SCAM

ALERT

Romance Scams

www.fbi.gov/how-we-can-help-you/scams-and-safety/common-scams-and-crimes

Romance scams occur when a criminal adopts a fake online identity to gain a victim's affection and trust. The scammer then uses the illusion of a romantic or close relationship to manipulate and/or steal from the victim.

The scammer's intention is to establish a relationship as quickly as possible, endear himself to the victim, and gain trust. Scammers may propose marriage and make plans to meet in person, but that will never happen. Eventually, they will ask for money.

If someone you meet online needs your bank account information to deposit money, they are most likely using your account to carry out other theft and fraud schemes.

Tips for Avoiding Romance Scams:

- Be careful what you post and make public online. Scammers can use details shared on social media and dating sites to better understand and target you.
- Research the person's photo and profile using online searches to see if the image, name, or details have been used elsewhere.
- Go slowly and ask lots of questions.
- Beware if the individual seems too perfect or quickly asks you to leave a dating service or social media site to communicate directly.
- Beware if the individual attempts to isolate you from friends and family or requests inappropriate photos or financial information that could later be used to extort you.
- Beware if the individual promises to meet in person but then always comes up with an excuse why he or she can't. If you haven't met the person after a few months, for whatever reason, you have good reason to be suspicious.
- Never send money to anyone you have only communicated with online or by phone.

What to say about that ‘special’ gift

1. Hey! There’s a gift!
2. Well, well, well ...
3. Boy, if I had not recently shot up four sizes that would’ve fit.
4. This is perfect for wearing around the basement.
5. Gosh. I hope this never catches fire! It is fire season though. There are lots of unexplained fires.
6. If the dog buries it, I’ll be furious!
7. I love it—but I fear the jealousy it will inspire.
8. Sadly, tomorrow I enter the Federal Witness Protection Program.
9. To think—this is the year I vowed to give all my gifts to charity.
10. I really don’t deserve this. —From the Internet

Some things we must do alone

Once there was a monk who had studied Zen for many years but had been unable to discover any secrets through his efforts. The monk began to lose heart and question whether there really was anything to discover or learn after all. He was very discouraged. One day he was sent on an errand to a distant city that he reckoned would take him at least six months to complete. He feared that making the trip would be a hindrance to his studies and prevent even the possibility of experiencing a breakthrough and discovering some great truth that remained hidden from him.

He shared his anxieties with a fellow monk, who said, “There is no reason you cannot continue your meditation while you travel. Friend, I will go with you and give you help in every way I can.”

One evening while they were traveling together the monk who was seeking the answers to the mysteries of life said to his friend, “Can you not help me with finding these answers?”

“Friend, I am willing to help you in any way I can, but there are some things I cannot help you with; these things you must look after yourself.”

“What are these things I must find out?” the discouraged monk implored.

“For instance,” the sympathetic monk said, “When you are hungry or thirsty, my eating of food or drinking will not fill your stomach; you must eat and drink for yourself. No one else can satisfy your needs for these things but yourself.”

The words of the sympathetic monk opened the mind of the discouraged monk, and he was overjoyed. The sympathetic monk looked at his friend and said, “My work is done here,” and he left the other to continue on his journey alone.

While we all want, need and deserve help along the way, some things we simply have to do for ourselves. — adapted from An Introduction to Zen Buddhism, by D.T. Suzuki
