FROM THE EDITOR

By Donna Collins

Well, October was a quite a month. To all of you who stayed in the park or evacuated, I am so relieved that you managed to stay safe. I feel so badly for all who have had damage and hope that everything will be cleaned up and repaired as quickly as possible.

On behalf of all Snowbirds, I cannot thank all the permanent residents enough for doing clean up, posting pictures and keeping us informed.

As you will notice, many regular articles have not available in time for the November deadline. Thank goodness for Facebook and the community bulletin boards. Please share the notices and information posted on FB and on these notice boards around the Park.

I wish for all of you a better November, enjoy the events that will happen and have a wonderful Thanksgiving.

CASCADE SOCIAL CLUB, INC.

By Sue Desnoyers,

PRESIDENT'S NEWSLETTER FOR NOVEMBER

Hello fellow Clearwater Cascade friends, neighbors, and family. Boy, does it feel good to be able to say that. Before Hurricane Milton came ashore, it was very scary if there would be a community to return to. I don't know about the rest of you, but I am more than ready for this hurricane season to be finished. Upon publication of this month's Chronicle, it looks like we have fared better than most. I am thankful for all we have and the opportunity to come together another year.

Ticket sales will start on Wednesday, November 6th, in the Library from 10 AM to 12 Noon and on every Wednesday thereafter until the season ends the last of March. We will post once again, the list of upcoming events so you can get prepared for the special nights. There may be a date change for the horse races. We will keep you posted as soon as possible. Hope to see all of your smiling faces in whatever capacity we find ourselves. Until... later. 😊

LIBRARY & BOOK TALK

By Ann Vetter

I hope everyone has had a nice summer. Our first Book Talk for the season will be November 9 at 11:00. We will meet the second Saturday of each month at 11:00 through March.

There is no special book to read, come to share what you've read or to hear about books you may enjoy. We often share audiobooks or movies as well.

Happy Reading,
Ann Vetter

THANKSGIVING

By Cindy Herbert

As I write this, I know Canadians are celebrating their Thanksgiving now, but we are in the thick of Hurricane Milton. We have been blessed to have a community that comes together to help one another when we are going through life. Let's get together to give thanks on November 28th @ 1:00 pm for a Thanksgiving dinner in the clubhouse. Turkey and all the fixings free to all.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

SCAM ! ALERT

Romance Scams

www.fbi.gov/how-we-can-help-you/scams-and-safety/common-scams-and-crimes

Romance scams occur when a criminal adopts a fake online identity to gain a victim's affection and trust. The scammer then uses the illusion of a romantic or close relationship to manipulate and/or steal from the victim.

The scammer's intention is to establish a relationship as quickly as possible, endear himself to the victim, and gain trust. Scammers may propose marriage and make plans to meet in person, but that will never happen. Eventually, they will ask for money.

If someone you meet online needs your bank account information to deposit money, they are most likely using your account to carry out other theft and fraud schemes.

Tips for Avoiding Romance Scams:

- Be careful what you post and make public online. Scammers can use details shared on social media and dating sites to better understand and target you.
- Research the person's photo and profile using online searches to see if the image, name, or details have been used elsewhere.
- Go slowly and ask lots of questions.
- Beware if the individual seems too perfect or quickly asks you to leave a dating service or social media site to communicate directly.
- Beware if the individual attempts to isolate you from friends and family or requests inappropriate photos or financial information that could later be used to extort you.
- Beware if the individual promises to meet in person but then always comes up with an excuse why he or she can't. If you haven't met the person after a few months, for whatever reason, you have good reason to be suspicious.
- Never send money to anyone you have only communicated with online or by phone.

A riddle about something that can make or break you

As a 24, year old, John Di Lemme, was a stutterer. He worked in his family’s art gallery and dreamed of becoming a world-renowned motivational speaker. Di Lemma remained committed to his dream and over a seven-year period full of many hardships, overcame 24 years of stuttering, finally amassed a marketing team of more than 25,000 representatives in 10 countries and made his dream come true.

In his article titled “I am a habit,” on GetMotivation.com, Di Lemma says habits can make you or break you in the world. Here’s a definition of a habit Di Lemma says one of his good friends sent to him one day:

I am your constant companion.
I am your greatest helper or your heaviest burden.
I will push you onward or drag you down to failure.
I am completely at your command.
Half the things you do, you might just as well turn over to me,
And I will be able to do them quickly and correctly.
I am easily managed; you must merely be firm with me.
Show me exactly how you want something done, and after a few lessons I will do it automatically.

I am the servant of all great men.
And, alas, of all failures as well.
Those who are great, I have made great.
Those who are failures, I have made failures.
I am not a machine, though I work with all the precision of a machine.
Plus, the intelligence of man.
You may run me for profit, or run me for ruin; it makes no difference to me.
Take me, train me, be firm with me and I will put the world at your feet.
Be easy with me, and I will destroy you.
Who am I?

I am a HABIT!

Let us be thankful for the fools. But for them the rest of us could not succeed.
— Mark Twain

Each day offers us the gift of being a special occasion if we can simply learn that as well as giving, it is blessed to receive with grace and a grateful heart.
