FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Barry Porter

Season's Greetings Neighbors
We have been busy the last month or so.

SOCIAL

- ❖ Cindy Herbert once again did a marvelous job for our residents with her generous Thanksgiving dinner.
- ❖ Jane Boucher honored Jack Moore along with all veterans at the Veterans BBQ.
- ❖ Our Craft and Bake Sale was once again a big success thanks to Jane Boucher and Maddy Haber.
- ❖ Now, as we start into January, we have the fun Social Club events that have been planned for us for the next few months, starting with the successful "kick off" breakfast.

We are so lucky to have these volunteers and all of the crews who assist them in their efforts. Well done to all of you and thank you on behalf of the Board of Directors.

CANAL PROJECT

By the time you read this message, you will have received a letter of explanation from your Board of Directors giving you a summary of the status of the Canal project. Please take the time to review carefully as it is very important that our residents understand the parameters that the Board must work within.

If you have any concerns or questions, please feel free to contact me directly. I would be happy to go over the project with you on a one-to-one basis.

ANNUAL MEETING

Our Annual meeting is coming up on January 15th. This meeting gives you a recap of the year's events, reports the Election outcome and seats the new Board of Directors. Do your best to attend this important meeting.

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

By Bobbi Gumm, CMCA, AMS

Happy New Year! – Wow, another year has passed so quickly! I wish all our residents good health and happiness for 2025!

Office Closure – The business office will be closed Wednesday, January 1st for the New Year's Holiday.

Swimming Pool Temperature – I want to remind residents, after a few days of cooler temperatures, the geothermal system will take longer to heat the swimming pools. The more consecutive cooler days we have, the longer it will take for the pools to reach the optimum 85 degrees.

Seasonal Residents – Please remember to check in at the office when you arrive. If you cannot stop by the office, then please call or email the office.

Homeowner Files – Some of the items the office keeps in the homeowner files are:

1. Copy of title to the home
2. Copy of homeowners insurance
3. Current emergency contact form

If you have not turned these into the office, please do so.

Trees – One of the attractions of Clearwater Cascade are all the beautiful trees. A committee was formed to replace trees that have been removed from the common areas. You may be seeing some new trees being replaced in the common areas very soon.

Speeding and signs – We have many residents that walk and bike through the community and one common complaint the office receives is speeding and not stopping at stop signs. In the interest of safety, please take special care to keep your speed down and obey the stop signs.

Save the Date - Annual Carport Sale – The Carport Sale is set for Saturday, February 15th, so start getting your items together that you may want to sell.

Volunteers – I just wanted to acknowledge all the volunteers that help throughout the year. Without them, the community wouldn't run as smoothly as it does. Thank you so much for being a support to the office and the association!

Looking forward to an amazing new year!

FROM THE EDITOR

By Donna Collins

HAPPY NEW YEAR everyone. A quarter of a century gone with its ups and downs, joys and sorrows, good weather and very bad weather, more technology changes than we could ever imagine, and we won't even mention all the political and religious upheavals worldwide. One can only imagine what will be in store during the next 25 years. When a group of residents got together and bought the Park and set up the HOA almost 50 years ago, they could not even imagine what it would be like today. There have been great times, some stumbling blocks, and many changes all handled by the residents and a management company. The demographics are constantly changing to try to accommodate everyone's ideas. This is not always easy as any community knows but things are never boring. I am sure that this year will be as challenging and wonderful as ever.

May this year, 2025, be a happy, healthy, and safe year for you, your family, and friends.

CASCADE SOCIAL CLUB, INC.

By Sue Desnoyers,

Happy New Year friends, family, and neighbors. I hope everyone had a joyous and blessed Christmas. A big thank you to all the wonderful people who helped with the December breakfast, holiday celebration, and table potluck dance. I know we are busy but we are not finished yet.

January is shaping up to be another busy month. Saturday, January 4th is breakfast with Chris Becker and her amazing crew at 9AM. Tickets are $7.00 a person. Then on the 18th Gaye Karges and friends will be serving free coffee and donuts. To round out the month, there is a Flower Power dinner/dance. Tickets are $12.00 a person. Dinner is at 6:00PM and the music starts at 7:00PM. Stay tuned for the February lineup of activities.

COMMITTEES

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

By Debbie Creighton & Maddy Haber

HAPPY NEW YEAR! Time seems to go so fast. Be sure to enjoy all your park has to offer. The Committee had another successful year with our three major fund-raising events. We have all of you to thank for supporting us...Thank You.

We have added a new member to our committee...Marcia Manzi. Marcia has always helped with our events and we are lucky to have her. Marcia will take over the task of coordinating the annual Craft Fair.

Our two remaining events are the Park Carport Sale and Fla-Ming Cha-Ching.

