MESSAGE FROM OUR HOA PRESIDENT

Good day everyone!

May is here and we've had beautiful weather!

Pressure washing of sidewalks around the clubhouse, and laundry areas will be starting soon.

Additionally, the back gate has been chain locked but will be blocked in soon.

If you need help with your inspection list, please contact the HOA. We have a few people that are willing to help.

Have a great April!

We will be better
Respectfully,
Cheryl "CC" Doty

JOKE

Why did the tomato turn red?
Because it saw the salad dressing!

DID YOU KNOW

MOTHER'S DAY

The history of Mother's Day begins with the courage and innovated idea of Anna Maria Jarvis.

It ends with the determination of her daughter Anna Jarvis.

Anna Maria Jarvis (1832-1905) born and raised more than a dozen children, many of which died from diphtheria and measles prevalent at that time. She organized "mother's work clubs" to improve local environmental projects teaching mothers the necessity of good hygiene.

When Civil war broke out, Anna Maria organized a "Mother's Friendship Day" to "bring families from both sides of the war together to try to restore a sense of community." She believed that women-especially mothers-were best suited to bring people together with a goal of peace.

Upon Anna Maria's death, her daughter Anna Jarvis (1864-1948) became instrumental in establishing a national Mother's Day in honor of her mother. Anna chose "white coronations as an emblem and urged people to write heartfelt letters of gratitude to their mothers". President Wilson proclaimed Mother's Day just before World

Anna Jarvis "died penniless in a sanatorium where her bills were paid by the same greeting companies and florists she despised."

We celebrate Mother's Day the second Sunday of May. The day can be sad or happy depending upon the circumstances. However, memories live on forever! We can appreciate the blessing of being born to live and enjoy life, thanks to our mothers. Happy Mother's day to all you mothers here at Shangri La. War One in 1914.

Anna Jarvis did not approved of the pre-printed mother's day cards. To her they became "a crass holiday benefiting florists and greeting card companies."

May Day, celebrated on May 1st, is a holiday with ancient origins that marks the beginning of summer in many cultures. It is traditionally associated with various festivities, including dancing around the maypole, crowning a May Queen, and gathering flowers and greenery.

Historically, May Day has roots in agricultural celebrations and was a time to celebrate the sprouting of sown fields and the return of spring. In medieval Europe, it was also linked to the Gaelic festival of Beltane, which involved large bonfires and nighttime dancing.

In addition to these springtime traditions, May Day is also recognized as International Workers' Day in many countries, commemorating the struggles and achievements of the labor movement

Source:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/May_Day

<https://www.almanac.com/content/what-may-day>

<https://www.britannica.com/topic/May-Day-international-observance>

Here are some notable May Day traditions:

1. Dancing Around the Maypole: In many European countries, including the UK and Germany, people celebrate by dancing around a maypole decorated with ribbons and flowers.
2. Crowning the May Queen: A young girl is chosen to be the May Queen and is crowned with flowers. This tradition is common in the UK and parts of Europe.
3. May Baskets: In the United States, it's traditional to make small baskets filled with flowers or sweets and leave them anonymously on neighbors' doorsteps.
4. Beltane Fires: In Ireland and Scotland, May Day coincides with the ancient festival of Beltane, which involves lighting bonfires to mark the beginning of summer.
5. Flower Wreaths: In Greece, people create and wear flower wreaths to celebrate the arrival of spring.
6. Labor Day Celebrations: In many countries, May Day is also International Workers' Day, marked by parades, demonstrations, and events honoring workers' rights and achievements.
7. Lei Day: In Hawaii, May Day is celebrated as Lei Day, where people make and exchange leis (flower garlands) to celebrate Hawaiian culture.

These diverse traditions highlight the rich cultural significance of May Day around the world.

Cinco de Mayo

Cinco de Mayo, or the Fifth of May, is a celebration held on May 5th each year. It commemorates the Mexican army's victory over the French forces at the Battle of Puebla on May 5, 1862. This victory was significant because the Mexican forces were vastly outnumbered and less equipped, yet they managed to defeat a powerful European army.

While Cinco de Mayo is a relatively minor holiday in Mexico, primarily celebrated in the state of Puebla, it has become a much larger celebration in the United States. In the U.S., it is often seen as a day to celebrate Mexican culture and heritage, especially in areas with large Mexican-American populations. Festivities typically include parades, music, dancing, traditional foods, and events highlighting Mexican traditions.

