FROM THE PRESIDENT

By Barry Porter

The biggest challenge we dealt with this past month has been the changeover in our management company.

Our new company will start officially on May 1st. The Company is PMI (Professional Management Inc.).

Joel Sauter and Ron Novack, our Maintenance staff will be moving over to the new company and will continue in their current roles. Park Patrol staff will also be moving over to the new company.

The decision to change management firms came as a result of Bobbi Gumm's resignation. RPM could not supply us with a new CAM and we had to begin looking for a firm that could.

Our long-term relationship with RPM has been beneficial to both companies and we are thankful for the years working together.

Special thanks to our Social Club for the great season they gave us this year, closing out with the ice cream social. We all look forward to a great season again next year!

The major pool repair has finally started. The repair should take approximately six to eight weeks.

The Spa is being resurfaced at the same time as the pool repair. This will be paid for from our Reserve fund.

Safe travels to those heading north.

FROM THE EDITOR

By Donna Collins

Okay, I admit it. The coded saying was a complete failure. The “coded” letters were too small, some were in twice, and some not at all. Also, I realized that sometimes the publisher moves things around so to fit the space. So, I apologize if you went a bit cross-eyed trying to find them. I did. The saying was “April showers bring May flowers.”

As I write this, I am watching the snowflakes dancing in the air. Needless to say, that I am missing getting out to ride my bike, visit friends, play bingo, and doing many of the things that I can do at Clearwater Cascade that I can’t do at home. The up-side is that I see our daughters, son-in-law and two wonderful grandchildren. No matter where you are this summer, have a wonderful time and hope I will see you in the fall.

In the meantime, I would like to ask you to think about being the editor of the Chronicle starting possibility in February, 2026. It is not a time-consuming job except for the few days leading up to the deadlines which are generally the middle of the month except for December, which is around the 7th of the month.

Every editor puts their own stamp on the contents. I have seldom written articles of my own as I feel that it is better to request someone more knowledgeable on a particular subject to write something. I tend to try and put in thoughts, games, etc. and I am sure that I have driven Clayton, the publisher, crazy with pictures, supposed to be kept to six. Don and I are not sure how much longer we will be coming south but it will be sooner than later and I would like to leave it in good hands. I am available to speak with you any time through e-mail: collinsdonna12@gmail.com, text at 905-869-4264 or our landline at home: 905-336-2676

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

By Maddy Haber & Debbie Creighton

Our 4th Fla-Ming Cha-Ching was held March 22nd. What a fun time! One highlight was a visit from Fla-Ming and Cha-Ching (Louise Parker and Rachael Long)! Oh my, “real” flamingos.

The Committee listened to suggestions made by residents, and shortened the time spent in the hot sun. We think the format worked better for all of us. Thirty flamingos were pulled out of the pool by our Fla-Mermaid (Ann Vetter), and they were winners. A new game, “Lucky Duck Draw” with sparkly mini ducks, was introduced and went over very well (ducks donated by Cindy Olson). We will do that again next year. Table prizes were won by twelve lucky winners. The baskets donated were “over the top”! How awesome and we can’t thank you enough for all of your generosity. Below are the names of those who donated baskets:

Ann and Mark Vetter (Thanks for Popping In)

Lucy and Dave Husser (Ring of Fortune)

Peggy and Richard Wolfe (Vacation Vibes)

DeeAnne Brennan (Shop till you Drop and Eat till you Pop)

Joyce Dove, Joan Hearn, Kathy Gibbs (Margarita Fiesta)

Mary Ann White and Keith Mosier (Bunny Business)

Cascade Social Club (Live, Love, and be Happy)

Sue Malloy (A Taste of Italy)

Marcia Manzi (Oh My, Cherry Pie)

Deb Lapointe (Chocolate Cake me Away)

Philomena Smith, Deb Creighton, Maddy Haber (We Hope you Win a Lotto)

Deb Zanolli, Rachael Long, Brooke Lester, Jean Bishop (Bake me Happy w/Fruitful Vibes)

Did you see the quilt that was donated by Shirley Pardy? BEAUTIFUL and so appropriate for the occasion. We can’t thank you enough Shirley. By the way, the quilt was won by Mary Ann White who couldn’t be happier.