Park Carport Sale - February 15, 2025: Louise Parker will again coordinate this event, and we will set up in the Clubhouse. You are welcome to have your own sale. We will again be providing a map to buyers showing where all park sales are being held. Just text Louise your lot number. Please donate your unwanted clean items for this event. What a great way to get rid of all that “stuff” you don’t need or want. Call Louise, 902-488-3937, with any questions. Storage space is at a minimum, so we ask that you hold onto any large items until we can pick them up closer to the sale. No large appliances accepted.

Fla-Ming Cha-Ching – March 22, 2025: This is a fun afternoon event with prizes and a chance to sit at the pool and relax with a cool drink. Flamingos will be sold in the library starting December 11 and every Wednesday from 10:00 am to noon. Watch for flyers with additional information. If you are unable to come to the library, give Maddy a call, 412-716-2129, and she will come to you.

Don’t forget to try out our new shuffleboard table located in the Clubhouse. Let us know of any ideas you may have that we can purchase for the park to make your time here more pleasurable. That’s all folks!

LIBRARY & BOOK TALK

By Ann Vetter

I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday season. We have three remaining Book Talk meetings for the season. They are January 11, February 8, and March 8, all at 11:00 in the Library. There is no special book to read, we gather to share what we have been reading or to hear about books others have enjoyed. We discuss other media as well including audiobooks, movies and series on streaming services. We all enjoy a good story, whatever the format. As always there is a lot of great conversation.

VOLUNTEERS

By Jane Boucher

On November 11, 2024, we held the annual Veterans' Day Cookout in memory of Lieutenant Colonel Jack Moore. Sadly, Jack passed away early that morning. It warmed our hearts to see so many of our fellow Veterans and neighbors come out especially to honor Jack and we will continue both the Memorial Day and the Veterans' Day events in his honor. Jack's sole purpose for hosting these two events was to reach out to and help his fellow brothers and sisters in arms, especially those who served/are serving in combat areas. He spent countless hours each week reaching out to them, helping them through their strife with the experiences they went, and continue to go through to serve our country proudly.

Lieutenant Colonel Jack Moore March 7, 1941 to November 11, 2024

Jack Moore was born and raised in Sarasota, Florida on March 7, 1941 and was the oldest with two sisters: Suzanne and Barbara. While playing football in college in Maryville, Tennessee he decided to make a life change and went back home to Sarasota. He worked for farmers in the area, partying with friends and spending too much time at the beach. He started reflecting on how his granddaddy, in Jacksonville, Florida, used to dress him up in khaki shirts and shorts in Ft Gordon where his grandma and granddaddy took care of guest houses on the base. Little Jack loved hanging out with all those big soldiers at the pool and being their bat boy. Those soldiers made a big impression on that kid, and it didn't take Jack long to decide to sign up. Wanting to jump out of airplanes was all he wanted to do, and he'd go anywhere they sent him.

Jack joined the Army as a Private (E1) in July, 1963. He learned the ropes early and got out of KP duty by volunteering to donate his blood. He was assigned to jump school, then on to special forces school at Ft. Bragg. His initial training, ONI course, was at Ft Hollenberg, Maryland, then back to Ft. Bragg for operations. Okinawa Japan was his first duty station where he earned the call sign of Scarecrow.

May 5, 1965, while with the 173rd Regiment, Jack volunteered as a Non-Commission Officer (NCO) to go to Vietnam with Charlie Company 2nd Battalion 503rd Airborne Infantry. In September they were shipped to Beinh Hoa Vietnam. December 18, 1965, they were hunting two phantom Vietcong (VC) regiments all day long. Their Battalion Commander had set them up as a Night Defensive Position (NDP). They walked artillery back to provide an escape route for the radio telegraph operators (RTOs). Jack got hit with shrapnel from an RPG and got shot in the leg. A chopper took him out of there, but fortunately the pilot noticed his leg bleeding profusely and turned the chopper back so he could tie off the artery. This totally saved Jack's life. He was medevacked back to Walter Reed Hospital, where he spent more than a year recovering. The surgeon was able to put in a pin to stabilize his leg, but had to remove his spleen, which meant Jack would not be able to go back into combat. Later he was able to find a work-around, again, knowing how to work the system. While he was in Ft Benning, Jack had recently married and became good friends with the Company Commander. When Jack went back home to Sarasota to recuperate, they enjoyed hosting the Company Commander and his wife for Christmas with them.

Jack found his way to get back into combat...he got sent down to Airborne, at the rank of E6, still wanting to jump out of airplanes, doing water jumps at Eglin Air Force Base in the western Florida panhandle.

