Park Royale Friends & Neighbors

The Royalites are changing the way you can sign-up and buy your ticket for events in order to streamline the sign-up and ticket purchase process. This new practice will eliminate confusion for everyone and will ensure that we have the proper count of attendees for meal planning purposes for an event that includes a meal.

There will be three (3) Royalite volunteers for each event that you will be able to go to so you can sign-up for an event and purchase your ticket at the same time. The names and location of these three (3) volunteers will be listed on the event sign along with the menu that gets posted on the Clubhouse bulletin board across from the Office window, by the compactor, on the Park Royale Site, and the Royalite Site. You can sign up in the clubhouse and someone will get in touch with you before the event to purchase your tickets The Tuesday before the event.

Look forward to seeing more of you at all the social events.

Kind regards,

The Royalite Social Club Members

Hurricane Recovery Efforts

We are pleased to report that a significant amount of progress has been made in repairing the damage within our community. While the process has been gradual, the initial efforts were swift and effective. This included the prompt removal of tree debris and construction materials, allowing our residents to begin the recovery process for their homes. The clubhouse has undergone extensive repairs, with the roof, interior ceiling tiles, broken windows, and electrical pedestals all being replaced or repaired. Additionally, our new fencing is underway and expected to be completed by the time this newsletter is distributed. Repairs to the shuffleboard court should start April 15th.

As a friendly reminder, we kindly ask that all residents notify the office of their restoration plans by May 1st. Please provide any relevant contracts so that we may accurately track anticipated completion dates in our records.

4 sided Inspections Underway

The four-sided inspection is currently in progress. We would like to express our gratitude to those who utilized the checklist and information provided in the previous newsletter to ensure that everything was prepared accordingly. The inspection process should not be a cause for concern for our homes and lots, as they should always be maintained in impeccable condition. If you did not receive an inspection, it indicates that your home adhered to all community guidelines, and we sincerely appreciate the effort you put in to uphold the standards of Park Royale. Your dedication reflects a sense of pride in ownership and guarantees longevity for your investment. Thank you for contributing to making Park Royale one of the finest communities in the area.

Thank You!!

Veteran's Corner

I would like to share my first experience of Vietnam with our readers, and would hope many Veterans of our Park Royale community, would do the same.

I remember arriving in Vietnam at the Tan Son Nhut US Air Force Base, near Saigon, in September 1968. Many of us (newbies) were scheduled to fly to Camp Enari to join our 4th Division Unit in Pleiku, but were diverted because of horrific monsoon rain storms, to Cam Ranh Bay, a military hospital and rest and relaxation center that was established there.

Sandy beaches overlooking the Bay is where my friend Gabe and I spent our first days, sitting on beach chairs, soaking up the sun, walking bare foot on the beach, and wading through the blue/green warm waters. No one questioned us until day 3, when an Air Force Major asked when we were returning to our unit from R&R? We told the Major of our being diverted. He told us to report to the air field the next morning. So we lined up at the back of the awaiting line to board the plane bound for Pleiku. By the time they reached us, the plane was full. Come back the next morning and do the same. We did. We were at the back of the line. They counted us again, and the plane was full. So, this was a great gig we thought. Day 3 we were placed at the front of the line, and flew to our unit, where a disgruntled First Sergeant told us we were AWOL. I whispered to Gabe "what was he going to do? Send us to NAM?"

We gathered our belongings and served our tour separately in different units. After twenty-five years we were reunited, when our daughters Michelle and Andrea suggested a 25th wedding Anniversary Party for Jane and me. Gabe and his wife attended. We reminisced about our first days in Vietnam. All was good with the world.

April Birthstone

Our love for the April birthstone started in India, where diamonds were gathered from the country's rivers and streams. Traded as early as the fourth century BCE, diamonds were coveted by royalty and the wealthy. Later, caravans brought Indian diamonds, along with other exotic merchandise, to medieval markets in Venice. By the 1400s, diamonds were becoming fashionable accessories for Europe's elite. The first diamond engagement ring on record was given by Archduke Maximillian of Austria to his betrothed, Mary of Burgundy, in 1477. Recent evidence supports the origin of the legendary 45.52 carat (ct) blue Hope diamond in India's Golconda mining area and its sale to King Louis XIV of France (then known as the French Blue diamond) in 1668.

In the early 1700s, as India's diamond supplies began to decline, Brazil emerged as an important source. Diamonds were discovered when gold miners sifted through gravels on the banks of the Jequitinhonha River in Minas Gerais. Brazil dominated the diamond market for more than 150 years.

SCAM ALERT

Romance Scams

www.fbi.gov/how-we-can-help-you/scams-and-safety/common-scams-and-crimes

Romance scams occur when a criminal adopts a fake online identity to gain a victim's affection and trust. The scammer then uses the illusion of a romantic or close relationship to manipulate and/or steal from the victim.