Here are some popular dishes for Cinco de Mayo:

1. Tacos: Soft or crispy tortillas filled with meats, beans, cheese, and various toppings.
2. Enchiladas: Tortillas rolled around a filling and covered with a savory sauce.
3. Guacamole: A creamy dip made from avocados, lime, onions, tomatoes, and cilantro.
4. Tamales: Masa (corn dough) filled with meats, cheeses, or chilies, wrapped in corn husks, and steamed.
5. Chiles Rellenos: Poblano peppers stuffed with cheese or meat, then battered and fried.
6. Quesadillas: Tortillas filled with cheese and other ingredients, then grilled or fried.
7. Pozole: A hearty soup made with hominy, meat (usually pork), and seasoned with chili peppers and other spices.
8. Mole Poblano: A rich, dark sauce made with chocolate, chili peppers, and spices, typically served over chicken.
9. Sopes: Thick corn tortillas topped with beans, meat, cheese, lettuce, and salsa.
10. Horchata: A sweet, creamy beverage made from rice, milk, vanilla, and cinnamon.

*Why did the tortilla chip start dancing?
Because it heard the salsa!*

*What do you call a day when you eat too many tacos?
Taco 'bout a fiesta!*

Mother's Day

Mother's Day is a special occasion celebrated to honor and appreciate mothers and mother figures for their love, care, and contributions. It is observed on different dates around the world, but many countries, including the United States, celebrate it on the second Sunday in May.

The modern Mother's Day was first celebrated in the early 20th century, largely due to the efforts of Anna Jarvis, who wanted to honor her own mother and all mothers for their sacrifices. The day is often marked by giving gifts, cards, flowers, and spending quality time with mothers.

Here are some thoughtful gift ideas for Mother's Day:

1. Personalized Jewelry: A necklace or bracelet with her initials, name, or a special date engraved.
2. Spa Day: Treat her to a relaxing day at a spa or a gift basket with spa essentials for an at-home experience.
3. Custom Photo Book: Create a photo book filled with cherished memories and family photos.
4. Cooking or Baking Class: If she loves to cook or bake, a class can be a fun and enriching experience.
5. Subscription Box: There are many options, from beauty products to gourmet foods, that can be tailored to her interests.
6. Handwritten Letter: A heartfelt letter expressing your love and appreciation can be incredibly meaningful.
7. Plants or Flowers: A beautiful bouquet or a potted plant that she can nurture and enjoy.
8. Tech Gadgets: If she's into technology, consider a new tablet, e-reader, or smart home device.
9. Books: A collection of books by her favorite author or in a genre she loves.
10. Handmade Crafts: Something made by you, like a knitted scarf or a piece of artwork, adds a personal touch.

The golden rule of the home

If you want one gold rule that will fit everybody, this is it: Have nothing in your houses that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day is a federal holiday in the United States, observed on the last Monday of May. It honors and remembers the men and women who have died while serving in the U.S. military. Originally known as Decoration Day, it began after the Civil War to commemorate fallen soldiers by decorating their graves with flowers.

Today, Memorial Day is marked by various activities, including parades, ceremonies, and moments of remembrance. Many people visit cemeteries and memorials to pay their respects. It's also considered the unofficial start of summer, with many families enjoying barbecues, picnics, and outdoor activities.

In Englewood, Florida, you can attend the Memorial Day Wreath Laying Ceremony at Gulf Pines Memorial Park, which includes a 21-gun salute and a special guest speaker.

There are also various events and activities throughout Florida, such as concerts, festivals, and fireworks

2. Barbecue Ribs: Slow-cooked and smothered in tangy barbecue sauce.
3. Grilled Chicken: Marinated and grilled, often with a smoky or spicy rub.
4. Potato Salad: A creamy, tangy side dish made with potatoes, mayonnaise, mustard, and various add-ins like eggs and pickles.
5. Coleslaw: A refreshing salad made from shredded cabbage and carrots, dressed in a tangy or creamy sauce.
6. Corn on the Cob: Grilled or boiled, often served with butter and a sprinkle of salt.
7. Baked Beans: Slow-cooked beans in a sweet and savory sauce.
8. Watermelon: A juicy and refreshing fruit that's perfect for hot weather.
