day). This then turned into Hallowe'en and is now just known as Halloween.

How acupuncture works

More people in the mainstream are turning to alternative health therapies, and one of the most popular alternative therapies is acupuncture. For instance, St. Vincent's Hospital in Manhattan, a health care organization that serves nearly 600,000 patients each year, and The Chinese Medical Science Foundation, a non-profit organization whose mission is to integrate acupuncture with the Western medical system, have paired to provide acupuncture to rehabilitation patients. St. Vincent's rehab patients will now have access to free acupuncture treatments through the pro-gram, according to a news story on Acupuncture.com. The purpose of the program is to study and assess the benefits and problems with integrating acupuncture into a Western medical facility.

The National Health Institute's National Center for Complementary and Alternative medicine says that acupuncture originated in China more than 2,000 years ago and is one of the oldest and most common medical procedures in existence. A 2002 survey found that an estimated 8.2 million U.S. adults had ever used acupuncture, and 2.1 million U.S. adults used acupuncture in 2001.

And so with the growing popularity of acupuncture, many people may be asking the question: Just what is acupuncture and how does it work? According to The Longevity Center of Classical Chinese Medicine, this is how acupuncture works:

It strengthens the immune system by increasing T-cell counts. Some people believe this is why the treatment is effective for those who suffer from chronic fatigue syndrome.

It releases pain-killing endorphins, which also play a big role in the functioning of the hormonal system. This is why acupuncture often works well for those who suffer from back pain, arthritis, ulcers and PMS.

It releases endorphins, which helps the whole body to relax. The endorphins also regulate serotonin in the brain, which can affect moods, and which is why some forms of depression are treatable by acupuncture.

It breaks the cycles of muscle spasm, which can cause tightness in the muscles and unrelenting pain. Acupuncture increases circulation to the affected areas, which delivers needed nutrients for nerve and muscle healing.

It balances the energy of our bodies.

Acupuncture needles are as thin as human hair and once inserted are left in for an average of 20 to 40 minutes. Acupuncturists should use packaged sets of disposable needles.

Average treatments can run from one to 10 visits.

Acupuncture has no known side effects and does not usually cause pain.

To choose a qualified acupuncturist, you should check his or her credentials. Some national acupuncture organizations make lists available on their Web sites.

On mood

Never do anything when you are in a temper, for you will do everything wrong.

— Baltasar Gracian

You know you're having a bad day when...

1. You wake up face down on the pavement.
2. You see a 60 Minutes news team waiting in your office.
3. Your birthday cake collapses from the weight of the candles.
4. You want to put on the clothes you wore home from the office party and there aren't any.
5. You turn on the news and they're showing emergency routes out of the city.
6. Your twin sister forgot your birthday.
7. Your car horn goes off accidentally and remains stuck as you follow a group of Hell's Angels on the freeway.
8. Your boss tells you not to bother to take off your coat.
9. The bird singing outside your window is a buzzard.
10. You wake up and your braces are locked together.
11. You walk to work and find your dress is stuck in the back of your panty hose.
12. Your blind date turns out to be your ex.
13. Your paycheck bounces.
14. You put both contact lenses in the same eye.
15. Your pet rock snaps at you. — adapted from the Comedy Central Web site

Late to work? This solution's a real pill

John was always late to work. His boss was getting fed up, but John told him that he didn't know why, but he just couldn't seem to get up on time to get to work. The boss was an understanding man and suggested that John see his doctor to find out if there was some kind of physical problem.

So John went to the doctor and told him that no matter what he couldn't seem to get up on time for work. The doctor gave him a pill and told him to take it before he went to bed. So John went home and took the pill.

When John woke up he noticed that he was two hours ahead of schedule. He felt great, so he got up showered and arrived at work well before starting time.

"Boss," he said, "that pill that the doctor prescribed for me actually worked."

"That's great," said the boss, "but where were you yesterday?" — adapted from AhaJokes.com

SCAM

Family Scams

Scammers are good at pretending to be someone that they're not. They try to trick you into thinking a loved one is in trouble.