The scammer's intention is to establish a relationship as quickly as possible, endear himself to the victim, and gain trust. Scammers may propose marriage and make plans to meet in person, but that will never happen. Eventually, they will ask for money.

If someone you meet online needs your bank account information to deposit money, they are most likely using your account to carry out other theft and fraud schemes.

Tips for Avoiding Romance Scams:

- Be careful what you post and make public online. Scammers can use details shared on social media and dating sites to better understand and target you.
- Research the person's photo and profile using online searches to see if the image, name, or details have been used elsewhere.
- Go slowly and ask lots of questions.
- Beware if the individual seems too perfect or quickly asks you to leave a dating service or social media site to communicate directly.
- Beware if the individual attempts to isolate you from friends and family or requests inappropriate photos or financial information that could later be used to extort you.
- Beware if the individual promises to meet in person but then always comes up with an excuse why he or she can't. If you haven't met the person after a few months, for whatever reason, you have good reason to be suspicious.
- Never send money to anyone you have only communicated with online or by phone.

April & Fun Facts & Recipes

1. April is the fourth month of the year and marks the beginning of spring.
2. It was the second month of the year on the Roman calendar until 700 BC.
3. The name "April" comes from the Greek goddess of love, Aphrodite.
4. April is a great month for meteor showers.
5. The word "April" originates from the Latin word "aperire," meaning "to open".

It's true that spring officially starts on the Spring Equinox in March (and believe us, we're not snubbing that extra hour of daylight that arrives with it), but let's be real—April is when it feels like spring really begins, right? As we shed our coats, we also start to change over our dinner habits, swapping heavy dishes for lighter ones (but don't worry, we're not giving up the pastas and creamy chicken dishes just yet)—join us! We've got 40 recipes to help inspire you to make dinner this April—one for every day of the month, and then some.

One of our favorite parts of spring is all the fresh produce that becomes available, like strawberries, asparagus, and mushrooms. We've included a good mix of entirely new recipes featuring the bounty, like our one-pan crispy chicken primavera, our halal-cart style cauliflower bowls, and our blackberry chicken salad, as well as some old classics, like our pasta primavera, our chicken-parm stuffed peppers, and our chicken, spinach, & artichoke lasagna. Use them all as jumping off points, and sub in whatever you can find at your local farmers' market.

We're also taking inspiration from the season, and you know what they say—April showers bring May flowers...they also bring a major need for cozy soups and stews to ward off the last of the chilly days till fall. Check out our one-pan Greek chicken chili, our one-pot shrimp & potato soup, and our matzo ball soup (perfect for Passover too!) to keep you comfortable while you wait for the sun to come out for good.

Chicken primavera is spring on a plate! When temperatures start to rise and the first seasonal vegetables show up at the market, it's the perfect way to celebrate their fresh flavors. So if you find yourself craving them, along with pasta and chicken, you're in luck—this speedy, one-pot recipe delivers on all of it.

Chicken Primavera

Ingredients

- 2 boneless skinless chicken breasts (1 1/4 to 1 1/2 lb.) lb.) cut into 1-inch cubes
- 2 1/2 tsp. salt, divided
- 2 tsp. ground black pepper, plus more for garnish
- 4 Tbsp. butter, divided
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 16 oz. dried short pasta, such as penne, rotini, or cavatappi
- 1 32-oz. container chicken broth
- 3 carrots, thinly sliced (about 2 cups)
- 2 cups asparagus pieces, about 1-inch long, from 1 bunch (woody stems removed)
- 1 1/2 cups fresh or frozen peas
- 2 cups cherry tomatoes, halved
- 6 garlic cloves, grated
- 1 1/2 cups freshly grated parmesan cheese
- 1 lemon, zested then cut in half
- 1/2 cup chopped fresh basil, plus more for garnish

Directions

1. Season the chicken with 1 1/2 teaspoons of the salt and 1 teaspoon of the pepper. Add 2 tablespoons of the butter and all of the olive oil to a large Dutch oven; heat over medium-high heat.
2. Add the seasoned chicken to the pan. Cook, stirring occasionally, until the chicken is lightly browned all over, about 5 minutes. Use a slotted spoon to transfer the chicken from the pan onto a plate and set aside.
3. Add the pasta to the pan; stir to coat it in the oil mixture. Add the broth and 2 cups of water, and bring to a simmer. Reduce heat to medium or medium low to keep it simmering for 6 minutes, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking.
4. Stir in the carrots, asparagus, and peas. Cover the pot, and let cook until the pasta and vegetables are just tender, about 4 minutes.
5. Uncover the pot. Add the tomatoes, grated garlic, and cooked chicken to the pan. Cook, stirring occasionally, for about 2 minutes to reheat the chicken.
6. Remove from the heat and add the remaining 2 tablespoons butter, parmesan cheese, lemon zest and juice, and the remaining 1 teaspoon each of the salt and pepper; stir to combine.
7. Stir in the basil just before serving. Top each serving with more parmesan and basil, if you like
