From The Desk of the HOA President

Thanks to all that came out and enjoyed the street fair. It was nice seeing our neighbors having fun.

The HOA wishes you all a happy and safe Easter.
Thank You, Mike, HOA President

Notes from the Park Manager

We have an ongoing issue with residents putting large items next to the dumpsters. It is NOT the park's responsibility to cover the expense of having YOUR items removed. We have residents in the park that will pick up your items for a small fee. Please contact the office if you need that information.

Management will be checking your mobile home for your updated registration sticker. It should be posted on your front windows and in clear view.

We still have homes that are damaged by the hurricanes. It is your responsibility to have the work done on your home. We do not allow tarps on roofs – carports or sheds. Please update management as to when this work will be completed.

Pets

All Pets must be always on a leash. Please clean up after your pets in the dog park, common areas and your own yards. Pets are not allowed to be chained up outside or left alone in your fenced yard.

Trash Disposal

PLEASE do not put any furniture, appliances, or large items beside dumpster. We do not allow dumpster diving.

New Game in Town!

We changed out the bocce ball court to a mini golf. All the new stuff is in. So come and play the new game!!!

April Birthstone

April Birthstones

Our love for the April birthstone started in India, where diamonds were gathered from the country's rivers and streams. Traded as early as the fourth century BCE, diamonds were coveted by royalty and the wealthy. Later, caravans brought Indian diamonds, along with other exotic merchandise, to medieval markets in Venice. By the 1400s, diamonds were becoming fashionable accessories for Europe's elite. The first diamond engagement ring on record was given by Archduke Maximillian of Austria to his betrothed, Mary of Burgundy, in 1477. Recent evidence supports the origin of the legendary 45.52 carat (ct) blue Hope diamond in India's Golconda mining area and its sale to King Louis XIV of France (then known as the French Blue diamond) in 1668.

In the early 1700s, as India's diamond supplies began to decline, Brazil emerged as an important source. Diamonds were discovered when gold miners sifted through gravels on the banks of the Jequitinhonha River in Minas Gerais. Brazil dominated the diamond market for more than 150 years.

April & Fun Facts & Recipes

1. April is the fourth month of the year and marks the beginning of spring.
2. It was the second month of the year on the Roman calendar until 700 BC.
3. The name "April" comes from the Greek goddess of love, Aphrodite.
4. April is a great month for meteor showers.
5. The word "April" originates from the Latin word "aperire," meaning "to open".

It's true that spring officially starts on the Spring Equinox in March (and believe us, we're not snubbing that extra hour of daylight that arrives with it), but let's be real—April is when it feels like spring really begins, right? As we shed our coats, we also start to change over our dinner habits, swapping heavy dishes for lighter ones (but don't worry, we're not giving up the pastas and creamy chicken dishes just yet)—join us! We've got 40 recipes to help inspire you to make dinner this April—one for every day of the month, and then some.

One of our favorite parts of spring is all the fresh produce that becomes available, like strawberries, asparagus, and mushrooms. We've included a good mix of entirely new recipes featuring the bounty, like our one-pan crispy chicken primavera, our halal-cart style cauliflower bowls, and our blackberry chicken salad, as well as some old classics, like our pasta primavera, our chicken-parm stuffed peppers, and our chicken, spinach, & artichoke lasagna. Use them all as jumping off points, and sub in whatever you can find at your local farmers' market.

Chicken Primavera

Chicken primavera is spring on a plate! When temperatures start to rise and the first seasonal vegetables show up at the market, it's the perfect way to celebrate their fresh flavors. So if you find yourself craving them, along with pasta and chicken, you're in luck—this speedy, one-pot recipe delivers on all of it.