Once the scammer makes you think they're your grandson and in trouble, they pressure you to quickly send them money. But it's all a scam.

Your family member was never in trouble.

- The scammer will say it's urgent and that you're the only one who can help.
- The scammer might tell you it's important to keep it secret. They don't want you talking to other family members and friends and realizing it's a scam.
- The scammers will play with your emotions. They're counting on you to act quickly to help your family or friend. And they're counting on you to pay without stopping to check out whether there's really an emergency. If you get a call like this, you can be sure this is a scam.

Slow down. Verify.

Quotable Humor

On competence

Competence, like truth, beauty and contact lenses, is in the eye of the beholder.

— Laurence J. Peter

On happiness

Happiness is an agreeable sensation, arising from contemplating the misery of others.

— Ambrose Bierce

Let us all be happy, and live within our means, even if we have to borrow the money to do it with.

— Artemus Ward

If you ever find happiness by hunting for it, you will find it as the old woman did her lost spectacles. Safe on her own nose all the time.

— Josh Billings

On being liked

I told my psychiatrist that everyone hates me. He said I was being ridiculous—everyone hasn't met me yet.

— Rodney Dangerfield

I can win an argument on any topic, against any opponent. People know this, and steer clear of me at parties. Often, as a sign of their great respect, they don't even invite me.

— Dave Barry

On being young

You can only be young once but you can be immature forever.

— Dave Barry

A profound thought

If toast always lands butter-side down, and cats always land on their feet, what happens if you strap toast on the back of a cat and drop it?

— Stephen Wright

On children

There are few things more satisfying than seeing your children have teenagers of their own.

— Doug Larson

The trouble with children is that they're not returnable.

— Quentin Crisp

On changing times

On cable TV they have a weather channel—24 hours of weather. We had something like that where I grew up. We called it a window.

— Dan Spencer

Your financial life is an expression of your thoughts

According to millionaire businessman and self-help author Brian Tracy, in his article “Develop a prosperity consciousness” on the Woopidoo! Web site, if you want to be a financial success, you have to develop a prosperity consciousness. In order to do this, Tracy says you have to really believe that you can achieve your financial goals. He says this is the first step on your path to financial independence.

Tracy says you have to understand that all causation is mental, and that your life is an expression of the accumulation of your thoughts over time. He also says that you have to develop an awareness of the law of expectations. He says this is the idea that whatever you truly expect to happen will happen, so if you expect to be rewarded for using your talents in the world, then you will be. And this will become what your reality is.

Tracy recommends that you stay positive about your personal success, and look for the good in every situation. Even when you experience setbacks and rough patches, trying to seek out what is valuable in the experience will keep you on the path of prosperity on which you have embarked.

How to dig your way out of credit card debt

It can happen fast. You’re running short on cash and you decide to use your credit card, and when the bill comes due you’re still short on cash, so you pay the minimum payment and you continue to use your card to offset your cash shortages. This is a common American dilemma—and one that can grow into a big problem unless you take control.

You may already have accumulated debt on several cards, and if you have, don’t waste time and energy beating yourself up over it. It’s done. You have the debt. Now you have to take steps to eliminate it, or it will be there for a very long time, stealing away your energy and financial freedom.

So when you find yourself mired in credit card debt, the first thing you need to do is stop using credit cards altogether. Commit yourself to not using them—even when you feel like you’re going to run short. You’re going to have to break your dependence and reestablish some self-discipline. Get the scissors and cut up the cards, (saving one for real emergencies). That way you won’t be tempted to use them when the going gets rough.

Now sit down and look at your credit cards. Figure out what the interest rates are on each one, and when you have determined which one charges the highest rate, then you know that you are going to target paying that credit card off first. Continue to make the mini-mum payments on all your other cards, but scrape together as much as you can to pay more than the limit on your highest card. Once you get this card paid off, then start on the one charging the next highest rate until you have freed yourself.

It may seem impossible to you now, but it’s not. You can get yourself out of debt. But you have to develop self-discipline and follow a strategy to get it done.