The Community Activities Committee thanks everyone who attended, participated in, and worked at our fund raiser. We couldn’t do it without you. All proceeds from our fund raisers go back to the Community.

WORD SANDWICH

Find the one word that can form a word or phrase by adding it either before OR after the words/phrases listed. For example, the word “wheel” added before “barrow” forms “wheelbarrow” and the word “cartwheel” when added after “cart.”

VOLUNTEERS

By Jane Boucher

Ongoing weekly happenings: Euchre Mondays, Bingo and Cribbage on Tuesdays, Spades on Wednesdays, Bunco on Thursdays, Mondays-Wednesdays-Fridays Water Aerobics.

Dick & Tracey Schroeder go out of their way to honor our Veterans. While at a flea market in Oldsmar they came across some beautiful plaques for each branch of our Armed Services and bought them for our Park. Dick Schroeder did a wonderful job hanging them in our Clubhouse. Thank you, Dick and Tracey, for such a beautiful tribute to our Veterans.

Mark your calendars for Monday, May 26, 2025 for our Memorial Day potluck dinner at 5:00 PM in our Clubhouse, hosted by the Clearwater Cascade Veterans' Group. Bring your favorite dish, side dish, or dessert to share and please remember to bring your own plate, silverware and beverage of choice. It's another great time to get to know your neighbors and to honor those who have served to keep us safe and free...from serving in the Armed Services or any emergency entity. Sign-up sheets will be posted in both Mail Rooms. Or you can respond to the posting on the Clearwater Facebook page.

The Annual Craft Fair & Bake Sale is set for Saturday, November 15, 2025, to be held in our Clubhouse from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. The Bake Sale is coordinated by Maddy Haber and Debbie Creighton and they look forward to your delectable donations to the Bake Sale, give them a call and let them know what you will be contributing.

The Craft Fair is being coordinated by Jane Boucher, so if you are interested in being one of our vendors, please contact Jane soon because almost everyone who participated last year

Thank you to the Social Club for another fun end-of-season picnic and ice cream social. It's the perfect time for us all to get together to say farewell and safe travels to all our seasonal neighbors, and a great time to get to know our new neighbors.

Our own April Loomis just released her first published book. You can find it on Amazon, A Piece of Me by April Tantalio Loomis. It's a heartwarming story and a delightful read.

Thank you to the Board of Directors for taking action to replace the flag pole at our entrance so once again we can fly the Canadian flag to honor our Canadian residents.

We will soon be changing over to a new management company and want to thank Resource Management for providing reliable and dependable service to our community since 2006. When Bobbi Gumm gave her notice, Resource Management could not find a replacement and could only offer a CAM for 2-3 days a week. Our Board has found another management company that will provide us with a CAM (at their corporate office), a Senior Administrative Assistant and an Administrative Assistant (both on-site) to support our community which will offer more managerial support for a considerable savings. We look forward to welcoming Property Management Inc. (PMI) to Clearwater Cascade beginning May 1, 2025.

Thank you and enjoy our wonderful Florida sunshine and all the ongoing events happening in our beautiful community. And a special thank you to Donna and Karl Miller for their admirable dedication and determination to keep our park landscaping so beautiful.

PAST EVENTS

Many activities took place in March. The St. Patrick's Day dinner/Dance was a huge success as these Leaping Leprechaun Line Dancers can tell you.

This year's Fla-Ming-Cha-Fling event has expanded with a raffle for a beautiful flamingo quilt made by Shirley Parady. The flamingo cake certainly looks yummy, the baby Ducks were under the watchful eye of Mama Duck, and of course, the baby flamingos were watched by their mama as they were picked out of the pool.

Leagues

SHUFFLEBOARD

Hi Everyone,
League Shuffleboard Playoffs were held on March 19th. 16 people were playing to get their name posted on the championship sign. Congratulations go out to our winners:
Jim Hayward and Pat Jobe

The yearend Sports Banquet Luncheon took place on March 21. Approximately 80 people were in attendance. The desserts were wonderful, thanks to all that donated.

As always, we will be looking for new players for the 2026 Season. Please email us at cwcshuffleboard@yahoo.com.

If you played this year and will be playing next year there is no need to email. If you never played before, we will teach you.

Have a great summer!