Ft. Hollenberg, Maryland, Jack served as a Counterintelligence Agent in the Army and they shipped him to Germany watching over the Soviets and their satellites. Jack volunteered to go back to Vietnam and joined the 101st Airborne Division at Camp Eagle, just south-east of Huê in Central Vietnam. He was liaison between recruiting and setting up intelligence. The VC came through for the first time since the Tet Offensive. They called the 101st for support and illumination. During this time Jack was promoted to 2nd Lieutenant and was sent to Nha Trang and took over one of the quick reaction forces. They were sent in as a hatchet team, led by Sgt Mack Johnson, aka Bambi, to set up booby traps and Jack's team went in to give fire power support and this proved to be the hottest skirmish of Jack's career. Bambi got a direct hit to his head and Jack made sure they brought Bambi's body out. The Air Force jolly green giant came in to drop off supplies and thankfully they took Bambi's body out of the combat zone. It took Jack's team 22 grueling days to walk out of Cambodia.

Jack returned to the United States after completing his 2nd & 3rd tours back-to-back in Vietnam. Stateside he was stationed at Ft. Benning as the Infantry Officer Basic Training, helping others prepare for combat.

Jack proudly served in the United States Army from 1963 to 1995, 31 years, six months and six days, starting as a Private (E1) working his way up through the ranks to Lieutenant Colonel (O-5).

Thank you, Jack Moore, for your service to our country and for leading the Clearwater Cascade Veterans' Group for the past three years. You've set the bar high, and we will carry on in your memory. Come meet our fellow Veterans on the First Sunday of each month at 3:00 PM in our Library.

Saturday, November 16, 2024 we held our Annual Craft Fair & Bake Sale with over 30 artful crafters who continue to help make this an overwhelming success to support our Community Activities. The Bake Sale had three outstanding cakes to raffle off and so many scrumptious baked goods for sale. Our Vendors displayed a beautiful array of hand-crafted treasures from the Santa Candy Bars and ornaments, adorable crochet animals, jewelry galore, hand braded rugs, stained glass treasures, acrylic paintings, decorative cards, button art, beaded artwork, quilted and crochet items, beauty & bath and Yankee Candle items, wonderful handcrafted wooden toys, ribbon wreaths & gift boxes and stunning holiday decor and so much more. We appreciate all who came to shop these beautifully crafted items. Please contact Marcia Manzi if you are interested in being a vendor at our 2025 Craft Fair & Bake Sale. (email: slantmaker@gmail.com)

Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 28, 2024, Cindy Herbert provided a fabulous Thanksgiving Dinner for everyone in Clearwater Cascade. We thank all the volunteers who spent hours preparing all this delectable food and to the Social Club for providing all the wonderful pies. It is always a great opportunity to come together as a community to break bread and give Thanks for all our blessings. There were at least a dozen folks who helped with prep work (peeling potatoes, slicing and dicing onions and celery, and such) on Tuesday morning, then all the folks who roasted over 135 pounds of turkeys, and again to the Social Club for setting up all the tables, another dozen or so folks who cooked all that delicious food Thanksgiving morning, to those who served all those meals, to those who packaged up all the outgoing meals, and to all the angels who helped cleanup all the tables and to Dick Schroeder and Dick Boucher who wash all those pots and pans. And to all who gave such generous donations of $$$ and pantry food items...Thank You all.

As many of you know, Lucy Husser is our new coordinator for Bocce. Please contact her directly if you are interested in playing on a team this year. She's really putting together a great schedule with some dynamic changes. We look forward to new challenges and a wonderful Bocce season.

We eagerly welcome back our seasonal friends and neighbors and wish you all safe travels. Treasure Life & Health,
Jane Boucher, Volunteer Coordinator

LEAGUES

MIXED GOLF

By Dave McManus

We will be playing golf on Tuesdays at Mainlands Golf Course starting in mid- November for the 2024/25 season. Tee off times start at 11:30. We will be posting and a sign-up sheet in the clubhouse close to season start. For details or inquiry contact Dave McManus “david.mcmanus@sympatico.ca” or Mavis Askin, “mavisaskin1949@gmail.com”. This league is a fun social, mixed casual, for men and women, couples or singles of any golfing ability. Foursomes are picked randomly and no commitment for every week. Guests (visitors) are welcome at any time. We have selected "fun" days once a month with post golf picnic and BBQ.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Hello Shuffleboarders,

We hope everyone had a Great Christmas! The new season will be starting on January 9th and 10th. I will be sending everyone on the league a copy of the list of names with what day you play, via your email. Keep an eye out for it.

We are still looking for one more player for Thursday afternoons and 4 players for Friday afternoons. I'm sure we will be making changes as we go. We will teach you how to play, plus you can practice on Wednesday at 10 am at Fun Shuffleboard. Please let us know if you are no longer going to play. The tentative schedules are made.

Can't wait to see all of you on the courts. Remember, if you can't play on your scheduled time, get a sub.

Happy New Year to All