Ingredients

- 2 boneless skinless chicken breasts (1 1/4 to 1 1/2 lb.) lb.) cut into 1-inch cubes
- 2 1/2 tsp. salt, divided
- 2 tsp. ground black pepper, plus more for garnish
- 4 Tbsp. butter, divided
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 16 oz. dried short pasta, such as penne, rotini, or cavatappi
- 1 32-oz. container chicken broth
- 3 carrots, thinly sliced (about 2 cups)
- 2 cups asparagus pieces, about 1-inch long, from 1 bunch (woody stems removed)
- 1 1/2 cups fresh or frozen peas
- 2 cups cherry tomatoes, halved
- 6 garlic cloves, grated
- 1 1/2 cups freshly grated parmesan cheese
- 1 lemon, zested then cut in half
- 1/2 cup chopped fresh basil, plus more for garnish

Directions

1. Season the chicken with 1 1/2 teaspoons of the salt and 1 teaspoon of the pepper. Add 2 tablespoons of the butter and all of the olive oil to a large Dutch oven; heat over medium-high heat.
2. Add the seasoned chicken to the pan. Cook, stirring occasionally, until the chicken is lightly browned all over, about 5 minutes. Use a slotted spoon to transfer the chicken from the pan onto a plate and set aside.
3. Add the pasta to the pan; stir to coat it in the oil mixture. Add the broth and 2 cups of water, and bring to a simmer. Reduce heat to medium or medium low to keep it simmering for 6 minutes, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking.
4. Stir in the carrots, asparagus, and peas. Cover the pot, and let cook until the pasta and vegetables are just tender, about 4 minutes.
5. Uncover the pot. Add the tomatoes, grated garlic, and cooked chicken to the pan. Cook, stirring occasionally, for about 2 minutes to reheat the chicken.
6. Remove from the heat and add the remaining 2 tablespoons butter, parmesan cheese, lemon zest and juice, and the remaining 1 teaspoon each of the salt and pepper; stir to combine.
7. Stir in the basil just before serving. Top each serving with more parmesan and basil, if you like.

No one wants to do shoddy work

Charles Handy tells this story about his friend Richard in Waiting for the mountain to move: Reflections on work and life.

Richard was made head of a decent-sized business. “One of the first things I did,” he told Handy, “was to gather all the work force together. I told them that I was not going to stand for second-class work going out; we had to produce quality, to be the best. I expected grumbles, but instead they almost started to cheer.”

Richard reported the employees said: “You can’t imagine how ashamed we have been in the past of some of the stuff we have sent out these doors, but we were always told that we could not afford to do it better.”

“I’m telling you,” Richard said to the employees, “that we can’t afford not to do it better.”

The employees then told Richard that they needed some new equipment to do the job better, to which Richard replied, “Point taken. But it will take time. Give me some time.”

The moral: Doing your best and giving things time can solve some of even the most difficult problems.

A shave with death

Once, while actor John Barrymore was traveling in the Riviera, he realized he had undertaken the trip without his razor in his bag. Barrymore realized it was Sunday and the barbershops in town would be closed; he had a date to meet with the belle of the neighborhood and consulted frantically with the hotel manager in an attempt to find some way to rid himself of his two-days’ growth of beard.

“Can’t you find somebody in this town who will give me a shave?” he demanded.

Eventually the hotel manager produced a solemn-faced man. “I must ask you to lie flat on your back,” he said.

Barrymore figured it was a custom of the country to lie on your back while being shaved and he complied. The barber’s touch was so light that Barrymore even dozed while the work was being done. As he was paying, Barrymore remarked, “I can’t understand why you made me lie on my back.”

“Pure habit, sir,” the man replied. “This is the first time I ever shaved a live man.” — As retold from Laughter Incorporated, by Cerf Bennett

On breakfast

I went to a restaurant that serves “breakfast at any time.” So I ordered French Toast during the Renaissance.

SOUTHERNAIRE SENTINEL APRIL, 2025 D

Earth Day

Earth Day is celebrated annually on April 22 to demonstrate support for environmental protection. It was first observed in 1970 and has since grown into a global movement involving millions of people in over 190 countries.

Key Aspects of Earth Day

- Origins: The first Earth Day was organized by Senator Gaylord Nelson and activist Denis Hayes as a teach-in to raise awareness about environmental issues in the United States.
- Global Impact: Over the years, Earth Day has expanded globally, mobilizing people to take action on various environmental issues such as climate change, pollution, and deforestation.
- Activities: Common activities include tree planting, clean-up drives, educational events, and advocacy campaigns. Many organizations and communities host events to promote sustainability and environmental stewardship.

Earth Day 2025 Theme

The theme for Earth Day 2025 is “Our Power, Our Planet”, focusing on renewable energy and the goal to triple the global generation of clean electricity by 2030. This theme encourages everyone to take action by educating, advocating, and mobilizing for a sustainable future.
